LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

MONDAY, MARCH 21, 2016

SESSION OF 2016

200TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 15

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. STEPHEN BLOOM, member of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray:

Lord, we thank You and praise You for blessing us with this opportunity today, as the imperfect and flawed individuals we are, that You have yet permitted us to stand before You and the 13 million people we serve to deliberate and decide the weighty matters of governance. Lord, the task is too big for any of us in our human weakness to handle, the ramifications of our decisions too complex and far-reaching for any of us in our limited vision and perspective to fully comprehend. Yet, Lord, You have called us to the task nonetheless.

In 1790 James Wilson of Carlisle, Cumberland County, a signer of both the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, enunciated the challenge we face as lawmakers. "Without liberty," Wilson said, "law loses its nature and its name, and becomes oppression." But, Wilson added, "Without law, liberty also loses its nature and its name, and becomes licentiousness."

Here we stand, Lord, once again, like all who have served in this Assembly through the years and decades and centuries before us, facing the constant struggle to balance law and liberty, seeking by our decisions to sow neither oppression nor licentiousness. So, Lord, we humbly pray for Your help and guidance, Your discernment and direction, that we might balance the objectives before us and do the things that are truly wise and just for the citizens of this Commonwealth we steward.

This I pray in the name of my Lord and savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

The SPEAKER. One hundred and ninety members having voted on the master roll, a quorum is present. Thank you.

We are going to turn to the visitor recognition.

Members, if you will please take your seats, we have a number of guests today, a number of resolutions. We are going to be honoring Alexis Brown, and I need our attention to that. We are sad and excited for Alexis and her family.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Located to the left of the rostrum, the Chair welcomes Greg Moreland, who is interning with Representative Mauree Gingrich this semester. Welcome, Greg. Thank you for being here.

We have some guests of Representative Simmons. He is going to be doing a resolution on that issue. We will wait for him to introduce his guests.

Located in the rear of the House, the Chair welcomes a group of athletic trainers participating in their annual "Hike 2 Harrisburg" trip, and Aaron Boggs of the Parkland School District is with them. They are the guests of Representative Julie Harhart. Thank you so much for being with us today. Thank you.

SPRINGFIELD HIGH SCHOOL VARSITY CHEERLEADING SQUAD PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative Bill Adolph, the Appropriations chair, is invited to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to some champions from his district. Chairman Adolph, please take the rostrum, sir. Thank you, sir. You may proceed.

Mr. ADOLPH. Thank you so much, Mr. Speaker.

It is certainly a very proud day for me as I rise to recognize the Springfield High School Cheerleading Squad, who won the 2016 PIAA State Championship in the large division. They were able to capture the State championship with a score of 91.27.

After an impressive State championship, these young women went on to compete on the national stage, and that is right, they won the Super Varsity Division II title during the 2016 National High School Cheerleading Championship which was held in Orlando, Florida, on February 6 and 7. Under the guidance of coaches Kristin La Barca and Molly Reis, these young women became the pride of the Springfield community by bringing home a State championship as well as a national championship.

These young women have been dedicated to their sport and have put in many hours to be able to achieve these impressive accomplishments. Cheerleading embodies the ideals of teamwork, requiring flawless execution in order to pull off a great routine. The hard work that these young women have put in has truly been rewarded. Just recently they went to New York City and were applauded by Fox & Friends.

Once again, I want to congratulate the team on these impressive championships, and I wish them well in whatever the team takes on from now on.

At this time, Mr. Speaker, with your permission, I would like to recognize the Springfield High School National Champs in the back of the chamber with the Springfield High School AD (athletic director), Glenn Mallon, and their coaches.

Also behind the podium with me are Cara Dunfee, Megan Fitzgerald, Chelsey Jackson, Jane McMenamin, and Celina Geslao.

Thank you very much, and congratulations, girls.

BISHOP GUILFOYLE
CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL
FOOTBALL TEAM PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. Representative Judy Ward and Representative John McGinnis, you are invited to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to a championship football team. Please, come up to the rostrum.

