SESSION OF 2002

186TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 30

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 11 a.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (PATRICIA H. VANCE) PRESIDING

PRAYER

REV. JULIANN PUGH, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Most gracious and merciful God, we are thankful for Your grace which has brought us together this morning. As we attempt to go about our duties today, we ask You for Your guidance that we would rise to the occasion and do what is right even when no one acknowledges our efforts. Teach us to weigh wisely all our activities and occasions. Give us a sense of what is important, that we may fruitfully allot our time to the work that is not just the most pressing but the most beneficial to all; to the people that are not just the most persistent but the ones who are most in need of our gifts, our skills, our presence; to the end that we may become true stewards of time as You would have us to be.

We thank You, God, for those who live for more than the moment, whose goodness grows like a tree – slow, steady, rooted, in season and out. We owe them our thanks and we owe You our thanks for them; we owe ourselves no less. Whether by sudden heroism or solid integrity, grant us the courage and the patience to live.

When we are blessed with abundance, O God, help us to be responsible, to use the resources wisely, and to be thankful for all that makes it easier to live in this sometimes difficult, oftentimes painful world. Remind us that prosperity is not a right but a gift, and guide us in the ways that would make us worthy of such a great liability. Help us also, loving God, to be thankful even when financial abundance eludes us, for the gifts of health, love, life, wisdom are all treasures that most of us take for granted until we are without.

Thank You for peace and today, simply for today – for all the gifts we overlook that bear us grace, for a night's sleep when body and soul can rest and trust Your world to go on without us, for clothes on our back and warmth in our home, for cucumbers that are cool and loves that are not, for our underwhelming merit and Your overwhelming grace.

We thank You for this freely given day. Hear this our common prayer. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY
FENCING TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman, Mr. Benninghoff.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and I thank my colleagues for taking a moment to share with us today as we have the Penn State University fencing team, recently recognized as they captured the 2002 NCAA (National Collegiate Athletic Association) combined fencing national championship.

We are very pleased that we have representatives from both the men's and the women's team with us today. This is the ninth NCAA title in 10 years under Coach Kaidanov and assistant coaches Glon, Liang, and Krasowitz.

We are very pleased with what they have done, and we are very proud of them, and their combination of score has given them this great honor to represent Pennsylvania and Penn State University in the national championship.

So I wish you to join with me and give them a round of applause for their great success and for continued success. Representatives from the team and the coach are joined behind us here on the rostrum.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY
MEN'S ICE HOCKEY TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. May I have your attention, please.

This is a doubleheader for Penn State today.

The Chair is very pleased to recognize at this time the gentleman, Mr. Herman.

Mr. HERMAN. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

What an honor it is to honor such fine ladies and men at the Pennsylvania State University, who not only excel in athletic competition but also academics in the classrooms at Penn State.

Representative Benninghoff and I are here today to recognize another championship team at the Pennsylvania State University.

The 2001-2002 Pennsylvania State University men's ice hockey team captured its third consecutive American Collegiate Hockey Association national championship. What is very special about this team is that they have captured the national hockey championship 3 years in a row, 4 out of the last 5, and their sixth overall. In addition to that, they have defeated their opponents this past year by a collective score of 20 to 5 in the championship round.

Also, I mentioned that they are more than just athletes, but at Penn State this team has earned a team GPA (grade point average) of 3.12 for the fall semester, including 10 players on dean's lists, 19 players with a 3.0 or better—

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman yield.

Conferences on the floor, please cease. Conferences along the wall, please.

I apologize, Mr. Herman.

Mr. HERMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I think it is worth repeating, and that is not only has this team, this ice hockey team, won its third national championship at the Pennsylvania State University, but they also excel in the classroom. This team has a team GPA of 3.12 for the fall semester, including 10 players on dean's lists, 19 players with a 3.0 or better, and the American Collegiate Hockey Association and school record of seven ACHA Academic All-Americans.

Their head coach is Coach Joe Battista, who just this past week – and that applause, Mr. Speaker, is that Coach Battista is from Representative Tony DeLuca's home area – but for everyone, the coach—

The SPEAKER. Mr. Herman, I do not think that is why they clapped.

Mr. HERMAN. But in closing, Mr. Speaker, Coach Battista has been honored just this past week with his second awarding of the National Coach of the Year, and for this we are very, very grateful.

