

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, June 12, 1941

The House met at 10 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Elmer Kilroy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Donald McFall offered the following prayer:

Spirit of the Living God, fall fresh on us this day. Teach us, we pray Thee, that vengeance does not belong to man, but to Thee. Help us to see in these bitter days of suffering, when the love of the Man of Galilee is mocked in the utter disregard of human life, that more than ever it is our duty to bear witness to Him who is the world's hope and the world's peace.

Open Thou our eyes to the Light that in earth's darkest hours never has gone out. May we recall to mind how in every age Thy ear has never been closed to the voice of man nor Thy arm shortened when man asked deliverance.

We pray too that we might have a proper sense of our reliance upon Thee, O God, our Father. Hear our humble prayer, we beseech Thee. Amen.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his question of information.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know from the number of leaves of absence that have been asked for, would it be possible to hold a session tomorrow?

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not know. The Chair will inquire how many leaves of absence have been granted. Thirty-five members have asked for and been granted leaves of absence.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I have heard various members speak of polling the House. I rather imagine it would be a good idea to have the Clerk read the appropriate rule of the House to instruct us all as to the proper method. I feel that having such a motion made, we all ought to have our memories refreshed on it and I ask that the Speaker instruct the Clerk to read the appropriate rule relative to the polling of the House.

The SPEAKER. House Rule 9 is as follows:

"A majority of all the members shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members as required by the Constitution."

The Chair will also read Rule 11:

"If, at any time during the session of the House, a question shall be raised by a member as to the presence of a quorum, and it shall be shown that a quorum is not present it shall be the duty of the Speaker to announce the result of the roll call and note the absentees, after which the absentees shall be again called, and those for whose absence no excuse or insufficient excuse is made, may by order of a majority of the members present, be sent for and taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms."

The Chair will also read Rule 12:

"While the House is under a call, only members and officers of the House shall be admitted, and no member shall be permitted to leave the House, unless by a majority vote of the members present."

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the reading of the rules about absentees reminds me very much of the story about the preacher preaching to his congregation about the people who do not come to church.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the Speaker for informing the Members of the House. I hope it will not be necessary for us to use the information which the Speaker has just imparted to us.

RESOLUTION

INVESTIGATION OF STATE POLICE

Mr. HEATHERINGTON offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent that it be read.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1941.

Whereas, On March 28, 1940, Rachel Taylor, a young woman student at the Pennsylvania State College, was attacked and murdered in the vicinity of State College; and

Whereas, In spite of more than a year's continuous investigation by the Pennsylvania Motor Police and by local authorities, the perpetrator or perpetrators of this brutal crime have not yet been apprehended; and

Whereas, Within the past year a dozen or more women, in or about the borough of State College, have been attacked by an unknown assailant or assailants, possibly the same who committed the murder of Rachel Taylor; and

Whereas, An attack upon a woman, in State College, was made as recently as two days ago; and

Whereas, The immediate apprehension of the person or persons responsible for these crimes is absolutely essential for the protection and safety of women residing in State College and vicinity; and

Whereas, The failure to apprehend the person or persons guilty of these attacks may well render many parents unwilling to have their daughters attend the Pennsylvania State College, at State College; and

Whereas, It would seem that the perpetration of as many as a dozen different attacks upon women, in a comparatively small community within a short period of time, should afford a sufficient clue as to the identity of the person or persons involved, so that the Pennsylvania Motor Police could solve one or all of these crimes; and

Whereas, Colonel Lynn G. Adams, Commissioner of the Pennsylvania Motor Police, has journeyed to State College on various occasions and has assumed personal supervision of the investigation into these crimes; and

Whereas, The complete failure of the officials, under his supervision, to solve even one of this series of attacks, together with the fact the Senate of this General Assembly has refused to confirm his appointment as Commissioner, would seem to indicate that the initiative, ability and persistence of Colonel Adams as a police officer and particularly in connection with the investigation of these assaults, should be carefully investigated; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House appoint a committee of five members of the House, whose duty it shall be to examine into the manner in which Colonel Lynn G. Adams has conducted the investigation of the numerous attacks upon women in the vicinity of State College during the past fifteen months, for the purpose of determining whether the failure of such investigation to produce any definite results in even a single case is due in any degree to inadequate, indifferent or careless supervision. It shall be the duty of the aforesaid committee to conduct its investigation immediately and to make its report to the House of Representatives before the adjournment of this session, together with its recommendations as to any further steps which might be taken to end this outbreak of criminal assaults in the vicinity of State College.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be filed with the Clerk under the rules.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. SHAW asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Welfare to meet during the session of the House.

