

Resolved, That one copy of this resolution be forwarded to each of the following:

The President of the United States, Franklin D. Roosevelt.
 Vice-President, Henry A. Wallace, President of the United States Senate.
 Speaker Rayburn, House of Representatives.
 Senator Joseph Guffey.
 Senator James P. Davis.
 All members of the House delegation from Pennsylvania.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Monday, January 27, 1941 at 4:00 o'clock p. m.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 10:11 o'clock, p. m. until Monday, January 27, 1941 at 4:00 o'clock, p. m.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, JANUARY 13, 1941.

The House met at 9 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Elmer Kilroy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas George Baxter offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Thou Who art a Spirit, infinite, eternal, and unchangeable in Thy wisdom, power, justice, mercy, goodness, and truth, breathe on us that we may partake of Thy nature, that out of Thy holy and righteous personality each of us may be endowed with good thought, wise words, courageous acts, and brave deeds.

May petty partisanship give place to genuine patriotism, may religious bigotry and sanctimonious sectarian pride make way for a world wide brotherhood.

Enlarge the range of our understanding, and give to us a deep concern for the things which are related to the welfare of our state and nation. May Thy will be wrought in human laws, human institutions, and especially in human lives.

Do Thou direct our President with great favor and wisdom, and our Congress with a knowledge of things divine that our fair land and our Christian order may not be thrown back into the savagery and barbarism of the dark ages of heathenism.

O Lord, abide with and unfold to the Governor of this Commonwealth Thy will and give him grace to be steadfast as a righteous ruler. Do Thou direct and bless the members of this House, that they may honor their constituencies which have so signally honored them.

O Lord, Thou Prince of Peace, grant to us a national peace, based on Thy Holy Revelation to us. To this end help us to know Thy word in its entirety. To know that the same inspired word which commands Thy people to beat their swords into plowshares also commands them to beat their plowshares into swords, and the same word of God declares there is a time to heal and a time to kill; a time to love and a time to hate; a time for war and a time for peace. God forbid that our love of peace shall ever make us spineless subjectees of a God-hating proletarian idealism. Save us, O God, from the easy chair of the heresy "of peace at any price" that we may stand for God and country as we have it in American Democracy. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Tuesday, January 7, 1941.

OATH ADMINISTERED TO EMPLOYEES

The SPEAKER. The oath of office will now be administered to the employees appointed. The employees whose names have been read will present themselves at the Bar of the House.

The oath of office was then administered by the Speaker to the employees who presented themselves at the Bar of the House.

The SPEAKER. The employees will assemble in the House Caucus Room for further instructions by the Chief Clerk.

USE OF HALL OF HOUSE GRANTED

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask the consent of the House to grant the use of the House to the Pennsylvania State School Directors' Association for Friday afternoon, February 7th, at 3:30 p. m.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GATES asked and obtained permission to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I understand it is the wish of those in control of this House to adjourn after tonight's session until January 27, and I arise to oppose said adjournment until we have carried out a pledge made by both major parties. I know His Excellency Governor James made the statement that he would do everything in his power to see that every deserving person in this State would receive food, clothing and shelter, and I believe he was sincere when he made this statement. However, gentlemen, unless something is done on or before January 27, twelve thousand deserving women, now working on sewing projects, will be unjustly thrown out of employment, many of them widows without any other means of support. Many of them mothers who gave their sons in the last world crisis that we might live.

I, of course, am aware of the committee appointed pursuant to a resolution adopted by this House last week to make an investigation as to who was correct regarding W. P. A. grants, our Governor or Col. Matthews, but my friends I am not concerned just now as to who is right or who is wrong. I am and I know you are, concerned about these unfortunate women of our State. Our Federal Government contemplates spending twenty-five billion dollars for defense, and rightly so, but yet some one will quibble about a few paltry dollars when the welfare of twelve thousand women is at stake.

I call upon you Mr. Speaker to keep this House in session until we have solved this humanitarian problem.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SHAW asked and obtained permission to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in reply to the statement of the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Gates, I wish to assure this House that the committee appointed on Tuesday morning has been working almost day and night in an effort to solve this problem. We feel very definitely that considerable progress has been made. We are not able to submit a report at this time, but we have every confidence that we will be able to bring the two sides together in an amicable agreement.

INTERROGATION

Mr. GATES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Shaw.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAW. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GATES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know from the gentleman from Allegheny whether, in his opinion, a settlement will be made on or before January 27th, when these women will be thrown out of employment.

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the interrogation, I will repeat what I said in my statement a minute ago, that I have every confidence that we shall reach an amicable arrangement that will permit the sewing project to be continued.

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

Mr. RUSH offered the following privileged resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted:

In the House of Representatives, January 13, 1941.

