§ 224. Action on ratification.

(a) Quorum and required vote of governors.--The quorum and voting requirements applicable to a ratifying action by the governors under section 223 (relating to ratification of defective entity actions) shall be the quorum and voting requirements applicable to the entity action proposed to be ratified at the time the ratifying action is taken.

(b) Notice to interest holders.--If the ratification of the defective entity action requires action by the interest holders under section 223(c), and if the action is to be taken at a meeting, the entity must give notice to each holder of interests, regardless of whether entitled to vote, as of the record date for notice of the meeting and as of the date of the occurrence of the defective entity action. If the ratification relates to an overissue, the entity must give notice to the holders of both valid and putative interests. The entity is not required to give notice as otherwise required by this subsection to holders of valid or putative interests whose identities or addresses for notice cannot be determined from the records of the entity. The notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider ratification of a defective entity action and must be accompanied by:

(1) either a copy of the action taken by the governors in accordance with section 223 or the information required by section 223(a)(1), (2), (3) and (4); and

(2) a statement that any claim that the ratification of the defective entity action and any putative interests issued as a result of the defective entity action should not be effective, or should be effective only on certain conditions, must be brought within 120 days after the applicable validation effective time.

(c) Quorum and required vote of interest holders.--Except as provided in subsection (d) with respect to the voting requirements to ratify the election of governors, the quorum and voting requirements applicable to the approval by the interest holders required by section 223(c) shall be the quorum and voting requirements applicable to the entity action proposed to be ratified at the time of the interest holder approval, except that the presence or approval of interests of any class or series of which no interests are then outstanding, or of any person that is no longer an interest holder, shall not be required.

(d) Election of governors.--Action by interest holders ratifying the election of governors requires either:

(1) that the votes cast within the voting group favoring ratification exceed the votes cast opposing ratification of the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present; or

(2) in the case of directors or a class of directors of a business corporation elected by cumulative voting, that the votes cast against ratification not be sufficient to elect one or more directors to the board or to the class.

(e) Putative interests.--The following apply to putative interests:

(1) Putative interests on the record date for determining the interest holders entitled to vote on any matter submitted to interest holders under section 223(c) shall be entitled to vote and shall be counted for quorum purposes in any vote to approve the ratification of the matter if:

(i) they are shares of a registered corporation described in section 2502(1) (relating to registered corporation status); and

(ii) they have been held of record in fungible bulk by a registered clearing agency or its nominee, acting as securities intermediary.

(2) In all other cases, putative interests on the record date for determining the interest holders entitled to vote on any matter submitted to interest holders under section 223(c), and without giving effect to any ratification of putative interests that becomes effective as a result of the vote, are not entitled to vote and do not count for quorum purposes in any vote to approve the ratification of a defective entity action.

(f) Required amendment.--If the approval under this section of putative interests would result in an overissue, in addition to the approval required by section 223, approval of an amendment to the organic rules of the entity to increase the number of interests of an authorized class or series or to authorize the creation of a class or series of interests so there will be no over issue is also required.

§ 225. Optional notice.

(a) General rule.--If interest holder approval is not required under section 223(c) (relating to ratification of defective entity actions) or if notice has not been given in accordance with section 224(b) (relating to action on ratification), the ratifying entity nonetheless may give notice of an action taken under section 223 to each interest holder, including the holders of both valid and putative interests, regardless of whether entitled to vote, as of both:

- (1) the date of the action by the governors; and
- (2) the date of the defective entity action ratified.

(b) Contents.--The notice shall contain:

- (1) either a copy of the action taken by the governors in accordance with section 223(a) or (b) or the information required by section 223(a) (1), (2), (3) and (4) or 223(b) (1), (2) and (3), as applicable; and

§ 226. Effect of ratification.

(a) General rule.--A defective entity action is not void or voidable, or deprived of full effect, as a result of its failure of authorization if ratified in accordance with this subchapter, unless the court determines under section 228 (relating to judicial proceedings regarding validity of entity actions) that the ratification was not valid.

(b) Specific aspects of validation.--Subject to a court determination under section 228 that the ratification was not valid, from and after the validation effective time of a defective entity action, and without regard to the 120-day period during which a claim may be brought under section 228:

- (1) The defective entity action is not void or voidable, or deprived of full effect, as a result of its failure of authorization and is duly authorized and a valid entity action effective as of the date when the defective entity action was taken.

- (2) The issuance of each putative interest or fraction of a putative interest purportedly issued pursuant to the defective entity action is not void or voidable, and each putative interest or fraction of a putative interest is an identical, duly authorized and validly issued interest or fraction of an interest as of the time it was purportedly issued.

(3) Any entity action taken subsequent to the defective entity action in reliance on the defective entity action having been validly effected is duly authorized and valid as of the time taken. Any subsequent defective entity action resulting directly or indirectly from the original defective entity action, if the failure of authorization of the subsequent defective entity action relates solely to the defective entity action ratified under this subchapter, is duly authorized and valid as of the time taken.

(4) If a document was previously filed by the department in respect of the defective entity action, any statement in the document to the effect that the defective entity action was validly approved in accordance with applicable rules is deemed stricken from the document.

(7) the following information with respect to previous documents delivered to the department by the ratifying entity or by a previous entity:

(i) if a document was previously filed by the department in respect to the defective entity action and no changes to the filing are required to give effect to

(A) state the name of the entity filing the statement of validation and the statute under which it was incorporated or formed;

(B) state the name, title and filing date of the filing previously made and any previous statement of correction to that filing; and

(C) have attached a copy of the filing previously made, together with any previous statement of correction to that filing.

(ii) if a document was previously filed by the department in respect to the defective entity action and the filing requires a change to give effect to the ratification of the defective entity action, the statement of validation must:

(B) state the name, title and filing date of the filing previously made and any previous statement of correction to that filing;

(D) state the date and time that the filing attached to the statement of validation is deemed to have become effective; or

(a) Standing.--Subject to subsection (f), review of a ratification under this subchapter or of a defective entity action may be commenced in the court by:

(1) the ratifying entity; or

(b) Parties.--No other party in addition to the ratifying entity need be joined in order for the court to adjudicate the matter. In an action filed by the ratifying entity, the court may require notice of the action be provided to other persons specified by the court and permit such other persons to intervene in the action.

(c) Determination by the court.--In an action under this section, the court may:

- (1) determine the validity and effectiveness of a ratification under this subchapter;
- (2) determine the validity and effectiveness of any defective entity action not ratified under this subchapter; and
- (3) establish conditions upon the validity or effectiveness of a ratification or defective entity action reviewed by the court.

(d) Time limitation.--Notwithstanding any other provision of applicable law, an action asserting that the ratification of a defective entity action and any putative interests issued as a result of the ratification of the defective entity action should not be valid must be brought within 120 days after notice has been given as provided in section 224(b) (relating to action on ratification) or 225 (relating to optional notice).

(e) Effect on validation effective time.--The validation effective time shall not be affected by the filing or pendency of a judicial proceeding under this section or otherwise, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

§ 229. Limitation on voiding certain defective entity actions.

(a) Bar on voiding certain defective entity actions.--Subject to subsection (d), after the expiration of the applicable period set forth in subsection (c):

- (1) a defective entity action other than an overissue is not void or voidable as the result of the failure of authorization and is a valid entity action effective as of the date of the defective entity action;
- (2) any entity action taken subsequent to the defective entity action in reliance on the defective entity action having been validly effected is valid as of the time taken; and
- (3) any subsequent defective entity action resulting directly or indirectly from the original defective entity action is duly authorized and valid as of the time taken, if the failure of authorization of the subsequent defective entity action relates solely to the defective entity action referred to in paragraph (1).

(b) Bar on voiding certain overissues.--Subject to subsection (d), after the expiration of the applicable period set forth in subsection (c):

(1) an overissue is not void or voidable on the basis of having been in excess of the number of interests of the class or series that the domestic entity had the power to issue or on the basis of the entity's lack of authority to issue interests of the class or series, and is a valid entity action effective as of the date of the overissue;

(2) the putative interests are duly authorized and validly issued valid interests;

(3) any entity action taken subsequent to the overissue in reliance on the overissue having been validly effected is valid as of the time taken; and

(4) any subsequent defective entity action resulting directly or indirectly from the original overissue is duly authorized and valid as of the time taken, if the failure of authorization of the subsequent defective entity action relates solely to the defective entity action referred to in paragraph (1).

(c) Applicable period.--The applicable period under this section shall be the shortest of:

(1) in the case of a defective entity action taken by a registered corporation, two years from the date when the registered corporation, or any successor or any person directly or indirectly owning all the shares of the registered corporation or of any successor to the registered corporation, has disclosed the defective entity action in a public filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission;

(2) six years from the date when:

(i) the defective entity action is set forth in or implemented or purported to be implemented through the public organic record of the entity taking the action; or

(ii) disclosure in record form of the occurrence of the defective entity action is received by the person or persons whose authorization would have been necessary for the entity action not to have been defective; or

(iii) in the case of an overissue of shares of a business corporation, disclosure in record form is given to all shareholders in the manner set forth in section 1702 (relating to manner of giving notice) of the fact of the issuance of the putative interests or of the existence of the putative interests resulting from the overissue; and

(3) 21 years after the defective entity action.

(d) Application to court to void defective entity action.--To the extent that relief is available under other applicable law, a person entitled to assert under applicable law that a defective entity action is void or voidable may, before the expiration of the applicable period set forth in this section, file an action for relief declaring or otherwise establishing that the defective entity action is void or voidable. If such an action is filed, the operation of subsection (a) or (b) shall be suspended until the final resolution of the action, and, to the extent that relief is obtained, subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply.

(e) Other relief not affected.--The operation of subsections (a) and (b) and the time periods set forth in subsection (c) do not affect the availability of relief under applicable law other than this subchapter relating to a defective entity action not predicated on:

(1) a failure of authorization under this title relating thereto;

(2) a lack of power or authority under section 1521 (relating to authorized shares) or the organic rules resulting in an overissue; or

(3) the asserted void or voidable status of the defective entity action.

(f) No tolling.--The operation of subsection (c) is not tolled by reason of any person's unawareness of the failure of authorization of the defective entity action or other grounds, other than, in the case of subsection (c)(1) and (2), active and deliberate fraud, concealment or forgery proven by clear and convincing evidence.

(g) Presumptions.--For purposes of this section, the governors and interest holders of the entity are deemed to have acted in reliance on the defective entity action in authorizing subsequent entity actions unless clear and convincing evidence demonstrates a lack of such reliance. For purposes of subsection (c)(2)(ii) and (iii), a contemporaneous record in record form of the giving of disclosure by a governor, officer or agent of the entity is presumptive evidence of the giving and receipt of such disclosure.

(h) Amendment of organic rules following overissue.--After the expiration of the applicable period applicable to an overissue, the domestic entity may, and within a reasonable period after a request in record form of a holder of formerly putative interests resulting from an overissue must, adopt an amendment to its organic rules:

(1) increasing the number of interests of the class or series that includes the formerly putative interests to the minimum number necessary for the entity's organic rules to set forth the power of the entity to have issued the total number of issued interests of the class or series held by all interest holders; or

(2) otherwise amending its organic rules to the extent necessary to authorize the creation and issuance of the class or series of formerly putative interests.

(i) Effectiveness of section.--In the case of a defective entity action occurring before January 3, 2023:

(1) the operation of subsections (a) and (b) is suspended until January 3, 2024, notwithstanding any expiration of the applicable period set forth in subsection (c);

(2) despite any expiration of the applicable period set forth in subsection (c), a person entitled to assert under applicable law that a defective entity action is void or voidable may file an action under subsection (d) if the action is filed on or before January 3, 2024;

(3) any action pending on January 3, 2023, seeking relief on the grounds that a defective entity action is void or voidable, including any relief that may be obtained in the action, is not affected by this section;

(4) any final judgment relating to the defective entity action that had become no longer subject to appeal before January 3, 2023, is not affected by this section; and

(5) this section shall otherwise apply with full retroactive effect to a defective entity action.

§ 321. Approval by business corporation.

(a) Proposal of plan.--Except where the approval of the board of directors is unnecessary pursuant to section 330 (relating to alternative means of approval of transactions), a plan shall be proposed in the case of a domestic business corporation by the adoption by the board of directors of a resolution approving the plan and, in the case of an offer referred to in subsection (f), recommending that the shareholders tender their shares to the offeror in response to the offer. Except where the approval of the shareholders is unnecessary under this chapter, the board of directors shall direct that the plan be submitted to a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon at a regular or special meeting of the shareholders.

(b) Notice of meeting of shareholders.--Notice in record form of the meeting of shareholders that will act on the proposed plan must be given to each shareholder of record, whether or not entitled to vote thereon, of each domestic business corporation that is a party to the transaction under the plan. There shall be included in or enclosed with the notice a copy of the proposed plan or a summary thereof and any notice required by section 329 (relating to special treatment of interest holders). If the holders of shares of any class or series of shares are entitled to assert dissenters rights, the notice must include or be accompanied by the text of the provision of this chapter granting dissenters rights and the text of Subchapter D of Chapter 15 (relating to dissenters rights). The notice must state that a copy of the organic rules of the surviving, acquired, converted, new or resulting association or domesticated entity as they will be in effect immediately following the transaction will be furnished to any shareholder of the corporation giving the notice on request and without cost.

(c) Shareholder vote required.--Except as provided in section 1757 (relating to action by shareholders) or subsection (d) or (f), a plan shall be adopted by a domestic business corporation that is a party to the transaction under the plan upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders entitled to vote on the plan and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast in each class vote. The holders of any class or series of shares of a domestic business corporation that is a party to a transaction under a plan that would effect any change in the articles of the corporation shall be entitled to vote as a class on the plan if they would have been entitled to a class vote under the provisions of section 1914 (relating to adoption of amendments) had the change been accomplished under Subchapter B of Chapter 19 (relating to amendment of articles). Except as provided in section 330, a proposed plan shall not be deemed to have been adopted by a domestic business corporation unless it has also been approved by the board of directors, regardless of the fact that the board has directed or suffered the submission of the plan to the shareholders for action.

(d) Adoption of plan of merger without shareholder vote.--

(1) Unless otherwise required by the organic rules, a plan of merger shall not require the approval of the shareholders of a domestic business corporation that is a merging association if:

(i) whether or not the corporation is the surviving association:

(A) the surviving association is a domestic business corporation and its articles are identical to the articles of the corporation for which shareholder approval is not required, except for changes that could be made without shareholder approval pursuant to section 1914(c);

(B) each share of the corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effectiveness of the merger is to continue as or be converted into, except as may be otherwise agreed by the holder thereof, an identical share of the surviving association; and

(C) the plan provides that the shareholders of the corporation are to hold in the aggregate shares of the surviving association to be outstanding immediately after the effectiveness of the merger entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast generally for the election of directors;

(ii) immediately prior to the adoption of the plan and at all times thereafter prior to the effectiveness of the merger, another association owns directly or indirectly 80% or more of the outstanding shares of each class of the corporation; or

(iii) no shares of the corporation have been issued prior to the adoption of the plan by the board of directors pursuant to subsection (a).

(2) If a merger is effected pursuant to paragraph (1)(i) or (iii), the plan shall be deemed adopted by the corporation when it has been adopted by the board of directors pursuant to subsection (a).

(3) If a merger of a subsidiary corporation is effected pursuant to paragraph (1)(ii), the plan shall be deemed adopted by the subsidiary corporation when it has been adopted by the governors of the parent association and neither approval of the plan by the board of directors of the subsidiary corporation nor signing of the statement of merger by the subsidiary corporation shall be necessary.

(4) Unless otherwise required by the organic rules, a plan of merger providing for the merger of a domestic business corporation (referred to in this paragraph as a "constituent corporation") with or into a single indirect wholly owned subsidiary (referred to in this paragraph as the "subsidiary corporation") of the constituent corporation shall not require the approval of the shareholders of either the constituent corporation or the subsidiary corporation if all of the following provisions are satisfied:

(i) A merger under this paragraph must satisfy the following conditions:

(A) The constituent corporation and the subsidiary corporation are the only parties to the merger, other than a surviving association that is a corporation created in the merger.

(B) Each share or fraction of a share of the capital stock of the constituent corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effectiveness of the merger is converted in the merger into a share or equal fraction of a share of capital stock of a holding company having the same designations, rights, powers and preferences and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions as the share of capital stock of the constituent corporation being converted in the merger.

(C) The holding company and the surviving association are each domestic business corporations.

(D) Immediately following the effectiveness of the merger, the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the holding company are identical to the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the constituent corporation immediately before the effectiveness of the merger, except for changes that could be made without shareholder approval pursuant to section 1914(c).

(E) Immediately following the effectiveness of the merger, the surviving association is a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the holding company.

(F) The directors of the constituent corporation become or remain the directors of the holding company on the effectiveness of the merger.

(G) The board of directors of the constituent corporation has made a good faith determination that the shareholders of the constituent corporation will not recognize gain or loss for United States Federal income tax purposes.

(ii) If the holding company is a registered corporation, the shares of the holding company issued in connection with the merger shall be deemed to have been acquired at the time that the shares of the constituent corporation converted in the merger were acquired.

(iii) As used in this paragraph only, the term "holding company" means a corporation that, from its incorporation until consummation of the merger governed by this paragraph, was at all times a direct wholly owned subsidiary of the constituent corporation and whose capital stock is issued in the merger.

(e) Approval of division by preferred shares.--If a dividing association that is a business corporation has outstanding any shares of a preferred or special class or series of shares, regardless of a limitation stated in the articles or bylaws on the voting rights of the class or series of shares, the holders of outstanding shares of the class or series shall be entitled to vote as a class on a plan of division which:

(1) provides that the dividing association will not survive the division; or

(2) amends the articles or bylaws of the surviving corporation in a manner that would entitle the holders of the preferred or special shares to a class vote on the amendment under the articles, the bylaws or section 1914(b).

(f) Two-step transactions.--Unless the articles of incorporation of a registered corporation otherwise provide, approval by its shareholders of a plan of merger or interest exchange is not required if the transaction complies with the following:

(1) The plan of merger or interest exchange:

(i) permits or requires the merger or interest exchange to be effected under this subsection; and

(ii) provides that, if the merger or interest exchange is to be effected under this subsection, the merger or interest exchange will be effected as soon as practicable following the satisfaction of the requirement set forth in paragraph (6).

(2) Another party to the merger, the acquiring association in the interest exchange, or a parent of another party to the merger or the acquiring association in the interest exchange, makes an offer to purchase, on the terms provided in the plan of merger or interest exchange, all of the outstanding shares of the corporation that, absent this subsection, would be entitled to vote on the plan of merger or interest exchange, except that:

(i) the offer may exclude shares that are:

(A) owned at the commencement of the offer by the corporation, the offeror, any parent of the offeror or any wholly owned subsidiary of any of the foregoing; or

(B) described in paragraph (6)(iii); and

(ii) the offer may be subject to a specific minimum number of shares or percentage of shares being tendered and any other conditions permitted by applicable law.

(3) The offer discloses that the plan of merger or interest exchange provides that the merger or interest exchange will be effected as soon as practicable following the satisfaction of the requirement set forth in paragraph (6) and that the shares of the corporation that are not tendered in response to the offer will be treated as set forth in paragraph (8).

(4) The board has not rescinded its recommendation at the time the offer closes.

(5) The offeror purchases all shares properly tendered in response to the offer and not properly withdrawn.

(6) On the close of the offer, the shares listed below are collectively entitled to cast at least the minimum number of votes on the merger or interest exchange that, absent this subsection, would be required by this chapter and by the articles of incorporation for the approval of the merger or interest exchange by the shareholders generally and also by any shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group on the merger or interest exchange at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on the approval were present and voted:

(i) shares purchased by the offeror in accordance with the offer;

(ii) shares otherwise owned by the offeror or by any parent of the offeror or any wholly owned subsidiary of any of the foregoing; and

(iii) shares subject to an agreement that they are to be transferred, contributed or delivered to the offeror, any parent of the offeror or any wholly owned subsidiary of any of the foregoing in exchange for shares or interests in such offeror, parent or subsidiary.

(7) The offeror or a wholly owned subsidiary of the offeror merges with or into, or effects an interest exchange in which it acquires shares of, the corporation.

(8) Each outstanding share of each class or series of shares of the corporation that the offeror is offering to purchase in accordance with the offer, and that is not purchased in accordance with the offer, is to be converted in the merger into, or into the right to receive, or is to be exchanged in the interest exchange for, or for the right to receive, the same amount and type of securities, interests, obligations, rights, cash or other property to be paid or exchanged in accordance with the offer for each share of that class or series of shares that is tendered in response to the offer, except that the following shares of the corporation need not be converted into or exchanged for the consideration described in this paragraph:

(i) shares owned by the corporation;

(ii) shares described in paragraph (6) (ii) or (iii); and

(iii) shares as to which the shareholder, as defined in section 1572 (relating to definitions), has perfected dissenters rights under Subchapter D of Chapter 15 (relating to dissenters rights).

(9) As used in this subsection:

(i) "offer" means the offer referred to in paragraph (2);

(ii) "offeror" means the person making the offer;

(iii) "parent" of an association means a person that owns, directly or indirectly, through one or more wholly owned subsidiaries, all of the outstanding shares of or interests in that association;

(iv) shares tendered in response to the offer shall be deemed to have been "purchased" in accordance with the offer at the earliest time as of which:

(A) the offeror has irrevocably accepted those shares for payment; and

(B) either:

(I) in the case of shares represented by certificates, the offeror or the offeror's designated depository or other agent has physically received the certificates representing those shares; or

(II) in the case of shares without certificates, those shares have been transferred into the account of the offeror or its designated depository or other agent, or an agent's message relating to those shares has been received by the offeror or its designated depository or other agent; and

(v) "wholly owned subsidiary" of a person means an association of or in which that person owns, directly or indirectly, through one or more wholly owned subsidiaries, all of the outstanding shares or interests

(3) if its organic rules do not provide for approval of the type of plan involved or a plan of merger, the plan shall be approved by all of the beneficial owners.

(b) Adoption of plan of merger without beneficiary vote.--Unless otherwise required by the organic rules, a plan of merger providing for the merger of a domestic business trust (referred to in this paragraph as the "constituent trust") with or into a single indirect wholly owned subsidiary (referred to in this paragraph as the "subsidiary trust") of the constituent trust shall not require the approval of the beneficiaries of the constituent trust if all of the following provisions are satisfied:

(1) The constituent trust and the subsidiary trust are the only parties to the merger, other than a surviving association created in the merger.

(2) Each interest in the constituent trust outstanding immediately prior to the effectiveness of the merger is converted in the merger into an interest in the holding trust having the same designations, rights, powers and preferences and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions as the interests in the constituent trust being converted in the merger.

(3) The holding trust and the surviving association are each domestic business trusts.

(4) Immediately following the effectiveness of the merger, the instrument and organic rules of the holding trust are identical to the instrument and organic rules of the constituent trust immediately before the effectiveness of the merger, except for changes that could be made without beneficiary approval under Chapter 95 (relating to business trusts).