CONGRATULATORY RESOLUTION

Messrs. SARRAF, SHAW, HEATHERINGTON, SHAFER, GOODWIN, BOIES, POWERS, YESTER, HOLLAND, REYNOLDS, MORAN, BAKER, O'NEILL, HARKINS, BENTLEY, VERONA, KEENAN, HARMUTH, MOONEY, LEONARD, MIHM and BROWN offered a privileged resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 12, 1941.

In Pittsburgh, on the 13th of June, 1883, there was born to Antoine Gerard and Amelia Schleicher Gerard, his wife, a son, now known to his colleagues in the General Assembly and to his best of friends as Anthony J. Gerard, frequently called Tony.

On account of the death of his father, it was necessary for him to leave school at an early age for employment as a tailor's apprentice. He later mastered the art of garment designing. And is now president and treasurer of Associated Tailors, and doing business under the trade name of Mitchell the Tailor in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Gerard is active and much interested in a wide variety of civic and fraternal activities and a former councilman of his home town, Mt. Oliver, Allegheny county. He is a member and Past President of the Alsace-Lorraine Society of Pittsburgh, an organization of which his father was one of the founders and its first President. He is a member of the Mt. Oliver Volunteer Fire Department, a fourth degree member of the Knights of Columbus, and also holds membership cards in the Fraternal Order of Eagles, the Loyal Order of Moose, the Knights of St. George and St. Joseph's Lyceum.

In the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Mr. Gerard is Past Exalted Ruler of Knoxville Lodge No. 1196; Past District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the Southwestern Pennsylvania District; and Present Trustee of the Pennsylvania State Elk Association.

In 1912, Mr. Gerard married Della K. Wolfersberger. They have two children, a son, Edwin, and a daughter, Dolores; be it therefore

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby extends hearty congratulations and best wishes to their fellow member from Allegheny; and hopes that he may have many more years in which to continue the services to his fellow men which have been his life's practice. To you, Mr. Gerard, we wish a very happy birthday; and be it further

Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution be prepared by the Chief Clerk and transmitted to the Honorable Anthony J. Gerard, Member of this House on his 58th birthday, June the 13th, 1941.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Gerard.

Mr. GERARD. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I have just been handed a slip which indicates that this House will adjourn sometime today. It is quite unfortunate that this resolution could not be held over until tomorrow because tomorrow being Friday the thirteenth, my birthday, it would indicate that I have been quite lucky and that I have been privileged to live these many, many years, and being privileged to live those many years, I have gained the friendship and association of a lot of fine men in the General Assembly, both Republicans and Democrats. I certainly want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for this kind expression of congratulation.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. SPEAKER. Yesterday the Governor suggested to the Senate that they pass the General Appropriations bill in the mangled form in which they had received it from the House, because he felt it advisable that the functions of the government be continued even though the General Appropriations bill was not in proper shape for final enactment. As a result of that the Senate immediately reported that bill out for second reading, and I understand that it has been or is about to be read for the second time today. The majority in the Senate has made definite plans to meet tonight at 12:01 a. m. in order to pass the bill finally, which would mean that it would be returned here for signature by the Speaker in the presence of the House.

The bill cannot be put on the Governor's desk unless this House meets tomorrow. It was therefore the request of the Governor and the suggestion of the Senate that the House meet tonight, either shortly after midnight, or if it will be more convenient to the Members of the House, tomorrow morning, at least for a sufficient time to have the Speaker sign the bill in the presence of the House, so that it could be put on the Governor's desk for action.

