

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

MONDAY, APRIL 6, 2020

SESSION OF 2020

204TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 14

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The House convened at 1 p.m., e.d.t.

THE SPEAKER (MIKE TURZAI) PRESIDING

PRAYER

HON. MIKE TURZAI, Speaker of the House of Representatives, offered the following prayer:

I am going to be offering the prayer today. It is a prayer of St. Francis de Sales, who was born in 1567 and died in 1622.

"Do not look forward in fear to the changes in life; rather, look to them with full hope that as they arise, God, whose very own you are, will lead you safely through all things; and when you cannot stand it, God will carry you in His arms.

"Do not fear what may happen tomorrow; the same understanding Father who cares for you today will take care of you then and every day.

"He will either shield you from suffering or will give you unyielding strength to bear it. Be at peace, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations."

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by members and visitors.)

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the approval of the Journal of Wednesday, March 25, 2020, will be postponed until printed.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. What I am going to do today with respect to the swearing-in is a little bit different. We have three new members who are being sworn in that we are so honored to have with us. I am putting our good judge to work here. I am going to have him swear each member in individually so that he or she, if they wish to remove their mask and make sure that each of you are separated apart, can take off that mask. The other thing that we are going to do is that, typically, you have a loved one with you to present you that Bible. That person will continue to wear the mask, if they want to, and/or whatever – it could be the Constitution, it could be another, it could be the Koran, it could be the Torah – you know, whatever you wish to have sworn in on.

But we are going to do each one separately. I do apologize that it will be a little bit more time-consuming, but I think that way if you want to adjust, you can. If you do not, that is okay too. But I think you might want, you know, the public to see you as a member taking the oath. So the others will just step back while you are being sworn in.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SWEARING-IN OF NEW MEMBERS

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the House will now take up this special order of business, the swearing-in of Representatives-elect Timothy Bonner of the 8th Legislative District; Kathleen "K.C." Tomlinson of the 18th Legislative District; and Eric Davanzo of the 58th Legislative District, from Bucks County, Mercer and Butler Counties, and from Westmoreland County.

The Speaker hears no objections.

ELECTION RETURNS PRESENTED

The SPEAKER. The Chair now recognizes the Sergeant at Arms of the House.

The SERGEANT AT ARMS. Mr. Speaker, Deputy Secretary for Elections and Commissions, Jonathan Marks.

The SPEAKER. And, Mr. Marks, the Deputy Secretary, thank you for being here.

Mr. MARKS. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

It is my privilege and honor to present the returns and the certifications of campaign expense compliance for the special elections held on March 17, 2020, in the 8th, the 18th, and the 58th Legislative Districts.

The SPEAKER. Thank you.

I am just going to go, with all due respect, to each of the members in alphabetical order.

So we will start with Representative-elect Timothy Bonner.

The Chief Clerk is going to read, specifically, the returns for each race.

The following election returns were read:

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO MEMBERS-ELECT

The SPEAKER. So we are going to start with Representative Bonner, and at this time we are really honored that this good man during this crisis would join us, Superior Court Judge Victor P. Stabile. Judge, we are so honored by your presence today.

The oath of office is required by Article VI, section 3, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania. We would ask all members to stand for the swearing-in of each of these new members, and we are going to take them individually.

We are going to begin with Representative Bonner, will be followed by Representative Davanzo, and then we are going to have Representative Tomlinson. So the other members, just please be seated. We are going to start with Representative Bonner, and I am going to turn it over at this time to Superior Court Judge Victor P. Stabile.

JUDGE STABILE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Members, members-elect, it truly is an honor and a privilege for me to be here today and on such a special occasion for each one of you.

Mr. Bonner, you have been duly elected. If you are prepared, we will administer your oath of office. Are you ready, sir?

Mr. BONNER. I am ready. Thank you.

JUDGE STABILE. All right. Repeat after me then: I – your name – do solemnly swear that I will support, obey, and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity.

(Member asserted oath.)

JUDGE STABILE. Congratulations, sir.

Mr. BONNER. Thank you.

JUDGE STABILE. Congratulations, sir. Are you prepared?

Mr. DAVANZO. Yes.