(5) Immediately following the effectiveness of the merger, the surviving association is a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the holding trust.

(6) The trustees of the constituent trust become or remain the trustees of the holding trust on the effectiveness of the merger.

(7) The trustees of the constituent trust have made a good faith determination that the beneficiaries of the constituent trust will not recognize gain or loss for United States Federal income tax purposes.

(8) As used in this subsection only, the term "holding trust" means a business trust that, from its formation until consummation of the merger governed by this subsection, was at all times a direct wholly owned subsidiary of the constituent trust and the interests in which are issued in the merger.

(c) Cross reference.--See section 3304(b) (relating to election of benefit corporation status).

§ 328. Approval by unincorporated nonprofit association.

(b) Cross reference.--See section 3304(b) (relating to election of benefit corporation status).

§ 329. Special treatment of interest holders.

(a) General rule.--Except as otherwise restricted in the organic rules, a plan may contain a provision classifying the interest holders of a class or series of interests into one or more separate groups by reference to any facts or circumstances that are not manifestly unreasonable and providing mandatory treatment for interests of the class or series held by particular interest holders or groups of interest holders that differs materially from the treatment accorded other interest holders or groups of interest holders that hold interests of the same class or series, including a provision modifying or rescinding rights previously created under this section if either of the following applies:

(1) The plan:

(i) is approved by a majority of the votes cast by the holders of any class or series of interests any of the interests of which are so classified into groups, whether or not such class or series would otherwise be entitled to vote on the plan; and

(ii) specifically enumerates the type and extent of the special treatment authorized.

(2) Under all the facts and circumstances, a court of competent jurisdiction finds such special treatment is undertaken in good faith, after reasonable deliberation and is in the best interest of the association.

(b) Statutory voting rights on special treatment.--Except as provided in subsection (d), if a plan contains a provision for special treatment, each group of holders of any outstanding interests of a class or series who are to receive the same special treatment under the plan shall be entitled to vote as a special class in respect to the plan regardless of any limitations stated in the organic rules on the voting rights of any class or series.

(c) Determination of groups.--For purposes of applying subsections (a)(1) and (b), the determination of which interest holders are part of each group receiving special treatment shall be made as of the record date for interest holder action on the plan.

(d) Dissenters rights on special treatment.--If a plan contains a provision for special treatment without requiring for the adoption of the plan the statutory class vote required under subsection (b), the holder of any outstanding interests the statutory class voting rights of which are so denied shall be entitled to assert dissenters rights with respect to those interests. A shareholder of a business corporation who wishes to assert dissenters rights shall comply with Subchapter D of Chapter 15 (relating to dissenters rights). An interest holder in any other type of domestic entity shall comply with Subchapter D of Chapter 15 to the extent practicable.

(e) Notice to interest holders.--Any notice to interest holders of a meeting called to act on a plan that provides for special treatment shall state that the plan provides for special treatment. The notice shall identify the interest holders receiving special treatment unless the notice is accompanied by either a summary of the plan that includes that information or the full text of the plan.

(f) Exceptions.--This section shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) A provision of a plan that offers to all holders of interests of a class or series the same option to elect certain treatment.

(2) A plan involving any type of domestic entity that contains an express provision that this section does not apply or that fails to contain an express provision that this section shall apply.

(3) A provision of a plan that treats all of the holders of a particular class or series of interests of any type of domestic entity differently from the holders of another class or series. A provision of a plan that treats the holders of a class or series of shares of a domestic business corporation differently from the holders of another class or series of shares shall not constitute a violation of section 1521(d) (relating to authorized shares).

(2) The plan is approved in record form by each interest holder, if any, of the domestic entity that will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations and other liabilities that arise after the division becomes effective, unless, as to an interest holder that does not approve the plan, both of the following apply:

(a) General rule.--Unless otherwise restricted by its organic rules, a plan of division of a domestic dividing association shall not require the approval of the interest holders of the dividing association if all of the following are satisfied:

(1) The plan does not do any of the following:

(i) alter the jurisdiction of formation of the dividing association;

(b) Distribution of interests.--The requirements for distributing interests in each new association referred to in subsection (a)(2)(ii) are as follows:

or

(ii) when the division is effective under the laws of each of the jurisdictions of formation of the foreign resulting associations.

(h) Coordination of transactions.--A new association may be a party to another transaction under this chapter that takes effect simultaneously with the division. The new association shall be deemed to exist before the effectiveness of the other transaction, but solely for the purpose of being a party to the other transaction. (3) With respect to each new association, all of the following apply:

(iii) Its public organic record, if any, and private organic rules are effective.

(iv) If it is a limited liability partnership, its statement of registration is effective.

(v) If it is a limited liability limited partnership and is not using the alternative procedure in section 8201(f) (relating to scope), its statement of registration is effective.

(b) Dividing association not dissolved.--Except as provided in the organic law or organic rules of the dividing association, the division does not give rise to any rights that an interest holder, governor or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the dividing association.

(c) New interest holder liability.--When a division becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to the dividing association and that becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to an association as a result of the division has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of the association and only for those liabilities that arise after the division becomes effective.

(d) Prior interest holder liability.--When a division becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in the dividing association that is a domestic entity with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is as follows:

Div. 9 (relating to secured transactions) as enacted in the relevant jurisdiction.

(h) Vehicles.--The provisions of 75 Pa.C.S. § 1114 (relating to transfer of vehicle by operation of law) shall not be applicable to an allocation of ownership of any motor vehicle, trailer or semitrailer to a new association under this section or under a similar law of any other jurisdiction, but any such allocation shall be effective only upon compliance with the requirements of 75 Pa.C.S. § 1116 (relating to issuance of new certificate following transfer), unless the dividing association is a domestic nonprofit corporation.

(1) Individually for the liabilities the resulting association undertakes or incurs in its own name after the division.

(2) Individually for the liabilities of the dividing association that are allocated to or remain the liability of that resulting association to the extent specified in the plan of division, but not for liabilities allocated in the plan to another resulting association.

(3) Jointly and severally with the other resulting associations for the liabilities of the dividing association that are not allocated by the plan of division.

(b) Joint and several liability.--If the allocation of a liability in a division is determined by the court as defined in section 102 (relating to definitions) to be ineffective or voidable under 12 Pa.C.S. Ch. 51 (relating to voidable transactions) as of the effective date of the division, all of the following apply:

(1) The allocation of the liability in the plan of division is ineffective and the liability becomes the liability of all of the resulting associations, jointly and severally.

(2) The validity and effectiveness of the division are not affected by the action or proceeding or the determination of the court.

(c) Breach of obligation.--If a division breaches an obligation of the dividing association, all of the resulting associations are liable, jointly and severally, for the breach, but the validity and effectiveness of the division are not affected thereby.

(d) Application of voidable transactions law.--In applying 12 Pa.C.S. Ch. 51 to a division under subsection (b):

(1) 12 Pa.C.S. Ch. 51 applies to the dividing association as follows:

(2) 12 Pa.C.S. Ch. 51 applies to each resulting association as follows:

(i) The association is treated as a debtor.

(ii) Each liability allocated to the association is treated as an obligation incurred by the debtor.

(iii) The association is treated as not having received a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for incurring the obligation.

(iv) The property allocated to the association is treated as remaining property.

(3) The remedy of joint and several liability under subsection (b)(1) is deemed to be the remedy of avoidance of the transfer or obligation under 12 Pa.C.S. § 5107(a)(1) (relating to remedies of creditor).

(e) Distribution tests not applicable.--(Deleted by amendment).

(f) Liens and other charges.--Liens, security interests and other charges on the property of the dividing association are not impaired by the division, notwithstanding any otherwise enforceable allocation of liabilities of the dividing association.

(g) Security agreements.--If the dividing association is bound by a security agreement governed by 13 Pa.C.S. Div. 9 (relating to secured transactions) as enacted in any jurisdiction and the security agreement provides that the security interest attaches to after-acquired collateral, each resulting association is bound by the security agreement.

(h) Creditors and guarantors.--An allocation of a liability does not:

(1) Affect the rights under other law of a creditor owed payment of the liability or performance of the obligation that creates the liability, except that those rights are available only against an association responsible for the liability or obligation under this section.

(2) Release or reduce the obligation of a surety or guarantor of the liability or obligation.

(i) Regulatory approvals.--The conditions in this section for freeing one or more of the resulting associations from the liabilities of the dividing association and for allocating some or all of the liabilities of the dividing association shall be conclusively deemed to have been satisfied if the plan of division has been approved by the Department of Banking and Securities, the Insurance Department or the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission in a final order issued after August 21, 2001, that is not subject to further appeal.

(j) Taxes.--Any taxes, interest, penalties and public accounts of the Commonwealth claimed against the dividing association for periods prior to the effective date of the division that are settled, assessed or determined prior to or after the division shall be the liability of all of the resulting associations and, together with interest thereon, shall be a lien against the franchises and property of each resulting association. Upon the application of the dividing association, the Department of Revenue, with the concurrence of the Department of Labor and Industry, shall release one or more, but less than all, of the resulting associations from liability and liens for all taxes, interest, penalties and public accounts of the dividing association due the Commonwealth for periods prior to the effective date of the division if those departments are satisfied that the public revenues will be adequately secured.

§ 504. Validation of certain defective corporations.

Where heretofore or hereafter any act has been or may be done or any transfer or conveyance of any property has been or may be made to or by any corporation created or intended to be created under any statute supplied or repealed by this part, in good faith, after the approval of the articles or application for a charter or issuance of letters patent but without the actual recording of the original papers with the endorsements thereon, or a certified copy thereof, in the office of any recorder of deeds, as provided in such statutes then in force, the acts, transfers and conveyances shall nevertheless be deemed and taken to be valid and effectual for all purposes, regardless of the omission to record the original papers with the endorsements thereon, or a certified copy thereof, as heretofore required by such statutes. Every such corporation shall be deemed and taken to have been incorporated on the date of approval of its articles or application for a charter or on the date of issuance of its letters patent, whichever event shall have last occurred.

§ 505. Validation of certain defective corporate acts.

Where any corporation governed by this part or created or intended to be created or governed by any statute supplied or repealed by this part has, in good faith, extended its territory or term of existence, changed its name, merged, consolidated or otherwise altered or amended its charter or articles under any statute supplied or repealed by this part but without the actual recording of a document or documents evidencing the corporate action in the office of any recorder of deeds, as provided in such statutes then in force, and a record of the corporate action is on file in the office of the clerk of any court of this Commonwealth or in the Department of State, the corporate action shall nevertheless be deemed and taken to be valid for all purposes, regardless of the omission to record the document or documents as heretofore required by such statutes, and every such corporate action shall be deemed and taken to have been effected upon the filing of the corporate action in the office of the clerk of any court or in the department, or upon the approval of the action, if required, by a court, or by the Governor, Secretary of the Commonwealth

§ 506. Scope and duration of certain franchises.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided in subsection (b), whenever any corporation has sold, assigned, disposed of and conveyed all or any part of its franchises and all or any part of its property, real, personal and mixed, to any other corporation, and the franchises and property have vested in the vendee corporation, or whenever any corporation has heretofore merged or may hereafter merge with and into or consolidate into a surviving or new corporation, the vendee, surviving or new corporation or its successor corporation shall be deemed to possess as a constituent of its own charter, and not as a direct or indirect acquisition from the vendor or nonsurviving corporation, franchise rights of identical scope and character as those originally acquired by it and any of its predecessors in interest from every vendor or nonsurviving predecessor corporation regardless of the fact, if such is the case, that the franchises of any vendor or nonsurviving predecessor corporation, had they been separately existing, would have theretofore expired of their own limitations. The charter of any vendee, surviving, new or successor corporation to which this section may become applicable and all franchise rights thereof attributable under this section or otherwise to or acquired from any vendor or nonsurviving predecessor corporation shall expire upon the same date, which date shall be the later of the dates on which the charter or the most remotely limited of the franchise rights would otherwise expire, and every renewal, extension or change in the term of existence of the vendee, surviving, new or successor corporation by merger, consolidation or otherwise shall inure to the franchise rights attributable to or acquired from all such vendor or nonsurviving predecessor corporations.

§ 507. Validation of certain share authorizations.

(a) General rule.--Where heretofore any domestic corporation for profit shall have redeemed and canceled any shares subject to redemption and cancellation, acquired its own shares on conversion thereof into or exchange thereof for other shares of the corporation, purchased or redeemed and canceled any shares, canceled any treasury shares, redeemed any shares or adopted any resolution of the board with respect to authorized but unissued shares reducing the number of shares that the corporation is authorized to issue without filing in the Department of State a statement of redemption and cancellation, a statement of cancellation of shares, a statement of reduction of authorized shares or similar document as then provided by any statute supplied or repealed by Subpart B (relating to business corporations), such action shall be deemed not to have had any effect on the authorized share structure of the corporation and the number and class of shares authorized to be issued by the corporation from time to time and at any time shall be deemed and taken to be the number and class of shares as set forth at the time in the most recently amended text of the charter or articles of the corporation as then on file in the department.

(b) Restriction on reissuance.--Subsection (a) shall not validate any shares reissued in violation of a provision of the charter or articles prohibiting the reissuance of redeemed or otherwise acquired shares. Except as otherwise expressly provided therein, such a provision shall not be interpreted as prohibiting the reissuance of redeemed or otherwise acquired shares as shares of a different class or series.

§ 514. Presumption of assent.

A director of a domestic corporation who is present at a meeting of its board of directors, or of a committee of the board, at which action on any corporate matter is taken on which the director is generally competent to act, shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless the director's dissent, abstention or vote against the matter is entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the director delivers to the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment a dissent in record form to the action or transmits the dissent in record form to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. The right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of the action. § 515. Exercise of powers generally.

(a) General rule.--In discharging the duties of their respective positions, the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors of a domestic corporation may, in considering the best interests of the corporation, consider to the extent they deem appropriate:

(1) The effects of any action upon any or all groups affected by such action, including shareholders, members, employees, suppliers, customers and creditors of the corporation, and upon communities in which offices or other establishments of the corporation are located.

(2) The short-term and long-term interests of the corporation, including benefits that may accrue to the corporation from its long-term plans and the possibility that these interests may be best served by the continued independence of the corporation.

(3) The resources, intent and conduct (past, stated and potential) of any person seeking to acquire control of the corporation.

(4) All other pertinent factors.

(b) Consideration of interests and factors.--The board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors shall not be required, in considering the best interests of the corporation or the effects of any action, to regard any corporate interest or the interests of any particular group affected by such action as a dominant or controlling interest or factor. The consideration of interests and factors in the manner described in this subsection and in subsection (a) shall not constitute a violation of section 512 (relating to standard of care, justifiable reliance and business judgment rule).

(c) Specific applications.--In exercising the powers vested in the corporation, and in no way limiting the discretion of the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors pursuant to subsections (a) and (b), the fiduciary duty of directors shall not be deemed to require them to act as the board of directors, a committee of the board or an individual director solely because of the effect such action might have on an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control of the corporation or the consideration that might be offered or paid to shareholders or members in such an acquisition.

(d) Presumption.--In assessing whether the standard set forth in section 512 has been satisfied, there shall not be any greater obligation to justify, or higher burden of proof with respect to, any act as the board of directors, any committee of the board or any individual director relating to or affecting an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control of the corporation than is applied to any other act as a board of directors, any committee of the board or any individual director. Notwithstanding section 512(d) and the preceding provision of this subsection, any act as the board of directors, a committee of the board or an individual director relating to or affecting an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control to which a majority of the disinterested directors shall have assented shall be presumed to satisfy the standard set forth in section 512, unless it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the disinterested directors did not assent to such act in good faith after reasonable investigation.

(e) Definition.--The term "disinterested director" as used in subsection (d) and for no other purpose means:

(1) A director of the corporation other than:

(i) A director who has a direct or indirect financial or other interest in the person acquiring or seeking to acquire control of the corporation or who is an affiliate or associate of, or was nominated or designated as a director by, a person acquiring or seeking to acquire control of the corporation.

(ii) Depending on the specific facts surrounding the director and the act under consideration, an officer or employee or former officer or employee of the corporation.

(2) A person shall not be deemed to be other than a disinterested director solely by reason of any or all of the following:

(i) The ownership by the director of shares of or a membership in the corporation.

(ii) The receipt as a holder of shares of or as a member of any class or series of any distribution made to all owners of shares of or members of that class or series.

(iii) The receipt by the director of director's fees or other consideration as a director.

(iv) Any interest the director may have in retaining the status or position of director.

§ 516. Alternative standard.

(a) General rule.--In discharging the duties of their respective positions, the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors of a domestic corporation may, in considering the best interests of the corporation, consider the effects of any action upon employees, upon suppliers and customers of the corporation and upon communities in which offices or other establishments of the corporation are located, and all other pertinent factors. The consideration of those factors shall not constitute a violation of section 512

(relating to standard of care, justifiable reliance and business judgment rule).

(b) Presumption.--(Deleted by amendment).

(c) Cross reference.--See section 511(b) (relating to alternative provisions).

(Nov. 3, 2022, P.L.1791, No.122, eff. 60 days)

§ 517. Limitation on standing.

The duty of the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors under section 512 (relating to standard of care, justifiable reliance and business judgment rule) is solely to the domestic corporation and not to any shareholder, member or creditor or any other person or group, and may be enforced directly by the corporation or may be enforced by an action in the right of the corporation, and may not be enforced directly by a shareholder, member or creditor or by any other person or group. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, sections 515(a) and (b) (relating to exercise of powers generally) and 516(a) (relating to alternative standard) do not impose upon the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors any legal or equitable duties, obligations or liabilities or create any right or cause of action against, or basis for standing to sue, the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors.

(a) General rule.--The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or pursuant to section 522 (relating to indemnification of authorized representatives) or any other provisions of law providing for indemnification or advancement of expenses applicable to any domestic corporation shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders, members or directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding that office. Any domestic corporation may create a fund of any nature, which may, but need not be, under the control of a trustee, or otherwise secure or insure in any manner its indemnification obligations, whether arising under or pursuant to this section or otherwise.

(b) When indemnification is not to be made.--Indemnification pursuant to subsection (a) shall not be made in any case where the act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness.

(c) Grounds.--Indemnification pursuant to subsection (a) under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders, members or directors or otherwise may be granted for any action taken and may be made whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person under any other provision of law except as provided in this section and whether or not the indemnified liability arises or arose from any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation. Such indemnification is declared to be consistent with the public policy of this Commonwealth.

(d) Payment of expenses.--Expenses incurred by an officer, director, employee or agent in defending any action or proceeding against which indemnification may be made pursuant to this section may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

(e) Rights to indemnification.--The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

§ 1513. Forum selection provisions.

(a) General rule.--The bylaws may provide that:

(1) an internal corporate claim must be brought exclusively in a specified court or courts of this Commonwealth and, if so specified, also in:

(i) other identified courts sitting in this Commonwealth; or

(ii) identified courts sitting in other jurisdictions with which the business corporation has a reasonable relationship; or

(2) a claim arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 74, 15 U.S.C. § 77a et seq.) must be brought exclusively in Federal court.

(b) Jurisdiction.--A provision of the bylaws adopted under subsection (a) shall not have the effect of conferring jurisdiction on any court or over any person or claim and shall not apply if none of the courts specified in the provision have the requisite personal and subject matter jurisdiction. If none of the courts of this Commonwealth specified in a provision adopted under subsection (a) (1) have the requisite personal and subject matter jurisdiction and another court of this Commonwealth does have such jurisdiction, then the internal corporate claim may be brought in the court with jurisdiction, notwithstanding that it is not specified in the provision.

(c) Definition.--For the purposes of this section, "internal corporate claim" means:

§ 1521. Authorized shares.

(a) General rule.--Every business corporation shall have power to create and issue the number of shares stated in its articles. The shares may consist of one class or be divided into two or more classes and one or more series within any class thereof, which classes or series may have full, limited, multiple or fractional or no voting rights and such designations, preferences, limitations and special rights as may be desired.

(b) Provisions specifically authorized.--

(1) Without limiting the authority contained in subsection (a), a corporation, when so authorized in its articles, may issue classes or series of shares:

(i) Subject to the right or obligation of the corporation to redeem any of the shares for the consideration, if any, fixed by or in the manner provided by the articles for the redemption thereof. Unless otherwise provided in the articles, any shares subject to redemption shall be redeemable only pro rata or by lot or by such other equitable method as may be selected by the corporation.

(ii) Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, noncumulative or partially cumulative dividends.

(iii) Having preference over any other shares as to dividends or assets or both.

(iv) Convertible into shares of any other class or series, or into obligations of the corporation.

(2) Any of the terms of a class or series of shares may be made dependent upon:

(i) Facts ascertainable outside of the articles if the manner in which the facts will operate upon the terms of the class or series is set forth in the articles. Such facts may include, without limitation, actions or events within the control of or determinations made by the corporation or a representative of the corporation.

(ii) Terms incorporated by reference to an existing agreement between the corporation and one or more other parties, or to another document of independent significance, if the articles state that the full text of the agreement or other document is on file at the principal place of business of the corporation and state the address thereof. A corporation that takes advantage of this subparagraph shall furnish a copy of the full text of the agreement or other document, on request and without cost, to any shareholder and, unless it is a closely held corporation, on request and at cost, to any other person.

(3) The articles may confer upon a shareholder a specifically enforceable right to the declaration and payment of dividends, the redemption of shares or the making of any other form of distribution if the distribution is at the time of enforcement then not prohibited by section 1551(b) (relating to limitation). Such a right shall not arise by implication, but only by either an express reference to this section or another express reference to specific enforceability of a distribution.

(c) Additional restrictions upon exercise of corporate powers.--Additional provisions regulating or restricting the exercise of corporate powers, including provisions requiring the votes of classes or series of shares as conditions to the exercise thereof, may be specified in a bylaw adopted by the shareholders.

(d) Status and rights.--Shares of a business corporation shall be deemed personal property. Except as otherwise provided by the articles or, when so permitted by subsection (c), by one or more bylaws adopted by the shareholders, each share shall be in all respects equal to every other share. Nothing in this subsection shall require a distribution by way of purchase, redemption or other acquisition of the corporation's shares to be made or offered with respect to all shares or all shares of the same class or series. See section 1906(d)(4) (relating to special treatment of holders of shares of same class or series). § 1522. Issuance of shares in classes or series; board action.

(a) General rule.--The division of shares into classes and into series within any class, the determination of the designation and the number of shares of any class or series and the determination of the voting rights, preferences, limitations and special rights, if any, of the shares of any class or series of a business corporation may be accomplished by the original articles or by any amendment thereof. The amendment may be made by the board of directors as provided in subsection (b).

