Legislative Journal

SESSION OF 2021 205th OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

No. 26

SENATE

MONDAY, May 24, 2021

The Senate met at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor John K. Fetterman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend JOHN C. DORR, JR., of Bethlehem Steltz Reformed Church, Glen Rock, offered the following prayer:

Thank you to the Senate and to Senator Phillips-Hill for this wonderful opportunity.

Please join me in prayer.

O Lord God, You have blessed us in so many ways. You have given us this good Commonwealth as our heritage. As we navigate the troubled waters of our present age, we pray that You would always watch over us and enable us to be a people who are mindful of the blessings we have received and eager to share those blessings with one another.

We are grateful to You, Lord God, that the pandemic that has plagued us for over a year shows signs of receding. Comfort those who have lost loved ones. Heal those who still struggle with the effects of that horrible illness.

Bless, O Lord, our State with productive industry, a fruitful land, quality education, and a respect for those who are different from us. Save us from the violence, discord, confusion, pride, and arrogance that seem to flourish. Heavenly Father, preserve our liberties and mold us into one people who have come from many diverse backgrounds. Help us to look to Your word that we may be a blessing to the nations of the world. In times of trouble, help us to always look to You. In times of plenty, fill us with the thankfulness and eagerness to help others.

I pray today Lord, that You would be with the Members of this Senate and our other governmental officers of this Commonwealth. Fill them with the spirit of wisdom so that there may be justice and peace in our land. Protect each citizen of our State and help us to be beacons of light in the darkness. I ask all of these things in the strong name of Your Son, our Savior. Amen.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thanks Reverend Dorr, who is the guest today of Senator Phillips-Hill.

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION AND FINAL PASSAGE

SB 82 (Pr. No. 60) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 28, 1984 (P.L.150, No.28), known as the Automobile Lemon Law, further providing for definitions, for repair obligations, for manufacturer's duty for refund or replacement and for presumption of a reasonable number of attempts.

Considered the third time and agreed to,

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The PRESIDENT. Senator Brooks has submitted remarks for the record. Without objection, the remarks will be spread upon the record.

(The following prepared remarks were made part of the record at the request of the gentlewoman from Mercer, Senator BROOKS:)

Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 82 will ensure that motorcycles will now be covered under a lemon law in Pennsylvania. Currently, the Automobile Lemon Law protects car buyers by requiring manufacturers to repair any defect that significantly affects the use, value, or safety of the vehicle. However, similar protections are not currently offered to those who purchase motorcycles. This omission in law leaves motorcycle buyers with far less protection than car buyers. Currently, a consumer purchasing a defective motorcycle must either pay out of pocket for repairs or fix the problem themselves.

Under Senate Bill No. 82, a defective motorcycle would be replaced or the cost of the purchase would be refunded if the motorcycle cannot be repaired after three attempts within 1 year of the delivery of the motorcycle to the purchaser, or during the term of warranty, whichever may occur first. This legislation would not include dual sport motorcycles driven off-road, nor does it include if the nonconformity is a result of a modification or alteration made after the date of delivery of the motorcycle to the purchaser.

Whether Pennsylvanians buy a vehicle with two wheels or four, we should be providing protections to all vehicle buyers and taking steps to protect all consumers, not just those purchasing cars. In closing, I would like to thank ABATE for their efforts with this legislation as well as their commitment to motorcycle safety.

Thank you, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION AND FINAL PASSAGE

SB 403 (Pr. No. 394) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending Title 30 (Fish) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in registration and titling of boats, further providing for period of registration.

Considered the third time and agreed to,

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Robinson.

Senator ROBINSON. Mr. President, I first want to express my thanks to Senator Laughlin and his committee for working with my staff and I on this legislation. Senate Bill No. 403 is a commonsense change that would simply align the Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission's boat registration period with the calendar year. Due to an antiquated provision in Title 30, the period of registration spans 2 years, from April 1 until March 31 of the second year. This creates considerable confusion among boaters who mistakenly believe their registration is valid through the end of the calendar year listed on the registration decal.

