DESCRIPTION

House Bill 1829 amends the Child Labor Act to make changes to the process by which minors sign work permits.

This bill removes the requirement that a minor must sign a work permit in the presence of the issuing officer. It also allows for the issuing officer to allow the minor to appear via electronic means. The current requirement is to appear in-person.

FISCAL IMPACT:

House Bill 1829 will have no fiscal impact on Commonwealth or school district funds.