(b) Divisions and determinations by the board.--An amendment of articles described in subsection (a) may be made solely by action of the board if the articles authorize the board to make the divisions and determinations. Unless otherwise restricted in the articles, authority granted to the board to determine the number of shares of any class or series shall be deemed to include the power to increase the previously determined number of shares of the class or series to a number not greater than the aggregate number of shares of all classes and series that the corporation is authorized to issue by the articles and to decrease the previously determined number of shares of a class or series to a number not less than that then outstanding. Upon any such decrease under this section, the affected shares shall continue as part of the aggregate number of shares of all classes and series that the corporation is authorized to issue. Unless otherwise restricted in the articles, if no shares of a class or series are outstanding, the board of directors may amend the designations and the voting rights, preferences, limitations and special rights, if any, of the shares of the class or series.

(c) Statement with respect to shares.--Whenever the board acts under subsection (b), it shall adopt a resolution setting forth its actions. Before any business corporation issues any shares of any class or any series of any class with respect to which the board has acted under subsection (b), the corporation shall file in the Department of State a statement with respect to shares executed by the corporation, setting forth:

- (1) The name of the corporation.
- (2) The resolution of the board required by this subsection.
- (3) The aggregate number of shares of the class or series established and designated by:
  - (i) The resolution.
  - (ii) All prior statements, if any, filed under this section or corresponding provisions of prior law with respect thereto.
  - (iii) Any other provision of the articles.
- (4) The date of the adoption of the resolution.
- (5) If the resolution is to be effective on a specified date, the hour, if any, and the month, day and year of the effective date.

(d) Effect of filing statement.--Upon the filing of the statement in the department or upon the effective date specified in the statement, whichever is later, the resolution shall become effective and shall operate as an amendment of the articles, except that neither the filing of the statement nor the integration of the substance of the resolution into the text of the articles by means of a restatement of the articles as permitted by this subpart or otherwise shall prohibit the board of directors from subsequently adopting resolutions authorized by this section.

(e) Termination of proposal.--Prior to the time when a resolution required by subsection (c) becomes effective, the amendment to be effected thereby may be terminated by the board or pursuant to the provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the resolution. If a statement with respect to shares has been filed in the department prior to the termination, a statement under section 1902 (relating to statement of termination) shall be filed in the department.

(f) Cross reference.--See section 134 (relating to docketing statement).

Cross References. Section 1522 is referred to in section 1911 of this title.

§ 1523. Pricing and issuance of shares.

Except as otherwise restricted in the bylaws, shares of a business corporation may be issued at a price determined by the board of directors; or the board may authorize one or more directors or one or more officers, acting alone or with the participation of one or more directors, to determine, within limits, pursuant to a formula or method or subject to relevant criteria specifically prescribed by the board:

(1) the persons that shares will be issued to; and

(2) the number of shares, price or consideration and other terms on which shares will be issued.

(July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

§ 1524. Payment for shares.

(a) General rule.--Consideration for shares, unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws:

(1) May consist of money, obligations (including an obligation of a shareholder), services performed whether or not contracted for, contracts for services to be performed, shares or other securities or obligations of the issuing business corporation, or any other tangible or intangible property or benefit to the corporation. If shares are issued for other than money, the value of the consideration shall be determined by or in the manner provided by the board of directors.

(2) Shall be provided or paid to or as ordered by the corporation.

(b) Issuance without consideration.--Except as otherwise restricted in the bylaws, upon authorization by the board of directors, the corporation may issue or distribute its own shares pro rata to its shareholders or the shareholders of one or more classes or series, if the relative rights of the holders of any class or series are not adversely affected thereby, to effectuate stock dividends or splits, and any such transaction shall not require payment of consideration.

(c) Status of issued shares.--Except as provided in subsection (e), all issued shares of a business corporation shall be deemed fully paid regardless of failure to pay in full the agreed consideration therefor. Except as otherwise provided by a regulatory statute controlling under section 103(c) (relating to structural provisions in regulatory statutes controlling), all issued shares of a corporation shall be nonassessable. This subsection shall not affect the personal obligation of a subscriber for shares of a corporation to pay the agreed consideration for the shares.

(d) Rights of subscribing shareholder.--Notwithstanding any other provision of this subpart, the right to vote, to receive dividends and to have and exercise the other rights of a shareholder prior to payment in full of the agreed consideration for the shares of a shareholder who has acquired his shares by subscription may be denied or limited as provided in the subscription agreement. Any such denial or limitation of rights shall be noted conspicuously on the face or back of the share certificate, if any, or in the notice provided by section 1528(f) (relating to uncertificated shares). Unless so noted, such denial or limitation (even though permitted by this section) shall be ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of the denial or limitation.

(e) Transitional provision.--A corporation may enforce calls on partly paid shares outstanding on September 30, 1989, in the same manner and to the same extent as if this subpart had not been enacted.

§ 1525. Stock rights and options.

(a) General rule.--Except as otherwise provided in its articles prior to the creation and issuance thereof, a business corporation may create and issue (whether or not in connection with the issuance of any of its shares or other securities) option rights or securities having conversion or option rights entitling the holders thereof to purchase or acquire shares, option rights, securities having conversion or option rights, or obligations, of any class or series, or assets of the corporation, or to purchase or acquire from the corporation shares, option rights, securities having conversion or option rights, or obligations, of any class or series, owned by the corporation and issued by any other person. Except as otherwise provided in its articles, the shares, option rights, securities having conversion or option rights, or obligations shall be evidenced in such manner as the corporation may determine and may be offered without first offering them to shareholders of any class or classes.

(b) Specifically authorized provisions.--The securities, contracts, warrants or other instruments evidencing any shares, option rights, securities having conversion or option rights, or obligations of a corporation may contain such terms as are fixed by the board of directors, including, without limiting the generality of such authority:

(1) Restrictions upon the authorization or issuance of additional shares, option rights, securities having conversion or option rights, or obligations.

(2) Provisions for the adjustment of the conversion or option rights price.

(3) Provisions concerning rights or adjustments in the event of reorganization, merger, sale of assets, interest exchange or other fundamental changes.

(4) Provisions for the reservation of authorized but unissued shares or other securities.

(5) Restrictions upon the declaration or payment of dividends or distributions or related party transactions.

(6) Conditions relating to the exercise, conversion, transfer or receipt of such shares, option rights, securities having conversion or option rights, or obligations.

(b.1) Disparate treatment.--Subsection (b) does not authorize the inclusion of a condition described in section 2513 (relating to disparate treatment of certain persons) in the case of a corporation that is not a registered corporation described in section 2502(1)(i) (relating to registered corporation status).

(c) Standard of care unaffected.--The provisions of subsections (a) and (b) and section 2513 shall not be construed to effect a change in the fiduciary relationship between a director and a business corporation or to change the standard of care of a director provided for in Subchapter B of Chapter 17 (relating to fiduciary duty).

(d) Pricing and payment.--The provisions of this subchapter applicable to the issuance and pricing of, and payment for, shares shall be applicable to rights and options except that the rights and options may be issued to representatives of the corporation or any of its affiliates as an incentive to service or continued service with the corporation and its affiliates or for such other purpose and upon such other terms as its directors, who may benefit by their action, approve.

(e) Shares subject to preemptive rights.--Authorized but unissued shares subject to preemptive rights may be issued and sold pursuant to a plan providing for the issuance of rights or options entitling the holders thereof to purchase shares of the same class or series as the shares subject to such preemptive rights upon the exercise of such rights or options if the plan is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the shareholders entitled to exercise such preemptive rights.

§ 1526. Liability of shareholders.

(a) General rule.--A shareholder of a business corporation shall not be liable, solely by reason of being a shareholder, under an order of a court or in any other manner for a debt, obligation or liability of the corporation of any kind or for the acts of any shareholder or representative of the corporation.

(b) Professional relationship unaffected.--Subsection (a) shall not afford the shareholders of a business corporation that is not a professional corporation but that provides professional services with greater immunity than is available to the officers, shareholders, employees or agents of a business corporation that is a professional corporation. See section 2925 (relating to professional relationship retained).

(c) Disciplinary jurisdiction unaffected.--A business corporation providing professional services shall be subject to the applicable rules and regulations adopted by, and all the disciplinary powers of, the court, department, board, commission or other government unit regulating the profession in which the corporation is engaged. The court, department, board or other government unit may require that a corporation include in its articles provisions that conform to any rule or regulation heretofore or hereafter promulgated for the purpose of enforcing the ethics of a profession. This subpart shall not affect or impair the disciplinary powers of the court, department, board, commission or other government unit over licensed persons or any law, rule or regulation pertaining to the standards for professional conduct of licensed persons or to the professional relationship between any licensed person rendering professional services and the person receiving professional services.

§ 1527. Issuance of fractional shares or scrip.

(a) General rule.--A business corporation may but shall not be required to create and issue fractions of a share, either represented by a certificate or uncertificated, which, unless otherwise provided in the articles, shall represent proportional interests in all the voting rights, preferences, limitations and special rights, if any, of full shares. If the corporation creates but does not provide for the issuance of fractions of a share, it shall:

(1) arrange for the disposition of fractional interests by those entitled thereto;

(2) pay in money the fair value of fractions of a share determined at the time and in the manner provided in the plan, amendment or resolution of the board providing for the creation of the fractional interests; or

(3) issue scrip or other evidence of ownership, in registered form (either represented by a certificate or uncertificated) or in bearer form (represented by a certificate), entitling the holder to receive a full share upon the surrender of the scrip or other evidence of ownership aggregating a full share, or the transfer of uncertificated scrip aggregating a full share, but which shall not entitle the holder to exercise any voting right, to receive dividends or to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation.

(b) Elimination of shares or scrip.--The scrip or other evidence of ownership may be issued subject to the condition that it shall become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified date, or subject to the condition that the shares for which the scrip or evidence of ownership is exchangeable may be sold and the proceeds thereof distributed to the holders of the scrip or evidence of ownership, or subject to any other conditions that the corporation deems advisable.

(c) Limitation.--The articles may not provide that scrip or other evidence of ownership entitles the holder to exercise any voting right, to receive dividends or to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation. (July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

2013 Amendment. Act 67 amended subsec. (a)(3) and added subsec. (c).

(3) The number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, that the certificate represents.

(d) Notice of variations in rights.--Every certificate representing shares issued by a business corporation that is authorized to issue shares of more than one class or series shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate (or shall state on the face or back of the certificate that the corporation will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge) a full or summary statement of the designations, voting rights, preferences, limitations and special rights of the shares of each class or series authorized to be issued so far as they have been fixed and determined and the authority of the board of directors to fix and determine the designations, voting rights, preferences, limitations and special rights of the classes and series of shares of the corporation. See also sections 1524(d) (relating to rights of subscribing shareholder), 1529(f) (relating to notice to transferee) and 2321(c) (relating to notice of statutory close corporation status).

(e) Execution.--Every share certificate shall be executed, by facsimile or otherwise, by or on behalf of the corporation issuing the shares in such manner as it may determine.

(f) Uncertificated shares.--The articles may provide that any or all classes and series of shares, or any part thereof, shall be uncertificated shares except that such a provision shall not apply to shares represented by a certificate until the certificate is surrendered to the corporation. Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of uncertificated shares, the corporation shall send to the registered owner thereof a written notice containing the information required to be set forth or stated on certificates by subsections (c) and (d). Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, the rights and obligations of the holders of shares represented by certificates and the rights and obligations of the holders of uncertificated shares of the same class and series shall be identical. § 1529. Transfer of securities; restrictions.

(a) General rule.--The transfer of securities of a business corporation may be regulated by any provisions of the bylaws that are not inconsistent with 13 Pa.C.S. Div. 8 (relating to investment securities) and other provisions of law.

(b) Transfer restrictions generally.--A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of securities of a business corporation may be imposed by the bylaws or by an agreement among any number of securityholders or among them and the corporation. A restriction so imposed shall not be binding with respect to securities issued prior to the adoption of the restriction unless the holders of the securities are parties to the agreement or voted in favor of the restriction, except that a provision of the bylaws of a registered corporation described in section 2502(1) (relating to registered corporation status) adopted by the shareholders that is described in subsection (d)(1)(ii), (2) or (3) shall be binding with respect to all of the securities of each class or series to which it applies. A restriction may be amended in the manner provided in the bylaws or agreement for amending the restriction or, in the absence of such a provision, as provided for amending the bylaws or agreement generally.

(c) Restrictions specifically authorized.--A restriction on the transfer of securities of a business corporation is permitted by this section if it:

(1) obligates the holder of the restricted securities to offer to the corporation or to any other holders of securities of the corporation or to any other person or to any combination of the foregoing a prior opportunity, to be exercised within a reasonable time, to acquire the restricted securities;

(2) obligates the corporation or any holder of securities of the corporation or any other person or any combination of the foregoing, to purchase the securities that are the subject of an agreement respecting the purchase and sale of the restricted securities;

(3) requires the corporation or the holders of any class or series of securities of the corporation to consent to any proposed transfer of the restricted securities or to approve the proposed transferee of the restricted securities or to approve the amount of securities of the corporation that may be owned by any person or group of persons;

(3.1) obligates the holder of the restricted securities to sell or transfer an amount of restricted securities to the corporation or to any other holders of securities of the corporation or to any other person or to any combination of the foregoing, or causes or results in the automatic sale or transfer of an amount of restricted securities to the corporation or to any other holders of securities of the corporation or to any other person or to any combination of the foregoing; or

(4) prohibits the transfer of the restricted securities to designated persons or classes of persons and the designation is not manifestly unreasonable.

(d) Tax and regulatory restrictions.--Any restriction on the transfer of securities of a business corporation or on the amount of securities of a corporation that may be owned by a person or group of persons for any of the following purposes shall be conclusively presumed to be for a reasonable purpose:

(1) relating to the Federal, State, local or foreign taxation of the corporation or its shareholders, including without limitation:

(i) maintaining the status of the corporation as an electing small business corporation under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;

(ii) maintaining or preserving any tax attribute, including without limitation net operating losses; or

Unless noted conspicuously on the security or in the notice provided by section 1528(f) or in an equivalent notice with respect to another uncertificated security, a restriction, even though permitted by this section, is ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of the restriction.

(2) The United States of America, the Commonwealth, a state, or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or any entity prohibited by law from becoming a shareholder of a corporation.

Whenever any outstanding securities of a business corporation are converted into new shares or other securities or property by any merger, consolidation, reclassification, amendment of articles, division or otherwise, the plan or other instrument effecting the conversion may fix a period of not less than two years within which the outstanding securities must be surrendered for exchange. The plan or other instrument may provide that, in the event any outstanding securities are not surrendered for exchange within that time period, the shares, securities or property that would otherwise have been issued or delivered in exchange for the unsurrendered outstanding securities shall be sold and the net proceeds of the sale shall be held for the holders of the unsurrendered outstanding securities to be paid to them upon surrender of their outstanding securities. From and after the sale, the sole right of the holders of the unsurrendered outstanding securities shall be the right to collect the net sales proceeds held for their account.

A provision in the articles setting forth a par value for any authorized shares or class or series of shares shall not restrict the ability of a corporation to make distributions.

(b) Limitation.--A distribution, including a distribution under Subchapter F (relating to voluntary dissolution and winding up) or H (relating to postdissolution provision for liabilities) of Chapter 19, may not be made if, after giving effect thereto:

- (1) the corporation would be unable to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its business; or
- (2) the total assets of the corporation would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus (unless otherwise provided in the articles) the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time as of which the distribution is measured, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

(c) Valuation.--The board of directors may base its determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (b)(2) on one or more of the following:

- (1) the book values of the assets and liabilities of the corporation, as reflected on its books and records;
- (2) a valuation that takes into consideration unrealized appreciation and depreciation or other changes in value of the assets and liabilities of the corporation;
- (3) the current value of the assets and liabilities of the corporation, either valued separately or valued in segments or as an entirety as a going concern; or
- (4) any other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

In determining whether a distribution is prohibited by subsection (b)(2), the board of directors need not consider obligations and liabilities unless they are required to be reflected on a balance sheet (not including the notes thereto) prepared on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles, or such other accounting practices and principles as are used generally by the corporation in the maintenance of its books and records and as are reasonable in the circumstances.

(d) Date of distribution.--The effect of a distribution shall be measured:

- (1) as of the date specified by the board of directors when it authorizes the distribution if the distribution occurs within 125 days of the earlier of the date so specified or the date of authorization; or
- (2) as of the date of distribution in all other cases.

In the case of a purchase, redemption or other acquisition of its own shares by a corporation, the distribution shall be deemed to occur as of the date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the corporation or as of the date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder of the corporation with respect to the shares, whichever is earlier.

(d.1) Distribution in winding up.--In measuring the effect of a distribution under Subchapter F or H of Chapter 19, the liabilities of a dissolved corporation do not include any liabilities for which adequate provision has been made or any claim that has been barred under those subchapters.

(e) Redemption related and similar debt.--Indebtedness of a corporation to a shareholder incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section shall be at least on a parity with the indebtedness of the corporation to its general unsecured creditors except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(f) Certain subordinated debt.--Indebtedness of a corporation, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, shall not be considered a liability for purposes of determinations under subsection (b) if its terms provide that payment of principal and interest are made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution to shareholders could then be made under this section. If such indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest shall be treated as a distribution, the effect of which shall be measured on the date the payment is actually made.

§ 1552. Power of corporation to acquire its own shares.

(a) General rule.--A business corporation shall have the power to acquire its own shares. If the articles provide that shares acquired by the corporation shall not be reissued, the authorized shares of the class or series that was acquired shall be reduced by the number of shares acquired. In any other case the shares acquired shall be deemed to be issued but not outstanding, except that, unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the board may, by resolution, restore any or all of the previously issued shares of the corporation owned by it to the status of:

- (1) authorized but unissued shares; or
- (2) authorized but unissued shares of the class or series.

(b) Security for acquisition.--In connection with an acquisition by a corporation of its shares, the corporation may grant a security interest in the acquired shares to secure an obligation to pay for the acquisition. A share shall not be canceled on the books of the corporation until the obligation of the corporation secured by the share is fully paid or discharged.

(c) Application of distribution tests.--A corporation may acquire or agree to acquire its shares, even though the acquisition would violate section 1551 (relating to distributions to shareholders), if payment of all or part of the purchase price is deferred until the payment would not violate that section.

(d) Cross reference.--See section 1914(c)(2) (relating to adoption by board of directors). (July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days; Nov. 3, 2022, P.L.1791, No.122, eff. 60 days)

§ 1553. Liability for unlawful dividends and other distributions.

(a) Directors.--Except as otherwise provided pursuant to section 1713 (relating to personal liability of directors), a director who votes for or assents to any dividend or other distribution contrary to the provisions of this subpart or contrary to any restrictions contained in the bylaws shall, if he has not complied with the standard provided in or pursuant to section 1712 (relating to standard of care, justifiable reliance and business judgment rule), be liable to the corporation, jointly and severally with all other directors so voting or assenting, for the amount of the dividend that is paid or the value of the other distribution in excess of the amount of the dividend or other distribution that could have been made without a violation of the provisions of this subpart or the restrictions in the bylaws.

(b) Contribution by shareholders.--Any director against whom a claim is asserted under or pursuant to this section for the making of a distribution and who is held liable thereon shall be entitled to contribution from the shareholders who accepted or received any such distribution, knowing the distribution to have been made in violation of this subpart, in proportion to the amounts received by them.

(c) Contribution by other directors.--Any director against whom a claim is asserted under or pursuant to this section shall be entitled to contribution from any other director who voted for or assented to the action upon which the claim is asserted and who did not comply with the standard provided by or pursuant to this subpart for the performance of the duties of directors.

(d) Limitation of actions.--See 42 Pa.C.S. § 5524(5) (relating to two year limitation).

§ 1554. Financial reports to shareholders.

(a) General rule.--Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) or unless otherwise agreed between a business corporation and a shareholder, every corporation shall furnish to its shareholders annual financial statements, including at least a balance sheet as of the end of each fiscal year and a statement of income and expenses for the fiscal year. The financial statements shall be prepared on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles, if the corporation prepares financial statements for the fiscal year on that basis for any purpose, and may be consolidated statements of the corporation and one or more of its subsidiaries. The financial statements shall be mailed by the corporation to each of its shareholders entitled thereto within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year and, after the mailing and upon written request, shall be mailed by the corporation to any shareholder or beneficial owner entitled thereto to whom a copy of the most recent annual financial statements has not previously been mailed. In lieu of mailing the statements, the corporation may send them by facsimile, e-mail or other electronic transmission to any shareholder who has supplied the corporation with a facsimile number or address for electronic transmissions for the purpose of receiving financial statements from the corporation. Statements that are audited or reviewed by a certified public accountant or a public accountant shall be accompanied by the report of the accountant; in other cases, each copy shall be accompanied by a statement of the person in charge of the financial records of the corporation:

(1) Stating his reasonable belief as to whether or not the financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and, if not, describing the basis of presentation.

(2) Describing any material respects in which the financial statements were not prepared on a basis consistent with those prepared for the previous year.

(b) Contrary agreement.--An agreement restricting the rights specified in subsection (a) shall be set forth in a writing that, except as provided in subsection (c), is separate from the articles, bylaws and share certificate or notice provided pursuant to section 1528(f) (relating to uncertificated shares). The agreement may provide that it is binding on the shareholder and all persons who are shareholders in the corporation solely by reason of acquiring shares directly or indirectly from the shareholder in one or more transactions that, if the corporation were a statutory close corporation, would be described in section 2322(b)(2), (4), (5) or (6) (relating to exception).

(c) Transitional provision.--A bylaw adopted on or before June 30, 1991, that:

(1) provides that this section shall not apply to the shares of the corporation or to shares outstanding on a specified or otherwise determinable date; or

(2) restricts the right of shareholders to receive financial information in a manner permissible under the Business Corporation Law of 1933; shall be deemed, for the purposes of subsection (b), to be a separate written agreement between the corporation and any person holding shares, option rights or securities having conversion or option rights, or to whom the corporation is otherwise obligated to issue shares on June 30, 1991, but only with respect to the shares held by the person on that date or to be acquired pursuant to such option rights, securities having conversion or option rights or other obligation of the corporation.

(d) Exception.--Subsection (a) shall not apply to a corporation that is required by law to file financial statements at least once a year in a public office.

(b) Exceptions.--

(1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2), the holders of the shares of any class or series of shares shall not have the right to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of the shares under this subchapter if, on the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting at which a plan specified in any of section 333, 343, 353, 363 or 1932(c) is to be voted on or on the date of the first public announcement that such a plan has been approved by the shareholders by consent without a meeting, the shares of the class or series are either:

- (i) listed on a national securities exchange registered under section 6 of the Exchange Act; or
- (ii) held beneficially or of record by more than 2,000 persons.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to and dissenters rights shall be available without regard to the exception provided in that paragraph in the case of:

- (i) (Repealed).
- (ii) Shares of any preferred or special class or series unless the articles, the plan or the terms of the transaction entitle all shareholders of the class or series to vote thereon and require for the adoption of the plan or the effectuation of the transaction the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders of the class or series.

(c) Grant of optional dissenters rights.--The bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors may direct that all or a part of the shareholders shall have dissenters rights in connection with any corporate action or other transaction that would otherwise not entitle such shareholders to dissenters rights. See section 317 (relating to contractual dissenters rights in entity transactions).