I understand that the Rules Committee of the House, which as you all know is composed of Members of the Democratic party, has refused the request of the Governor to sit tomorrow and finally act on this piece of legislation, and that a motion to adjourn until Monday, will shortly be made. Of course I could ask for the floor to make a motion to adjourn until tomorrow but I will not do that because of the courtesy of the Speaker and the majority floor leader in permitting me to make this statement and in not immediately recognizing somebody on the other side to make a motion to adjourn. But I call upon all the Members of the House to vote down the motion which I understand will be made to adjourn until Monday evening at 8 o'clock, with the idea that it would be followed by a motion to adjourn either until shortly after midnight tonight for a meeting that would be on the calendar day of tomorrow, or tomorrow morning, whichever would be more convenient to the House, in order that the General Appropriations bill could be passed tomorrow and laid on the Governor's desk for action. As was pointed out yesterday by me on the floor of the House and by the Governor subsequently in his message, tomorrow will be the normal day for the payment of the employes of the state, and they cannot receive their pay tomorrow.

Furthermore, if the House adjourns until its usual time on Monday evening, it would be impossible to sign the bill, of course, until late Monday night or Tuesday morning and therefore it would be impossible for the pay checks to be given out to the employes or for the other functions of the government to be carried on until Tuesday or possibly Wednesday.

For that reason it seems to me it is a mighty small matter for this House to stay in session for the sole purpose of having the Speaker sign the bill in the presence of the House and permitting us to get it on the Governor's desk in order that the normal functions of government can be continued. I feel that the majority of this House is not giving the proper consideration to this matter, if they refuse to meet tomorrow, and if they insist upon adjournment today until Monday night.

May I say further, Mr. Speaker, I think if they do that it is just another indication, another bit of evidence, another guaranty that it is the Senate which is doing everything in its power to bring about prompt action on legislation and the adjustment of the differences between the Houses, and that it is this House that in every conceivable way is throwing a monkey wrench into the works. I think it is another indication that every effort is being made by the majority in this House to delay, hamstring and interfere with the normal processes of this state and particularly as they relate to the financial program. I feel it is a mistake for this House and for the majority of this House to adjourn at this time until Monday and leave the General Appropriations bill in the air. I do not know whether the Senate will have their meeting at 12:01 a. m. tonight as planned if the House adjourns or not. There certainly can be no advantage in doing so because if the House adjourns it will be impossible for the bill to reach the Governor's desk before Monday night at the earliest. The Senate customarily meets at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon and therefore it would have an opportunity to pass the bill and put it on the Speaker's desk at the same time. Whether they will pass it at the session tomorrow or whether they will pass it at the session on Monday, I do not know. Their plans may be changed, but I have the authority to say definitely, Mr. Speaker, it is the plan of the majority of the Senate, and by the majority, I mean the Republican Members of the Senate, to meet at 12:01 a. m. tonight.

Mr. Speaker, I have just been advised that they have already adjourned to meet at 12:01 a. m. tomorrow. They plan to do that in order that there will be no delay whatsoever in this matter. I think if the House insists upon adjourning it is absolute and conclusive proof as to where the responsibility lies for delay in these matters.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I can answer the gentleman from Dauphin in just a very few words. The Governor indicated in his message yesterday that he would like to have this particular measure so that he could act on it by Monday or Tuesday of next week. May I assure the minority of this House that our adjourning now to meet next Monday will not delay or prevent the Governor from receiving this measure so that he can act on it next Monday or Tuesday. In other words, we are doing nothing that the Governor apparently had not anticipated. The Governor assumed that the legislation would be in such shape that it could be laid on his desk on Monday or Tuesday. Adjournment at this time is not going to prevent the measure from getting to his desk at the time he suggested or recommended. Apparently, in his statement he did not anticipate taking any action on the measure until next week and as a result no one is going to be particularly hurt; things are going to move in their orderly procedure; the Governor will get the measure about the time he anticipated and apparently there is no reason why this House should remain. Therefore, I am asking the members to support the motion to adjourn when it is made.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in answer to the remarks just made by the Gentleman from Monroe, I wish to say that the Governor now has the intention to sign the bill on Saturday if it is laid upon his desk tomorrow. He is putting aside other business and his own personal interest in order that he can give prompt attention to this matter which is so important to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I can say for the Governor, I can say for the Republican Members in the Senate, and for the Republican Members of this House that we are interested in seeing this bill enacted into law at the earliest possible moment and that we are putting aside everything else in order that it can be enacted into law at the earliest possible moment. It is the full responsibility of the majority of this House if they throw a monkey wrench into the works.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, may I say once again that the Governor does not seem to have his mind made up. He told us one thing and the minority floor leader tells us something else. Well, he delivered his official message to this House. While I do not doubt for one moment that the statement made by the minority floor leader is correct, nevertheless may I say that we should at some time or other be able to expect this Governor to really mean what he says.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I just want to call attention to what the Governor said because again the gentleman from Monroe is misquoting him. The Governor said:

"Therefore, I am recommending to the Pennsylvania Senate that it immediately proceed with the passage of the general appropriations bill in the form in which it came from the House. This bill can be finally passed this week and thereby be ready for my signature next Monday or Tuesday."

