No. 35

SENATE

MONDAY, June 2, 2003

The Senate met at 2 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Catherine Baker Knoll) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend KARL M. HECKERT, of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, Enola, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, thank You for this life that we enjoy and for this great nation and this Commonwealth in which we live. Those who are gathered in this room have been given the awesome responsibility to establish law and order and a decent life for those who live in our great Commonwealth. As You have commanded us to do, let us be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry. We have promised with an oath to You that we will do our best to speak and serve with honesty and faithfulness in helping to build and preserve our great State.

Look with favor and blessing on our endeavors. Let us not disappoint You or our fellow citizens in what we do here. Grant, we pray Thee, that our voice and presence will represent even those who are numbered as the poorest and simplest among us. Grant us courage and wisdom in our actions. Hear these, O God, our sincere and simple prayers. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Reverend Heckert, who is the guest today of Senator Mowery.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 1022

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

RESCINDING ALL OF THIS STATE'S PREVIOUS CALLS FOR A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

WHEREAS, the Legislature of the State of Arizona, acting with the best of intentions, has in the past applied to the Congress of the United States by memorial or resolution in accordance with article V, Constitution of the United States, for one or more constitutional conventions for the purpose of amending the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, over the course of time, the will of the people of the State of Arizona has changed with regards to Arizona's previous calls for a constitutional convention to amend the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, certain persons or states have called for a constitutional convention on issues that may be directly in opposition to the will of the people of this state; and

WHEREAS, the people of this state do not want their previous applications for a constitutional convention to be aggregated with those calls for a convention from other states; and

WHEREAS, former Justice of the United States Supreme Court Warren E. Burger, former Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court Arthur J. Goldberg and many other leading constitutional scholars are in general agreement that a convention, notwithstanding whatever limitation might be placed on it by the call for a convention, may propose sweeping constitutional changes or, by virtue of the authority of a constitutional convention, redraft the Constitution of the United States creating an imminent peril to the well established rights of citizens and to the duties of various levels of government; and

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the United States, has been amended many times in the history of this nation and may be amended many more times without the need to resort to a constitutional convention, and has been interpreted for more than two hundred years and found to be a sound document that protects the lives and liberties of citizens; and

WHEREAS, there is no need for, and in fact that is great danger in, a new constitution or in opening the Constitution of the United States to radical changes, the adoption of which could create legal chaos in this nation and begin the process of another two centuries of litigation over its meaning and interpretation; and

WHEREAS, changes or amendments that may be needed in the present Constitution of the United States may be proposed and enacted without resorting to a constitutional convention by using the process provided in the Constitution and previously used throughout the history of this nation.

Therefore Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Arizona, the House of Representatives concurring,

1. That the Legislature of the State of Arizona hereby repeals, rescinds, cancels, renders null and void and supersedes any and all existing applications to the Congress of the United States for a constitutional convention under Article V of the Constitution of the United States for any purpose, whether limited or general.

2. That the Legislature of the State of Arizona urges the legislature of each and every state that has applied to Congress for either a general or limited constitutional convention to repeal and rescind their applications.

3. That the Secretary of State of the State of Arizona transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Administrator of General Services in Washington, D.C., each Member of Congress from the State of Arizona and the Secretaries of State and

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 36, ADOPTED

Senator BRIGHTBILL, without objection, called up from page 4 of the Calendar, Senate Resolution No. 36, entitled:

A Resolution declaring July 27, 2003, as "Korean War Veterans Armistice Day" in Pennsylvania and urging all government agencies and citizens to fly the American flag at half-staff on July 27, 2003, in honor of those Americans who fought and died in service to the United States in the Korean War.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Mercer, Senator Robbins.

Senator ROBBINS. Madam President, "Congress faces as grave a task as any Congress in the history of our Republic. The actions [Congress] take[s] will be watched by the whole world. These actions will measure the ability of a free people, acting through their chosen representatives and their free institutions, to meet a deadly challenge to their way of life. We can meet this challenge foolishly or wisely. We can meet it timidly or bravely, shamefully or honorably."