(d) Notice of dissenters rights.--Unless otherwise provided by statute, if a proposed corporate action that would give rise to dissenters rights under this subpart is submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, there shall be included in or enclosed with the notice of meeting:

§ 1572. Definitions.

The following words and phrases when used in this subchapter shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

"Corporation." The issuer of the shares held or owned by the dissenter before the corporate action or the successor by merger, consolidation, division, conversion or otherwise of that issuer. A plan of division may designate which one or more of the resulting corporations is the successor corporation for the purposes of this subchapter. The designated successor corporation or corporations in a division shall have sole responsibility for payments to dissenters and other liabilities under this subchapter except as otherwise provided in the plan of division.

"Dissenter." A shareholder who is entitled to and does assert dissenters rights under this subchapter and who has performed every act required up to the time involved for the assertion of those rights.

"Fair value." The fair value of shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, taking into account all relevant factors, but excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action.

"Interest." Interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment at such rate as is fair and equitable under all the circumstances, taking into account all relevant factors, including the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans.

"Shareholder." A shareholder as defined in section 1103 (relating to definitions) or an ultimate beneficial owner of shares, including, without limitation, a holder of depository receipts, where the beneficial interest owned includes an interest in the assets of the corporation upon dissolution. (Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.; June 22, 2001, P.L.418, No.34, eff. 60 days)

§ 1573. Record and beneficial holders and owners.

(a) Record holders of shares.--A record holder of shares of a business corporation may assert dissenters rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all the shares of the same class or series beneficially owned by any one person and discloses the name and address of the person or persons on whose behalf he dissents. In that event, his rights shall be determined as if the shares as to which he has dissented and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) Beneficial owners of shares.--A beneficial owner of shares of a business corporation who is not the record holder may assert dissenters rights with respect to shares held on his behalf and shall be treated as a dissenting shareholder under the terms of this subchapter if he submits to the corporation not later than the time of the assertion of dissenters rights a written consent of the record holder. A beneficial owner may not dissent with respect to some but less than all shares of the same class or series owned by the owner, whether or not the shares so owned by him are registered in his name. (Dec. 18, 1992, P.L.1333, No.169, eff. 60 days)

1992 Amendment. Act 169 amended subsec. (a).

§ 1574. Notice of intention to dissent.

If the proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders of a business corporation, any person who wishes to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of his shares must file with the corporation, prior to the vote, a written notice of intention to demand that he be paid the fair value for his shares if the proposed action is effectuated, must effect no change in the beneficial ownership of his shares from the date of such filing continuously through the effective date of the proposed action and must refrain from voting his shares in approval of such action. A dissenter who fails in any respect shall not acquire any right to payment of the fair value of his shares under this subchapter. Neither a proxy nor a vote against the proposed corporate action shall constitute the written notice required by this section.

§ 1575. Notice to demand payment.

(a) General rule.--If the proposed corporate action is approved by the required vote at a meeting of shareholders of a business corporation, the corporation shall deliver a further notice to all dissenters who gave due notice of intention to demand payment of the fair value of their shares and who refrained from voting in favor of the proposed action. If the proposed corporate action is approved by the shareholders by less than unanimous consent without a meeting or is taken without the need for approval by the shareholders, the corporation shall deliver to all shareholders who are entitled to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of their shares a notice of the adoption of the plan or other corporate action. In either case, the notice shall:

(1) State where and when a demand for payment must be sent and certificates for certificated shares must be deposited in order to obtain payment.

(2) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of shares will be restricted from the time that demand for payment is received.

(3) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes a request for certification of the date on which the shareholder, or the person on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired beneficial ownership of the shares.

(4) Be accompanied by a copy of this subchapter.

(b) Time for receipt of demand for payment.--The time set for receipt of the demand and deposit of certificated shares shall be not less than 30 days from the delivery of the notice. (July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days; Oct. 22, 2014, P.L.2640, No.172, eff. July 1, 2015)

(a) Effect of failure of shareholder to act.--A shareholder who fails to timely demand payment, or fails (in the case of certificated shares) to timely deposit certificates, as required by a notice pursuant to section 1575 (relating to notice to demand payment) shall not have any right under this subchapter to receive payment of the fair value of his shares.

(b) Restriction on uncertificated shares.--If the shares are not represented by certificates, the business corporation may restrict their transfer from the time of receipt of demand for payment until effectuation of the proposed corporate action or the release of restrictions under the terms of section 1577(a) (relating to failure to effectuate corporate action).

(c) Rights retained by shareholder.--The dissenter shall retain all other rights of a shareholder until those rights are modified by effectuation of the proposed corporate action. (Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.)

1990 Amendment. Act 198 amended subsec. (a).

§ 1577. Release of restrictions or payment for shares.

(a) Failure to effectuate corporate action.--Within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing certificates, if the business corporation has not effectuated the proposed corporate action, it shall return any certificates that have been deposited and release uncertificated shares from any transfer restrictions imposed by reason of the demand for payment.

(b) Renewal of notice to demand payment.--When uncertificated shares have been released from transfer restrictions and deposited certificates have been returned, the corporation may at any later time send a new notice conforming to the requirements of section 1575 (relating to notice to demand payment), with like effect.

(c) Payment of fair value of shares.--Promptly after effectuation of the proposed corporate action, or upon timely receipt of demand for payment if the corporate action has already been effectuated, the corporation shall either remit to dissenters who have made demand and (if their shares are certificated) have deposited their certificates the amount that the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shares, or give written notice that no remittance under this section will be made. The remittance or notice shall be accompanied by:

(1) The closing balance sheet and statement of income of the issuer of the shares held or owned by the dissenter for a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of remittance or notice together with the latest available interim financial statements.

(2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares.

(3) A notice of the right of the dissenter to demand payment or supplemental payment, as the case may be, accompanied by a copy of this subchapter.

(d) Failure to make payment.--If the corporation does not remit the amount of its estimate of the fair value of the shares as provided by subsection (c), it shall return any certificates that have been deposited and release uncertificated shares from any transfer restrictions imposed by reason of the demand for payment. The corporation may make a notation on any such certificate or on the records of the corporation relating to any such uncertificated shares that such demand has been made. If shares with respect to which notation has been so made shall be transferred, each new certificate issued therefor or the records relating to any transferred uncertificated shares shall bear a similar notation, together with the name of the original dissenting holder or owner of such shares. A transferee of such shares shall not acquire by such transfer any rights in the corporation other than those that the original dissenter had after making demand for payment of their fair value.

1990 Amendment. Act 198 amended subsecs. (c) and (d).

Cross References. Section 1577 is referred to in sections 1576, 1578, 2512 of this title.

§ 1578. Estimate by dissenter of fair value of shares.

(a) General rule.--If the business corporation gives notice of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, without remitting such amount, or remits payment of its estimate of the fair value of a dissenter's shares as permitted by section 1577(c) (relating to payment of fair value of shares) and the dissenter believes that the amount stated or remitted is less than the fair value of his shares, he may send to the corporation his own estimate of the fair value of the shares, which shall be deemed a demand for payment of the amount or the deficiency.

(b) Effect of failure to file estimate.--Where the dissenter does not file his own estimate under subsection (a) within 30 days after the mailing by the corporation of its remittance or notice, the dissenter shall be entitled to no more than the amount stated in the notice or remitted to him by the corporation.

(Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.)

- (2) timely receipt of any demands for payment under section 1575 (relating to notice to demand payment); or

(3) timely receipt of any estimates pursuant to section 1578 (relating to estimate by dissenter of fair value of shares);

if any demands for payment remain unsettled, the business corporation may file in court an application for relief requesting that the fair value of the shares be determined by the court.

(b) Mandatory joinder of dissenters.--All dissenters, wherever residing, whose demands have not been settled shall be made parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares. A copy of the application shall be served on each such dissenter. If a dissenter is a nonresident, the copy may be served on him in the manner provided or prescribed by or pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S. Ch. 53 (relating to bases of jurisdiction and interstate and international procedure).

(c) Jurisdiction of the court.--The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. (c) Award of fees for benefits to other dissenters.--If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated and should not be assessed against the corporation, it may award to those counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

Any action or meeting that is taken or held without notice or communication to that person shall have the same validity as if the notice or communication had been duly given. If the action taken is such as to require the filing of any document with respect thereto under any provision of law or any agreement or other instrument, it shall be sufficient, if such is the fact and if notice or communication is required, to state therein that notice or communication was given to all persons entitled to receive notice or communication except persons with whom communication was unlawful. See section 1701 (relating to applicability of subchapter).

(b) Shareholders without forwarding addresses.--Subsection (a) shall also be applicable to any shareholder with whom the corporation has been unable to communicate for more than 24 consecutive months because communications to the shareholder are returned unclaimed or the shareholder has otherwise failed to provide the corporation with a current address. (b) Shareholders.--Except as otherwise provided in the bylaws, the presence or participation, including voting and taking other action, by a shareholder at a meeting of shareholders by conference telephone or other electronic technology constitutes the presence or participation, including voting and taking other action, by the shareholder for the purposes of this subpart.

(c) Exclusive use of electronic technology.--Unless the bylaws provide expressly that a meeting of shareholders may not be held solely by means of electronic technology, a meeting of the shareholders does not need to be held at a geographic location if the meeting is held by means of electronic technology in a fashion pursuant to which the shareholders have a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting, read or hear the proceedings substantially concurrently with their occurrence, vote on matters submitted to the shareholders and, subject to such guidelines and procedures as the board of directors may adopt, make appropriate motions and comment on the business of the meeting. Any guidelines or procedures adopted by the board must comply with sections 1709(c) (relating to conduct of shareholders meeting) and 1758(e) (relating to voting rights of shareholders).

(b) Authority of the presiding officer.--Except as otherwise provided in the bylaws, the presiding officer shall determine the order of business and shall have the authority to establish rules for the conduct of the meeting if the board of directors has not determined the order of business or established the rules.

(c) Procedural standard.--Any rules adopted for, and the conduct of, a meeting must be fair to the shareholders.

§ 1715. Exercise of powers generally.

(a) General rule.--In discharging the duties of their respective positions, the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors of a business corporation may, in considering the best interests of the corporation, consider to the extent they deem appropriate:

(1) The effects of any action upon any or all groups affected by such action, including shareholders, employees, suppliers, customers and creditors of the corporation, and upon communities in which offices or other establishments of the corporation are located.

(2) The short-term and long-term interests of the corporation, including benefits that may accrue to the corporation from its long-term plans and the possibility that these interests may be best served by the continued independence of the corporation.

(3) The resources, intent and conduct (past, stated and potential) of any person seeking to acquire control of the corporation.

(4) All other pertinent factors.

(b) Consideration of interests and factors.--The board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors shall not be required, in considering the best interests of the corporation or the effects of any action, to regard any corporate interest or the interests of any particular group affected by such action as a dominant or controlling interest or factor. The consideration of interests and factors in the manner described in this subsection and in subsection (a) shall not constitute a violation of section 1712 (relating to standard of care, justifiable reliance and business judgment rule).

(c) Specific applications.--In exercising the powers vested in the corporation, including, without limitation, those powers pursuant to section 1502 (relating to general powers), and in no way limiting the discretion of the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors pursuant to subsections (a) and (b), the fiduciary duty of directors shall not be deemed to require them:

section 2513 (relating to disparate treatment of certain persons);

(2) to render inapplicable, or make determinations under, the provisions of Subchapter E (relating to control transactions), F (relating to business combinations), G (relating to control-share acquisitions) or H (relating to disgorgement by certain controlling shareholders following attempts to acquire control) of Chapter 25 or under any other provision of this title relating to or affecting acquisitions or potential or proposed acquisitions of control; or

(3) to act as the board of directors, a committee of the board or an individual director solely because of the effect such action might have on an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control of the corporation or the consideration that might be offered or paid to shareholders in such an acquisition.

(d) Presumption.--In assessing whether the standard set forth in section 1712 or 1728 (relating to interested directors or officers; quorum) has been satisfied, there shall not be any greater obligation to justify, or higher burden of proof with respect to, any act as the board of directors, any committee of the board or any individual director relating to or affecting an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control of the corporation than is applied to any other act as a board of directors, any committee of the board or any individual director. Notwithstanding section 1712(d) and the preceding provision of this subsection, any act as the board of directors, a committee of the board or an individual director relating to or affecting an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control to which a majority of the disinterested directors shall have assented shall be presumed to satisfy the standard set forth in section 1712 or 1728, unless it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the disinterested directors did not assent to such act in good faith after reasonable investigation.

(e) Definition.--The term "disinterested director" as used in subsection (d) and for no other purpose means:

(1) A director of the corporation other than:

(i) A director who has a direct or indirect financial or other interest in the person acquiring or seeking to acquire control of the corporation or who is an affiliate or associate of, or was nominated or designated as a director by, a person acquiring or seeking to acquire control of the corporation.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in the bylaws:

(i) Vacancies in the board of directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members of the board though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and each person so selected shall be a director to serve for the balance of the unexpired term unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws.

(ii) When one or more directors resign from the board effective at a future date, the directors then in office, including those who have so resigned, shall have power by the applicable vote to fill the vacancies, the vote thereon to take effect when the resignations become effective.

(2) In the case of a corporation having a board classified as permitted by section 1724(b) (relating to classified board of directors), any director chosen to fill a vacancy, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, shall hold office until the next selection of the class for which such director has been chosen, and until his successor has been selected and qualified or until his earlier death, resignation or removal.

In case the board or a class of the board or any one or more directors are so removed, new directors may be elected at the same meeting. Notwithstanding the first sentence of this paragraph, unless otherwise provided in the articles by a specific and unambiguous statement that directors may be removed from office without assigning any cause, the entire board of directors, or any class of the board, or any individual director of a corporation having a board classified as permitted by section 1724(b) (relating to classified board of directors), may be removed from office by vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon only for cause, if such classification has been effected in the articles or by a bylaw adopted by the shareholders.

(2) The repeal of a provision of the articles or bylaws prohibiting, or the addition of a provision to the articles or bylaws permitting, the removal by the shareholders of the board, a class of the board or a director without assigning any cause shall not apply to any incumbent director during the balance of the term for which he was selected.

(3) An individual director shall not be removed (unless the entire board or class of the board is removed) from the board of a corporation in which shareholders are entitled to vote cumulatively for the board or a class of the board if sufficient votes are cast against the resolution for his removal which, if cumulatively voted at an annual or other regular election of directors, would be sufficient to elect one or more directors to the board or to the class.

(4) The board of directors may be removed at any time with or without cause by the unanimous vote or consent of shareholders entitled to vote thereon.

(5) The articles may not prohibit the removal of directors by the shareholders for cause.

(b) Removal by the board.--Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the shareholders, the board of directors may declare vacant the office of a director who has been judicially declared of unsound mind or who has been convicted of an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year or for any other proper cause which the bylaws may specify or if, within 60 days or such other time as the bylaws may specify after notice of his selection, he does not accept the office either in writing or by attending a meeting of the board of directors and fulfill such other requirements of qualification as the bylaws may specify.

(c) Removal by the court.--Upon application of any shareholder or director, the court may remove from office any director in case of fraudulent or dishonest acts, or gross abuse of authority or discretion with reference to the corporation, or for any other proper cause, and may bar from office any director so removed for a period prescribed by the court. The corporation shall be made a party to the action and as a prerequisite to the maintenance of an action under this subsection a shareholder shall comply with Subchapter F (relating to derivative actions).

(d) Effect of reinstatement.--An act of the board done during the period when a director has been suspended or removed for cause shall not be impugned or invalidated if the suspension or removal is thereafter rescinded by the shareholders or by the board or by the final judgment of a court.

(b) Action by consent.--Unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws, any action required or permitted to be approved at a meeting of the directors may be approved without a meeting by a consent or consents to the action in record form. Except as provided in subsection (c), the consents must be signed, before, on or after the effective time of the action by all of the directors in office at the effective time. The consent or consents must be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board of directors.

(c) Effectiveness of consent.--A consent may provide, or a person signing a consent, whether or not then a director, may instruct in record form that the consent will be effective at a future time, including a time determined upon the happening of an event. In the case of a consent signed by a person not a director at the time of signing, the consent is effective at the stated effective time if the person who signed the consent is a director at the effective time and did not revoke the consent in record form prior to the effective time. A consent is effective at the stated effective time even if one or more signers are no longer directors at the effective time unless the consent has been revoked by a signer who is a director at the effective time. A signer of a consent may revoke the signer's consent in record form until the consent becomes effective.

(a) (1), (2) or (3) is satisfied; or

(2) (i) the director or officer does not participate personally and substantially in negotiating the transaction for either the corporation or the other association; and

Unless otherwise restricted in its bylaws, a business corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he is or was a representative of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Cross References. Section 1741 is referred to in sections 1743, 1744 of this title.

Unless otherwise restricted in its bylaws, a business corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a representative of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation. Indemnification shall not be made under this section in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court of common pleas of the judicial district embracing the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located or the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses that the court of common pleas or other court deems proper.

expenses (including attorney fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the director or officer in connection therewith.

§ 1744. Procedure for effecting indemnification.

Unless ordered by a court, any indemnification under section 1741 (relating to third-party actions) or 1742 (relating to derivative and corporate actions) shall be made by the business corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the representative is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in those sections. The determination shall be made:

(1) by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action or proceeding;

(2) if such a quorum is not obtainable or if obtainable and a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or

(3) by the shareholders.

(Dec. 18, 1992, P.L.1333, No.169, eff. 60 days)

§ 1745. Advancing expenses.

Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending any action or proceeding referred to in this subchapter may be paid by a business corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the representative to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this subchapter or otherwise. Except as otherwise provided in the bylaws, advancement of expenses shall be authorized by the board of directors. Sections 1728 (relating to interested directors or officers; quorum) and 2538 (relating to approval of transactions with interested shareholders) shall not be applicable to the advancement of expenses under this section. (June 22, 2001, P.L.418, No.34, eff. 60 days)

§ 1746. Supplementary coverage.

(a) General rule.--The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other sections of this subchapter shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding that office. Section 1728 (relating to interested directors or officers; quorum) and, in the case of a registered corporation, section 2538 (relating to approval of transactions with interested shareholders) shall be applicable to any bylaw, contract or transaction authorized by the directors under this section. A corporation may create a fund of any nature, which may, but need not be, under the control of a trustee, or otherwise secure or insure in any manner its indemnification obligations, whether arising under or pursuant to this section or otherwise.

(b) When indemnification is not to be made.--Indemnification pursuant to subsection (a) shall not be made in any case where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. The articles may not provide for indemnification in the case of willful misconduct or recklessness.

(c) Grounds.--Indemnification pursuant to subsection (a) under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or directors or otherwise may be granted for any action taken and may be made whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person under any other provision of law except as provided in this section and whether or not the indemnified liability arises or arose from any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation. Such indemnification is declared to be consistent with the public policy of this Commonwealth.

§ 1747. Power to purchase insurance.

Unless otherwise restricted in its bylaws, a business corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a representative of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against that liability under the provisions of this subchapter. Such insurance is declared to be consistent with the public policy of this Commonwealth.

§ 1748. Application to surviving or new corporations.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided in subsection (b), for the purposes of this subchapter, references to "the corporation" include all constituent corporations absorbed in a consolidation, merger or division, as well as the surviving or new corporations surviving or resulting therefrom, so that any person who is or was a representative of the constituent, surviving or new corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the constituent, surviving or new corporation as a representative of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this subchapter with respect to the surviving or new corporation as he would if he had served the surviving or new corporation in the same capacity.

(b) Divisions.--Notwithstanding subsection (a), the obligations of a dividing corporation to indemnify and advance expenses to its representatives, whether arising under this subchapter or otherwise, may be allocated in a division in the same manner and with the same effect as any other liability of the dividing corporation.

§ 1749. Application to employee benefit plans.

For purposes of this subchapter:

(1) References to "other enterprises" shall include employee benefit plans and references to "serving at the request of the corporation" shall include any service as a representative of the business corporation that imposes duties on, or involves services by, the representative with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries.

(2) Excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan pursuant to applicable law shall be deemed "fines."

(3) Action with respect to an employee benefit plan taken or omitted in good faith by a representative of the corporation in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan shall be deemed to be action in a manner that is not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

§ 1750. Duration and extent of coverage.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this subchapter shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a representative of the corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representative of that person. A right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses arising under a provision of the articles or bylaws may not be eliminated or impaired by an amendment to or repeal of the provision after the occurrence of an act that is the subject of the threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, for which indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought, unless the provision in effect at the time of the act explicitly authorizes the elimination or impairment after an act has occurred.

Except as otherwise provided in the articles, at least one meeting of the shareholders shall be held in each calendar year for the election of directors at such time as shall be provided in or fixed pursuant to authority granted by the bylaws. Failure to hold the annual or other regular meeting at the designated time shall not work a dissolution of the corporation or affect otherwise valid corporate acts. If the annual or other regular meeting is not called and held within six months after the designated time, any shareholder may call the meeting at any time thereafter.

(b) Special meetings.--Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time:

- (1) by the board of directors;

(1) A quorum for the purposes of consideration and action on a particular matter at a meeting shall consist of:

(i) the presence of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all shareholders are entitled to cast on the matter; and

(ii) if any shareholders are entitled to vote as a class on the matter, the presence of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast in the class vote.

(2) The shareholders present at a duly organized meeting can continue to do business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum.

(3) If a meeting cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, those present may, except as otherwise provided in this subpart, adjourn the meeting to a time and place they may determine.

(4) If a proxy casts a vote or takes other action on behalf of a shareholder on any issue other than a procedural motion considered at a meeting of shareholders, the shares for which the proxy has so acted shall be deemed to be present during the entire meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present for consideration of any other issue.

(b) Exceptions.--Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the shareholders, those shareholders entitled to vote who attend a meeting of shareholders:

§ 1758. Voting rights of shareholders.

(a) General rule.--Unless otherwise provided in the articles, every shareholder of a business corporation shall be entitled to one vote for every share standing in the shareholder's name on the share register. The articles may restrict the number of votes that a single holder or beneficial owner, or such a group of holders or owners as the bylaws may define, of shares of any class or series may directly or indirectly cast in the aggregate for the election of directors or on any other matter coming before the shareholders on the basis of any facts or circumstances that are not manifestly unreasonable, including without limitation:

(1) the number of shares of any class or series held by such single holder or beneficial owner or group of holders or owners; or

(2) the length of time shares of any class or series have been held by such single holder or beneficial owner or group of holders or owners.

(b) Procedures for election of directors.--The following apply to the election of directors:

at a geographic location, voting need not be by ballot unless required by vote of the shareholders before the voting for election of directors begins. The shareholders do not have the right to vote by ballot at a meeting that is not held at a geographic location pursuant to section 1708(c) (relating to use of conference telephone or other electronic technology).

