13 (c) Notification.--By December 15 of the calendar year

17 approved by the department.

18 Section 1704-J. Carryover, carryback, refund and assignment of 19 credit.

20 (a) Credit.--If the taxpayer cannot use the entire amount of 21 the tax credit for the taxable year in which the tax credit is 22 first approved, the excess may be carried over to succeeding 23 taxable years and used as a credit against the qualified tax 24 liability of the taxpayer for those taxable years. Each time the 25 tax credit is carried over to a succeeding taxable year, it is 26 to be reduced by the amount that was used as a credit during the 27 immediately preceding taxable year. The tax credit may be 12 after December 31, 2022.

13 Section 1706-J. Limitation on credits.

14 (a) Total.--The total amount of tax credits approved by the 15 department shall not exceed $20,000,000 in any fiscal year. Of 16 that amount, $5,000,000 shall be allocated exclusively for small 17 businesses. If the total amounts allocated to either the group 18 of applicants, exclusive of small businesses, or the group of 19 small business applicants is not approved in any fiscal year, 20 the unused portion shall become available for use by the other 21 group of qualifying taxpayers.

22 (b) Proration among all applicants.--If the total amount of 23 tax credits applied for by all applicants, exclusive of small 24 businesses, exceeds the amount allocated for those credits, then 25 the tax credit to be received by each applicant shall be 26 prorated by the department among all applicants, exclusive of 27 small businesses, who have qualified for the credit.

28 (c) Proration among small business applicants.--If the total 29 amount of tax credits applied for by all small businesses 30 exceeds the amount allocated for those credits, then the tax credit to be received by each small business applicant shall be prorated by the department among all small business applicants who have qualified for the credit.

Section 1707-J. Shareholder, owner or member pass-through.

(a) Pennsylvania S corporation shareholder.--If a Pennsylvania S corporation does not have an eligible tax liability against which the tax credit may be applied, a shareholder of the Pennsylvania S corporation shall be entitled to a tax credit equal to the tax credit determined for the Pennsylvania S corporation for the taxable year multiplied by the percentage of the Pennsylvania S corporation's distributive income to which the shareholder is entitled.

(b) Pass-through entity owner or member.--If a pass-through entity other than a Pennsylvania S corporation does not have an eligible tax liability against which the tax credit may be applied, an owner or member of the pass-through entity is entitled to a tax credit equal to the tax credit determined for the pass-through entity for the taxable year multiplied by the percentage of the pass-through entity's distributive income to which the owner or member is entitled.

(c) Additional credit.--The credit provided under subsection (a) or (b) shall be in addition to any tax credit to which a shareholder, owner or member of a pass-through entity is otherwise entitled under this article, except that a pass-through entity and a shareholder, owner or member of a pass-through entity may not claim a credit under this article for the same long-term care insurance expense.

Section 1708-J. Report to General Assembly.

The secretary shall submit an annual report to the General Assembly indicating the effectiveness of the credit provided by this article no later than March 15 following the year in which all taxpayers utilizing the credit as of the date of the report and the amount of credits approved and utilized by each taxpayer. Notwithstanding any law providing for the confidentiality of tax records, the information contained in the report shall be public information. The report may also include
