SESSION OF 2016

200TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 54

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

The SPEAKER. Our prayer today will be offered by Pastor Ted Rich of Mosherville Baptist Bible Church in Gillett, Pennsylvania, and he is a guest of Representative Matt Baker and I presume maybe also Tina Pickett.

PASTOR TED RICH, Guest Chaplain of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

Mr. Speaker, Representative Baker, thank you for the opportunity to come before you, the elected by the people, to represent our great State, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Let us go before God now and ask His blessing upon this session:

Heavenly Father, our great Jehovah God, every good gift and every perfect gift comes from You. You are a faithful, long-suffering God and Your mercy endures forever.

There are gathered here men and women from many ethnicities, financial and social statuses, and even many religious backgrounds, men and women elected by the people, for the people, and yet according to Your Word they are ordained by You in these wonderful leadership positions, and I pray for them to have a unity in desiring truly the best for the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

You, Lord, have promised to bless the nation that trusts in You. Our currency proclaims "In God We Trust." Our Pledge proclaims we are "one nation under God," and there are many, many places, buildings even here in this State and nation that have Your words of truth engraved upon their hallowed halls. But in our current culture, we have forgotten these words and are often far from You. In the words of the prophet Daniel, "We have sinned and committed iniquity, we have done wickedly and rebelled..." in every place, "...even by departing from Your precepts and Your judgments."

We have allowed the laws of the land to accept the murder of our innocent children before they have a chance to live out their lives. We have granted ethnic rhetoric the power to tear apart our society and even places of worship. The righteousness or goodness of our land, our nation, in every State seems to be crumbling around us and thus does our foundations. And we, even we, have groups lobbying our leaders against our nation's Founding Fathers' original intents that are written out clearly in our national and State documents. They lobby for things that twist words and divide people instead of uniting under a just and moral cause that in times past brought about unity and patriotism.

So I am thankful that we can still in freedom boldly come before the throne of grace, the creator of the universe, and ask that these terrible things stop.

Thus, we come before You once more, seeking Your forgiveness and mercy. You, O God, are our only true hope for salvation and forgiveness. Help and healing are in Your ways. So please hear this prayer, and for Your honor's sake, shine Your face once again upon this great State and our nation with Your favor, please. Please give our leaders right here the desire to seek Your wisdom and the courage to follow Your guidance. Watch over these men and women and the men and women of our Armed Forces, as they still sacrifice for the cause of freedom in our land.

We give You thanks, O God, for all that You have done for us in times past, and we earnestly pray that You will help us become once again a nation whose God is the Lord. I pray it in the name of Your son, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. To the left of the rostrum, we welcome Guest Chaplain Ted Rich's wife, Julie, and his children, David and Jonathan. Will you please stand. Thank you so much for joining us here today. Great to have you.

Members, I know there is much to discuss, but I am going to ask everybody to please take their seats. Members, your colleagues have brought guests to the State Capitol, and I would like to give them the attention that they deserve. So if all the members could please take their seats, we will be able to move expeditiously through the calendar. If you have a conversation you have to have, if you could take it off the House floor, we would appreciate that, as would the members, the guests, and the citizens of Pennsylvania.

Now, we have with us also children of the Guest Chaplain who are serving as guest pages today, Timothy and Hannah Rich. If you will please stand. It is so good to have you here today.

KHYASIA CALDWELL-ADAMS PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. This is very important. Representative Dave Parker, Representative Rosemary Brown, and Representative Jack Rader are now invited to the rostrum for the purpose of presenting a citation to one of our State athletic champions.

Representative Parker, you may proceed.

Mr. PARKER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to acknowledge the guests as well. Coach Mike Blough is here, as well as a friend, Aniah Ellerbee.

Okay. I have a citation here for a State champion from Pocono Mountain East, which is Representative Rader's alma mater, and I will just read that:

"Whereas, The House of Representatives of Pennsylvania takes great pleasure in recognizing the outstanding achievements realized by the youth of this nation in a spirit of personal sacrifice and commitment to a goal; and

"Whereas, Khyasia Caldwell-Adams is being honored upon capturing first place in the Class AAA Girls' Long Jump event during the 2016 PIAA State Track and Field State Championships; and

"Whereas, A junior at Pocono Mountain East High School, Khyasia won her second consecutive title in the Girls' Long Jump event with a jump of 19 feet, 5.5 inches. She is truly deserving of recognition and praise for utilizing her exceptional ability with diligence and for her tenacious pursuit of athletic excellence. Her hard work and training have made her a distinguished athlete who has earned the respect and admiration of her coaches, team members, family and fellow citizens."

