SESSION OF 2011 195TH OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 61

SENATE

MONDAY, October 24, 2011

The Senate met at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (Senator Joseph B. Scarnati III) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend BOB RYDER, Pastor of Lehman-Idetown United Methodist Church, Lehman, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Almighty and merciful God, in Your great mercy You have given us power, authority, and ability to order many of the affairs of life, and You have given us stewardship over Your amazing creation. We humbly receive these responsibilities as part of the many good and perfect gifts that come from You. We are quick to acknowledge and confess that we do not always perfectly utilize the many gifts You give us. In Your mercy, forgive us when we fall short of Your glory and Your honor, and always give us wisdom to quickly recognize and recover when we are unfaithful.

As this Session of the Pennsylvania Senate opens, we ask for Your gracious presence and that Your abundant blessing be upon every Member, every staff person, and all who gather to diligently do the work of governing this great Commonwealth. O God, we ask for wisdom and discernment in each mind, for compassion and grace in every heart, for strength and sturdiness in every body, for moral courage and ethical reckoning in every human will that participates here in leading and ordering our Commonwealth.

May it be said of this Session that Your good will has been done, and the righteousness and justice of Your ways are experienced by all because of the good and diligent work of these gathered here to govern us. May this Senate model for us what it means to be Pennsylvanian, what it means to be American, what it looks like as we, the diverse people of many languages, creeds, ethnicities, and ideas come together with love and respect for each other as equals and seek unity in our diversity for the good of everyone governed.

At the end of this day and the end of this Session, may it be said of everyone that we have been faithful in our duties, honest in our dealings, just in our decisions, and righteous in our morals. May You, O God, receive the glory and the honor. Through Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair thanks Pastor Ryder, who today is the guest of Senator Baker.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

UNFINISHED BUSINESS SENATE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Senators BROWNE, ORIE, STACK, SOLOBAY, FONTANA, KITCHEN, ERICKSON, COSTA, DINNIMAN, PILEGGI, FARNESE, PIPPY, WILLIAMS, TARTAGLIONE, BOSCOLA, WASHINGTON, FERLO, ALLOWAY, SCHWANK, LEACH, BRUBAKER and EARLL, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 218, entitled:

A Resolution recognizing the week of October 24 through 28, 2011, as "No Place for Hate Week" in Pennsylvania and commending the Anti-Defamation League for its outstanding efforts to promote peace, brotherhood and goodwill through its "No Place of Hate" program.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lehigh, Senator Browne.

Senator BROWNE. Mr. President, I offer a resolution designating the week of October 24 as "No Place For Hate Week" in Pennsylvania and commend the Anti-Defamation League for its efforts to promote their No Place For Hate program through our schools and our youth.

The No Place For Hate program is currently working in over 160 schools and 11 communities statewide, and is continuously expanding. This year marks the 10th anniversary of No Place For Hate in the Commonwealth. The No Place For Hate program is an outreach effort designed to empower schools and communities to challenge racism, hatred, anti-Semitism, and bigotry in all forms. By reducing bias and increasing appreciation for diversity, the No Place For Hate program is an innovative and powerful method for building communities of respect. I ask for an affirmative vote.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Senator KASUNIC, by unanimous consent, offered Senate Resolution No. 219, entitled:

A Resolution honoring the 75th anniversary of Fallingwater.

On the question,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Fayette, Senator Kasunic.

Senator KASUNIC. Mr. President, I rise today to urge support for my resolution that celebrates the 75th anniversary of Fallingwater in Fayette County. Designed by the famous architect Frank Lloyd Wright in 1935, the house has been visited by over 4 million people since it was taken over by the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy and opened to the public in 1963.

Considered the cornerstone of modern architecture, Wright's creation was described as where undulating stream met by unyielding stone, where the wilderness of nature met the will of one man. Mr. President, Fallingwater is already considered a State and national treasure. The United Nations may soon be honoring Fallingwater as a world heritage site. I am proud of what this architectural achievement stands for, and proud it is located in my district.

I urge unanimous support for this resolution.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the affirmative.