(2) Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the shareholders, the candidates for election as directors receiving the highest number of votes from each class or group of classes, if any, entitled to elect directors separately up to the number of directors to be elected by the class or group of classes shall be elected. This paragraph applies retroactively, and a bylaw described in this paragraph shall be valid if it was adopted after January 1, 2000.

(3) If at any meeting of shareholders, directors of more than one class are to be elected, each class of directors shall be elected in a separate election.

(c) Cumulative voting.--

(1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2) or in the articles, in each election of directors every shareholder entitled to vote shall have the right to multiply the number of votes to which he may be entitled by the total number of directors to be elected in the same election by the holders of the class or classes of shares of which his shares are a part and he may cast the whole number of his votes for one candidate or he may distribute them among any two or more candidates.

(2) The shareholders of a corporation not incorporated under the Business Corporation Law of 1933 or this subpart, the shareholders of which were not entitled to cumulate their votes for the election of directors at the date the corporation became subject to the provisions of the Business Corporation Law of 1933 or became or becomes subject to the provisions of this subpart, shall be entitled so to cumulate their votes only if and to the extent its articles so provide.

(d) Redeemable shares.--Unless otherwise provided in the articles, redeemable shares that have been called for redemption shall not be entitled to vote on any matter and shall not be deemed outstanding shares after written notice has been mailed to holders thereof that the shares have been called for redemption and that a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a specified financial institution with irrevocable instruction and authority to pay the redemption price to the holders of the shares on the redemption date, in the case of uncertificated shares, or upon surrender of certificates therefor in the case of certificated shares, and the sum has been so deposited.

(e) Advance notice of nominations and other business.--If the bylaws provide a fair and reasonable procedure for the nomination of candidates for election as directors, only candidates who have been duly nominated in accordance therewith shall be eligible for election. § 1759. Voting and other action by proxy.

(1) Every shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action without a meeting may authorize another person to act for him by proxy.

(2) The vote or other action on behalf of a shareholder at a meeting of shareholders, or the expression of consent or dissent to corporate action, by a proxy of a shareholder shall constitute the vote or action by, or consent or dissent of the shareholder for the purposes of this subpart.

(3) Where two or more proxies of a shareholder are present, the corporation shall, unless otherwise expressly provided in the proxy, accept as the vote or other action of all shares represented thereby the vote cast or other action taken by a majority of them and, if a majority of the proxies cannot agree whether the shares represented shall be voted or upon the manner of voting the shares or taking the other action, the voting of the shares or right to take other action shall be divided equally among those persons.

(b) Execution and filing.--Every proxy shall be executed or authenticated by the shareholder or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact and filed with or transmitted to the secretary of the corporation or its designated agent. A shareholder or his duly authorized attorney-in-fact may execute or authenticate a writing or transmit an electronic message authorizing another person to act for him by proxy. A telegram, telex, cablegram, datagram, e-mail, Internet communication or other means of electronic transmission from a shareholder or attorney-in-fact, or a photographic, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing executed by a shareholder or attorney-in-fact:

(1) may be treated as properly executed or authenticated for purposes of this subsection; and

(2) shall be so treated if it sets forth or utilizes a confidential and unique identification number or other mark furnished by the corporation to the shareholder for the purposes of a particular meeting or transaction.

(c) Revocation.--A proxy, unless coupled with an interest, shall be revocable at will, notwithstanding any other agreement or any provision in the proxy to the contrary, but the revocation of a proxy shall not be effective until notice thereof has been given to the secretary of the corporation or its designated agent in writing or by electronic transmission. An unrevoked proxy shall not be valid after three years from the date of its signature, authentication or transmission unless a longer time is expressly provided therein. A proxy shall not be revoked by the death or incapacity of the maker unless, before the vote is counted or the authority is exercised, notice in record form of the death or incapacity is given to the secretary of the corporation or its designated agent.

(d) Proxy coupled with an interest.--As used in this section, the term "proxy coupled with an interest" includes:

(2) an agreement permitted by section 1768(b) (relating to other agreements); and § 1760. Voting by fiduciaries and pledgees.

Shares of a business corporation standing in the name of a trustee or other fiduciary and shares held by an assignee for the benefit of creditors or by a receiver may be voted by the trustee, fiduciary, assignee or receiver. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote the shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, or a nominee of the pledgee, but nothing in this section shall affect the validity of a proxy given to a pledgee or nominee.

§ 1761. Voting by joint holders of shares.

(a) General rule.--Where shares of a business corporation are held jointly or as tenants in common by two or more persons, as fiduciaries or otherwise:

(1) if only one or more of such persons is present in person or by proxy, all of the shares standing in the names of such persons shall be deemed to be represented for the purpose of determining a quorum and the corporation shall accept as the vote of all the shares the vote cast by him or a majority of them; and

(2) if the persons are equally divided upon whether the shares held by them shall be voted or upon the manner of voting the shares, the voting of the shares shall be divided equally among the persons without prejudice to the rights of the joint owners or the beneficial owners thereof among themselves.

(b) Exception.--If there has been filed with the secretary of the corporation a copy, certified by an attorney at law to be correct, of the relevant portions of the agreement under which the shares are held or the instrument by which the trust or estate was created or the order of court appointing them or of an order of court directing the voting of the shares, the persons specified as having such voting power in the latest document so filed, and only those persons, shall be entitled to vote the shares but only in accordance therewith.

§ 1762. Voting by corporations.

(a) Voting in business corporation matters.--Any other domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit that is a shareholder of a business corporation may vote by any of its officers or agents, or by proxy appointed by any officer or agent, unless some other person, by resolution of the board of directors of the other corporation or a provision of its articles or bylaws, a copy of which resolution or provision certified to be correct by one of its officers has been filed with the secretary of the business corporation, is appointed its general or special proxy in which case that person shall be entitled to vote the shares.

(b) Voting by business corporations.--Shares of or memberships in a domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit other than a business corporation, standing in the name of a shareholder or member that is a business corporation, may be voted by the persons and in the manner provided for in the case of business corporations by subsection (a) unless the laws of the jurisdiction in which the issuer of the shares or memberships is incorporated require the shares or memberships to be voted by some other person or persons or in some other manner in which case, to the extent that those laws are inconsistent herewith, this subsection shall not apply.

(c) Controlled shares.--Shares of a business corporation owned, directly or indirectly, by it and controlled, directly or indirectly, by the board of directors of the corporation, as such, shall not be voted at any meeting and shall not be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares for voting purposes at any given time.

§ 1763. Determination of shareholders of record.

(a) Fixing record date.--Unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws, the board of directors of a business corporation may fix a time prior to the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting, which time, except in the case of an adjourned or postponed meeting, shall be not more than 90 days prior to the date of the meeting of shareholders. If the board fixes a record date for notice of a meeting, that date shall also be the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting unless the board determines, at the time it fixes the record date for notice, that a later date on or before the date of the meeting shall be the date for determining the shareholders entitled to vote. Only shareholders of record on the date fixed shall be so entitled notwithstanding any transfer of shares on the books of the corporation after any record date fixed as provided in this subsection. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the board of directors may similarly fix a record date for the determination of shareholders of record for any other purpose. A record date may not precede the date on which the board acts to fix that record date. The shareholders of record shall be determined as of the close of business on the record date unless the board fixes a different time of day for that determination. When a determination of shareholders of record has been made as provided in this section for purposes of a meeting, the determination shall apply to any adjournment or postponement thereof unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws or unless the board fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

(b) Determination when a record date is not fixed.--Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, if a record date is not fixed:

(1) The close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which the meeting is held shall be the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders.

(2) The close of business on the day on which the first consent, request or petition is filed in record form with the secretary of the corporation shall be the record date for determining shareholders entitled to:

(i) express consent or dissent to corporate action without a meeting, when prior action by the board of directors is not necessary;

(ii) call a special meeting of the shareholders;
or

(iii) propose an amendment of the articles.

(3) The record date for determining shareholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the board of directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

(c) Certification by nominee.--If the bylaws so provide, the board of directors may adopt a procedure whereby a shareholder of the corporation may certify in writing to the corporation that all or a portion of the shares registered in the name of the shareholder are held for the account of a specified person or persons. The persons specified in a certification shall be deemed, for the purposes set forth in the certification, to be the holders of record of the number of shares specified in place of the shareholder making the certification. A certification procedure may include provisions on:

(1) The classification of shareholder who may certify.

(2) The purpose or purposes for which the certification may be made.

(3) The form of certification and information to be contained therein.

(4) If the certification is with respect to a record date, the time after the record date within which the certification must be received by the corporation.

(5) Such other provisions with respect to the procedure as are deemed necessary or desirable.

§ 1764. Voting lists.

(a) General rule.--The officer or agent having charge of the share register of a business corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each. This section does not require the corporation to include electronic mail addresses or other electronic contact information on the list. The list shall be produced and kept open at the time and place of each meeting of shareholders and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting for the purposes thereof. A shareholder and any agent or attorney who inspects the list may use the information on the list only for purposes related to the meeting and must keep the information on the list confidential.

(b) Effect of list.--Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at a meeting prior to a demand at the meeting by any shareholder entitled to vote thereat to examine the list. The original share register, or a duplicate thereof kept in this Commonwealth, shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine the list or share register or to vote at any meeting of shareholders.

(c) Electronic meetings.--If a meeting of shareholders is not held at a geographic location, the corporation shall make the list of shareholders required by subsection (a) available in a reasonably accessible manner.

(d) Cross reference.--See section 2529 (relating to voting lists).

§ 1765. Judges of election.

(a) General rule.--Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the shareholders:

(1) Appointment.--In advance of any meeting of shareholders of a business corporation, the board of directors may appoint judges of election, who need not be shareholders, to act at the meeting or any adjournment thereof. If judges of election are not so appointed, the presiding officer of the meeting may, and on the request of any shareholder shall, appoint judges of election at the meeting. The number of judges shall be one or three. A person who is a candidate for office to be filled at the meeting shall not act as a judge.

(2) Vacancies.--In case any person appointed as a judge fails to appear or fails or refuses to act, the vacancy may be filled by appointment made by the board of directors in advance of the convening of the meeting or at the meeting by the presiding officer thereof.

(3) Duties.--The judges of election shall determine the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, the shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, the authenticity, validity and effect of proxies, receive votes or ballots, hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, determine the result and do such acts as may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders. The judges of election shall perform their duties impartially, in good faith, to the best of their ability and as expeditiously as is practical. If there are three judges of election, the decision, act or certificate of a majority shall be effective in all respects as the decision, act or certificate of all.

(4) Report.--On request of the presiding officer of the meeting, or of any shareholder, the judges shall make a report in writing of any challenge or question or matter determined by them, and execute a certificate of any fact found by them. Any report or certificate made by them shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

§ 1766. Consent of shareholders in lieu of meeting.

(a) Unanimous consent.--Unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders or of a class of shareholders of a business corporation may be taken without a meeting if a consent or consents to the action in record form are signed, before, on or after the effective time of the action by all of the shareholders who would be entitled to vote at a meeting for such purpose. The consent or consents must be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders.

(b) Partial consent.--If the bylaws so provide, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders or of a class of shareholders may be taken without a meeting upon the signed consent or consents of shareholders who would have been entitled to cast the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize the action at a meeting at which all shareholders entitled to vote thereon were present and voting. The consent or consents must be filed in record form with the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders.

(c) Effectiveness of action by partial consent.--An action taken pursuant to subsection (b) to approve a transaction under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions) shall not become effective until after at least ten days' notice of the action has been given to each shareholder entitled to vote thereon who has not consented thereto. Any other action may become effective immediately, but prompt notice that the action has been taken shall be given to each shareholder entitled to vote thereon that has not consented. Notice under this subsection must include the information that a notice of a meeting of shareholders seeking approval of the action would have been required to contain. This subsection may not be relaxed by any provision of the articles.

(d) Escrowing of consents.--A consent may provide, or a person signing a consent, whether or not then a shareholder, may instruct in record form, that the consent will be effective at a future time, including a time determined upon the happening of an event. In the case of a consent signed by a person not a shareholder at the time of signing, the consent is effective at the stated effective time if the person who signed the consent is a shareholder at the effective time and did not revoke the consent in record form prior to the effective time. A consent is effective at the stated effective time, even if one or more signers are no longer shareholders at the effective time if consents by shareholders entitled to cast the required number of votes have not been revoked before the effective time.

(e) Revocation of consent.--Unless otherwise provided in a consent, a signer of the consent may revoke the signer's consent in record form until it becomes effective.

(1) The articles may not contain a provision that varies or is otherwise inconsistent with subsection (b)(2).

(2) A provision of the articles that varies or is otherwise inconsistent with any provision of this section shall not be effective unless it is included in the original articles or in an amendment adopted by the affirmative vote of all shareholders of the corporation whether or not otherwise entitled to vote thereon.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided in subsection (b), in any action or proceeding brought by one or more shareholders of a business corporation to enforce rights that the plaintiff claims could be, but have not been, asserted by the corporation, each plaintiff has standing to commence and maintain the derivative action only if the plaintiff:

(1) was a shareholder of the corporation or owner of a beneficial interest in the shares at the time of the transaction or conduct of which the plaintiff complains, or that the plaintiff's shares or beneficial interest in the shares devolved upon the plaintiff by operation of law from a person who was a shareholder or owner of a beneficial interest in the shares at that time; and

(2) continues to hold the shares until the time of judgment, unless the failure to do so is the result of corporate action that:

(i) was done merely to eliminate derivative claims;

(ii) has the effect of a reorganization that does not affect the plaintiff's ownership of the business enterprise.

(b) Exception.--Any shareholder or person beneficially interested in shares of the corporation who, except for the provisions of subsection (a), would be entitled to maintain the action or proceeding and who does not meet such requirements may, nevertheless in the discretion of the court, be allowed to maintain the action or proceeding on preliminary showing to the court, by application and upon such verified statements and depositions as may be required by the court, that there is a strong prima facie case in favor of the claim asserted on behalf of the corporation and that without the action serious injustice will result.

(c) Security for costs.--In any action or proceeding instituted or maintained by holders or owners of less than 5% of the outstanding shares of any class of the corporation, unless the shares held or owned by the holders or owners have an aggregate fair market value in excess of $200,000, the corporation in whose right the action or proceeding is brought shall be entitled at any stage of the proceedings to require the plaintiffs to give security for the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, that may be incurred by the corporation in connection therewith or for which it may become liable pursuant to section 1743 (relating to mandatory indemnification) (but only insofar as relates to actions by or in the right of the corporation) to which security the corporation shall have recourse in such amount as the court determines upon the termination of the action or proceeding. The amount of security may, from time to time, be increased or decreased in the discretion of the court upon showing that the security provided has or is likely to become inadequate or excessive. The security may be denied or limited by the court if the court finds after an evidentiary hearing that undue hardship on plaintiffs and serious injustice would result.

(d) Failure to maintain ownership.--If a plaintiff loses the right to maintain a derivative action under subsection (a)(2), the court may entertain a motion by the corporation to substitute the corporation as the named plaintiff.

The corporation must deliver a notice in record form to the person making the demand, or to the plaintiff if a derivative action has been commenced, promptly after the appointment of a committee under this section notifying the person making the demand or the plaintiff that a committee has been appointed and identifying by name the members of the committee. A committee may not be appointed under this section if every shareholder of the corporation is also a director of the corporation.

(b) Discovery stay.--If the board of directors appoints a special litigation committee and an action is commenced before a determination has been made under subsection (e):

(d) Appointment of committee.--A special litigation committee may be appointed:

- (2) if all the directors are named as actual or potential parties in the demand or action, by a majority of the directors so named.

(e) Determination.--After appropriate investigation by a special litigation committee, the committee may determine, or the committee may recommend to the board of directors that the board determine, that it is in the best interests of the business corporation that:

The corporation or the committee shall serve each party with a copy of the determination and report. If the corporation or the committee moves to file the report under seal, the report shall be served on the parties subject to an appropriate stipulation agreed to by the parties or a protective order issued by the court.
- (2) The corporation or the committee shall file with the court a motion, pleading or notice consistent with the determination under subsection (e).
- (3) If the determination is one described in subsection (e) (2), (3), (4), (5) (ii), (6) or (7), the court shall determine whether the members of the committee met the qualifications required under subsection (c) (1) and (2) and whether the committee conducted its investigation and made its determination or recommendation in good faith, independently and with reasonable care. The plaintiff has the burden of proving that the committee did not meet those qualifications or act in the required manner. If the court finds that the members of the committee met the qualifications required under subsection (c) (1) and (2) and that the committee acted in good faith, independently and with reasonable care, the court shall enforce the determination of the committee or the board. Otherwise, the court shall:

(i) dissolve any stay of discovery entered under subsection (b);

(ii) allow the action to continue under the control of the plaintiff; and

(iii) permit the defendants to file preliminary objections, other appropriate pleadings and motions.

(g) Certain provisions of articles ineffective.--The provisions of this section may not be varied by the articles.

(h) Interest of a defendant.--The fact that a person is named as a defendant does not make the person interested in the claims asserted in a demand or action for purposes of subsection (c) (1) if the claims against the person:

(1) are based only on an allegation that the person approved of or acquiesced in the transaction or conduct that is the subject of the claims; and

(2) do not otherwise allege with particularity facts that, if true, raise a significant prospect that the person would be adjudged liable.

(Nov. 21, 2016, P.L.1328, No.170, eff. 90 days; Nov. 3, 2022, P.L.1791, No.122, eff. 60 days)

§ 1784. Proceeds and expenses.

(a) Proceeds.--Except as provided in subsection (b):

(1) any proceeds or other benefits of a derivative action, whether by judgment, compromise or settlement, belong to the business corporation and not to the plaintiff; and

(2) if the plaintiff or its counsel receives any proceeds, the proceeds shall be remitted immediately to the corporation.

(b) Expenses.--If a derivative action is successful in whole or in part, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and costs, from the recovery of the business corporation, but in no event shall the attorney fees awarded exceed a reasonable proportion of the value of the relief, including nonpecuniary relief, obtained by the plaintiff for the corporation.

(c) Certain provisions of articles ineffective.--This section may not be relaxed by any provision of the articles. (Nov. 21, 2016, P.L.1328, No.170, eff. 90 days)

(Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.; Oct. 22, 2014, P.L.2640, No.172, eff. July 1, 2015; Nov. 3, 2022, P.L.1791, No.122, eff. 60 days)

§ 1906. Special treatment of holders of shares of same class or series.

(a) General rule.--Except as otherwise restricted in the articles, a plan may contain a provision classifying the holders of shares of a class or series into one or more separate groups by reference to any facts or circumstances that are not manifestly unreasonable and providing mandatory treatment for shares of the class or series held by particular shareholders or groups of shareholders that differs materially from the treatment accorded other shareholders or groups of shareholders holding shares of the same class or series (including a provision modifying or rescinding rights previously created under this section) if:

(1) (i) the plan is approved by a majority of the votes cast by any class or series of shares any of the shares of which are so classified into groups, whether or not such class or series would otherwise be entitled to vote on the plan; and undertaken in good faith, after reasonable deliberation and is in the best interest of the corporation.

(b) Statutory voting rights upon special treatment.--Except as provided in subsection (c), if a plan contains a provision for special treatment, each group of holders of any outstanding shares of a class or series who are to receive the same special treatment under the plan shall be entitled to vote as a special class in respect to the plan regardless of any limitations stated in the articles or bylaws on the voting rights of any class or series.

(c) Dissenters rights upon special treatment.--If any plan contains a provision for special treatment without requiring for the adoption of the plan the statutory class vote required by subsection (b), the holder of any outstanding shares the statutory class voting rights of which are so denied, who objects to the plan and complies with Subchapter D of Chapter 15 (relating to dissenters rights), shall be entitled to the rights and remedies of dissenting shareholders provided in that subchapter.

(c.1) Determination of groups.--For purposes of applying subsections (a)(1) and (b), the determination of which shareholders are part of each group receiving special treatment shall be made as of the record date for shareholder action on the plan.

(c.2) Notice to shareholders.--A notice to shareholders of a meeting called to act on a plan that provides for special treatment must state that the plan provides for special treatment. The notice must identify the shareholders receiving special treatment unless the notice is accompanied by either a summary of the plan that includes that information or the full text of the plan.

(1) (Reserved).

(2) A provision of a plan that offers to all holders of shares of a class or series the same option to elect certain treatment.

(3) A plan that contains an express provision that this section shall not apply or that fails to contain an express provision that this section shall apply.

(4) A provision of a plan that treats all of the holders of a particular class or series of shares differently from the holders of another class or series. A provision of a plan that treats the holders of a class or series of shares differently from the holders of another class or series of shares shall not constitute a violation of section 1521(d) (relating to authorized shares).

(e) Definition.--As used in this section, the term "plan" means:

(1) an amendment of the articles that effects a reclassification of shares, whether or not the amendment is accompanied by a separate plan of reclassification;

2013 Amendment. Act 67 added section 1907.

§ 1908. Submission of matters to shareholders.

A business corporation may agree, in record form, to submit an amendment or other matter to its shareholders whether or not the board of directors determines, at any time after approving the matter, that the matter is no longer advisable and recommends that the shareholders reject or vote against it, regardless of whether the board of directors changes its recommendation. If a corporation so agrees to submit a matter to its shareholders, the matter is deemed to have been validly adopted by the corporation when it has been approved by the shareholders.

§ 1914. Adoption of amendments.

(a) General rule.--A vote of the shareholders entitled to vote on a proposed amendment shall be taken at the next annual or special meeting of which notice for that purpose has been duly given. (4) increase the number of authorized shares of any class or series having a preference as to dividends or assets which is senior in any respect to the shares of a class or series; or

(5) make the outstanding shares of a class or series redeemable by a method that is not pro rata, by lot or otherwise equitable.

(c) Adoption by board of directors.--Unless otherwise restricted in the articles, an amendment of articles shall not require the approval of the shareholders of the corporation if:

(1) shares have not been issued;

(2) the amendment is restricted to one or more of the following:

(i) changing the corporate name;

(ii) providing for perpetual existence;

(iii) reflecting a reduction in authorized shares effected by operation of section 1552(a) (relating to power of corporation to acquire its own shares) and, if appropriate, deleting all references to a class or series of shares that is no longer outstanding;

(iv) adding or deleting a provision authorized by section 1528(f) (relating to shares represented by certificates and uncertificated shares);

(vi) implementing an amendment authorized by section 229(h) (relating to limitation on voiding certain defective entity actions);

(3) (i) the corporation has only one class or series of voting shares outstanding;

(ii) the corporation does not have any class or series of shares outstanding that is:

(A) convertible into those voting shares;

(B) junior in any way to those voting shares;
or

(C) entitled to participate on any basis in distributions with those voting shares; and

(iii) the amendment is effective solely to accomplish one of the following purposes with respect to those voting shares:

(A) in connection with effectuating a stock dividend of voting shares on the voting shares, to increase the number of authorized shares of the voting shares in the same proportion that the voting shares to be distributed in the stock dividend increase the issued voting shares; or

(B) to split the voting shares and, if desired, increase the number of authorized shares of the voting shares or change the par value of the voting shares, or both, in proportion thereto;

(4) to the extent the amendment has not been approved by the shareholders, it restates without change all of the operative provisions of the articles as theretofore amended or as amended thereby; or

(5) the amendment accomplishes any combination of purposes specified in this subsection.

