SUMMARY: Senate Bill 484, Printer's Number 500, amends the Pennsylvania Long-term Care Council Act to add a member to the council. This legislation is effective in 60 days.

ANALYSIS: SB 484 adds the chair of the State Veteran's Commission, or a designee, to the membership of the Long-Term Care Council.

FISCAL IMPACT: Under current law, only nongovernmental members of the Long-Term Care Council may be reimbursed for travel and actual expenses related to their duties on the council. If the chair of the State Veteran's Commission or designee is a nongovernmental member, there may be a de minimis increase in reimbursement costs, which can be accommodated within the Department of Aging's General Government Operations appropriation.