Under this legislation, the registration period would begin on January 1 and extend until December 31 of the second year. This legislation is supported by the commission, has been reviewed by the U.S. Coast Guard for consistency with Federal boating guidelines, and will not impose any additional costs or penalties on Pennsylvania boaters. I respectfully ask my colleagues for an affirmative vote.

Thank you, Mr. President.

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

SB 426, SB 442 and SB 457 -- Without objection, the bills were passed over in their order at the request of Senator K. WARD.

BILL ON THIRD CONSIDERATION AND FINAL PASSAGE

SB 521 (Pr. No. 541) -- The Senate proceeded to consideration of the bill, entitled:

An Act amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, in other offenses, further providing for the offense of invasion of privacy.

Considered the third time and agreed to,

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator Mensch.

Senator MENSCH. Mr. President, I rise today along with my chief cosponsor, Senator Santarsiero, to support Senate Bill No. 521. The bill was made necessary by the unspeakable actions of a former teacher in my district. In January of 2020, a math teacher and soccer coach at Palisades High School in Bucks County was found to be taking upskirt photos of students and then sharing them online. As a result of this despicable and dehumanizing act, the teacher was charged with invasion of privacy and indecent exposure, which is certainly the least of what he deserved. Specifically, this legislation will make this offense a third-degree felony for a first offense and a second-degree felony for subsequent offenses for the invasion of privacy of a minor when committed by a person of authority such as a teacher. With this legislation, we hope to send a strong message that invasions of privacy like this, that do so much irreparable harm to our children, will not be tolerated and carry with them serious penalties and consequences. This bill is a companion bill of House Bill No. 163, sponsored by Representative Staats, which has already passed the House. I humbly ask for an affirmative vote.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Senator Santarsiero.

Senator SANTARSIERO. Mr. President, I thank my colleague, Senator Mensch, for working with our office on this legislation and our colleague in the House, as he mentioned, Representative Staats. This bill is narrowly tailored to deal with a situation where an adult is upskirting a child, and it arises, most egregiously, in the context of a school setting, as was the case in Bucks County at the Palisades School District. I can tell you, both as a parent and a former teacher, that case was particularly disturbing and upsetting. I know for the families who had to endure the case, to know that in the future we would be holding any offender to a higher standard and a higher penalty is, I think, comforting and to know that it would help, hopefully, dissuade this kind of behavior in the future. We send our kids to school with the expectation that they are going to learn in a safe environment, and we have to make sure we do everything we can to provide that safe environment. I believe this legislation will help do that. So, again, I thank Senator Mensch and Representative Staats, and I respectfully request an affirmative vote. Thank you.

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Luzerne, Senator Baker.

Senator BAKER. Mr. President, today I rise to offer acknowledgment and remembrance for the tragedy of missing adult persons. When a loved one vanishes, be it family, friend, coworker, or neighbor, it creates an unimaginable void. There is no finality, closure, or answers, just endless suspicion and speculation that tears at the soul. Thanks to technological advances in the world of criminal justice and investigations, law enforcement and investigators are able to increase their success of finding fugitives, keeping tabs on wrongdoers, and shining new light on old crimes. Yet, for the families of the missing persons, all of these tools and found knowledge can be disconcerting. It makes the complete lack of answers in their situation all the more emotionally difficult to deal with.