So now, therefore, let us congratulate Khyasia on her achievement.

The SPEAKER. That is outstanding. Thank you so much for joining us here today.

Representative Tina Pickett has guests with her today. I am going to wait for when we do the resolution and Representative Pickett will introduce the guests. I did not want to take that away from our members.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolutions were adopted.

The SPEAKER. Members, I am going to invite our colleagues to speak on three of the resolutions that we just passed, so I am asking everybody to please take their seats. Representative Kate Harper will be speaking on HR 969, Representative Fred Keller will be speaking on HR 967, and Representative Benninghoff will be speaking on HR 973. So, members, please take your seats.

STATEMENT BY MS. HARPER

The SPEAKER. Representative Harper, you are recognized.

Ms. HARPER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Thank you, members of the House, for your unanimous support for my resolution designating this week, September 17 through September 23, as "Civic Education Awareness Week" in Pennsylvania.

The Rendell Center for Civics and Civic Engagement, started by former First Lady and Federal judge Marjorie Rendell, is dedicated to promoting civic learning, defined as civic knowledge, public action, and democratic – as in democracy, not the party – deliberation. The center stresses the importance of civic learning in schools and helps with lesson plans, age-appropriate civics learning games, and professional education. It is important work, both for the students and for our democracy. The center also promotes Constitution Day, which occurs every year on the birthday of the United States Constitution, September 17. So Civics Awareness Week in Pennsylvania is timed to coincide with that.

Now, Pennsylvania does require civics education in the form of social studies in schools, but many of us believe that we need to do more to ensure that today's students grow up to be participating, contributing members of the government "of the people, by the people, and for the people," as President Abraham Lincoln put it just a few miles from here at Gettysburg. Our colleagues, Representative Boback and Representative Kortz, have introduced HB 1858 that would require that a student demonstrate a knowledge of civics to obtain a diploma or GED (general equivalency diploma), and that is certainly something this House should consider.

But the inspiration for this resolution actually came from a constituent of mine, Richard R. Buttacavoli of North Wales, who is with us today on the House floor. If I might ask, Mr. Speaker, for Mr. Buttacavoli to stand.

The SPEAKER. Yes, please.

Welcome. Thank you so much for being here.

Ms. HARPER. Thank you.

And it was adults, not children, who caught the attention of this citizen in stressing the need for civic education. Here is what he wrote to me: "As an elected committee person, one of my responsibilities is to make sure the residents in my precinct vote on Election Day. I was dismayed to hear that...turnout throughout Pennsylvania was..." only 38 percent for the recent gubernatorial election "and I began to research why people don't vote, and through speaking with individuals and groups..., I realized they don't vote because they do not understand" particularly "local government and how it works." They do not know what a row officer is. They do not know what a prothonotary is.

But I actually think that goes for State and federal offices as well. There are many people who think this year that they know too much about the election. But in general, citizens need to know more.

Anyway, Richard Buttacavoli proposed that we shed some light on the need for educating adults about civics, and that is why I introduced, and you just passed unanimously, Civics Education Awareness Week in Pennsylvania.

As Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy has noted, we all have an "obligation to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution, but you cannot preserve what you do not revere. You cannot protect what you do not comprehend. You cannot defend what you do not know."

Civic education matters, not just in our public schools where it is supposed to be taught and learned, but for adults as well.

Please join me and Richard Buttacavoli of North Wales, Pennsylvania, in encouraging our schools, families, and civic organizations to understand civics and our form of government and to encourage every citizen to exercise not just their rights but also their responsibilities as citizens. Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Madam Chair.

STATEMENT BY MR. KELLER

The SPEAKER. Representative Fred Keller is recognized to speak on HR 967. I would ask that all members please take their seats.

Representative Keller, the floor is yours, sir.

Mr. F. KELLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to thank all my colleagues for the unanimous passage of HR 967, which designates this month of September as "Chiari Malformation Awareness Month" in Pennsylvania.