Although these words apply to today's war on terrorism, they were spoken by President Truman in his 1951 State of the Union Address, as the U.S. escalated its involvement in the Korean War. Before the Korean War began, our nation had just emerged as a victor from a war that pitted the forces of democracy against fascism. And while our forces decisively won that battle, a new war loomed on the horizon. Communist aggression and expansion continually grew after the end of World War II, and on June 25, 1950, Communist forces from the north invaded South Korea. Just 5 years after the Second World War, America was again called upon to defend the spirit of democracy. And who answered this call? Our veterans, over 5.7 million, including 350,000 Pennsylvanians. These brave men and women embraced their patriotic duty. They left their families, homes, and everything that was dear to them to fight a war of freedom halfway around the world. They risked their lives to make the world a better place, a better place for democracy, their loved ones, and for millions of Koreans who wanted so desperately to embrace freedom. President Truman understood what was at stake. He said, the principles for which we are fighting in Korea are right and just. They are the foundations of collective security and of the future of free nations. Korea is not only a country undergoing the torment of aggression, it is also a symbol. It stands for right and justice in the world against oppression and slavery. The free world must always stand for these principles, and we will stand with the free world.

The truth is, some things are just plain worth fighting for. This fight, however, was not waged without loss, as over 2,000 Pennsylvanians made the ultimate sacrifice. Although the Korean War is sometimes called the forgotten war, we must never forget those who landed at Inchon, those who fought at Changjin Reservoir, those who fought at Heartbreak Ridge, those who were airdropped into Sunch'on, and those who liberated Seoul.

We will never forget the service of our countrymen, we will never forget their sacrifice, and in remembrance of all of those who served during that war, I feel it is appropriate that the Senate declares Sunday, July 27, 2003, the fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the armistice, as "Korean War Veterans Armistice Day" in Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Madam President.

The PRESIDENT. Thank you, Senator Robbins, for your comments declaring Sunday, July 27, 2003, as the "Korean War Veterans Armistice Day."

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?
A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

SENATE RESOLUTION ADOPTED

Senators RHOADES, O'PAKE, WOZNIAK and MELLOW, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 103, entitled:

A Resolution urging the National Football League to recognize the Pottsville Maroons as the National Football League Champions of 1925.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Schuylkill, Senator Rhoades.

Senator RHOADES. Madam President, 78 years ago the Frankford section of Philadelphia opposed the Pottsville Maroons playing a December exhibition game against the Notre Dame "Four Horsemen and Seven Mules," which was a Notre Dame All-Star Team. And this was after the Frankford Yellow Jackets were defeated by Pottsville and eventually were declared league champions, because they also defeated the Chicago Cardinals in early December of 1925.

The Pottsville league's best team was to play Notre Dame, but Frankford opposed any other team playing at its home field, which was Shibe Park. Pottsville played and won. They beat Notre Dame 9-7, and they were declared world champions, but because of Frankford's protest, the NFL levied a severe penalty of $500, which was big money in those days, and removed the title of world champions from the Maroons.

As I noted, today we have all kinds of playoffs, but they did not hold them in 1925. During their season, the Maroons beat Chicago 21-7, and the Notre Dame All-Stars 9-7. Pottsville, in turn, had that title taken from them.

Today there has been an effort, and I would like to compliment and thank the Governor for the initiative he has taken. He met with the NFL owners, along with Mayor John D.W. Reiley of Pottsville, asking them to reconsider that decision. It is interesting to note that Art Rooney has said his team, which we all know as the Pittsburgh Steelers, can trace their roots through Frankford's Shibe Park, after a deal in the 1940s after the fabled Phil-Pitt Steagles team was split, and owner Rooney formally withdrew any protest Frankford had against Pottsville playing the game with Notre Dame, which would remove the protest and make them eligible to receive and share in this championship. I also note that the Philadelphia City Councilman from the 10th district, Brian J. O'Neill, has introduced a resolution that says that the Frankford section of Philadelphia is joining a crusade to win back the 1925 NFL championship for the Pottsville Maroons.

What my resolution does, in essence, is have a history of this and call upon us to offer our support to the Governor in his efforts and acknowledge him for his efforts, and I also urge the NFL to recognize the right of the Pottsville Maroons of Schuylkill County to be named the National Football League Champions of 1925. I would appreciate the Senate's concurrence, and I also ask that the Chair leave the resolution open for anyone who would care to sign on.

Thank you.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.