As a matter of fact the Governor called upon the legislature to pass the bill this week. He figured it may take him until Monday or Tuesday to go over the items because as you well know there are a considerable number of items in it to which he must give attention. The Governor has been looking at those items already and figures he will be prepared to sign the bill on Saturday if it is on his desk this week, as he asked to be done in his speech.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ACHTERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, from the remarks of the minority leader I assume the Governor is not too familiar with the measures that are passed by this House and that he is asking the Senate to pass. But we know that the Governor knows what is in that measure. He discussed at length this particular measure, and so I assume when it does come to his desk what he does will be purely mechanical and will take but a few moments to do it. I am quite certain that the Governor is going to lose no time. He has asked that the measure be in his hands so that he can sign it on Monday or Tuesday. It will be there at that time and the Governor will find that no particular delay will be occasioned.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WOODSIDE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I only want to remind the gentleman it took him one hundred seventeen days to find out how much the appropriations for the State Treasurer, the Auditor General and the other departments had to be. I think he ought to give the Governor twenty-four hours to do it.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. READINGER, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed House Bill No. 1675 (Senate Bill No. 566), entitled:

An Act to amend clause (b) of section twenty-seven of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. dure of the orphans' court in all matters relating to fiduciaries concerned with the estates of decedents," by further regulating the discharge of charges as real estate.

Mr. SHEPARD, from the Committee on Welfare, reported as amended, House Bill No. 1216, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two and six of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine (P. L. 1184), entitled "An act requiring all employable persons receiving public assistance, with certain exceptions, to perform certain work, or be refused further assistance; conferring powers and imposing duties on county boards of assistance; and on charitable institutions, persons, copartnerships, associations, corporations, and State and Federal employment officers; and requiring payments to the Commonwealth on account of certain work performed," by further defining the work to be done, and rate of pay to be received by employables.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. SARGE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lebanon will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SARGE. Mr. Speaker, is it possible and proper for a members's vote to be recorded if he does not vote until three or four subsequent names have been called?

The SPEAKER. He can have his vote recorded following the calling of the roll, if he was in the House during the calling of the roll.

Mr. SARGE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman to my right did not vote until three or four subsequent names had been called and I just wondered whether his vote should be recorded. I think, Mr. Speaker, as a matter of fact the gentleman sitting on this side of the House voted wrong.

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, in order to clarify that I think what the gentleman from Lebanon, Mr. Sarge, really means is that I voted right but I was on the wrong side of the House while I was voting.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has another complaint. The gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. McLane, I understand has eight birth certificates in his hands. What a man!

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I think a gentleman from this side of the House who went over to that side and had courage enough to vote over there ought to be entitled to two votes.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, how is the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. James, recorded as voting?

The SPEAKER. "No midnight singing," I believe he said.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman voted "aye". He said "no midnight choruses," so he voted "aye". I ask that he be recorded in that way.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to give a bit of information to the House prior to the remarks of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. James.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. Speaker,—

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware Mr. James yield?

Mr. JAMES. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Monroe will proceed.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I presume when a man is released from a serious promise he need no longer keep that promise. At least as far as the promise he made to me is concerned, I release him.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. Speaker, I am afraid I cannot accept the release. What Mr. Achterman really gave me was an interpretation. I indicated by wish that there should not be any midnight choruses in this Session as there were in the last Session. The discussion started entirely off the question with which we now are concerned, but I realized very soon that the very clever gentleman from Monroe, the majority floor leader, had me in something of a box, but in the end I secured from him an interpretation that there could not be any midnight choruses if there were not midnight sessions. I think the gentleman released me by an interpretation rather than by a direct promise that I could be excused. However, I ask and I hope that my vote is recorded as "No".

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the Members that what has occurred here is not establishing a precedent to permit debate during the calling of the roll.

The motion having been agreed to (at 2:17 p. m.) the House adjourned.