Representative Ward, the floor is yours.

Mrs. WARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with Representative McGinnis to congratulate and pay tribute to the 2015 single-A Champions, Bishop Guilfoyle Catholic High School Marauders. Bishop Guilfoyle Catholic High School won the single-A title in December against Farrell High School 35 to nothing at Hersheypark Stadium. This team may look familiar to you; they were here last year after clinching the title last year as well. They have the State's longest running winning streak at 32 and 0. Many of these players have been teammates since fourth grade.

With me on the rostrum are seniors Nathan Hagg, who will be attending the United States Military Academy at West Point; Zach Colyer, Penn State University; Sam Keating, who will be attending George Mason University; Aaron Yasulitis, Saint Francis University at Loretto; and also on the rostrum assistant coach Pat Irwin.

Once again, Jordan McClure, who is not with the team today, was their sidelines inspiration, watching from his wheelchair and cheering on the sidelines.

Would the rest of the team in the back please rise.

These young men are not only phenomenal athletes, but they are extraordinary young people with interests off the football field. Representative McGinnis and I could not be more proud of this group of exceptional young men. Please join us in welcoming them to the floor of the House.

The SPEAKER. Members, please take your seats. Members, please take your seats.

We are going to quickly turn to the uncontested calendar, and then we are going to proceed to our recognition for Alexis.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolutions were adopted.

The SPEAKER. Members, there are three members that wish to be recognized on the uncontested resolutions. I would ask all three to be prepared to go in fairly short order. Representative Marshall is going to speak on HR 711. Representative Stephens is recognized to speak on HR 743. Actually, just two. So Representative Marshall followed by Representative Stephens.

REMARKS SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

The SPEAKER. Representative Marshall, the floor is yours, sir.

Mr. MARSHALL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

HR 711 recognizes today, March 21, 2016, as "World Down Syndrome Day" in Pennsylvania. It is my hope that we recognize the abilities of individuals with Down syndrome and value their meaningful role they play in our society.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I have remarks to submit for the record.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Marshall.

Mr. MARSHALL submitted the following remarks for the Legislative Journal:

HR 711 recognizes today, March 21, 2016, as "World Down Syndrome Day" in Pennsylvania. Down syndrome, a genetic condition, occurs in approximately 1 in every 800 births and impacts the lives of people in all ethnic, religious, and socioeconomic groups.

While people with Down syndrome are at a higher risk for various conditions, such as congenital heart defects, respiratory problems, and thyroid issues, advances in treatments have enabled them to lead healthy and longer lives. In 1983 the life expectancy for people with Down syndrome was 25 years of age. Today it is 60 years of age.

Over recent years it has become increasingly clear just how important early intervention, appropriate speech, physical and occupational therapies, and quality education programs are for people with Down syndrome to not only adapt in life but to thrive in life.

The date for World Down Syndrome Day, the 21st day of the third month of the year, was selected to signify the uniqueness of the triplication of the 21st chromosome. For those of us who have had the pleasure and the privilege of having these individuals in our lives, we know just how much joy that uniqueness can bring.

With each passing year, it is my hope that we continue to make medical advancements to improve the quality of life for people with Down syndrome. It is also my hope that we, as a society, learn even more how to value the important, meaningful, and irreplaceable role these smart and capable individuals can play in our society and that we all play a better role in encouraging them to follow their dreams.

I ask for your support of HR 711. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY MR. STEPHENS

The SPEAKER. Representative Stephens, on HR 743.

Mr. STEPHENS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, HR 743 designates the month of March as "Keith Valley Challenge Month" in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and I just wanted to share with the members a little bit of history regarding this particular initiative undertaken in my hometown, in Horsham, Pennsylvania, by my alma mater, actually, the students at the Keith Valley Middle School.