JUDGE STABILE. Okay. Repeat after me then: I – state your name – do solemnly swear that I will support, obey, and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity.

(Member asserted oath.)

JUDGE STABILE. Congratulations, sir.

Mr. DAVANZO. Thank you.

JUDGE STABILE. Miss Tomlinson, congratulations.

Miss TOMLINSON. Thank you.

JUDGE STABILE. Are you prepared?

Miss TOMLINSON. Yes.

JUDGE STABILE. All right. Repeat after me then: I – state your name – do solemnly swear that I will support, obey, and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity.

(Member asserted oath.)

JUDGE STABILE. Congratulations, ma'am. Miss TOMLINSON. Thank you.

JUDGE STABILE. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It was an honor.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Judge.

REMARKS BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. A few short remarks, please.

Representative Tomlinson. Representative Davanzo, Representative Bonner: On behalf of all of the members here, those in their Capitol offices, those in their district offices, those at home, we are pleased to welcome you to the House of Representatives. You should feel immense pride, and thank you for doing so, particularly at this time of crisis in our State and in our nation. The citizens back home need you for your public service and your leadership. You will all be committed public servants like each and every one of the members of the House of Representatives, all 203, Republican and Democrat.

You have all served your communities for decades. Today that commitment continues, as you resume the responsibility to represent these constituents in your respective legislative districts. This body goes back to 1682, with the founding of the Provincial Assembly by the founder of this Commonwealth, William Penn.

Yes, these are extraordinary times, and we apologize that due to the health concerns, we cannot have more guests, but when this crisis passes us and we restore the economy here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, we will have a celebration here in the House.

GUESTS INTRODUCED

The SPEAKER. If I might, the Honorable Senator Tommy Tomlinson and Mrs. Nancy Tomlinson are here today with Representative "K.C." Kathleen Tomlinson. We also welcome Senator Tomlinson's chief of staff, Ryan Skoczylas; K.C.'s good friend, Jennifer Howell, and in the gallery, Frank Curran. Her father once served in the 18th Legislative District, which he represented in the House from 1990 to 1994, and he currently serves the 6th Senatorial District in Bucks County. K.C. has been a small business owner and manager and on the front lines of what it is to make sure that customers are well taken care of at the funeral home, showing love and compassion, taking care of good employees, and being part of the community.

Representative Davanzo. He is here with his wife, Rachele, and daughters, Brianna and Brielle, parents Richard and Kathleen Davanzo. It is wonderful that you are here. Eric, Representative Davanzo, is a carpenter by trade, very successful; not only very good in terms of his skill and his craft, but also just a very smart and engaged person with his community and his family. Thank you so much for being with us today. We are honored to have you.

And then Representative Bonner. I know your family could not join you today. We offer greetings and best wishes to your wife, Peggy; your children, Erin, Ryan, and Kelly. You have been an astute and important member of the legal profession in Mercer County and surrounding counties. I know you not only have that as a profession but also run it as a business, and you have given much to your community.

God bless each and every one of you. We cannot tell you how much moral support your communities will be looking to you for over the remaining time of this crisis and as we turn the economy around. God bless each and every one of you.

I will ask if either of the leaders would like to say any remarks.
Majority leader.

REMARKS BY MAJORITY LEADER

The SPEAKER. The majority leader, Bryan Cutler, from Lancaster County.

Mr. CUTLER. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And to the new members – feel free to be seated – I certainly want to welcome you all here today and wanted to share a brief summary of what I shared on our swearing-in day that we all had and what I most recently shared with our next newest member who was sworn in a couple of weeks ago.

We all have different stories of how we got here. We all have different viewpoints, we have different professions, and in my case having to wear a mask up here takes me back to mine when I was an X-ray tech and worked a lot of time in the operating room. And while I have continued to stay in contact with that community, I am now privileged to represent my home area, just like each of you.

And one of the things that I have learned up here and I also want to encourage you to do, as new members, is get to know everybody, because once you understand someone's background, once you understand someone's viewpoint, and the reasons that they ran, you oftentimes can more easily work through a variety of issues. What I have found is we generally agree on what the problems are up here, whatever the challenge might be. Where we differ sometimes, but not always, is what the solutions are, and as we work through that, we can do so in a diligent manner, representing the best interests of our constituents, because, as the Speaker pointed out, all too often there are more questions sometimes than answers, and this time that we are in right now is no different.