Across Pennsylvania, more than 300 adults are among the missing in our State. The harsh reality of missing persons hits very close to home in my community and many others. There have been several families in my district over the years who I have met with regarding their lost loved ones. Specifically, this week marks 15 years since the tragic disappearance of Shelva Rafté. Shelva was last seen in Wyoming County on the evening of her daughter's college graduation party. Her family, friends, and those close to her have felt the horrible pain, frustration, and anger of not being able to help her or have closure of knowing what truly happened. While the questions and sadness surround Shelva, 6 years ago her sisters took their pain and channeled it into helping others through the creation of Lead Me Home Today, a nonprofit organization that helps raise awareness about the number of missing persons, educate families about available resources, and bridge the communications gap between law enforcement and families. Pauline Bailey, too, of Luzerne County, has been searching for answers for 17 years. The day her daughter disappeared, she calls it the day of horror. Her daughter, Phyliscia Thomas, of Luzerne County, was last seen at a party. That was 17 years ago.

Missing persons and their families deserve justice and many remain hopeful for answers. While we cannot always guarantee that justice is achieved, we can raise awareness and engage in conversations that can improve and support the collaboration needed in these very special cases. The more information that is gathered, made accessible, and shared between law enforcement agencies and authorities, the better the chances are that the answers can be found, the answers that these families are searching for.

So please join me in honoring Shelva Rafté and Phyliscia Thomas and the efforts of their dedicated families, as well as law enforcement agencies and authorities, who continue to work tirelessly to find answers and offer hope in these heart-wrenching cases of missing adult persons here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. President.

GUEST OF SENATOR KRISTIN PHILLIPS-HILL PRESENTED TO THE SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from York, Senator Phillips-Hill.

Senator PHILLIPS-HILL. Mr. President, I rise to introduce and thank today's guest Chaplain, Pastor John Dorr, Jr., of the Bethlehem Steltz Reformed Church in Glen Rock, York County. Pastor Dorr has been with the church since 2011, and the church's mission is to spread the gospel all across the world. We are grateful that Pastor Dorr could join us today virtually to pray for this Chamber at the start of an important week. His thoughtful prayer speaks to all of us. Thank you, again, to Pastor Dorr for providing the Senate with today's opening prayer.

Thank you, Mr. President.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES (Continued)

The PRESIDENT. Senator Tartaglione has submitted remarks for the record. Without objection, the remarks will be spread upon the record.

(The following prepared remarks were made part of the record at the request of the gentlewoman from Philadelphia, Senator TARTAGLIONE:)

Mr. President, today marks 5,434 days since the Pennsylvania legislature last raised the minimum wage. That is almost 15 years, and it is far too long.

Mr. President, today I would like to discuss the will of the people. In many ways it is an abstract concept, but all Members of the General Assembly must be ever conscious of its practical applications. I consider it a privilege and an honor to serve in the Senate for many reasons, but first and foremost because the people of the 2nd Senatorial District have chosen me to serve and work on behalf of their interests. It is their will that I represent them.

Similarly, we saw the will of the people on display, at least to a certain extent, last Tuesday when slightly more than half of Pennsylvania voters chose "yes" on two high-profile ballot questions regarding statewide emergency declarations. It should be noted that Pennsylvania voters have now gone 26 years without rejecting a ballot question—that is 22 questions in a row and counting. These were two of the closest "yes" votes we have seen in that time. Yet, the people have spoken and it is our duty to respect their will. I mention this because Pennsylvania has spoken loudly and frequently in recent years on another very important issue facing the Commonwealth. There is no question about where the overwhelming majority of folks stand on the issue. Time and again—whenever given the opportunity in public opinion polls—Pennsylvanians have said they want us to raise the minimum wage. In fact, support for raises keeps growing. Yet, time and again, Republican Leadership in the General Assembly has flat-out rejected the will of the people.

In February 2017, a Franklin & Marshall College poll found that 61 percent of PA voters favored a $12 minimum wage. In April 2018, a TargetSmart poll found that 56 percent of PA voters supported raising the minimum wage to $15 an hour and eliminating the sub-minimum wage for tip earners. Sixty-two percent of those who responded said they supported a $12 minimum wage. In March 2019, another Franklin & Marshall poll found that 69 percent of PA voters favored a $12 minimum wage. In August 2019, a poll by the State Innovation Exchange found that 62 percent of PA voters favored raising the minimum wage to $15 over a 5-year period.