Back in 1977 an eighth grade boy, unfortunately, died because of a serious heart defect, and his classmates, eighth graders, back in 1977, decided they were going to play floor hockey and go out and try to solicit some donations to help St. Christopher's Children's Hospital, who had helped this little boy. Over the last 40 years the eighth grade classes at Keith Valley Middle School have continued this tradition, and over the last 40 years they have collected and donated over $1 million by playing floor hockey overnight at Keith Valley Middle School.

So, Mr. Speaker, it is my honor and privilege to have introduced this resolution. I want to thank the members for supporting it and designating March as "Keith Valley Challenge Month" in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you. Thank you very much, Representative Stephens.

ALEXIS BROWN PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. It is my distinct pleasure to recognize an officer of this esteemed institution, our Comptroller, Alexis A. Brown, on her retirement.

Shortly we will be in fact taking up a resolution that Representative Freeman and Representative Rothman have filed.

But at this time we are just going to make note of just a fine, fine career of service this distinguished lady has done for our institution. Alexis is going to be leaving us after 41 years of distinguished service. Alexis, I cannot believe that.

She began her career in State government in June of 1974 as a data analyst with the Legislative Data Processing Center, and over the next four decades she would serve our fine institution as personnel technician and assistant supervisor in the CORE Personnel Office, management systems director with the Bipartisan Management Committee, and then she was named to the very distinguished position in March of 1997 as the Acting Comptroller for our House of Representatives, and then in just a few months was later sworn in as the formal Comptroller of the House of Representatives.

Alexis, that is no easy job. The Comptroller position is one of the most responsible and complex positions that we have with respect to our institution. You have been nothing short of outstanding in fulfilling those responsibilities on our behalf. Both Democrats and Republicans have all found your work to be stellar. You have devoted a significant portion of your career and your life to the benefit of this esteemed institution that is elected by the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. You, in serving this institution, have not only served us, you have in fact served the citizenry. As you know, our body goes back to 1682, and for you to take the time and the hours to get everything just right day in and day out has not gone unappreciated.

Alexis, I know that you have friends and family with you today. I believe your daughter, Danielle Brown, and fiancé, Nate Kline, are here, if you will please stand; son, Justin Brown, and wife, Rachael, and their family, please stand; nephew, Mike Poleto, and his wife, Shannon, and their family. Your grandchildren, I believe, are all here. God bless. We are so excited. Zach, Nia, Skye, and Addy, would you all please stand, please. Please stand.

I know Russ Faber, the former Chief Clerk of the Senate; former State Representative and one of our distinguished employees at BMC, Pete Wambach; Jim Walsh, formerly of the Legislative Reference Bureau, they are all here. Please stand if you do not mind.

And Alexis's current staff are all seated in the rear of the House. Would you please stand. We want to pay you special attention. Thank you for serving so well.

Before we call up the formal resolution, I just want Alexis to know that, Alexis, we are going to do the resolution, give yourself some time to collect some thoughts because we would love to have you say a few words if you are okay with that.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR ARESOLUTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. FREEMAN called up HR 755, PN 2999, entitled:

A Resolution honoring Alexis A. Brown, Comptroller of the House of Representatives, who is retiring in March 2016 after 41 years of service to this Commonwealth.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes Representative Freeman and Representative Rothman to say a few words with respect to that resolution.

Mr. FREEMAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, as you noted, I am joined by my friend and colleague, Representative Greg Rothman. We are joint sponsors of this resolution.

HR 755 recognizes and honors a highly regarded member of our legislative family here in Harrisburg, Alexis Brown, Comptroller of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. Alexis is retiring, as was mentioned, after 41 years of service with the House, 19 of those years being as Comptroller for this institution.

Alexis was chosen to be Comptroller of the House on October 20, 1997, and as the Speaker has mentioned, served in various other capacities prior to that time: data analyst for the Legislative Data Processing Center, assistant personnel supervisor for the Chief Clerk's Office, management systems director for the Bipartisan Management Committee, and payroll assistant for the Comptroller's Office before assuming the position of Comptroller of this House.