So as you get acclimated up here, stay connected back home, and continue to advocate for what is best for each and every one of your residents and welcome. I look forward to working with each of you. My door will always be open, and if you need anything, please do not hesitate to call, because I would love to hear each one of your own individual stories and the reasons why you ran. Thank you.

REMARKS BY DEMOCRATIC LEADER

The SPEAKER. And the minority leader, Representative Frank Dermody, of Allegheny County.

Mr. DERMODY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

And Mr. Speaker, I would like to thank Judge Stabile – I know he has left – for helping us out today, and, Senator Tomlinson, it is good to see you. It is good to see you.

I also want to welcome the small group of family and friends of our newest members. Welcome to the hall of the House.

And to our newest members, congratulations on your election.

Like everything else in recent weeks, we have had to make some sacrifices and abbreviate the normal activities that are associated with welcoming new members to the House, but I am sure we can get to that at some point; I hope we can. Because you are joining us during an emergency that is like nothing we have ever seen. Things are very much up in the air. We have to determine what the House really needs to do and what can be set aside for later. We know we have to do a State budget in 3 months, and things, I am sure, will be different when that comes up later.

So I am sure, all these new House members, you will jump in and make yourselves heard. The people who sent you here want you to do that. This job comes with many challenges and responsibilities, particularly in the situation that we are in right now, but you will do well, and if you do well, I am sure you will have fulfillment and satisfaction. I can think of no more important time to embark on your careers as public servants than where we are right now. So welcome and good luck.

STATE GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. We will take committee meetings or caucus announcements, and I am going to call on Representative Garth Everett, the chair of the State Government Committee.

Mr. EVERETT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

There will be an immediate meeting of the House State Government Committee in room 60 EW to consider the following bills: HB 995, HB 1874, SB 412, SB 413, SB 703. And under new business, we will be adding HB 2376 and HB 2400.

Again, immediate meeting of the House State Government Committee in room 60, East Wing.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. There will be an immediate meeting of the House State Government Committee in room 60, East Wing.

Also, everybody knows that under the rules you can vote remotely in committee as well.

COMMITTEE MEETING CANCELED

The SPEAKER. At this time Chairman Dan Moul of the Local Government Committee.

Mr. MOUL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

I guess now is as appropriate as any time: the Local Government Committee voting meeting for tomorrow has been canceled.

Once again, Local Government voting meeting for tomorrow, Tuesday, has been canceled.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MR. SAYLOR

The SPEAKER. And Stan Saylor, the majority Appropriations chair, sir, for a committee meeting announcement, sir.

Mr. SAYLOR. Mr. Speaker, we will call the meeting when we come back to the floor, but I just want to put members on notice, there will be an Appropriations meeting after the caucus. When we come back to the floor, we will announce the time and location at that time.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you so much, Mr. Chair.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. And caucus meetings, and I am going to call upon Representative Marcy Toepel, the majority caucus chair, for a caucus announcement.

Mrs. TOEPEL. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Republicans will hold a virtual caucus at 2:15. That will be a virtual caucus at 2:15. We would be prepared to return to the floor at 3:15. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Madam Chair.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. Representative Frank Dermody, the Democratic minority leader, for a caucus announcement, sir.

Mr. DERMODY. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The Democrats will also hold a virtual caucus at 2:15.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, sir.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. Members, we will stand in recess until 3:15 p.m. If we extend, we will try to give everybody about 15 minutes' notice for any extensions from the Speaker's Office.

At this time we will recess until 3:15 p.m.

And to our newest members, get ready to jump in. Thank you.

RECESS EXTENDED

The time of recess was extended until 3:30 p.m.; further extended until 3:45 p.m.; further extended until 4 p.m.; further extended until 4:30 p.m.; further extended until 5 p.m.; further extended until 5:15 p.m.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNORVETO OF HOUSE BILL

The Speaker laid before the House a communication in writing from the office of His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, advising that the following House bill had been vetoed by the Governor:

HB 1100, PN 3259.