I suspect were it not for this resolution, many of us would never have heard of Chiari malformation. It is a neurological disorder characterized by herniation of the cerebellum and may produce a variety of symptoms, including severe headache, dizziness, vertigo, disequilibrium, visual disturbances, difficulty swallowing, heart palpitations, sleep apnea, impaired fine motor skills, chronic fatigue, and painful tingling of the feet and hands. While the condition is generally thought to be rare, perhaps just 1 in 1,000 individuals have it, there are no definitive statistics to indicate just how many people are affected by Chiari malformation. The uncertainty is complicated by questions of how one defines Chiari and the fact that people may have some abnormalities indicative of Chiari but do not and may never suffer any symptoms.

There is no question that facing any type of long-term, chronic disease is, at best, challenging, but I suspect the challenge is greater for people suffering from rare conditions like Chiari because they are not well known or well understood and do not get the same level of research attention as more common diseases.

I am standing here today because a constituent of mine, Nena Bilger, who suffers with Chiari, has made a commitment to raise awareness, not only on her own behalf but on behalf of others afflicted with this disease. I commend her for speaking out about her condition and working toward a better understanding of Chiari and how to effectively treat and ultimately prevent it.

I would like to thank Nena for her courage, not only through her life to deal with this disease but also to try and make life better for others. And if I may, Mr. Speaker, introduce Nena Bilger to the chamber. If you would please rise, Nena. We would like to thank you for your work.

The SPEAKER. Great to have you here today, Nena. Thank you.

Mr. F. KELLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

STATEMENT BY MR. BENNINGHOFF

The SPEAKER. Representative Kerry Benninghoff is recognized to speak on HR 973.

Mr. BENNINGHOFF. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I, too, want to thank the members for their unanimous vote on HR 973. I will keep my comments brief, but I thought it was only appropriate that we take a moment to recognize September 2016 as "Childhood Cancer Awareness Month." Many of our lives have been touched with that, as well as some of the members in this chamber, and I just want to take a moment to recognize these families and the young children who have to deal with this issue. We also want to express our thanks and appreciation to the physicians and the nurses that help deal with these children on a day-to-day basis.

Just real quick, childhood cancer, as you may know, is the second leading cause of childhood death in children under the age of 15, which is exceeded only by accidents, to the tune of about 1,250 children are expected to die in 2016. As we know, the American Cancer Society estimates that about 10,380 children in the United States under the age of 15 will be diagnosed alone with cancer in 2016, over 600 of those here in the State of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, that is one and a half children every day. The potential years of life lost to childhood cancer and the potential years of life saved by treatment is exceeded only by cancers such as breast cancer.

Most children cannot be treated in their local hospitals, so the family has the additional challenges of the disruption of their families and having to be traveling across the State and sometimes into other States to regional cancer centers.

Fortunately, I do want to acknowledge that there have been major treatment advancements here in the State of Pennsylvania as well as across the globe. We have had some great successes and want to continue to build on that, and that is why I raise this as an issue of awareness. There is significant progress that still needs to be made in relationship to childhood cancer treatment, because there are so many types of childhood cancer and so many varieties with very low survival rates and are still very difficult to treat. But Pennsylvania is one of the leaders, and I would be remiss to not acknowledge that we have six Children's Oncology Group hospitals, like St. Christopher's Hospital, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, Geisinger Medical Center, Lehigh Valley Hospital-Muhlenberg, Hershey Medical Center, and Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh.

To the members, I just want to say thank you for giving me a moment to make this acknowledgement, to thank those physicians and nurses for their great work, and God bless the families, and we are very thankful for the successes we have seen.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR B

RESOLUTION PURSUANT TO RULE 35

Mr. GILLEN called up HR 1002, PN 3857, entitled:

A Resolution honoring the more than 171,000 veterans who served in World War II, continuing to serve during the Korean Conflict and the Vietnam Conflict.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER. On that resolution, the Chair recognizes Representative Mark Gillen.

Mr. GILLEN. Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

A few minutes ago I had the opportunity to visit with Leonard DeLong, a living legend who embodies HR 1002. This resolution recognizes those individuals who not only served in World War II—

The SPEAKER. Representative Gillen, please suspend for just a moment.