As management systems director of the BMC, she oversaw the installation of our current air-blown fiber optic infrastructure that is used here in the Capitol Complex. And as Comptroller she was instrumental in developing the Legislative Financial System, the Travel Expense System, and the Legislative Payroll System, all of which are currently utilized by members and staff here in the House.

As the House's chief fiscal officer and watchdog, she has worked diligently to ensure that the House's expense system is in full compliance with IRS (Internal Revenue Service) regulations and with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In the course of her duties, she has always conducted herself in the most professional manner and has displayed the highest level of integrity in carrying out her responsibilities, yet she has also always been very personable and approachable to members and staff alike, and has demonstrated time and again a willingness to assist us and to provide proper guidance on the way to comply with our expenses and our requirements. Alexis Brown has been a dedicated and trustworthy employee of the House, and we are extremely grateful for her service to this institution.

I ask the House for a unanimous vote in favor of HR 755, as we pay proper tribute and show our gratitude to a great public servant, Alexis Brown.

The SPEAKER. Representative Rothman, do you wish to speak? Thank you.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. SIMMONS called up HR 740, PN 2998, entitled:

A Resolution honoring the life of Charles "Chuck" Philip Bednarik, Hall of Fame center and linebacker for the Philadelphia Eagles, and expressing condolences upon his passing.

On the question,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. Representative Simmons, you are recognized, sir.

Mr. SIMMONS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I rise this afternoon to honor the life of one of the truly great sports legends here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Charles "Chuck" Bednarik, who unfortunately left us exactly 1 year ago at the age of 89 today.

As many of you know, Mr. Bednarik was a Hall of Fame center and linebacker with the Philadelphia Eagles. He played a franchise-record 14 seasons, from 1949 to 1962, and helped the team win two NFL (National Football League) championships.

The SPEAKER. Please, sir, just suspend for a second.

Members, I realize we have much to do today, but we are honoring a hero, a significant individual from our Commonwealth who passed away. I would ask for your attention with respect to Representative Justin Simmons' remarks. If we could all please take our seats, and if the conversations could just go to the anterooms.

Representative Simmons, please. I apologize for interrupting.

Mr. SIMMONS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

He played a franchise-record 14 seasons, from 1949 to 1962, and helped the team win two NFL championships, in 1949 and 1960. To the chagrin of many Eagles fans, including myself, the Philadelphia Eagles have still not won a championship since that time.

"Concrete Charlie," as he was known, was a devastating tackler and the last full-time, two-way player in the NFL — a 60-minute man. His skills were on full display before a nationally televised audience in the 1960 title game against the Green Bay Packers when he played nearly every minute on both offense and defense. Then at the end of the game as running back Jim Taylor headed for the end zone, Mr. Bednarik preserved the victory by tackling Taylor and staying on top of him as the clock ran out.

Mr. Bednarik had another famous tackle during the 1960 season when he stopped Frank Gifford of the New York Giants, who took 18 months to recover from the ferocious hit. When asked about it sometime later, "Concrete Charlie" said, "It's like the New York press wanted me to apologize for hitting Gifford. They came to me after the game and said, 'Did you know Frank is hurt?' I said I didn't know but it was a clean shot and that's part of the game. They carried Frank off on a stretcher but I was in another world. I was busy celebrating the win. I played to win and so did Frank, that's why we're in the Hall of Fame. You don't hear him whining about it. He says I hit him with a clean shot and that's the truth."

He goes on to say, "I sent a basket of flowers and a letter to Frank in the hospital. I told him I'd pray for him. I'm a good Catholic but I'm also a football player. When I was on the field, I knocked the hell out of people, but that's the name of the game."

Charles Philip Bednarik was born on May 1, 1925, in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. After playing high school football, he joined the United States Army Air Corps and flew 30 bombing missions over Europe in World War II as a gunner on a B-24 Liberator. Mr. Bednarik earned the Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters and five battle stars for his courageous military service.

When he returned home to the Lehigh Valley, Mr. Bednarik decided to get an education. He played college football at the University of Pennsylvania and was a two-time All-American. He also earned the Maxwell Award as the nation's most outstanding college player.

