HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MATTHEW J. RYAN) PRESIDING

PRAYER

REV. ROBERT A. GRAYBILL, Chaplain of the House of Representatives and pastor of Baughman Memorial United Methodist Church, New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Shall we pause in prayer:

O Lord God, we stand in silence before You as we begin this new week of work. We are grateful to You for another day to work, to care for the fine people of this State who depend upon this body for sound decisions and clear guidance on matters of government.

And as we work, we are very much aware of the uncertainty that hovers over our land and how unsettling it is to some of our people. They are unsure about the economy, anxious about their finances, or feel uneasy about their safety in public places, still chilled by the unexpected and frightening events on our land. Or some are uncertain about the future, wondering when the ugliness of evil will strike again.

So, O Lord God, help us in the face of uncertainty to be reassured by Your ever-present spirit, which is that calm presence from Thee that shall never cease. It is the reality of Your love that no evil can destroy. So help each of us gathered here to feel Thy confidence within that will help us to stand tall and remain strong in our diligent efforts to guide and lead people through these moments of uncertainty.

O Lord God, our world might bring uncertainty, but our faith in Thee reinforces our spirit with Thy presence, which shall endure the unsettling moments, which shall prevail over the difficult challenges, and shall reign victorious over the evils of our day.

Hear our prayer we ask, O God, for we pause before You now. Amen.

MISS PENNSYLVANIA PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Eachus.

May I have your attention, please? The gentleman, Mr. Eachus, has a special guest. I think you all will be pleased and proud to meet this guest, so I would ask for your attention.

Mr. EACHUS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is a great honor today to bring before you Miss Pennsylvania, Rosalyn Menon.

Rosalyn Menon is Miss Pennsylvania, became Miss Pennsylvania 2001 in June at the Miss Pennsylvania Scholarship Pageant in the Lehigh Valley this year. She represented Pennsylvania in the Miss America Pageant, which was recently held in late September, and did an honorable job finishing in the top one-quarter of the individuals who were involved in that pageant, so we are proud of her.

Miss Menon is a graduate of Brown University with a bachelor's degree in English. She will spend the next year of her term in the Lehigh Valley and travel across Pennsylvania to raise awareness with regard to her community service platform, which is children's health and well-being, the Children's Defense Fund. So she is a person of great substance, bringing attention to the health and welfare of our young people in Pennsylvania.

At the pageant itself, Miss Menon was able to bring her talents to bear on the piano, performing Beethoven's "Sonata in C Minor" on the piano during that talent competition.

With her today are her mother, Pat – Pat, could you rise? – and also the president of the Miss Pennsylvania Scholarship Organization, Nancy Bishop of PPL Corporation.

With that, if you will give a warm House of Representatives welcome to Miss Rosalyn Menon, Miss Pennsylvania.

Miss MENON. Thank you, Representative Eachus.

I am very honored to be standing here before you today, and it is such a privilege for me and for the Miss Pennsylvania Organization, so I thank you for your attention and for your time.

I did recently return from the Miss America Pageant, and I will extend to you my greatest thanks for being here today and serving our Commonwealth as well as our country. I think that in times like these, it is so important to recognize those that give of their lives and give of their time to our country and to the State of Pennsylvania.

I was so very honored to be representing our wonderful Commonwealth at Miss America. I was the preliminary interview winner as well as a top 20 finalist, and so we can safely say that Pennsylvania is continuing the good streak of well doings at the Miss America Pageant.

I am a recent graduate of Brown University in Rhode Island. I, 5 days after graduation, became Miss Pennsylvania, so it has been a whirlwind summer and year for me thus far. But it is one that I have been enjoying very much, and particularly because of the fact that I am able to dedicate so much of my time this year to my platform issue, which is children's health and well-being. And this year I am spending a great deal of my time traveling across this Commonwealth from Erie all the way to Easton, which is where I reside for the year, working on behalf of children and their health issues.

I have done a great deal of work with the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, Volunteers of America, and several other organizations supporting the children of our Commonwealth and really being an advocate for them and their health. This is an issue that I am sure many of you hold dear to your hearts, and it is one that I hope you will continue to do so as you do such good work for our Commonwealth. I appreciate it.

The Miss Pennsylvania Organization is an entirely nonprofit organization, and along with the Miss America Organization is the largest provider of scholarships for young women in our country as well as the world. Last year, over $40 million were awarded across the country on behalf of the Miss America Organization, and it is really a unique opportunity for someone like myself as a young woman interested in bettering her community as well as bettering myself through my education.

I hope that all of you will continue to learn more about the Miss Pennsylvania Organization and will come to our show next year in June when the new Miss Pennsylvania is chosen. So I would like to extend that warm welcome to all of you.