(c.1) Board amendment under other sections.--Whenever a provision of this subpart authorizes the board of directors to take any action without the approval of the shareholders and provides that a statement, certificate, plan or other document relating to such action shall be filed in the Department of State and shall operate as an amendment of the articles, the board upon taking such action may, in lieu of filing the statement, certificate, plan or other document, amend the articles under this subsection without the approval of the shareholders to reflect the taking of such action.

(c.2) Effect of board amendment.--An amendment of articles under subsection (c) shall be deemed adopted by the corporation when it has been adopted by the board of directors pursuant to section 1912 (relating to proposal of amendments).

(d) Termination of proposal.--Prior to the time when an amendment becomes effective, the amendment may be terminated pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the resolution or petition. If articles of amendment have been filed in the department prior to the termination, a statement under section 1902 (relating to statement of termination) shall be filed in the department.

(e) Amendment of voting provisions.--Unless otherwise provided in the articles, whenever the articles require for the taking of any action by the shareholders or a class of shareholders a specific number or percentage of votes, the provision of the articles setting forth that requirement shall not be amended or repealed by any lesser number or percentage of votes of the shareholders or of the class of shareholders.

(f) Definition.--As used in this section, the term "voting shares" has the meaning specified in section 2552 (relating to definitions).

2014 Repeal. Section 1929 was repealed October 22, 2014, P.L.2640, No.172, effective July 1, 2015.

§ 1929.1. Limitations on asbestos-related liabilities relating to certain mergers or consolidations.

(a) Limitation on successor asbestos-related liabilities.--

(1) Except as further limited in paragraph (2), the cumulative successor asbestos-related liabilities of a domestic business corporation that was incorporated in this Commonwealth prior to May 1, 2001, shall be limited to the fair market value of the total assets of the transferor determined as of the time of the merger or consolidation, and such corporation shall have no responsibility for successor asbestos-related liabilities in excess of such limitation.

(2) If the transferor had assumed or incurred successor asbestos-related liabilities in connection with a prior merger or consolidation with a prior transferor, then the fair market value of the total assets of the prior transferor, determined as of the time of such earlier merger or consolidation, shall be substituted for the limitation set forth in paragraph (1) for purposes of determining the limitation of liability of a domestic business corporation.

(b) Limitation on total assets available to satisfy successor asbestos-related liabilities.--

(1) Except as further limited in paragraph (2), the assets of a domestic business corporation that was incorporated in this Commonwealth prior to May 1, 2001, shall be exempt from restraint, attachment or execution on judgments related to claims for successor asbestos-related liabilities if the cumulative amounts which, after the time of the merger or consolidation as to which the fair market value of total assets is determined for purposes of this subsection and subsection (a), are paid or committed to be paid by or on behalf of the corporation, or by or on behalf of a transferor, in connection with settlements, judgments or other discharges of claims of asbestos-related liabilities exceed the fair market value of the total assets of the transferor, determined as of the time of the merger or consolidation.

(2) If the transferor had assumed or incurred successor asbestos-related liabilities in connection with a prior merger or consolidation with a prior transferor, then the fair market value of the total assets of the prior transferor, determined as of the time of such earlier merger or consolidation, shall be substituted for the limitation set forth in paragraph (1) for purposes of determining the extent of the exemption of the assets of a domestic business corporation.

(c) Fair market value of total assets.--

(1) A domestic business corporation may establish the fair market value of total assets through any method reasonable under the circumstances, including by reference to the going concern value of such assets or to the purchase price attributable to or paid for such assets in an arm's length transaction, or, in the absence of other readily available information from which fair market value can be determined, by reference to the value of such assets recorded on a balance sheet. Total assets shall include intangible assets. A showing by the domestic business corporation of a reasonable determination of the fair market value of total assets shall be prima facie evidence of their fair market value.

(2) Once a reasonable determination of the fair market value of total assets has been thus established by a domestic business corporation, a claimant disputing that determination of value shall then have the burden of establishing a different fair market value of such assets.

(3) For the purpose of adjusting the limitations set forth in subsections (a) and (b) to account for the passage of time, the fair market value of total assets at the time of a merger or consolidation shall be increased annually until the earlier of:

(i) the date of the settlement, judgment or other discharge to which the limitations in subsection (a) or (b) are being applied; or

(ii) the date on which such adjusted fair market value is first exceeded by the cumulative amounts paid or committed to be paid by or on behalf of the corporation, or by or on behalf of a transferor, after the time of the merger or consolidation as to which the fair market value of total assets is determined for purposes of subsections (a) and (b) in connection with settlements, judgments or other discharges of the successor asbestos-related liabilities; at the rate equal to the prime rate as listed in the first edition of the Wall Street Journal published for each calendar year since such merger or consolidation, plus 1%, not compounded.

(d) Application.--

(1) The limitations set forth in subsections (a) and (b) shall apply to mergers or consolidations effected under the laws of this Commonwealth or another jurisdiction consummated prior to May 1, 2001.

(2) The limitations set forth in subsections (a) and (b) shall apply to all asbestos claims, including existing asbestos claims, and all litigation, including existing litigation, and shall apply to successors of a domestic business corporation to which this section applies.

(3) The limitations set forth in subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply to workers' compensation benefits paid by or on behalf of an employer to an employee pursuant to the act of June 2, 1915 (P.L.736, No.338), known as the Workers' Compensation Act, or comparable workers' compensation law of another jurisdiction.

(4) The limitations set forth in subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply to any claim against a domestic business corporation that does not constitute a successor asbestos-related liability.

(5) This section shall not apply to an insurance corporation as defined in section 3102 (relating to definitions).

(6) The limitations set forth in subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply to any obligations arising under the National Labor Relations Act (49 Stat. 449, 29 U.S.C. § 151 et seq.) or under any collective bargaining agreement.

(e) Definitions.--As used in this section, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings given to them in this subsection:

"Asbestos claim." Any claim, wherever or whenever made, for damages, losses, indemnification, contribution or other relief arising out of, based on or in any way related to asbestos, including property damage caused by the installation, presence or removal of asbestos, the health effects of exposure to asbestos, including any claim for personal injury, death, mental or emotional injury, risk of disease or other injury or the costs of medical monitoring or surveillance. The term shall also include any claim made by or on behalf of any person exposed to asbestos or any representative, spouse, parent, child or other relative of any such person.

"Successor asbestos-related liabilities." Any liabilities, whether known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, absolute or contingent, accrued or unaccrued, liquidated or unliquidated or due or to become due, related in any way to asbestos claims, that were assumed or incurred by a domestic business corporation or foreign business corporation as a result of or in connection with a merger or consolidation, or the plan of merger or consolidation related thereto, with or into another domestic business corporation or foreign business corporation effected under the laws of this Commonwealth or another jurisdiction or which are related in any way to asbestos claims based on the exercise of control or the ownership of stock of such corporation prior to such merger or consolidation. The term shall also include liabilities which, after the time of the merger or consolidation as to which the fair market value of total assets is determined for purposes of subsections (a) and (b), were or are paid or otherwise discharged, or committed to be paid or otherwise discharged, by or on behalf of the corporation, or by or on behalf of a transferor, in connection with settlements, judgments or other discharges in this Commonwealth or another jurisdiction.

"Transferor." A domestic business corporation or foreign business corporation from which successor asbestos-related liabilities are assumed or incurred.

§ 1932. Voluntary transfer of corporate assets.

(a) Shareholder approval not required.--The sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a business corporation, when made in the usual and regular course of the business of the corporation, or for the purpose of relocating all, or substantially all, of the business of the corporation, may be made upon such terms and conditions, and for such consideration, as shall be authorized by its board of directors. Except as otherwise restricted by the bylaws, authorization or consent of the shareholders shall not be required for such a transaction.

(b) Shareholder approval required.--

(1) A sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets, with or without the goodwill, of a business corporation, if not made pursuant to subsection (a) or (d) or to section 1551 (relating to distributions to shareholders) or Subchapter F of Chapter 3 (relating to division), may be made only pursuant to a plan of asset transfer in the manner provided in this subsection. A corporation selling, leasing or otherwise disposing of all, or substantially all, its property and assets is referred to in this subsection and in subsection (c) as the "transferring corporation."

(2) The property or assets of a direct or indirect subsidiary corporation that is controlled by a parent corporation shall also be deemed the property or assets of the parent corporation for the purposes of this subsection and of subsection (c). A merger to which such a subsidiary corporation is a party and in which a third party acquires direct or indirect ownership of the property or assets of the subsidiary corporation constitutes an "other disposition" of the property or assets of the parent corporation within the meaning of that term as used in this section.

(3) The plan of asset transfer shall set forth the terms and conditions of the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition or may authorize the board of directors to fix any or all of the terms and conditions, including the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. The plan may provide for the distribution to the shareholders of some or all of the consideration to be received by the corporation, including provisions for special treatment of shares held by any shareholder or group of shareholders as authorized by, and subject to the provisions of, section 1906 (relating to special treatment of holders of shares of same class or series). It shall not be necessary for the person acquiring the property or assets of the transferring corporation to be a party to the plan. Any of the terms of the plan may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside of the plan if the manner in which the facts will operate upon the terms of the plan is set forth in the plan. Such facts may include, without limitation, actions or events within the control of or determinations made by the corporation or a representative of the corporation.

(4) The plan of asset transfer shall be proposed and adopted, and may be amended after its adoption and terminated, by the transferring corporation in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions) for the proposal, adoption, amendment and termination of a plan of merger, except section 321(d) (relating to approval by business corporation). The procedures of Chapter 3 shall not be applicable to the person acquiring the property or assets of the transferring corporation. There shall be included in, or enclosed with, the notice of the meeting of the shareholders of the transferring corporation to act on the plan a copy or a summary of the plan and, if Subchapter D of Chapter 15 (relating to dissenters rights) is applicable, a copy of the subchapter and of subsection (c).

(5) In order to make effective the plan of asset transfer so adopted, it shall not be necessary to file any articles or other documents in the Department of State.

(c) Dissenters rights in asset transfers.--

(1) If a shareholder of a transferring corporation that adopts a plan of asset transfer objects to the plan and complies with Subchapter D of Chapter 15, the shareholder shall be entitled to the rights and remedies of dissenting shareholders therein provided, if any.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to a sale pursuant to an order of court having jurisdiction in the premises or a sale pursuant to a plan of asset transfer that requires that all or substantially all of the net proceeds of sale be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of sale or to a liquidating trust.

(3) See sections 1906(c) (relating to dissenters rights upon special treatment) and 2537 (relating to dissenters rights in asset transfers).

(d) Exceptions.--Subsections (b) and (c)(1) shall not apply to a sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the property and assets of a business corporation:

(1) that directly or indirectly owns all of the outstanding shares of another corporation to the other corporation if the voting rights, preferences, limitations or relative rights, granted to or imposed upon the shares of any class of the parent corporation are not altered by the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition;

(2) when made in connection with the dissolution or liquidation of the corporation, which transaction shall be governed by the provisions of Subchapter F (relating to voluntary dissolution and winding up) or G (relating to involuntary liquidation and dissolution), as the case may be; or

(3) when made in connection with a transaction pursuant to which all the assets sold, leased, exchanged or otherwise disposed of are simultaneously leased back to the corporation.

(e) Mortgage.--A mortgage, pledge, grant of a security interest or dedication of property to the repayment of indebtedness (with or without recourse) shall not be deemed a sale, lease, exchange or other disposition for the purposes of this section.

(f) Restrictions.--This section shall not be construed to authorize the conversion or exchange of property or assets in fraud of corporate creditors or in violation of law.

(g) Presumption.--The following apply to a determination whether a corporation has sold, leased, exchanged or otherwise disposed of all or substantially all, of its property and assets, with or without good will:

(1) A corporation will conclusively be deemed not to have done so if the corporation or any direct or indirect subsidiary controlled by the corporation retains a business activity that represented at the end of its most recently completed fiscal year before the transaction, on a consolidated basis, at least:

(i) 25% of total assets; and

(ii) 25% of either:

(A) income from continuing operations before taxes; or

(B) revenues from continuing operations.

(2) A determination under paragraph (1)(i) may be based on a balance sheet that reflects:

(i) the book values of the assets of the corporation, as reflected on its books and records;

(ii) a valuation that takes into consideration unrealized appreciation and depreciation or other changes in value of the assets of the corporation;

(iii) the current value of the assets of the corporation, either valued separately or valued in segments or as an entirety as a going concern; or

(iv) any other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(3) A determination under paragraph (1)(ii) may be based on financial statements prepared on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles or such other accounting practices and principles as are used generally by the corporation in the maintenance of its books and records and as are reasonable in the circumstances.

This chapter shall not affect any statute or rule of law that is or would be applicable to a business corporation that is not a statutory close corporation.

(c) Laws applicable to statutory close corporations.--Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, Part I (relating to preliminary provisions) and this subpart shall be generally

(b) Increased vote requirements.--The bylaws of a statutory close corporation adopted by the shareholders may provide that on any corporate action subject to the minimum vote requirement of subsection (a) a vote greater than two-thirds or a vote of all shares of any class shall be required. § 2306. Limitations on continuation of statutory close corporation status.

A statutory close corporation continues to be such and to be subject to this chapter until:

(1) it terminates its status as a statutory close corporation pursuant to section 2307 (relating to voluntary termination of statutory close corporation status by amendment of articles); or

(2) the provisions required or permitted by section 2304 (relating to additional contents of articles of statutory close corporations) to be stated in the articles to qualify a business corporation as a statutory close corporation have in fact been breached and neither the corporation nor any of its shareholders takes the steps required by section 2309 (relating to involuntary termination of statutory close corporation status; proceeding to prevent loss of status) to prevent such loss of status or to remedy such breach.

§ 2307. Voluntary termination of statutory close corporation status by amendment of articles.

(a) General rule.--A statutory close corporation may voluntarily terminate its status as such and cease to be subject to this chapter by amending its articles to delete therefrom the additional provision required by section 2303(1) (relating to formation of statutory close corporations) to be stated in the articles of a statutory close corporation.

(b) Procedure.--The amendment shall not be effective unless it is adopted by at least the minimum vote.

(b) Notice of size restrictions.--If the articles of a statutory close corporation state the number of persons who are entitled to be holders or owners of its shares and if the certificate for the shares complies with section 2321(c) or conspicuously notes the existence of such a provision of the articles and if the issuance or transfer of shares to any person would cause the shares to be held by more than that number of persons, the person to whom the shares are issued or transferred shall be conclusively presumed to have notice of that fact.

(c) Refusal to register.--Whenever any person to whom shares of a statutory close corporation have been issued or transferred has, or is conclusively presumed under this section to have, notice either:

(1) that he is a person not eligible to be a holder of shares of the corporation; or

(2) that the transfer of shares to him would cause the shares of the corporation to be held by more than the number of persons permitted by its articles to hold shares of the corporation;

the corporation may, at its option, refuse to register the transfer of the shares into the name of the transferee.

(d) Exception.--The provisions of subsection (c) shall not be applicable if the transfer of shares, even though otherwise contrary to subsection (a) or (b), has been consented to by all the shareholders of the statutory close corporation or if the statutory close corporation has amended its articles in accordance with section 2307 (relating to voluntary termination of statutory close corporation status by amendment of articles).

(e) Rescission rights unaffected.--The provisions of this section do not impair any right of a transferee to rescind the transaction or to recover under any applicable warranty express or implied.

(f) Definition.--As used in this section, the term "transfer" is not limited to a transfer for value.

Cross References. Section 2308 is referred to in section 2309 of this title.

§ 2309. Involuntary termination of statutory close corporation status; proceeding to prevent loss of status.

(a) General rule.--If any event occurs as a result of which the provision included in the articles of a statutory close corporation pursuant to section 2304(a) (relating to additional contents of articles of statutory close corporations) to qualify it as a statutory close corporation has been breached, the status of the business corporation as a statutory close corporation under this chapter shall terminate unless:

(1) Within 30 days after the occurrence of the event or within 30 days after the event has been discovered, whichever is later, the corporation:

(i) Files in the Department of State a statement executed by the corporation setting forth:

(A) The name of the corporation and, subject to section 109 (relating to name of commercial registered office provider in lieu of registered address), the address, including street and number, if any, of its registered office.

(B) A statement that the provision included in its articles pursuant to section 2304(a) to qualify it as a statutory close corporation has been breached.

(ii) Furnishes a copy of the statement to each shareholder.

(2) The corporation concurrently with the filing of the statement takes such steps as are necessary to correct the situation that threatens its status as a statutory close corporation including, without limitation, the refusal to register the transfer of shares that have been wrongfully transferred as provided by section 2308 (relating to issuance or transfer of shares of a statutory close corporation in breach of qualifying conditions) or initiation of a proceeding under subsection (b).

(b) Proceeding to cure breach.--Upon the application of the corporation or of any shareholder, the court may issue all orders necessary to prevent the corporation from losing its status as a statutory close corporation or to prevent the violation of any provision of the articles permitted by section 2304(b) to be stated in the articles of a statutory close corporation or to restore its status as a statutory close corporation by enjoining or setting aside any act or threatened act on the part of the corporation or a shareholder that would be inconsistent with any of the provisions required or permitted by section 2304 to be stated in the articles of a statutory close corporation unless it is an act approved in accordance with section 2308(d) (relating to exception). The court may enjoin or set aside any transfer or threatened transfer of shares of a statutory close corporation that is contrary to any of the terms of its articles and may enjoin any public offering, as defined in section 2304(a), or threatened public offering of shares of the statutory close corporation.

(c) Notice of cure of breach.--When the situation that threatened the status of the corporation as a statutory close corporation has been remedied and if the corporation has not amended its articles in accordance with section 2307 (relating to voluntary termination of statutory close corporation status by amendment of articles), the corporation shall file in the department a statement executed by the corporation, setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and, subject to section 109 (relating to name of commercial registered office provider in lieu of registered address), the address, including street and number, if any, of its registered office.

(2) A statement that no breach of the provision included in its articles pursuant to section 2304(a) exists. Upon the filing of the statement, the status of the corporation as a statutory close corporation under this chapter, if theretofore terminated by reason of subsection (a), shall be restored.

This notice shall satisfy all requirements of this subpart that notice of transfer or other restrictions or relative rights be given. All persons claiming an interest in shares of a statutory close corporation:

(1) Complying with the notice requirement of this section shall be bound by the documents referred to in the notice.

(2) Not complying with the requirement of this section shall be bound only by any documents of which they, or any person through whom they claim, have knowledge or notice.

Cross References. Section 2321 is referred to in sections 1504, 1528, 1530, 2301, 2308, 2332, 2337 of this title.

§ 2322. Share transfer restrictions.

(a) General rule.--Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the shareholders, no interest in shares of a statutory close corporation may be transferred, by operation of law or otherwise, whether voluntary or involuntary.

(b) Exception.--Subsection (a) shall not apply to a transfer:

(1) To the corporation or to any other shareholder of the same class of shares.

(2) To members of the immediate family of a shareholder or to a trust all of whose beneficiaries are members of the immediate family of a shareholder. The immediate family of a shareholder shall include only his spouse, parents, brothers, sisters, lineal descendants (including descendants related by adoption) and spouses of any lineal descendants.

(3) That has been approved by the unanimous vote of the holders of the most junior shares of the corporation having voting rights for the election of directors.

(4) To an executor or administrator upon the death of a shareholder or to a trustee or receiver as the result of a bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution or similar proceeding brought by or against a shareholder.

(5) By merger or interest exchange that becomes effective pursuant to section 2336 (relating to fundamental changes) or a reclassification of existing shares.

(6) By a pledge as collateral for a loan that does not grant the pledgee any voting rights possessed by the pledgor.

(7) Made after termination of the status of the corporation as a statutory close corporation.

(8) Permitted by subsection (h).

(c) Offer by nonexempt purchaser.--Any person desiring to transfer shares in a transaction not exempt under subsection (b)(1) through (7) shall obtain an offer from a third party who meets the requirements of subsection (d) to purchase the shares for cash and shall deliver written notice of the third-party offer to the corporation at its registered office stating the number and type of shares, the offering price, the other terms of the offer and the name and address of the third-party offeror.

(d) Qualifications of transferee.--A transfer shall not be made to a third party unless:

(1) The third party is eligible to become a qualified shareholder under the provisions of any Federal or State tax statute that the corporation has elected to be subject to and the third party agrees in writing not to take any action to terminate the election without the approval of the remaining shareholders.

(2) The transfer to the third party will not result in the imposition of the personal holding company tax or any similar Federal or State penalty tax on the corporation.

(3) The third party is eligible to be a shareholder under any provision of the articles permitted by section 2304(b) (relating to number or qualifications of shareholders).

(e) Action on offer by corporation.--The notice specified in subsection (c) shall constitute an offer by the shareholder to sell the shares to the corporation on the terms of the third-party offer. Within 20 days after receipt of the notice by the corporation, the secretary shall call a special meeting of shareholders, which shall be held not more than 40 days after the call, for the purpose of determining whether to purchase all (but not less than all) of the offered shares. Approval of action to purchase shall be by a majority of the votes of all shareholders entitled to vote thereon, excluding the holders of offered shares. With the consent of all the shareholders entitled to vote for the approval, the corporation may allocate some or all of the shares to one or more shareholders, or to other persons, but, if the corporation has more than one class of shares, the remaining holders of the class of shares being offered for sale shall have a first option to purchase the shares that are not purchased by the corporation in proportion to their shareholdings or in such proportion as shall be agreeable to those desiring to participate in the purchase.

(f) Notice of action by corporation.--Within 75 days after receipt of the offer, written notice of the acceptance of the offer of the shareholder shall be delivered or sent to the offering shareholder at the address specified in his notice to the corporation or, in the absence of any specification, at his last known address as reflected in the records of the corporation. If the notice contains terms of purchase different from those contained in the offer of the shareholder, the different terms shall be deemed a counteroffer, and, unless the shareholder wishing to transfer his shares accepts in writing the counteroffer or the shareholder and the corporation or other purchaser otherwise resolve by written agreement the difference between the offer and counteroffer within 15 days of receipt by the shareholder of the qualified notice of acceptance, the notice containing the counteroffer shall be ineffective as an acceptance.

(g) Delivery and payment.--If a contract to sell is created under subsection (f), the shareholder shall make delivery of all the certificates for the shares so sold, duly endorsed, within 20 days of receipt of the notice of acceptance. Breach of any of the terms of the contract shall entitle the nonbreaching party to any remedy at law or equity allowed for breach of a contract including, without limitation, specific performance.

(h) Limited release from restrictions.--If the offer to sell is not accepted pursuant to subsections (e) and (f), the shareholder shall be entitled to transfer to the third-party offeror all (but not less than all) of the offered shares within 120 days after delivery of the notice specified in subsection (c) in accordance with the terms specified therein.