Mr. Bednarik went on to be the first overall pick in the 1948 NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. His number 60 is one of only 9 numbers to be retired by the Philadelphia Eagles.

Mr. Bednarik is survived by his wife of 67 years, Emma; and their five daughters, Charlene, Donna, Carol, Pam, and Jackie. We are honored that all of them are here to join us today, along with his other family members. Unfortunately, his wife was not able to join us today.

I would now ask that Donna, Charlene, and his granddaughter, Jennifer, who are seated to the left of the rostrum, and the rest of the family in the back of the chamber to please rise and accept our sincere condolences on the passing of a great Pennsylvanian and Philadelphia Eagles icon whose life we are celebrating today.

In addition to being an outstanding football player, Mr. Bednarik was a wonderful family man who loved and appreciated the people of the Lehigh Valley. Mr. Bednarik spent the last 35 years of his life in Coopersburg. As he once put it in an interview, "I never forgot my roots and my friends, and I wanted to be back home with them."

Mr. Speaker, I ask that all members join me in honoring Chuck Bednarik by voting in support of HR 740.

The SPEAKER. Thank you very much.

Members, our esteemed Parliamentarian was kind enough to share a photo that he has with Mr. Bednarik, actually on this rostrum, with Speaker Matt Ryan and Lori and himself, and shared that with the family, and he actually had some remarks that day, so we are going to get a copy of those remarks. Clancy is going to get those and share them with the family. What an amazing photo. It was, sadly, Matt Ryan's last day up here at this rostrum.

MOMENT OF SILENCE FOR DANNY CROUSE AND RONALD HEIST

The SPEAKER. I would like the Sergeants at Arms to close the doors of the House, please, just for a few moments.

We would invite all members to stand for a moment of silence as we remember two Pennsylvania Turnpike employees, may God bless them, Danny Crouse and Ronald Heist, who were shot and killed Sunday morning in an attempted robbery at a tollbooth at the Fort Littleton toll plaza in Representative Jesse Topper's district.

The victim, Danny Crouse's wife, Denise, in fact works in Representative Jesse Topper's district office.

So we will stand for a moment of silence for those individuals and their families. May God bless and keep them in our prayers.

(Whereupon, the members of the House and all visitors stood in a moment of silence in solemn respect to the memory of Danny Crouse and Ronald Heist.)

The SPEAKER. Thank you. You may be seated.

At this time I would like to turn the floor over to Representative Jesse Topper.

Our colleague, Representative Topper.

Mr. TOPPER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and thank you, members.

In Fulton County yesterday we witnessed an unspeakable tragedy. It is a small county, as many of you know, and certainly rattled the communities that surround where this incident took place. Yesterday we got a glimpse of true evil in its darkest form and not just for Fulton County, but for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

It obviously hit very close to home, as Danny is the husband of Denise Crouse, who works in my Fulton County district office. So I appreciate the prayers and the concerns and the thoughts for all the victims and their families.

This morning I met with the rest of the staff before I came down to Harrisburg, and I was struck, once again, by the resiliency of the human spirit, as I was yesterday as I visited with Denise and her family, her two kids, Cameron, who is getting ready to graduate high school, and Emmaline, who is going to be married in about a month and a half.

And this morning as I talked with the staff, I gave them the option to go home today, and they instead said they would rather continue to work. And once again, I am struck by the ability of our staffs to put the needs of themselves behind and instead choose to serve others, and that leadership is an example and inspires me. Perhaps in my position, it should be the other way around, but I find that often it is that staff, which is part of our family, that inspires me to be better in my position, and I am sure many of us feel the same way.

So thank you for your support, for your prayers, and for your thoughts. Once again, I am reminded as I see so many of you that we know that darkness will eventually be overcome by light, and many of us in this room, as we celebrate Holy Week, understand that death is not the final answer, and I am eternally grateful for that.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Topper, thank you for your inspirational remarks.

Please open the doors of the House. To the Sergeants at Arms, please open the doors of the House.
