A. When I was just a lad, my father tok me to the mountains one weekend and after much instruction and careful warning about wandering off, we began to walk the woods. After a time, I began to ignore the wise instructions and warnings and did in fact begin to wander off the path. For a while I felt no concern, but all of a sudden I realized that I had no idea where I was, how I got there, nor how to get back.

At first I was motivated by pride, to proud to cry out for help. Next came real concern and this was followed by a sense of panic fear and I did in fact yell for help. My Dad who had watched this all unfold was quick to give voice response and to tell me to follow his voice. This time I was more than happy to exercise the wisdom to follow his voice and soon met him on the path from which I had wandered.

B. When the commonwealth of Pennsylvania first began to look to games of chance as a method of raising monies, I believe that the path was left behind and although many tried to give warning, pride prevented the elected officials from hearing.

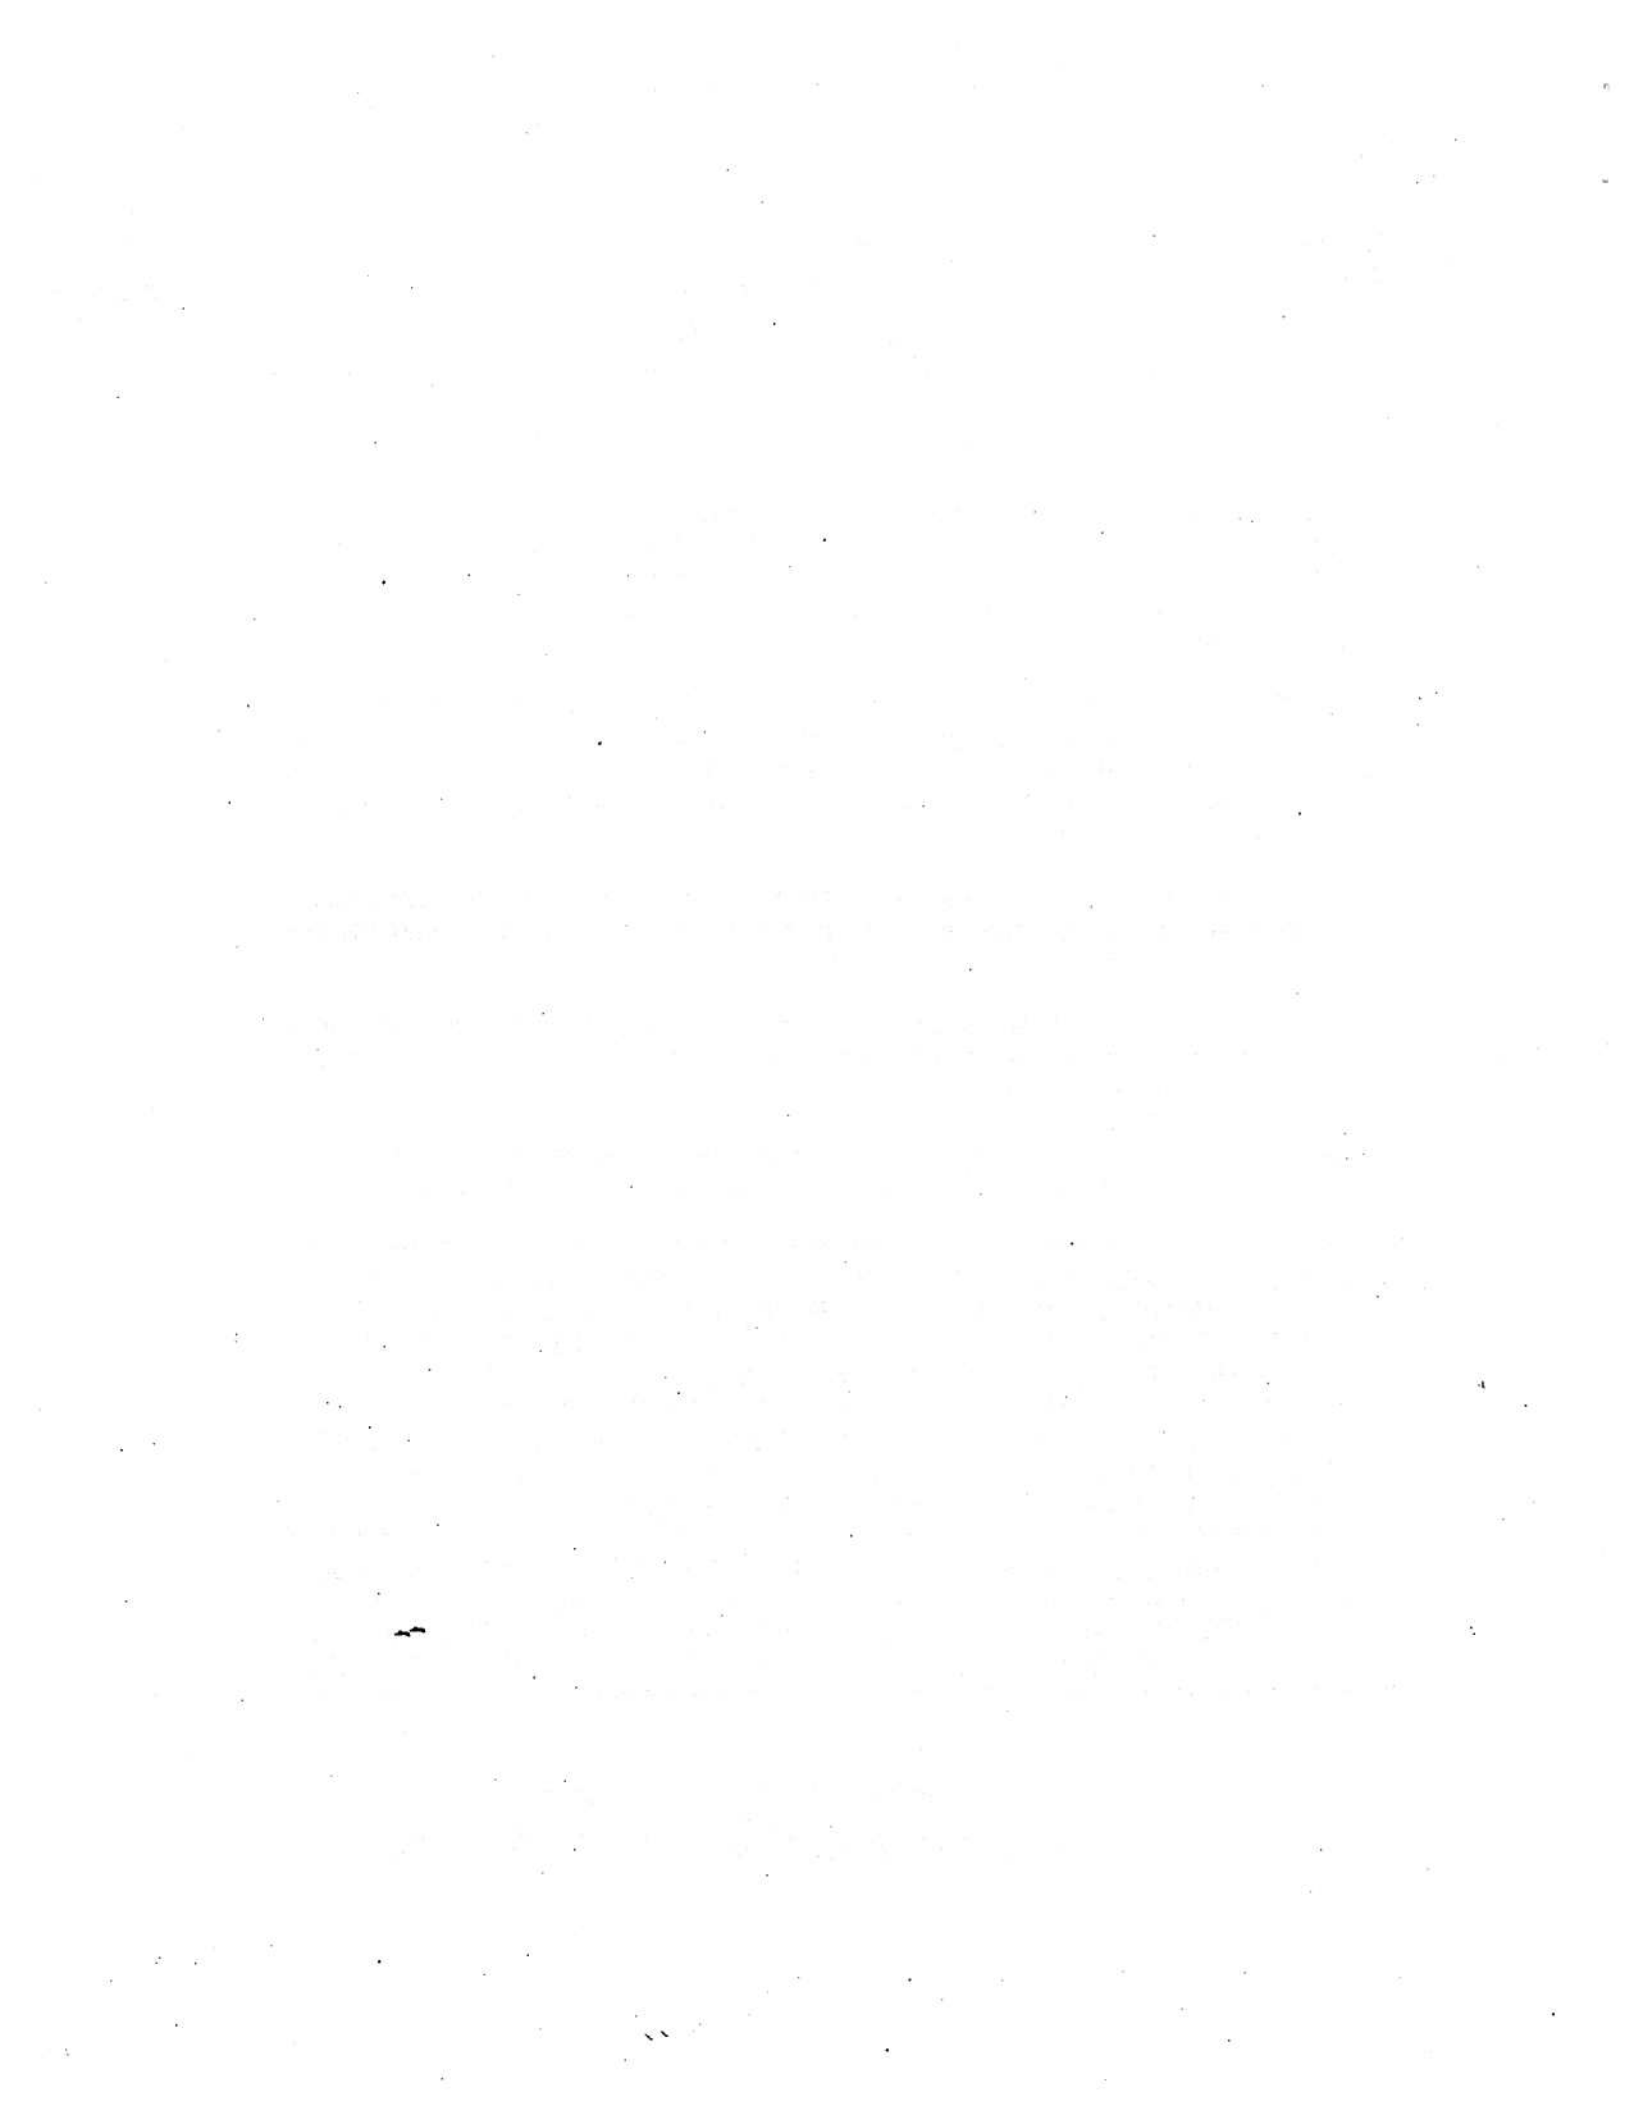

I will not today seek to debate the issues of Right v/s Wrong, Profiting from the weakness of those who become addicted to such games of chance, Nor the results of such actions upon families and society at large.