Said bill having been returned with the following message:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Office of the Governor

March 27, 2020

TO THE HONORABLE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 15 of the Pennsylvania Constitution, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill 1100, Printer's Number 3259.

These are unprecedented times as the people of this Commonwealth face the daily realities of the COVID-19 pandemic: realities that require the necessary mitigation measures instituted to protect the life and health of all Pennsylvanians, including the closure of all "non-life sustaining" businesses, the closure of schools, and social distancing. We are all making these difficult sacrifices as our lives, society and economy halt to a near-standstill. I am proud of the way Pennsylvanians have responded to this crisis. We, in government, must follow their lead.

Rather than enacting this bill, which gives a significant tax credit for energy and fertilizer manufacturing projects, we need to work together in a bipartisan manner to promote job creation and to enact financial stimulus packages for the benefit of Pennsylvanians who are hurting as they struggle with the substantial economic fallout of COVID-19.

The petrochemical and natural gas industries play an important part in Pennsylvania's energy-efficient and energy-sustainable future. I am fully supportive of this type of economic development within the Commonwealth. However, we have a duty, as custodians of taxpayer funds, to ensure that taxpayer-funded economic development incentives, like the proposed tax credit, are a responsible use of the Commonwealth's limited resources. Further, the required capital investment from companies and required job creation thresholds that must be met in order to receive the credits must adequately align with the level of economic development incentive. Furthermore, this bill does not guarantee the creation of jobs paying prevailing wages, wages Pennsylvania's workforce deserves when a project receives this level of financial commitment from the Commonwealth. Although the bill requires payment of prevailing wages for facility construction, the requirement is illusory because the critical enforcement and investigative tools provided under the Pennsylvania Prevailing Wage Act are absent from this bill.

I could be supportive of awarding an incentive such as this, but only after a thorough analysis of a proposed project and the inclusion of appropriate enforcement mechanisms to ensure that workers constructing these types of facilities rightfully are paid prevailing wages. While I am always supportive of business development here in the Commonwealth, I am also focused on making sure that we are investing taxpayer money in, projects that protect our workforce, support our communities and provide the financial stimulus needed to stabilize and grow our economy during this time of crisis.

For the reasons set forth above, I must withhold my signature from House Bill 1100, Printer's Number 3259.

Sincerely,
Tom Wolf
Governor

The SPEAKER. Members, the House will be adjourning. We have a motion from Representative Chris Quinn that the House be adjourned until Tuesday, April 7, 2020, at 11 a.m., e.d.t., unless sooner recalled by the Speaker.

There will, however, be an Appropriations Committee meeting at this time. You can vote under the temporary rule remotely for those who are on the Appropriations Committee, but the Appropriations Committee meeting is going to be held in the majority caucus room at this time.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Members, as it was yesterday, at our request the Chief Clerk had the chamber sanitized, for lack of a better verb, yesterday. It will be sanitized again today. The majority caucus room will be sanitized again, and I believe certain other offices. But the chamber will be sanitized this evening. In fact, it is going to begin around 7 p.m. Thank you, Chief Clerk.

Members, we are just going to wait a few minutes because the Appropriations Committee meeting may be changed until tomorrow morning.

APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Speaker at this time calls upon the majority Appropriations chair for information regarding the Appropriations Committee meeting.

Sir.

Mr. SAYLOR. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The Appropriations Committee meeting that I called earlier for 6 o'clock this evening is canceled, and the Appropriations Committee will meet tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. in the majority caucus room, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Thank you, Mr. Chair; very much appreciate it.

So members on the Appropriations Committee, you will be having a meeting tomorrow, 9:30 a.m., in the majority caucus room. Of course, you can vote remotely and just follow the rule, the temporary rule that was passed, work through either the majority Appropriations chair, Stan Saylor, or the minority Appropriations chair, Matt Bradford. Thank you.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. Without objection, all remaining bills and resolutions on today's calendar will be passed over. The Chair hears no objection.

ADJOURNMENT

The SPEAKER. At this time Representative Quinn moves that the House be adjourned until Tuesday, April 7, 2020, at 11 a.m., e.d.t., unless sooner recalled by the Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Motion was agreed to, and at 5:55 p.m., e.d.t., the House adjourned.