That happens to be the same minimum wage plan that I introduced earlier this year in Senate Bill No. 12, a bill that has been sitting in the Committee on Labor and Industry since February. It is the same bill that I introduced in 2019, legislation that expired after almost 2 years of inaction. Mr. President, these statewide survey results should come as no surprise. Americans as a group have been saying the same things for years. Just last month, 62 percent of U.S. adults said they favor a $15

Federal minimum wage, according to a Pew Research Center survey. Yet, here in Pennsylvania, hundreds of thousands of workers are still making poverty wages. Many are making just $7.25 an hour, and some even less than that. Every time they speak up about this injustice, every time they express their will, partisan Leaders of the General Assembly have disregarded them. Mr. President, it is long past time that we fulfill the will of the voters and the working families of Pennsylvania and we provide them with the economic relief they deserve. It is time that we raise the minimum wage to a fair, family-sustaining wage. Senate Bill No. 12 would serve that need. I urge my colleagues to advance and adopt the bill.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Philadelphia, Senator Tartaglione.

Senator TARTAGLIONE. Mr. President, I rise today to ask for the support of my Senate colleagues for my resolution recognizing May 2021 as Older Americans Month in the Commonwealth. The theme of this year's commemoration is "Communities of Strength." I cannot think of a greater description for Pennsylvania's senior citizens in light of the devastating pandemic that we have endured together as one big community. If there is any consolation to be found in the many tragedies we have witnessed throughout the last 15 months, it is the determination to persevere that our older family members, neighbors, and friends continue to express. Their steadfast resolve should not come as a surprise. To put it in colloquial terms, the pandemic is not their first rodeo and it will not be their last.

Today's older Pennsylvanians and Americans have defended our democracy in many hot wars and one long Cold War. They have survived and, ultimately, prospered beyond many economic downturns and recessions. Some of them are even old enough to remember the Great Depression. They have witnessed the invention of television, space travel, the Internet, and smartphones. Yet, through all that technological progress, they have always been there for us to share their fundamental, time-tested wisdom.

Personally, when I stop to think about older Americans, the first people who come to mind are my mother and father who, despite their passing, each remain very much with us in spirit and inspiration. I think of how hard my father worked to make life better for our family, how he applied his entrepreneurial spirit and built multiple, successful businesses. I also think of my mother who, as the first woman ever elected citywide in Philadelphia, blazed the trail of inclusiveness through the political landscape of the Commonwealth. Yet, my thoughts also turn to the many older Americans and Pennsylvanians who our modern world has left behind, those who are struggling to fulfill their most basic needs. I think of senior citizens who cannot afford their food, housing, and prescription medication. So, they are forced to work for poverty-level wages because our General Assembly has not raised our minimum wage in almost 15 years. I think about how great it would be if we, as a Commonwealth and a country, adopted an Eastern manner of thinking, if we cared more for older folks spiritually and substantively.

A Japanese philosopher once wrote, "If there is value in the young shoots of spring and the light of summer, then there must also be value in the mature trees of autumn and the grand sunsets of winter." Mr. President, although we may not always realize it, senior citizens are our greatest treasure as a culture. Nothing is more important or more rewarding than sharing our lives with them every month and every day of the year. I respectfully urge my Senate colleagues to support this resolution recognizing May 2021 as Older Americans Month in Pennsylvania.

Thank you, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Montgomery, Senator Muth.