Members, please take your seats.

As the clerk indicated, this resolution is honoring more than 171,000 veterans who served in World War II, the Korean Conflict or Korean war, and the Vietnam war, and I believe he has some very special guests with us today as well, correct?

Mr. GILLEN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. So please let us give them the honor that they deserve and the attention that they deserve.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. Representative Gillen, you may proceed.

Mr. GILLEN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

In the back of the auditorium we have members of the DeLong family. We also have individuals from Col. Jacob Morgan Post 537 at Caernarvon Township, Berks County, that I want to recognize, as well as Mr. Leonard DeLong and his stepson, Charles Johnson. I would like us to acknowledge them and give them a welcome to the hall of the House, and I will say more about Mr. DeLong in a moment. Please rise.

Thank you. You may be seated.

During the Pledge of Allegiance and the prayer earlier, I noticed that Leonard DeLong was probably one of the first to his feet, though maybe a little bit less capable than some others in the hall of the House. He would have had every good reason physically to remain seated, but Mr. DeLong is all about duty.

In 1969 he received orders to go to Vietnam for the second time with the 1st Marine Air Wing near Da Nang, the Air Force base. And I said to him, "Was there any hesitancy?" And I will explain why we could conceive that there may be some pause. But he said, "No. It was my duty to go to Vietnam for a second tour of duty."

Back in 1950 Mr. DeLong was called to Korea to the Inchon landing, that legendary movement led by Gen. Douglas MacArthur that saved the Korean people and the peninsula. Later in that conflict Leonard DeLong was at the Chosin Reservoir, which only could be described as brutal, savage, where tens of thousands of combatants on both sides lost their lives, some to mortar rounds, others to bullets, still others because of the elements in the Chosin Reservoir.

In 1943 Leonard DeLong received his call to duty as a United States Marine, and in 1944 – perhaps the better known D-day landing was occurring – Leonard DeLong was running out of a landing craft with another 18-year-old alongside of him and said, "This looks like the end for us." Saipan was heavily fortified, heavily guarded, and was the site of the greatest, the largest banzai charge in the South Pacific during World War II.

There was somebody else on Saipan that was a target of the United States Marines, United States Armed Forces. Chuichi Nagumo was the admiral that led the carrier attack on the United States at Pearl Harbor. In that Battle for Saipan there were a number of notable naval vessels, but let me note two of them, the battleship California and the battleship Tennessee. The battleship California was sunk at Pearl Harbor and the battleship Tennessee was damaged, both with loss of life. The United States refloated the California, rebuilt her, and the Tennessee was repaired, and both saw action at Saipan.

In World War II, Leonard DeLong was at Saipan, he was at Okinawa, he was at Tinian, and received three Bronze Stars for heroic conduct, for valor, for achievement, for bravery, and literally, for a love of country, and we thank you for that.

His unwavering response to the call to duty continued into the Korean Conflict. Three Bronze Stars in the South Pacific and some years later in Korea five Bronze Stars for Leonard DeLong. He is a man who at 91 years young – just celebrated a birthday in August – still loves that flag enough to stand up when it is difficult to do it. In fact, he has been very sick recently, but he much wanted to be here to greet you.

Unwavering and relentless in the face of the heat of battle, tenacious in conflict because he loves that flag, he responded in World War II, in Korea, in Vietnam to the call and the cry of duty, honor, and country. Leonard, we love you. God bless you.

On the question recurring,
Will the House adopt the resolution?

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolutions were adopted.

The SPEAKER. Four members have wished to speak on the supplemental uncontested calendar. Representative Pickett will speak on HR 982, Representative Rapp will speak on HR 998, Representative Mark Keller will speak on HR 1003, and Representative Quinn will speak on HR 1004.

STATEMENT BY MS. PICKETT

The SPEAKER. At this time Representative Pickett is recognized.

Ms. PICKETT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to thank you for giving me the opportunity to thank my colleagues for their support for HR 982. This resolution specifically designates this very week as "Youth 2 Youth: Partners 4 Peace Week" in Pennsylvania. It comes as no surprise to us that our Commonwealth is full of bright, engaging, and inspiring young men and women who want to make their communities and Pennsylvania an even better place to live, to work, and to raise their families someday. Sadly, though, newspaper headlines, TV stories, and social media tend to focus on the negative, especially with regard to youth committing violence. That is why I was so happy to see that the Red Rock Job Corps group in my legislative district in Sullivan County is taking proactive measures to keep and to help encourage peace.