Colonel James A. G. Campbell prominent civic leader in the City of Chester and Delaware County for many years, has passed away at the age of 82 years. He was born in Chester, February 19, 1858, and was educated in the public schools of that city. At the age of 16 he began his public career as bookkeeper, and hereafter became President and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Delaware Trust Company.

Colonel Campbell was active in the Chester Hospital Board of Managers, Chester Rotary, the American Red Cross, Associated Charities, Welfare Federation, Boy Scouts, the J. Lewis Crozer Library, Spanish American War Veterans and Disabled Veterans Association for which a camp was named in his honor.

Colonel Campbell possessed a quality of leadership equalled by but few men in the events of the Commonwealth.

Resolved, That the Members of the House express their sincere sympathy to the members of the family of Colonel James A. G. Campbell in their bereavement, and that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to: Mrs. Elizabeth Mowry Campbell, his widow, Mrs. Margaret C. Sweney, his daughter, wife of assistant district attorney Sweney, James A. G. Campbell, Jr., his son, and Miss Fannie Campbell, his sister, by the Chief Clerk of this House.

COMMITTEE ON RULES

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time appoints the following Committee on Rules: Messrs. Achterman, Chairman, Gerard, Readinger, Lovett and Melchiorre.

RESOLUTION

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, in connection with the report of the Committee on Committees, I wish to make this announcement that the prepared copies for the use of the members are not completed at the moment, but they will be placed in the boxes in the post office. Likewise copies will be sent to the press.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The members are now privileged to introduce bills by sending them to the Clerk's desk at the Speaker's left, signed and dated as of today. Three blue backed copies must be sent to the desk. The copy not bound is for your personal files.

If there is no objection the Chair will refer after adjournment the bills introduced this evening to the various Committees so that they can be printed and made available to the Committees.

Personal identification cards for each member are now in the Speaker's office.

The members of the Committee on Inter-State Cooperation are requested to meet in the Speaker's office immediately after adjournment.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. O'NEILL. HOUSE BILL No. 1.

An Act to further amend paragraphs six and nineteen, and to eliminate paragraph seven, of section twelve hundred ten of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith, "fixing the minimum annual salary and increments of members of the teaching and supervisory staff in school districts of the fourth class; increasing the percentage of state-aid for all districts; and providing additional state-aid through an equalization fund created by this act to be maintained from state appropriations.

Referred to the Committee on Education.

By Mr. MORAN. HOUSE BILL No. 2.

An Act authorizing cities, boroughs, towns and townships to construct, acquire, own, operate, control, sell and lease facilities for the production, generation, transmission, distribution or furnishing of natural or artificial gas, electricity, steam or water, or the collection, disposition or treatment of sewage and to furnish or render such services to the public within or beyond their corporate limits, or both; conferring the power of eminent domain, conferring certain powers and imposing certain duties on such municipalities, and the controller or auditors thereof, providing for and authorizing the incorporation and election of a board of directors to operate and manage such works and defining its powers and duties, conferring certain powers and imposing certain duties on the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, and prescribing penalties.

Referred to the Committee on Public Utilities.

By Mr. COOPER. HOUSE BILL No. 3.

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight (P. L. 73), entitled "An act to authorize the recorder of deeds in the several counties of this Commonwealth to record the discharges of all honorably discharged officers and soldiers," extending the same to discharges of honorably discharged members of the Civilian Conservation Corps; and increasing the fee payable by the county therefor.

Referred to the Committee on Counties.

By Mr. COOPER. HOUSE BILL No. 4.

An Act to add section one hundred twelve to the act approved the fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 364), entitled "An act relating to business corporations; defining and providing for the organization, merger, consolidation, reorganization, winding up and dissolution of such corporations; conferring certain rights, powers, duties and immunities upon them and their officers and shareholders; prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers; providing for the inclusion of certain existing corporations of the second class within the provisions of this act; prescribing the terms and conditions upon which foreign business corporations may be admitted, or may continue, to do business within the Commonwealth; conferring powers and imposing duties on the courts of common pleas, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; authorizing certain State departments, boards, commissions, or officers to collect fees for services required to be rendered by this act; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to corporations" by requiring the recording of all certificates of incorporation and copies of articles attached thereto, heretofore or hereafter issued under the provisions of said act; and prescribing penalties; to be collected by the Department of Justice.

Referred to the Committee on Corporation and Industry.

By Mr. FLEMING.

HOUSE BILL No. 5.

An Act authorizing all counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships and institution districts, to place their respective officers and employes in the State Employees' Retirement Association; prescribing the procedure to be followed; and authorizing a special tax to pay the expenses incident thereto; placing certain duties upon the State Treasurer, and the fiscal officers of the said municipal units; prohibiting the future establishment of local pension or retirement systems; and providing in certain cases for the discontinuance of existing ones.