C. I do wish to be as one of the voices seeking to call the commonwealth of Pennsylvania back to the safety of the path with these three suggestions, for your consideration:

- *****
- 1. TAKE A WALK AROUND THIS CAPITOL, IN WHICH YOU WORK, AND CAREFULLY READ THE WRITINGS ON THE WALLS. PENNSYLVANIA WAS NOT FOUNDED UPON THE PRINCIPLES OF CHANCE, BUT RATHER UPON FAITH IN GOD AND HIS WILLINGNESS AND ABILITY TO PROVIDE .
- *****
- 2. REALIZE THAT THE PROMISES AND WARNINGS OF CHRIST JESUS STILL STAND TODAY AND THAT UNLESS YOU BUILD UPON THE ROCK HARD FOUNDATION OF TRUTH., YOU SHALL REAP THAT WHICH YOU SOW.
- *****
- 3. FINALLY, I SINCERELY IMPLERE YOU TO UNDERSTAND THAT BEFORE YOU LAY THE TWO PATHWAYS OF 2 CHR, CHAPTER 7, AND THAT AS AGENTS OF THE PEOPLE, YOU WILL EITHER CONDUCT YOURSELVES AS THE GOVERNMENT OF BLESSING OR AS A GOVERNMENT OF GODS CURSE, THE CHOICE IS YOURS.

May God Bless and Protect His Church and America from the U.N.ited States, in Jesus name, Amen...

☞n as much as the Holy Scriptures clearly point out that man, apart from God, tho created in the image of God, is void of righteousness and therefore capable of unspeakable evils, and

☞n as much as the Declaration of Independence recognizes mans accountability to God , his creator, and the unalienable rights bestowed upon man by Almighty God, and

☞n so much that the Constitution of the states united, with the Bill of Rights, clearly recognizes the lawful authority of the individual over all governments, of man, and the federal seat as a servant of the people, and

☞n so much that representatives at the state level, thru-out the several states have in large portion relinquished their lawful authority over the servant, at the federal seat, to that servant, and

☞here as the servants at the federal seat have enacted regulations, as law, that are Contrary to Common Law, Biblical Law, The Constitution, Bill of Rights and the conscience of the Sovereign, therefore

☞ do hereby declare my intent to prayerfully, individually and peacefully educate myself and to use all lawful methods to join my efforts with others, of like mind and spirit, in defense of The Republic the Sovereign States and Commonwealths, The Common Law, The Constitution, The Bill of Rights, all of my unalienable God given rights & those of my fellow Americans.

☞urther I do hereby reject the need for a World Wide System of Government, prior to the return of Christ Jesus, and will strive to resist the same.

☞hile my position is defensive, not aggressive, I do hereby recognize the necessary good of preparedness at all levels in this position of defensiveness and will prepare myself accordingly.

☞ay Almighty God, thru His Holy Spirit, direct and reward these efforts to remain free and true to Him and may all resulting honor and glory go to Him.

You can make a difference

If you say that you are only human, you are saying - You are only created in Gods Image. (Genesis 1:26 A)

If you say that you are just one person, use Gods Law of Reaping and Sowing. (Galations 6:7)

1	Person tells 20	= 20
	and those
20	Tell 20	= 400
400	Tell 20	= 8000
8000	Tell 20	= 160,000
160,000	Tells 20	= 3,200,000

Not bad for just one person who is only human.

Use word of mouth, Fax/ Computer Nets
Remember: Faith = Substance ,Evidence
(Heb 11:1)

And: Faith without works is dead.

UNITED STATES PRESIDENTS COMMENT ON THE BIBLE:

"It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible".

- President George Washington

"I have said and always will say that the studious perusal of the sacred volume will make better citizens, better fathers, and better husbands".

- President Thomas Jefferson

"If you take out of your statutes, your constitution, your family life, all that is taken from the Sacred Book, what would there be to bind society together."

- President Benjamin Harrison

"The more profoundly we study this wonderful book and the more closely we observe its divine precepts, the better citizens we will become and the higher will be our destiny as a nation."

- President William McKinley

"Of the many influences that have shaped the United States into a distinctive nation and people, none may be said to be more fundamental and enduring than the Bible."