Senator MUTH. Mr. President, I rise today to offer comments to mark an important milestone in Pennsylvania's legislative and constitutional history that occurred last Tuesday on May 18, 2021. While most of us were focused on the primary and special elections, that date also marked the 50th anniversary of the adoption of the constitutional amendment by the citizens of Pennsylvania enshrining environmental justice safeguards. Pennsylvania is one of only a few States to recognize clean air and pure water as a basic human right. By virtue of the ratification by voters, Article I, Section 27, provides two rights to a clean environment for Pennsylvania citizens. One is a right to clean air, pure water, and the preservation of the natural, scenic, historic, and esthetic values of the environment. The other is the right to have public natural resources conserved and maintained by the Commonwealth for the benefit of present and future generations. There are some State constitutions that have one or the other of those rights, but very few States have both. It is a very powerful statement.

In 1969, then House Member who eventually became a State Senator, Senator Franklin Kury, who was then a young lawyer and legislator from Sunbury, drafted Section 27 and introduced it in the legislature. He suggested that the right to a clean environment deserves the same constitutional protection as the right to free speech and freedom of religion. I had the distinct honor and privilege of interviewing Senator Kury on the occasion of this important legislative, constitutional, and environmental milestone 2 weeks ago.

The first enactment of the ballot measure occurred on Earth Day 1970 when the House concurred in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 958, the proposed environmental amendment. It was subsequently reintroduced in the 1971-72 legislative Session, was quickly approved by both houses unanimously, and placed on the ballot for a referendum in the May 1971 Primary Election. Consequently, 50 years ago last week, namely on May 18, 1971, Pennsylvania voters approved that measure by a vote of 1,021,342 votes to 259,979. The amendment thereby became Article I, Section 27, of the Pennsylvania Constitution. The 4 to 1 margin of approval on Article I, Section 27, significantly exceeded the votes given to all other proposed constitutional amendments that day on the ballot. Two other proposals were approved 2 to 1, and two others were defeated.

In the half century following its enactment, Article I, Section 27, has been widely quoted and frequently used in litigation to block environmental harm. The amendment has also had an impact in the realm of State agency decision-making and in the State legislature. At the State agency level, the amendment has provided a firm policy basis that is widely applied by the agencies responsible for protecting the environment in Pennsylvania: the Department of Environment Protection; the Department of Environmental Resources; PennDOT; the Public Utility Commission; the Historical and Museum Commission; the Fish and Boat Commission; and the Game Commission. It has also been featured in legal journals and environmental magazines. Pennsylvania's environmental constitutional amendment ranks with the amendments of Illinois, Massachusetts, and New York in providing a basis of broad scope for protecting our environment. At least 12 other States have environmental amendments, but each is much more restricted or narrow in its range of support and protection for our environment. Pennsylvania's amendment not only declares air and water quality rights, but also establishes the public trust doctrine with a declared statement of duty. This broad scope places Pennsylvania virtually alone among the 50 States and the Federal government in providing a firm constitutional basis for the protection of the environment.

While we commemorated this milestone last week, I feel it is important to point out, however, that despite the resounding will of the citizens of Pennsylvania--as evidenced by the 4 to 1 margin of adoption in 1971--we continue to witness efforts by legislators to circumvent, stymie, or impede our constitutional protected right to clean air and pure water. We even have to contend with instances of inaction or utter failure to enforce laws and safety regulations by the very State agencies whose responsibility and mission is to uphold and protect those basic rights.

Finally, a reminder to us all who have the privilege and honor of serving in this Chamber. When we took office, we all took the oath to uphold our Constitution. Our Constitution contains Article 1, Section 27, which protects citizens' rights to clean air, pure water, and the preservation of the natural, historic, scenic, and esthetic values of the environment as well as a right to have public natural resources conserved and maintained by the Commonwealth, the State of Pennsylvania, for the benefit of present and future generations. Let us use this milestone as a new oomph into that time ahead to make sure that we actually do our due diligence, hold ourselves accountable, demand transparency from our State agencies, and make sure we are protecting all Pennsylvanians' constitutional rights.

Thank you, Mr. President.

RECESS

Senator K. WARD. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now recess until Tuesday, May 25, 2021, at 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, unless sooner recalled by the President pro tempore.