But thank you very much for your time. It is my pleasure to be here for you today, and best wishes as you continue to do such wonderful work in our Commonwealth. Thank you.

GROVE CITY LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Members, please take your seats. Please, may I have your attention? The gentleman, Mr. Stevenson, has guests and a citation.

Mr. Stevenson, you are recognized.

Mr. R. STEVENSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Fellow members, it is a pleasure today to welcome to the hall of the House the Pennsylvania State champions of the Little League Junior Division. After winning this State championship, they went on to place fourth in the eastern regional finals and were ranked among the top 16 teams in the nation.

The team is from Grove City, my hometown, and is represented here in front of the chamber by team members Chris Trinch, Billy Herman, Clay Mincey, and manager Andy Krantz; coaches Jim Revesz, Kevin Vallely, Mark Jaskowak; and the rest of the team are seated in the rear.

Today it is my pleasure to present them each with a citation from the House of Representatives honoring them for their achievement. Please help me welcome these young men today to the House of Representatives.

Thank you very much. .

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the hall of the House today, as the guests of Representative John Evans, two special guests from Crawford County. The first, Peter Albaugh, is the Summit Fire Department's assistant chief, and also Mr. Ron Bone, who is also an assistant chief at the Summit Fire Department. Would these guests please rise. They are in the balcony.

We have guest pages, here as the guests of Representative Wilt, Evan Anthony of St. Michael School in Greenville and James Kunselman of that same school in Greenville. They are both in the seventh grade. They are standing here in front of me, and I would ask that they be welcomed to the hall of the House.

Here today as the guest page of Representative Sheila Miller is Benjamin Trump. Benjamin, where— Here, off to the right of the Chair. He is a senior at Conrad Weiser High School, and he just recently got his Eagle Scout award and is a member of the Order of the Arrow. So we are very proud to have you here with us. Also with us is Benjamin's mother, Sally Trump.

STATE SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION PROPERTY REQUEST NO. 1, RESOLUTION A

Mr. PERZEL called up for consideration SSHER 1, Resolution A, entitled:

In the House, September 25, 2001

Resolved, That State System of Higher Education Property Request No. 1 of 2001, transmitted by the State System of Higher Education under the Public School Code of 1949 to the General Assembly under date of July 27, 2001, which is incorporated herein by reference, be approved.

On the question,

Will the House adopt State System of Higher Education Property Request No. 1, Resolution A?

(Members proceeded to vote.)

The SPEAKER, Mr. Samuelson.

The clerk will suspend.

Mr. SAMUELSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This legislation is not coming up on the computer screens. Are there copies that can be distributed to the House members?

The SPEAKER. Mr. Samuelson, this is a little different than most of the things we do in that there is no printer's number for these resolutions. The information from the State System of Higher Education was distributed to the members of both caucuses, and it contains the information necessary to vote on the resolution. I am advised by staff people that matters such as this are never put in print because there is no printer's number for it. Do not ask me to justify that.

Mr. SAMUELSON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

One of the members of the other caucus has handed me a copy of the information from the State System of Higher Education. We did not talk about it in the Democratic caucus.

An Act amending Titles 18 (Crimes and Offenses) and 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for intimidation of witnesses and victims; and providing for aggravated jury tampering.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration? Bill was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

On the question of final passage, the lady, Mrs. Cohen, is recognized. The lady will yield for a moment.

The House will please come to attention.

Mrs. Cohen.

Mrs. COHEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that our current law sends a strong enough message of deterrence to those who would tamper with the integrity of criminal prosecutions.

Criminal defendants have become increasingly brazen in their efforts to scare off witnesses who can put them away for serious crime. Tougher penalties are essential to discourage defendants and their friends from using the threat of force, terror, or the inducement of corrupt practices in order to subvert the administration of criminal justice. Instead of being merely a misdemeanor, the crime of using force, violence, deception or threats, or offering money or other benefits to corrupt or intimidate a witness, victim, or juror in a criminal case would be categorized as a felony, the degree depending on the severity of the case.

HB 17 takes the incentive out of committing victim/witness intimidation and jury tampering by grading the offense the same as the most serious offense under consideration in the trial. For example, a person being tried for aggravated assault of a firefighter who attempts to tamper with jurors or witnesses of the crime would commit a felony of the second degree, the same grade as aggravated assault of a public official. Put simply, if this legislation is enacted, a defendant would be less likely to attempt to have his case declared a mistrial or win the case by threatening a witness or victim into lying on the stand or bribing or threatening a juror into voting for acquittal, because if found guilty, the defendant would now face the same penalties.

HB 17 is a win-win situation for prosecutors as a crime-fighting tool and a no-win situation for criminals. I urge my fellow members to pass this bill.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring, Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.