Cross References. Section 2322 is referred to in sections 1504, 1554, 2301, 2324 of this title.

§ 2323. Transfer of shares in breach of transfer restrictions.

Any attempted transfer of shares of a statutory close corporation in violation of any transfer restriction binding on the transferee shall be ineffective. Any attempted transfer of shares of a statutory close corporation in violation of any transfer restriction not binding on the transferee shall give the corporation the option, exercisable by notice and payment within 30 days after presentation of the shares for registration in the name of the transferee, to purchase the shares from the transferee for the same price and terms as contemplated for the ineffective transfer, unless such transfer was not intended to be a transfer for value.

§ 2324. Corporation option where a restriction on transfer of a security is held invalid.

If the bylaws contain provisions pursuant to section 2322(a) (relating to share transfer restrictions) and a restriction on transfer of a security of a statutory close corporation is held not to be authorized by section 1529 (relating to transfer of securities; restrictions), the corporation shall nevertheless have an option, for a period of 30 days after the judgment setting aside the restriction becomes final, to acquire the restricted security at a price that is agreed upon by the parties or, if an agreement is not reached, at the fair value as determined under Subchapter D of Chapter 15 (relating to dissenters rights).

Cross References. Section 2324 is referred to in section 1571 of this title.

§ 2325. Sale option of estate of shareholder.

(a) General rule.--Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the shareholders, the personal representative of any deceased holder or owner of shares shall have the right to require a statutory close corporation to elect either to purchase or cause the purchase of all, but not less than all, of the shares owned by the decedent pursuant to subsections (c) through (e) or to be dissolved.

(b) Minimum vote requirement.--An amendment to the bylaws to provide that this section shall apply or to delete or modify the provisions of this section shall require at least the minimum vote for approval. Any shareholder who votes against an amendment to delete or modify the provisions of this section shall, if the amendment terminates or substantially alters the existing rights of the shareholder pursuant to this section to have his shares purchased, be entitled to receive the fair value of his shares upon compliance with the provisions of Subchapter D of Chapter 15 (relating to dissenters rights).

(c) Initial procedure.--Within six months after the death of the holder or owner of shares, the personal representative shall deliver a written notice to the corporation at its registered office specifying the number and class of all shares beneficially owned by the deceased shareholder and stating that an offer by the corporation to purchase the shares is being solicited pursuant to this section. Within 20 days after receipt of the notice by the corporation, the secretary shall call a special meeting of shareholders, which shall be held not more than 40 days after the call, for the purpose of determining whether to offer to purchase the shares. Approval of action to offer to purchase the shares shall be by vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, excluding the shares covered by the notice. With the consent of all the shareholders entitled to vote for the approval, the corporation may allocate some or all of the shares to one or more shareholders, or to other persons, but if the corporation has more than one class of shares, the remaining holders of the class of shares being offered for sale shall have a first option to purchase the shares that are not purchased by the corporation in proportion to their shareholdings or in such proportion as shall be agreeable to those desiring to participate in the purchase.

(d) Notice of action by corporation.--Written notice of the approval by the shareholders of an offer to purchase, or that no offer to purchase was approved, shall be delivered or sent to the personal representative within 75 days after receipt of the notice soliciting the offer to purchase. Any offer to purchase shall be accompanied by copies of the balance sheets as of the end of, and profit and loss statements for, the preceding two fiscal years of the corporation and any available interim balance sheet and profit and loss statement. Any offer to purchase shall be accepted or rejected in writing within 15 days.

(e) Price and other terms of purchase.--To the extent the price and other terms for purchasing the shares by the corporation or remaining shareholders are fixed or are to be determined pursuant to provisions in the bylaws or in a written agreement, those provisions shall be binding except that, in the event of a default in any payment due, subsection (i) shall apply and the person exercising his rights under this section shall have the right to petition for dissolution of the corporation.

(f) Judicial proceedings in absence of agreement to purchase.--If an offer to purchase is rejected, or if an offer to purchase is not made under this section, the personal representative may commence an action or proceeding in court under this subsection. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. The corporation shall be made a party defendant in the action and shall, at its expense, give notice of the commencement of the action to all shareholders and to such other persons as the court may direct. The court shall proceed to determine the fair value of the shares considering the going concern value of the corporation, any agreement among some or all of the shareholders fixing a price or specifying a formula for determining the value of shares of the corporation for any purpose, the recommendations of any appraiser appointed by the court, any legal constraint on the ability of the corporation to acquire the shares and other relevant evidence. The court shall enter an order requiring the corporation to cause the purchase of the shares at fair value including such provisions as are deemed proper concerning payment of the purchase price in two or more installments, payment of interest on the installments, subordination of the obligation to the rights of other creditors of the corporation and security for payment of the deferred purchase price.

(g) Costs and expenses.--Except as otherwise prescribed by general rules:

(1) If the fair value of the shares as determined by the court does not materially exceed the last offer made by the corporation prior to the commencement of an action pursuant to subsection (f) and the court finds that the failure of the personal representative to accept the last offer of the corporation was dilatory, arbitrary, obdurate, vexatious or in bad faith, the court may assess all or a portion of the costs and expenses of the action against the estate of the deceased shareholder.

(2) If the fair value of the shares as determined by the court materially exceeds the amount of the last offer made by the corporation prior to the time an action or proceeding was commenced pursuant to subsection (f) and the court finds that the last offer of the corporation was dilatory, arbitrary, obdurate, vexatious or in bad faith, the court may assess all or a portion of the costs and expenses of the action against the corporation.

(3) Expenses assessable under paragraphs (1) and (2) shall include reasonable compensation for and reasonable expenses of any appraiser appointed by the court and the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel for and experts employed by any party.

(4) Except as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2), the costs of an action commenced pursuant to subsection (f) shall be assessed on an equal basis between the corporation and the estate of the deceased shareholder and all other fees and expenses shall be borne by the party incurring the fees and expenses.

(h) Subsequent modification of order.--Upon application of the corporation, the court may modify its order to change the terms of payment if it finds that the changed financial or legal ability of the corporation or other purchasers of the shares to complete the purchase justifies a modification. Any person making a payment in order to prevent or cure any default by any purchaser shall be entitled to recover the excess payment from the defaulting person.

(i) Failure to make payment.--If the corporation or other purchaser fails for any reason to make any payment specified in the order within 30 days after the due date for the payment, the court shall, upon application of the person to whom the payment is due and in the absence of good cause shown by the corporation, enter an order directing that the corporation be dissolved.

(j) Waiver.--Any shareholder may waive in writing the rights of his personal representative under this section.

(k) Section nonexclusive.--This section shall not be construed to prohibit any other agreement not prohibited by law that provides for the purchase of shares of the corporation nor shall it prevent a shareholder from enforcing any other remedy he may have.

SUBCHAPTER C

POWERS, DUTIES AND SAFEGUARDS

Sec.

- 2331. Directors.
- 2332. Management by shareholders.
- 2333. Appointment of custodian for statutory close corporation.
- 2334. Appointment of provisional director in certain cases.
- 2335. Operating corporation as partnership.
- 2336. Fundamental changes.
- 2337. Option of shareholder to dissolve corporation.

§ 2331. Directors.

(a) Agreements restricting discretion of directors.--A written agreement among the shareholders of a statutory close corporation entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all shareholders are entitled to cast for the election of directors, whether solely among themselves or with a party not a shareholder, is not invalid, as between the parties to the agreement or the shareholders of the corporation, on the ground that it so relates to the conduct of the business and affairs of the corporation as to restrict or interfere with the discretion or powers of the board of directors.

(b) Effect of agreement.--The effect of any such agreement shall be to relieve the directors and impose upon the shareholders who are parties to the agreement the liability for acts or omissions that is imposed by law on directors to the extent and so long as the discretion or powers of the board in its direction of the management of corporate affairs is controlled by the agreement. Shareholders upon whom the liabilities of directors are imposed by this section shall to that extent be entitled to the rights and immunities conferred by this part and other provisions of law upon directors of a corporation.

§ 2332. Management by shareholders.

(a) General rule.--A bylaw of a statutory close corporation adopted by the shareholders may provide that the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the shareholders of the corporation rather than by or under the direction of a board of directors. So long as such a provision continues in effect:

(1) Meetings of shareholders need not be called to elect directors.

(2) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the shareholders of the corporation shall be deemed to be directors for purposes of applying provisions of this subpart.

(3) The shareholders of the corporation shall be subject to all liabilities imposed and shall enjoy all rights and immunities conferred by law on directors.

(b) Procedure.--Such a provision may be inserted in the articles or bylaws by amendment if all incorporators or all shareholders, regardless of any limitations stated in the articles or bylaws on the voting rights of any class, authorize the provision. An amendment to the articles or bylaws to delete the provision shall be adopted and shall become effective in accordance with Subchapter B of Chapter 19 (relating to amendment of articles) or section 1504 (relating to adoption, amendment and contents of bylaws) except that the holders of shares of every class shall be entitled to vote on the amendment regardless of any limitations stated in the articles or bylaws on the voting rights of any class.

(c) Notice on shares.--If the articles or bylaws contain a provision authorized by this section, the existence of the provision shall be noted conspicuously on every share certificate issued by the corporation unless the certificate complies with section 2321(c) (relating to notice of statutory close corporation status).

Cross References. Section 2332 is referred to in sections 102, 1504, 2301 of this title.

§ 2333. Appointment of custodian for statutory close corporation.

(a) General rule.--In addition to the provisions of section 1767 (relating to appointment of custodian of corporation on deadlock or other cause), the court, upon application of any shareholder, may appoint one or more persons to be custodians and, if the corporation is insolvent, to be receivers of any statutory close corporation when:

(1) pursuant to this subchapter, the business and affairs of the corporation are managed by or under the direction of the shareholders and they are so divided that the business of the corporation is suffering or is threatened with immediate and irreparable injury and any remedy with respect to such deadlock provided in the bylaws or in any written agreement of the shareholders has failed; or

(2) the applicant shareholder has the right to the dissolution of the corporation under a provision of the articles permitted by section 2337 (relating to option of shareholder to dissolve corporation).

A custodian appointed under paragraph (2) shall have the authority to liquidate the affairs of the corporation and distribute its assets.

(b) Provisional director.--In lieu of appointing a custodian for a statutory close corporation under subsection (a)(1) or section 1767 or a receiver under Subchapter G of Chapter 19 (relating to involuntary liquidation and dissolution), the court may appoint a provisional director, whose powers and status shall be as provided in section 2334 (relating to appointment of provisional director in certain cases), if the court determines that it would be in the best interest of the corporation. The appointment shall not preclude any subsequent order of the court appointing a custodian or receiver for the corporation.

Cross References. Section 2333 is referred to in section 2334 of this title.

§ 2334. Appointment of provisional director in certain cases.

(a) General rule.--Notwithstanding any contrary provision of the articles or the bylaws or agreement of the shareholders, the court may appoint a provisional director for a statutory close corporation if the directors are so divided respecting the management of the business and affairs of the corporation that the votes required for action by the board of directors cannot be obtained with the consequence that the business and affairs of the corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally.

(b) Application for relief.--

(1) An application for relief under this section must be filed by or on behalf of:

(i) at least one-half of the number of directors then in office;

(ii) the holders of shares entitled to cast at least one-third of the votes that all shareholders are entitled to cast for the election of directors; or

(iii) shareholders entitled to cast at least two-thirds of the votes that all shareholders of any class entitled to elect one or more directors are entitled to cast for the election of directors, if there is more than one class of shares then entitled to elect one or more directors.

A bylaw of a statutory close corporation adopted by the shareholders may provide that a lesser proportion of the directors or of the shareholders or of a class of shareholders may apply for relief under this section.

(2) Even though the requirements of paragraph (1) are not satisfied, the court may nevertheless appoint a provisional director if permitted by section 2333(b) (relating to provisional director).

(c) Qualifications.--A provisional director shall be an impartial individual who is neither a shareholder nor a creditor of the corporation or of any subsidiary or affiliate of the corporation and whose further qualifications, if any, may be determined by the court.

(d) Status and powers.--A provisional director is not a receiver of a corporation and does not have the title and powers of a custodian or receiver appointed under section 1767 (relating to appointment of custodian of corporation on deadlock or other cause) or Subchapter G of Chapter 19 (relating to involuntary liquidation and dissolution). A provisional director shall have all the rights and powers of a duly elected director of the corporation, including the right to notice of and to vote at meetings of directors, until such time as he is removed by order of the court or by the shareholders entitled to cast at least two-thirds of the votes that all shareholders of that class of voting shares that filed the application for appointment of a provisional director are entitled to cast for directors, or by the shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all shareholders are entitled to cast for the election of directors, in any other case.

(e) Compensation.--The compensation of the provisional director shall be determined by agreement between him and the corporation subject to approval of the court. The court may fix his compensation in the absence of agreement or in the event of disagreement between the provisional director and the corporation.

(Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.)

1990 Amendment. Act 198 amended subsec. (b).

Cross References. Section 2334 is referred to in sections 1504, 2333 of this title.

§ 2335. Operating corporation as partnership.

A written agreement among shareholders of a statutory close corporation, or any provision of the articles or bylaws of the corporation, which agreement or provision relates to any phase of the affairs of such corporation, including, but not limited to, the management of its business or declaration and payment of dividends or other division of profits or the election of directors or officers or the employment of shareholders by the corporation or the arbitration of disputes, shall not be invalid on the ground that it is an attempt by the parties to the agreement or by the shareholders of the corporation to treat the corporation as if it were a partnership or to arrange relations among the shareholders or between the shareholders and the corporation in a manner that would be appropriate only among partners and shall not be grounds for imposing personal liability on the shareholders for obligations of the corporation.

§ 2336. Fundamental changes.

Except as permitted or required by this chapter, a statutory close corporation shall not effect any corporate action that under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions) or 19 (relating to fundamental changes) requires the approval of shareholders unless the action is adopted by at least the minimum vote.

(Nov. 3, 2022, P.L.1791, No.122, eff. 60 days)

Cross References. Section 2336 is referred to in sections 2301, 2322 of this title.

§ 2337. Option of shareholder to dissolve corporation.

(a) General rule.--A bylaw of a statutory close corporation adopted by the shareholders may include a provision granting to any shareholder, or to the holders of any specified number or percentage of shares of any class of shares, an option to have the corporation dissolved at will or upon the occurrence of any specified event or contingency. Whenever the option to dissolve is exercised, the shareholders exercising the option shall give written notice thereof to all other shareholders. After the expiration of 30 days following the sending of the notice, the dissolution of the corporation shall proceed as if the required number of shareholders having voting rights had consented in writing to dissolution of the corporation as provided by Subchapter F of Chapter 19 (relating to voluntary dissolution and winding up).

(b) Amendment adding option.--If the bylaws do not contain a provision authorized by subsection (a), the bylaws may be amended to include such a provision if adopted by the unanimous vote of all the shareholders, regardless of any limitations stated in the bylaws on the voting rights of any class, unless the original bylaws, or bylaws adopted by such a unanimous vote, specifically authorize such an amendment to be adopted by a specified vote of shareholders, which shall not be less than the minimum vote.

(c) Notice on shares.--If the bylaws contain a provision authorized by this section, the existence of the provision shall be noted conspicuously on every share certificate issued by the corporation unless the certificate complies with section 2321(c) (relating to notice of statutory close corporation status).

(c) Effect of a contrary provision of the articles.--

(1) A person or group which would otherwise be a controlling person or group within the meaning of this section shall not be deemed a controlling person or group unless, subsequent to the later of March 23, 1988, or the date this subchapter becomes applicable to a corporation by bylaw or article amendment or otherwise, that person or group increases the percentage of outstanding voting shares of the corporation over which it has voting power to in excess of the percentage of outstanding voting shares of the corporation over which that person or group had voting power on such later date, and to at least the amount specified in subsection (a), as the result of forming or enlarging a group or acquiring, by purchase, voting power over voting shares of the corporation.

(3) If the shareholder believes the fair value of his shares is higher, this subchapter provides an appraisal procedure for determining the fair value of such shares, specifying the name of the court and its address and the caption of the petition referenced in subsection (a)(2), and stating that the information is provided for the possible use by the shareholder in electing to proceed with a court-appointed appraiser under section 2547.

There shall be included in, or enclosed with, the notice a copy of this subchapter.

(d) Optional procedure.--The controlling person or group may, at its option, supply with the notice referenced in subsection (c) a form for the shareholder to demand payment of the partial payment amount directly from the controlling person or group without utilizing the court-appointed appraiser procedure of section 2547, requiring the shareholder to state the number and class or series, if any, of the shares owned by him, and stating where the payment demand must be sent and the procedures to be followed.

(e) Cross reference.--See section 1702 (relating to manner of giving notice).

2013 Amendment. Act 67 amended subsec. (b) and added subsec. (e).

Cross References. Section 2545 is referred to in sections 2542, 2546, 2547 of this title.

§ 2546. Shareholder demand for fair value.

(a) General rule.--After the occurrence of the control transaction, any holder of voting shares of the registered corporation may, prior to or within a reasonable time after the notice required by section 2545 (relating to notice to shareholders) is given, which time period may be specified in the notice, make written demand on the controlling person or group for payment of the amount provided in subsection (c) with respect to the voting shares of the corporation held by the shareholder, and the controlling person or group shall be required to pay that amount to the shareholder pursuant to the procedures specified in section 2547 (relating to valuation procedures).

(b) Contents of demand.--The demand of the shareholder shall state the number and class or series, if any, of the shares owned by him with respect to which the demand is made.

(c) Measure of value.--A shareholder making written demand under this section shall be entitled to receive cash for each of his shares in an amount equal to the fair value of each voting share as of the date on which the control transaction occurs, taking into account all relevant factors, including an increment representing a proportion of any value payable for acquisition of control of the corporation.

(d) Purchases independent of subchapter.--The provisions of this subchapter shall not preclude a controlling person or group subject to this subchapter from offering, whether in the notice required by section 2545 or otherwise, to purchase voting shares of the corporation at a price other than that provided in subsection (c), and the provisions of this subchapter shall not preclude any shareholder from agreeing to sell his voting shares at that or any other price to any person.

Cross References. Section 2546 is referred to in section 2547 of this title.

§ 2547. Valuation procedures.

(a) General rule.--If, within 45 days (or such other time period, if any, as required by applicable law) after the date of the notice required by section 2545 (relating to notice to shareholders), or, if such notice was not provided prior to the date of the written demand by the shareholder under section 2546 (relating to shareholder demand for fair value), then within 45 days (or such other time period, if any, required by applicable law) of the date of such written demand, the controlling person or group and the shareholder are unable to agree on the fair value of the shares or on a binding procedure to determine the fair value of the shares, then each shareholder who is unable to agree on both the fair value and on such a procedure with the controlling person or group and who so desires to obtain the rights and remedies provided in this subchapter shall, no later than 30 days after the expiration of the applicable 45-day or other period, surrender to the court certificates representing any of the shares that are certificated shares, duly endorsed for transfer to the controlling person or group, or cause any uncertificated shares to be transferred to the court as escrow agent under subsection (c) with a notice stating that the certificates or uncertificated shares are being surrendered or transferred, as the case may be, in connection with the petition referenced in section 2545 or, if no petition has theretofore been filed, the shareholder may file a petition within the 30-day period in the court praying that the fair value (as defined in this subchapter) of the shares be determined.

(b) Effect of failure to give notice and surrender certificates.--Any shareholder who does not so give notice and surrender any certificates or cause uncertificated shares to be transferred within such time period shall have no further right to receive, with respect to shares the certificates of which were not so surrendered or the uncertificated shares which were not so transferred under this section, payment under this subchapter from the controlling person or group with respect to the control transaction giving rise to the rights of the shareholder under this subchapter.

(c) Escrow and notice.--The court shall hold the certificates surrendered and the uncertificated shares transferred to it in escrow for, and shall promptly, following the expiration of the time period during which the certificates may be surrendered and the uncertificated shares transferred, provide a notice to the controlling person or group of the number of shares so surrendered or transferred.

(d) Partial payment for shares.--The controlling person or group shall then make a partial payment for the shares so surrendered or transferred to the court, within ten business days of receipt of the notice from the court, at a per-share price equal to the partial payment amount. The court shall then make payment as soon as practicable, but in any event within ten business days, to the shareholders who so surrender or transfer their shares to the court of the appropriate per-share amount received from the controlling person or group.

(e) Appointment of appraiser.--Upon receipt of any share certificate surrendered or uncertificated share transferred under this section, the court shall, as soon as practicable but in any event within 30 days, appoint an appraiser with experience in appraising share values of companies of like nature to the registered corporation to determine the fair value of the shares.

(f) Appraisal procedure.--The appraiser so appointed by the court shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, determine the fair value of the shares subject to its appraisal and the appropriate market rate of interest on the amount then owed by the controlling person or group to the holders of the shares. The determination of any appraiser so appointed by the court shall be final and binding on both the controlling person or group and all shareholders who so surrendered their share certificates or transferred their shares to the court, except that the determination of the appraiser shall be subject to review to the extent and within the time provided or prescribed by law in the case of other appointed judicial officers. See 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 5105(a)(3) (relating to right to appellate review) and 5571(b) (relating to appeals generally).

(g) Supplemental payment.--Any amount owed, together with interest, as determined pursuant to the appraisal procedures of this section shall be payable by the controlling person or group after it is so determined and upon and concurrently with the delivery or transfer to the controlling person or group by the court (which shall make delivery of the certificate or certificates surrendered or the uncertificated shares transferred to it to the controlling person or group as soon as practicable but in any event within ten business days after the final determination of the amount owed) of the certificate or certificates representing shares surrendered or the uncertificated shares transferred to the court, and the court shall then make payment, as soon as practicable but in any event within ten business days after receipt of payment from the controlling person or group, to the shareholders who so surrendered or transferred their shares to the court of the appropriate per-share amount received from the controlling person or group.

(h) Voting and dividend rights during appraisal proceedings.--Shareholders who surrender their shares to the court pursuant to this section shall retain the right to vote their shares and receive dividends or other distributions thereon until the court receives payment in full for each of the shares so surrendered or transferred of the partial payment amount (and, thereafter, the controlling person or group shall be entitled to vote such shares and receive dividends or other distributions thereon). The fair value (as determined by the appraiser) of any dividends or other distributions so received by the shareholders shall be subtracted from any amount owing to such shareholders under this section.

(i) Powers of the court.--The court may appoint such agents, including the transfer agent of the corporation, or any other institution, to hold the share certificates so surrendered and the shares surrendered or transferred under this section, to effect any necessary change in record ownership of the shares after the payment by the controlling person or group to the court of the amount specified in subsection (h), to receive and disburse dividends or other distributions, to provide notices to shareholders and to take such other actions as the court determines are appropriate to effect the purposes of this subchapter.

(j) Costs and expenses.--The costs and expenses of any appraiser or other agents appointed by the court shall be assessed against the controlling person or group. The costs and expenses of any other procedure to determine fair value shall be paid as agreed to by the parties agreeing to the procedure.