Many of you are already with the Job Corps program, which operates four centers to train and educate lower income youth in Sullivan, Luzerne, Allegheny, and Philadelphia Counties, along with my local center. Since 1964 the U.S. Department of Labor's Job Corps program helped provide hands-on technical training and education for students aged 16 and through their twenties.

And now our Job Corps programs are taking their engagement to another level by creating a violence prevention initiative that was launched a year ago last spring.

The Youth 2 Youth: Partners 4 Peace has four main goals: number one, talk openly about violence, aggression, and bullying; number two, learn how peers have been affected by youth violence; number three, empower one another to make a difference; and number four, explore solutions for the future.

Job Corps students are using this program to expand the conversations about violence and talk about how this violence is impacting their peers and their communities, all with the hope of getting people their ages to put down the guns, talk about their differences, and improve their communities.

For the past several years that I have been in touch with this program, I have been very impressed by its graduates – young men and women who are taking this opportunity and bettering themselves and their families, and with that, of course, their very own communities. I believe this new initiative is one way in which our youth can make a positive difference in our communities, and I am proud to sponsor this resolution designating this week in honor of this terrific program.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to mention the four Job Corps centers in our State – the Keystone Job Corps Center in Drums; Philadelphia; Pittsburgh; and Red Rock in Lopez – and to personally thank the staff and the faculty of these centers for giving the bright young men and women their opportunity to succeed.

In fact, we have the pleasure of being joined by students and representatives from Job Corps today. Would it be okay, Mr. Speaker, if I ask them to rise in the back of the hall?

The SPEAKER. Yes, please.

Ms. PICKETT. Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

STATEMENT BY MS. RAPP

The SPEAKER. Representative Kathy Rapp is recognized to speak on HR 998.

Ms. RAPP. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Thank you to my colleagues for voting for HR 998 that designates the week of September 18 through 24 as "Surgical Technologist Week" here in the State of Pennsylvania.

Surgical technologists assist medical operations in a number of capacities, and all major hospitals in this Commonwealth employ surgical technologists to work with surgeons in the operating room to provide quality patient care. Mr. Speaker, as the baby-boomer generation, which accounts for a large percentage of the general population, approaches retirement age and as technological advances such as fiber optics and laser technology permit new surgical procedures, employment of surgical technologists who are educated in these procedures and technologies is expected to grow faster than the average for all occupations. In this Commonwealth there are 18 programs in surgical technology.

Each year the Association of Surgical Technologists designates a week in September as "National Surgical Technologist Week" to celebrate and promote the profession, and HR 998 designates this week as "Surgical Technologist Week" in the State of Pennsylvania. Thank you for your affirmative vote.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative.

STATEMENT BY MR. KELLER

The SPEAKER. Representative Mark Keller is recognized to speak on HR 1003.

Mr. M. KELLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I want to thank my colleagues for their unanimous vote of HR 1003. What this does is designate this Thursday, September 22, as "National Teach Ag Day" here in Pennsylvania.

The reason the resolution was introduced is to bring attention to the fact of ag teachers within Pennsylvania and the good job that they do teaching our students. There is a shortage of those ag teachers, and we want to bring attention to the fact that agriculture is our number one industry here in Pennsylvania and that we want to promote it as much as possible.

So I want to thank my colleagues again and you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing this resolution to be voted on.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

STATEMENT BY MS. QUINN

The SPEAKER. Representative Marguerite Quinn is recognized to speak on HR 1004.

Ms. QUINN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Thank you, colleagues, for your attention right now.

Sepsis, commonly known as blood poisoning, is the body's overwhelming response to infection; infection which may lead to tissue damage, organ failure, and ultimately death. Sepsis is caused by an infection usually associated with an illness such as diabetes or cancer, but it can also be caused by something as simple as an injury or cut.

Sepsis kills approximately 260,000 Americans annually, and this number is increasing. Sepsis is considered to be among the most costly in-hospital conditions in the nation, costing more than $20 billion a year. Until a cure for sepsis is found, early detection is the best hope for survival.