The rest of the Penn State ice hockey team are in the rear, if they could stand, please. Let us give them a round of applause, the Penn State national championship ice hockey team.

And how about the fencing team, why do you not join them. The fencing team, do you want to stand up, too? Let us applaud the fencing team back there, too; national champions.

Mr. Speaker, thank you. And at this time I would like to make this formal presentation of the citation to Coach Battista and the Penn State national ice hockey team.

Shortly we are going to be passing two resolutions, one for each of them, on their respective championships, and I appreciate your support. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome to the hall of the House two guests of Representative Carole Rubley from Chester County – Gwen Hodovance and Ellie Hanna. They are seated in the gallery. Would these ladies please rise.

We have some special guests in the gallery, a group of students from Berlin, Germany. They are here in the United States through the German-American Partnership Program for approximately 2 weeks. They are staying with students at McCaskey High School in Lancaster in Representative Sturla's district. Would these guests from Germany please rise.

I would like to welcome them particularly to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and specifically to this our State Capitol.

ROBERT J. ZINSKY INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time recognizes the gentleman, Mr. McNaughton, for the purpose of making an introduction.

Mr. McNAUGHTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, I have the privilege today of introducing someone special to this august chamber. He is Robert J. Zinsky, and he has devoted 50 years of his life to serving the Commonwealth with the Pennsylvania State Police. In fact, today is his 50th anniversary day.

Mr. Zinsky is a native of Olyphant in Lackawanna County. He began his career as a clerk with the State Police in 1952.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman yield.

Mr. McNAUGHTON. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Please, members, take your seats. Members, take your seats. The conferences along the wall, please stop.

Go ahead. You may continue.

Mr. McNAUGHTON. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

He was promoted to chief clerk in 1957 before being transferred to regimental headquarters to serve as an assistant to the fiscal officer in 1962. The same year he was promoted to administrative officer II, and then to administrative officer III in 1971, to administrative officer IV the same year, then to administrative officer V in 1978. He has since been the director of the Bureau of Staff Services for the department.

Mr. Zinsky is a graduate of Girard College in Philadelphia and also attended the University of Scranton. He is here with his wife, their three sons, their son-in-law, their daughter-in-law, five grandchildren. They are located in the back of the hall of the House and in the front to the right of the Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, please join Mr. Zinsky's family and me in honoring him on his years of service to the Commonwealth, along with Commissioner Paul Evanko.

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 2322, PN 3677, entitled:

An Act establishing the Access to Justice Account to provide for civil legal services to indigent persons and for imposition of fees.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third consideration?
Bill was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. This bill has been considered on three different days and agreed to and is now on final passage.
The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

The gentleman, Mr. Baker. Will the gentleman yield.
Conferences on the floor, please cease. The gentleman, Mr. Baker, has been recognized in connection with the final passage of HB 2322.

Mr. Baker.
Mr. BAKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman, Mr. Feese, from Lycoming County agree to a brief moment of interrogation?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman indicates he will stand for interrogation. You may proceed.

Mr. BAKER. Just a point of clarification, Mr. Speaker. Section 3215(i) of the Abortion Control Act limits the use of any funds appropriated by the Commonwealth for the provision of legal services for abortion-related activities. Is it your intent that this provision of the Abortion Control Act apply to these Access to Justice funds?

Mr. FEESE. Mr. Speaker, in response to the gentleman's question, yes, the Abortion Control Act continues to apply. Nothing in this legislation alters that act.

Mr. BAKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
That concludes my brief interrogation. On the bill?
The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order.

Mr. BAKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
I rise to support this legislation.

I appreciate the clarification that the funds will not be utilized for the previous issue at question.

This legislation is very important to our poor and at-risk, low-income individuals across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. While some attorneys provide pro bono, free legal services, oftentimes that is not the case. I can tell you that, as someone who worked in a law firm for 12 1/2 years and who has been a legislator for 10 years, I have had an opportunity to refer hundreds of individuals to free legal services in my legislative district. Often they need assistance with SSI (supplemental security income), Title 16 disability cases, landlord-tenant issues, DPW (Department of Public Welfare) administrative law type of hearings, and it is very, very important that they have legal representation. I believe that the additional revenue generated from this legislation is very much needed, and it will be used to help our very at-risk individuals in our society.

I would like to commend the maker of the legislation, Mr. Feese, from Lycoming County, for his leadership on this issue and ask that my colleagues kindly vote in the affirmative.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.