- President Ronald Reagan

"The foundations of our society and government rest so much on the teachings of the Bible that it would be difficult to support them if faith in these teachings would cease to be practically universal in our country."

- President Calvin Coolidge

"Can the liberties of a nation be thought secure when we have removed their only firm basis, a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties are a gift from God?"

- "The Bible is the source of Liberty." - President Thomas Jefferson

THE GREAT AWAKENING

"The American Revolution was preceded by the great religious revival of the middle of the eighteenth century, which had its effect both in England and the colonies. When the common people turned to the reading of the Bible... when they were stirred by a great revival...the way was prepared.... It was because religion gave the people a new importance and a new glory that they demanded a new freedom and a new government.

We cannot in our generation reject the cause and retain the result.

If the institutions they adopted are to survive, if the governments they founded are to endure, it will be because the people continue to have similar religious beliefs. It is idle to discuss freedom and equality on any other basis. It is useless to expect substantial reforms from any other motive. They cannot be administered from without. They must come from within. That is why laws alone are so impotent. To enact or to repeal laws is not to secure real reform. It is necessary to take these problems directly to the individual There will be obedience to law when the individual feels that government represents a divine authority.

It is these beliefs, these religious convictions, that represent the strengths of all civilized society It is righteousness alone which exalteth the nation. "

- President Calvin Coolidge

THE INTENT OF LAW AND INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY

"We have staked the whole future of American Civilization, not upon the power of government, far from it. We have staked the future of all of our political institutions upon the capacity of EACH and ALL OF US to govern OURSELVES, to control OURSELVES, to sustain OURSELVES according to the Ten Commandments of God."

- James Madison, Father of the United States Constitution

THE SOURCE AND INTENTION FOR LAW IN SOCIETY

"...let us not forget the religious character of our origin. Our fathers brought hither their high veneration for the Christian religion. They journeyed by its light, and laboured in its hope. They sought to incorporate... and diffuse its influence through all their institutions; civil, political, and literary."

- Daniel Webster - 1820

THE SUPREME COURT ON U.S. CIVIL LAW

"Our laws and our institutions must necessarily be based upon and embody the teachings of the Redeemer of mankind. It is impossible that it should be otherwise; and in this sense and to this extent our civilization and our institutions are emphatically Christian....this is a religious people. This is historically true, from the discovery of this continent to the present hour, there is a single voice making this affirmation....we find everywhere a clear recognition of the same truth....this is a Christian nation."

- U.S. Supreme Court - 1891 - Church of the Holy Trinity versus United States
(143 US 457, 36 L ed 226, Justice Brewer)

PRINCIPLES OF LIBERTY DRAWN FROM THE BIBLE

It is extremely important to our nation, in a political as well as religious view, that all possible authority and influence should be given to the scriptures; for these furnish the best principles of civil liberty, and the most effectual support of republican government. They teach the true principles of that equality of rights which belongs to every one of the human family, but only in consistency with a strict subordination to the magistrate and the law.

The scriptures were intended by God to be the guide of human reason. The Creator of man established the moral order of the Universe; knowing that human reason, left without a divine guide or rule of action, would fill the world with disorder, crime and misery. A great portion of mankind, ignorant of this guide or rejecting its authority, have verified the fact; and the history of three thousand years is a tissue of proof that human reason left to itself can neither preserve morals nor give duration to a free government. Human reason never has been, and unquestionably never will be, a match for ambition, selfishness, and other evil passions of man. On the other hand, opposed to the force of these passions, constitution and laws are generally found to be mere cobwebs and gossamer.

The principles of all genuine liberty, and of wise laws and administrations are to be drawn from the Bible and sustained by its authority. The man therefore who weakens or destroys the divine authority of that book may be accessory to all the public disorders which society is doomed to suffer.

In my view, there are two powers only which are sufficient to control men, and secure the rights of individuals and a peaceable administration; these are the combined force of religion and law, and the force or fear of the bayonet.

The Bible is the chief moral cause of all that is good, and the best corrector of all that is evil, in human society; the best book for regulating the temporal concerns of men, and the only book that can serve as an infallible guide to future felicity.