Thank you for joining me with your vote to raise awareness for this life-threatening condition, for supporting HR 1004 and designating September 2016 as "Sepsis Awareness Month" in Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Thank you, colleagues. It is good to see you again.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Representative Quinn.

The majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendment was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

The SPEAKER. Representative Greg Rothman has two amendments that he wishes to offer. Representative Rothman withdraws those amendments? Both amendments are withdrawn.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on second consideration as amended?

Mr. PETRI offered the following amendment No. A09514:

Amend Bill, page 1, line 21, by inserting after "lab" within the previous 12 months and there is evidence that remnants of harmful substances remain in the unit

Amend Bill, page 2, line 12, by inserting after "lab"
and there is evidence that remnants of harmful substances

remain in the unit
Amend Bill, page 2, by inserting between lines 27 and 28
(5) The burden of proof as to the prior use of the unit as a methamphetamine lab shall be on the tenant. If the tenant meets the burden of proof, the burden as to the existence of harmful substances in the unit shall shift to the landlord to demonstrate the unit was properly remediated.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER. On the amendment, the Chair recognizes Representative Petri.

Mr. PETRI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would urge the members to support this amendment. The amendment requires certain disclosures if there has been a meth lab within 12 months or if in the case where items have not been fully remediated. It also sets forth the appropriate burden of proof with respect to meth labs. I would encourage the members to support this amendment. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Representative Moul, on the amendment.

Mr. MOUL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I would like to interrogate the maker of the amendment, please.

The SPEAKER. The good gentleman has indicated he will so stand.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, thank you.

Is there a standard of remediation for a unit, whether it is a home or rental property, that has been set forth by someone to remediate? Is it spraying other chemicals or is it tearing out walls? Is there a standard set for remediation?

Mr. PETRI. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
 I am not aware of any standard as of yet. There probably should be a standard so that folks can know that they remediated, properly remediated the condition.

Mr. MOUL. Mr. Speaker, on the amendment?
 The SPEAKER. You may proceed on the amendment.

Mr. MOUL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
 Given the fact that there is no standard of remediation, in other words, a landlord or a homeowner that is selling a home would not know how to remediate, that no one knows what the set of standards are or criteria to remediate, since this amendment requires remediation and we do not even know what that is, I am all in favor of notifying people – you know, they should know what has been there – but to remediate something when there is no set way of remediating, how do we put that in statute?

So on that basis I would encourage a "no" vote on this amendment. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Representative Bryan Barbin.

Mr. BARBIN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
 I also rise in opposition to this amendment and to the underlying bill.

We are imposing additional obligation upon everybody who is selling property. We are doing it when we do not have even a basic answer of what a seller could do to fix the property. This is a whole lot like radon, but the difference is, with radon we know what the remediation process is, we require people to do it, and then they can sell their property. All this is, is a government mandate without even an answer of, how do you fix the property so that it can be sold?

This bill did not go through a public hearing, and for that reason I think the amendment is premature, and I am voting against this and I am going to vote against the bill.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER. Representative Dwight EVANS has requested to be placed on leave. Without objection, that will be granted.

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR D

BILLS ON THIRD CONSIDERATION

The House proceeded to third consideration of HB 2186, PN 3728, entitled:

An Act amending Title 53 (Municipalities Generally) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in general provisions, providing for residency during military service.

The question is, shall the bill pass finally?

Does anybody wish to speak on the bill?
Representative Harper, on the bill.
Ms. HARPER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

This bill, HB 2186, amends Title 53 dealing with local governments to provide that a person's active military service shall not disqualify them from local elected office due to a residency requirement. In other words, a soldier who has lived in a community for at least a year and who is then sent someplace else on active-duty assignment shall still be considered a resident of the community, their home community, unless and until they demonstrate an intention to establish a domicile someplace else.

Mr. Speaker, is it not the least we can do for our all-volunteer Armed Forces not to disadvantage them with a residency requirement when they are away from the district because they are serving us?

Please vote in favor of the bill. Thank you.
The SPEAKER. Anybody else wish to speak on the bill?

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. Agreeable to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays will now be taken.