(k) Jurisdiction exclusive.--The jurisdiction of the court under this subchapter is plenary and exclusive and the controlling person or group, and all shareholders who so surrendered or transferred their shares to the court shall be made a party to the proceeding as in an action against their shares.

(l) Duty of corporation.--The corporation shall comply with requests for information, which may be submitted pursuant to procedures maintaining the confidentiality of the information, made by the court or the appraiser selected by the court. If any of the shares of the corporation are not represented by certificates, the transfer, escrow or retransfer of those shares contemplated by this section shall be registered by the corporation, which shall give the written notice required by section 1528(f) (relating to uncertificated shares) to the transferring shareholder, the court and the controlling shareholder or group, as appropriate in the circumstances.

(m) Payment under optional procedure.--Any amount agreed upon between the parties or determined pursuant to the procedure agreed upon between the parties shall be payable by the controlling person or group after it is agreed upon or determined and upon and concurrently with the delivery of any certificate or certificates representing such shares or the transfer of any uncertificated shares to the controlling person or group by the shareholder.

(n) Title to shares.--Upon full payment by the controlling person or group of the amount owed to the shareholder or to the court, as appropriate, the shareholder shall cease to have any interest in the shares.

Cross References. Section 2547 is referred to in sections 2545, 2546, 2556 of this title.

§ 2548. Coordination with control transaction.

(a) General rule.--A person or group that proposes to engage in a control transaction may comply with the requirements of this subchapter in connection with the control transaction, and the effectiveness of the rights afforded in this subchapter to shareholders may be conditioned upon the consummation of the control transaction.

(b) Notice.--The person or group shall give prompt written notice of the satisfaction of any such condition to each shareholder who has made demand as provided in this subchapter.

§ 2551. Application and effect of subchapter.

(a) General rule.--Except as otherwise provided in this section, this subchapter shall apply to every registered corporation.

(b) Exceptions.--The provisions of this subchapter shall not apply to any business combination:

(1) Of a registered corporation described in section 2502(1)(ii) or (2) (relating to registered corporation status).

(2) Of a corporation whose articles have been amended to provide that the corporation shall be subject to the provisions of this subchapter, which was not a registered corporation described in section 2502(1)(i) on the effective date of such amendment, and which is a business combination with an interested shareholder whose share acquisition date is prior to the effective date of such amendment.

(3) Of a corporation:

(i) the bylaws of which, by amendment adopted by June 21, 1988, and not subsequently rescinded either by an article amendment or by a bylaw amendment approved by at least 85% of the whole board of directors, explicitly provide that this subchapter shall not be applicable to the corporation; or

(ii) the articles of which explicitly provide that this subchapter shall not be applicable to the corporation by a provision included in the original articles, or by an article amendment adopted pursuant to both:

(A) the procedures then applicable to the corporation; and

(B) the affirmative vote of the holders, other than interested shareholders and their affiliates and associates, of shares entitling the holders to cast a majority of the votes that all shareholders would be entitled to cast in an election of directors of the corporation, excluding the voting shares of interested shareholders and their affiliates and associates, expressly electing not to be governed by this subchapter.

The amendment to the articles shall not be effective until 18 months after the vote of the shareholders of the corporation and shall not apply to any business combination of the corporation with an interested shareholder whose share acquisition date is on or prior to the effective date of the amendment.

(4) Of a corporation with an interested shareholder of the corporation which became an interested shareholder inadvertently, if the interested shareholder:

(i) as soon as practicable, divests itself of a sufficient amount of the voting shares of the corporation so that it no longer is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of shares entitling the person to cast at least 20% of the votes that all shareholders would be entitled to cast in an election of directors of the corporation; and

(ii) would not at any time within the five-year period preceding the announcement date with respect to the business combination have been an interested shareholder but for such inadvertent acquisition.

(5) With an interested shareholder who was the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of shares entitling the person to cast at least 15% of the votes that all shareholders would be entitled to cast in an election of directors of the corporation on March 23, 1988, and remains so to the share acquisition date of the interested shareholder.

(6) Of a corporation that on March 23, 1988, was a subsidiary of any other corporation. A corporation that was a subsidiary on such date will not be deemed to cease being a subsidiary as long as the other corporation remains a controlling person or group of the subsidiary within the meaning of Subchapter E (relating to control transactions). A reference in the articles or bylaws to former section 911 (relating to requirements relating to certain business combinations) of the act of May 5, 1933 (P.L.364, No.106), known as the Business Corporation Law of 1933, shall be deemed a reference to this subchapter for the purposes of this section. See section 101(c) (relating to references to prior statutes).

(c) Continuing applicability.--A registered corporation that is organized under the laws of this Commonwealth shall not cease to be subject to this subchapter by reason of events occurring or actions taken while the corporation is subject to the provisions of this subchapter. "Associate." (Deleted by amendment).

"Beneficial owner." When used with respect to any shares, a person:

(1) that, individually or with or through any of its affiliates or associates, beneficially owns such shares, directly or indirectly;

(i) the right to acquire such shares (whether the right is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time), pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether or not in writing), or upon the exercise of conversion rights, exchange rights, warrants or options, or otherwise, except that a person shall not be deemed the beneficial owner of shares tendered pursuant to a tender or exchange offer made by such person or the affiliates or associates of any such person until the tendered shares are accepted for purchase or exchange; or

(ii) the right to vote such shares pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether or not in writing), except that a person shall not be deemed the beneficial owner of any shares under this subparagraph if the agreement, arrangement or understanding to vote such shares:

"Shares."

(1) Any shares or similar security, any certificate of interest, any participation in any profit-sharing agreement, any voting trust certificate, or any certificate of deposit for shares.

(2) Any security convertible, with or without consideration, into shares, or any option right, conversion right or privilege of buying shares without being bound to do so, or any other security carrying any right to acquire, subscribe to or purchase shares.

"Subsidiary." Any corporation as to which any other corporation is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of shares of the first corporation that would entitle the other corporation to cast in excess of 50% of the votes that all shareholders would be entitled to cast in the election of directors of the first corporation.

§ 2553. Interested shareholder.

(a) General rule.--The term "interested shareholder," when used in reference to any registered corporation, means any person (other than the corporation or any subsidiary of the corporation) that:

(1) is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of shares entitling that person to cast at least 20% of the votes that all shareholders would be entitled to cast in an election of directors of the corporation; or

(2) is an affiliate or associate of such corporation and at any time within the five-year period immediately prior to the date in question was the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of shares entitling that person to cast at least 20% of the votes that all shareholders would be entitled to cast in an election of directors of the corporation.

(b) Exception.--For the purpose of determining whether a person is an interested shareholder:

(1) the number of votes that would be entitled to be cast in an election of directors of the corporation shall be calculated by including shares deemed to be beneficially owned by the person through application of the definition of "beneficial owner" in section 2552 (relating to definitions), but excluding any other unissued shares of such corporation which may be issuable pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon exercise of conversion or option rights, or otherwise; and

(2) there shall be excluded from the beneficial ownership of the interested shareholder any:

(1) A merger, interest exchange or division of the corporation or any subsidiary of the corporation:

(4) The adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the corporation proposed by, or pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether or not in writing) with, the interested shareholder or any affiliate or associate of such interested shareholder.

(5) A reclassification of securities (including, without limitation, any split of shares, dividend of shares, or other distribution of shares in respect of shares, or any reverse split of shares), or recapitalization of the corporation, or any merger of the corporation with any subsidiary of the corporation, or any other transaction (whether or not with or into or otherwise involving the interested shareholder), proposed by, or pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether or not in writing) with, the interested shareholder or any affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder, which has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of any class or series of voting shares or securities convertible into voting shares of the corporation or any subsidiary of the corporation which is, directly or indirectly, owned by the interested shareholder or any affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder, except as a result of immaterial changes due to fractional share adjustments.

(ii) The highest preferential amount per share to which the holders of shares of such class or series of shares are entitled in the event of any voluntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation, plus the aggregate amount of any dividends declared or due as to which such holders are entitled prior to payment of dividends on some other class or series of shares (unless the aggregate amount of the dividends is included in such preferential amount).

(iii) The market value per share of such class or series of shares on the announcement date with respect to the business combination or on the interested shareholder's share acquisition date, whichever is higher; plus interest compounded annually from such date through the consummation date at the rate for one-year United States Treasury obligations from time to time in effect; less the aggregate amount of any cash dividends paid and the market value of any dividends paid other than in cash, per share of such class or series of shares since such date, up to the amount of the interest.

(3) The consideration to be received by holders of a particular class or series of outstanding shares (including common shares) of the corporation in the business combination is in cash or in the same form as the interested shareholder has used to acquire the largest number of shares of such class or series of shares previously acquired by it, and the consideration shall be distributed promptly.

respect of shares not constituting a business combination as defined in this subchapter;

(iii) through a business combination meeting all of the conditions of section 2555(1), (2), (3) or (4);

(iv) through purchase by the interested shareholder at any price which, if the price had been paid in an otherwise permissible business combination the announcement date and consummation date of which were the date of such purchase, would have satisfied the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2) and (3); or

(v) through purchase required by and pursuant to the provisions of, and at no less than the fair value (including interest to the date of payment) as determined by a court-appointed appraiser under section 2547 (relating to valuation procedures) or, if such fair value was not then so determined, then at a price that would satisfy the conditions in subparagraph (iv).

In determining the position that it shall take with respect to according voting rights to control shares, including to express no opinion and remain neutral or to be unable to take a position with respect to such issue, the board of directors shall specifically consider, in addition to any other factors it deems appropriate, the effect of according voting rights to control shares upon the interests of employees and of communities in which offices or other establishments of the corporation are located.

(4) Any other matter required by this subchapter to be incorporated into or to accompany the notice of meeting of shareholders or that the corporation elects to include with such notice.

Cross References. Section 2571 is referred to in section 2573 of this title.

§ 2572. Policy and purpose.

(a) General rule.--The purpose of this subchapter is to protect certain registered corporations and legitimate interests of various groups related to such corporations from certain manipulative and coercive actions. Specifically, this subchapter seeks to:

(1) Protect registered corporations from being exposed to and paying "greenmail."

(2) Promote a stable relationship among the various parties involved in registered corporations, including the public whose confidence in the future of a corporation tends to be undermined when a corporation is put "in play."

(3) Ensure that speculators who put registered corporations "in play" do not misappropriate corporate values for themselves at the expense of the corporation and groups affected by corporate actions.

(4) Discourage such speculators from putting registered corporations "in play" through any means, including, but not limited to, offering to purchase at least 20% of the voting shares of the corporation or threatening to wage or waging a proxy contest in connection with or as a means toward or part of a plan to acquire control of the corporation, with the effect of reaping short-term speculative profits.

Moreover, this subchapter recognizes the right and obligation of the Commonwealth to regulate and protect the corporations it creates from abuses resulting from the application of its own laws affecting generally corporate governance and particularly director obligations, mergers and related matters. Such laws, and the obligations imposed on directors or others thereunder, should not be the vehicles by which registered corporations are manipulated in certain instances for the purpose of obtaining short-term profits.

(b) Limitations.--The purpose of this subchapter is not to affect legitimate shareholder activity that does not involve putting a corporation "in play" or involve seeking to acquire control of the corporation. Specifically, the purpose of this subchapter is not to:

(1) curtail proxy contests on matters properly submitted for shareholder action under applicable State or other law, including, but not limited to, certain elections of directors, corporate governance matters such as cumulative voting or staggered boards, or other corporate matters such as environmental issues or conducting business in a particular country if, in any such instance, such proxy contest is not utilized in connection with or as a means toward or part of a plan to put the corporation "in play" or to seek to acquire control of the corporation; or

(2) affect the solicitation of proxies or consents by or on behalf of the corporation in connection with shareholder meetings or actions of the corporation.

(1) did not acquire any voting shares of the corporation with the purpose of changing or influencing control of the corporation or seeking to acquire control of the corporation or in connection with or as a participant in any agreement, arrangement, relationship, understanding or otherwise having any such purpose;

(2) if control were acquired, would not be a person or group or a participant in a group that has control over the corporation and will not receive, directly or indirectly, any consideration from a person or group that has control over the corporation other than consideration offered proportionately to all holders of voting shares of the corporation; and

(c) Preference shares.--In determining whether a person or group would be a controlling person or group within the meaning of this subchapter, there shall be disregarded voting power, and the seeking to acquire control of a corporation to the extent based upon voting power arising from a contingent right of the holders of one or more classes or series of preference shares to elect one or more members of the board of directors upon or during the continuation of a default in the payment of dividends on such shares or another similar contingency. (1) In an action by a member against the corporation to enjoin the doing of unauthorized acts or the transaction or continuation of unauthorized business. If the unauthorized acts or business sought to be enjoined are being transacted pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court may, if all of the parties to the contract are parties to the action and if it deems the result to be equitable, set aside and enjoin the performance of the contract, and in so doing shall allow to the corporation, or to the other parties to the contract, as the case may be, such compensation as may be appropriate for the loss or damage sustained by any of them from the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of the contract, but anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of the contract shall not be awarded by the court as a loss or damage sustained.

The bylaws may contain any provisions for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles. (b.1) Contents and delivery of demand.--All of the following apply to a demand under subsection (b):

(1) A proper purpose shall mean a purpose reasonably related to the interest of the person as a member.

(2) In every instance where an attorney or other agent is the person who seeks the right of inspection, the demand shall be accompanied by a verified power of attorney or other record that authorizes the attorney or other agent to so act on behalf of the member.

(3) The demand must be:

- (i) made in good faith;
- (ii) in record form; and
- (iii) verified.

(4) The demand must describe with reasonable particularity:

- (i) the purpose of the member; and
- (ii) the records the member desires to inspect and how the records relate to the purpose of the member.

(5) The demand must be delivered to the corporation:

- (i) at its registered office in this Commonwealth;

(c) Proceedings for the enforcement of inspection by a member.--If the corporation, or an officer or agent thereof, refuses to permit an inspection sought by a member or attorney or other agent acting for the member pursuant to subsection (b) or does not reply to the demand within five business days after the demand has been received, the member may file an action in the court for an order to compel the inspection. The court is hereby vested with exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether or not the person seeking inspection is entitled to the inspection sought. The court may summarily order the corporation to permit the member to inspect the membership register and the other books and records of the corporation and to make copies or extracts therefrom; or the court may order the corporation to furnish to the member a list of its members as of a specific date on condition that the member first pay to the corporation the reasonable cost of obtaining and furnishing the list and on such other conditions as the court deems appropriate. Where the member seeks to inspect the books and records of the corporation, other than its membership register or list of members, the member shall first establish:

(e) Available relief.--The court may, in its discretion, prescribe any limitations or conditions with reference to the inspection, or award such other or further relief as the court deems just and proper. The court may order books, documents and records, pertinent extracts therefrom, or duly authenticated copies thereof, to be brought into this Commonwealth and kept in this Commonwealth upon such terms and conditions as the order may prescribe.

(f) Right to bylaws.--Every member shall have the right to receive, promptly after demand and without charge, a copy in record form of the currently effective text of the bylaws. If the corporation does not provide a member with a copy of the bylaws as required by this subsection, the member may apply to the court for an order to compel the production. The court shall summarily order the corporation to provide a copy of the bylaws unless the corporation establishes that the person seeking the bylaws is not a member.

(g) Reasonable restrictions permitted.--The corporation may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction, condition or obligation under this subsection, the corporation has the burden of proving reasonableness.

The order of the court may contain provisions protecting the corporation from undue burden or expense and prohibiting the director from using the information in a manner that would violate the duty of the director to the corporation.

- 5586. Restrictions on investments.
- 5587. Determination of interests.
- 5588. Amortization of premiums on securities held.
- 5589. Records; ownership of assets.

Subchapter Heading. The heading of Subchapter C was carried without amendment December 21, 1988, P.L.1444, No.177, effective October 1, 1989.

§ 5585. Establishment or use of common trust funds authorized.

(a) General rule.--Every nonprofit corporation may establish and maintain one or more common trust funds, the assets of which shall be held, invested and reinvested by the corporation itself or by a corporate trustee to which the assets have been transferred pursuant to section 5549 (relating to transfer of trust or other assets to institutional trustee). Upon the payment by the corporate trustee to the nonprofit corporation of the net income from the assets, which income may be determined under section 5548(c) (relating to investment of trust funds) if the election is properly made by the board of directors or other body of the corporation, for use and application to the several participating interests in the common trust fund, the proportionate participation of each interest in the net income shall be designated by the corporate trustee. The nonprofit corporation may, at any time, withdraw the whole or part of any participating interest in the common trust fund for distribution by it as provided in this subchapter.

(b) Limitations in trust instrument.--Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize the corporation to invest assets of a trust or fund in any common trust fund contrary to any specific limitation or restriction contained in the trust instrument nor to limit or restrict the authority conferred upon the corporation with respect to investments by the trust instrument.

(c) Effect of good faith mistakes.--Mistakes made in good faith and in the exercise of due care and prudence in connection with the administration of any common trust fund shall not be held to exceed any power granted to or violate any duty imposed upon the corporation if, promptly after the discovery of the mistake, the corporation takes whatever action may be practicable under the circumstances to remedy the mistake. (Dec. 21, 1988, P.L.1444, No.177, eff. Oct. 1, 1989; Dec. 21, 1998, P.L.1067, No.141, eff. imd.; July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

Cross References. Section 5585 is referred to in section 5587 of this title.

§ 5586. Restrictions on investments.

(a) Legal investments.--If the trust instrument limits or restricts the investment of the assets to investments of the class authorized by law as legal investments, a nonprofit corporation may invest and reinvest the assets of the trust or fund in any common trust fund maintained by the corporation if the investments composing the fund consist solely of investments of the class authorized by 20 Pa.C.S. Ch. 72 (relating to prudent investor rule) to be held by fiduciaries.

(b) Other than legal investments.--If the trust instrument does not limit or restrict the investment of the assets to investments of the class authorized by law as legal investments, the corporation may invest and reinvest the assets of the trust or fund in any common trust fund maintained by the corporation composed of the investments as in the honest exercise of the judgment of the directors or other body of the corporation they may, after investigation, determine to be safe and proper investments.

§ 5587. Determination of interests.

A nonprofit corporation shall invest the assets of a trust or fund in a common trust fund authorized by this subchapter by adding those assets thereto and by apportioning a participation therein to the trust or fund in the proportion that the assets of the trust or fund added thereto bears to the aggregate value of all the assets of the common trust fund at the time of the investment, including in those assets the assets of the trust or fund so added. The withdrawal of a participation from the common trust fund shall be on a basis of its proportionate interest in the aggregate value of all the assets of the common trust fund at the time of the withdrawal. The participating interest of any trust or fund in the common trust fund may from time to time be withdrawn, in whole or in part, by the corporation. Upon a withdrawal, the corporation may make distribution in cash, or ratably in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind. Participations in the common trust funds shall not be sold by the corporation to any other corporation or person, but this sentence shall not prevent a corporate trustee designated under section 5585 (relating to establishment or use of common trust funds authorized) from investing the assets of the common trust fund in any collective investment fund established and maintained by it in accordance with law and to which the assets comprising the common trust fund are eligible contributions.

(Dec. 21, 1988, P.L.1444, No.177, eff. Oct. 1, 1989; July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

§ 5588. Amortization of premiums on securities held.

If a bond or other obligation for the payment of money is acquired as an investment for any common trust fund at a cost in excess of the par or maturity value thereof, the nonprofit corporation may, during but not beyond the period that the obligation is held as an investment in the fund, amortize the excess cost out of the income on the obligation, by deducting from each payment of income and adding to principal an amount equal to the sum obtained by dividing the excess cost by the number of periodic payments of income to accrue on the obligation from the date of the acquisition until its maturity date.

§ 5589. Records; ownership of assets.

The nonprofit corporation shall designate clearly upon its records the names of the trusts or funds on behalf of which the corporation, as fiduciary or otherwise, owns a participation in any common trust fund and the extent of the interest of the trust or fund therein. The trust or fund shall not be deemed to have individual ownership of any asset in the common trust fund, but shall be deemed to have a proportionate undivided interest in the common trust fund. The ownership of the individual assets comprising any common trust fund shall be solely in the nonprofit corporation as fiduciary or otherwise. (July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

Any action or meeting that is taken or held without notice or communication to that person shall have the same validity as if the notice or communication had been duly given. If the action taken is such as to require the filing of any document with respect thereto under any provision of law or any agreement or other instrument, it shall be sufficient, if such is the fact and if notice or communication is required, to state therein that notice or communication was given to all persons entitled to receive notice or communication except persons with whom communication was unlawful.

Participation in a meeting pursuant to this subsection shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

(b) Members.--Except as otherwise provided in the bylaws, the presence or participation by a member, including voting and taking other action, at a meeting of members by conference telephone or other electronic technology constitutes the presence of, or vote or action by, the member for the purposes of this subpart.

(c) Exclusive use of electronic technology.--Unless the bylaws provide expressly that a meeting of members may not be held solely by means of electronic technology, a meeting of the members does not need to be held at a geographic location if the meeting is held by means of electronic technology in a fashion pursuant to which the members have a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting, read or hear the proceedings substantially concurrently with their occurrence, vote on matters submitted to the members and, subject to such guidelines and procedures as the board of directors may adopt, make appropriate motions and comment on the business of the meeting. A director of a nonprofit corporation who is present at a meeting of its board of directors, or of a committee of the board, at which action on any corporate matter is taken on which the director is generally competent to act, shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless the director's dissent, abstention or vote against the matter is entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the director delivers to the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof a dissent in record form to the action or transmits the dissent in record form to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. The right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of the action.

§ 5715. Exercise of powers generally.

(a) General rule.--In discharging the duties of their respective positions, the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors of a nonprofit corporation may, in considering the best interests of the corporation, consider to the extent they deem appropriate:

(1) The effects of any action upon any or all groups affected by such action, including members, employees, suppliers, customers and creditors of the corporation, and upon communities in which offices or other establishments of the corporation are located.

(2) The short-term and long-term interests of the corporation, including benefits that may accrue to the corporation from its long-term plans and the possibility that these interests may be best served by the continued independence of the corporation.

(3) The resources, intent and conduct (past, stated and potential) of any person seeking to acquire control of the corporation.

(4) All other pertinent factors.

(b) Consideration of interests and factors.--The board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors shall not be required, in considering the best interests of the corporation or the effects of any action, to regard any corporate interest or the interests of any particular group affected by such action as a dominant or controlling interest or factor. The consideration of interests and factors in the manner described in this subsection and in subsection (a) shall not constitute a violation of section 5712 (relating to standard of care, justifiable reliance and business judgment rule).

(c) Specific applications.--In exercising the powers vested in the corporation, including, without limitation, those powers pursuant to section 5502 (relating to general powers), and in no way limiting the discretion of the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors pursuant to subsections (a) and (b), the fiduciary duty of directors shall not be deemed to require them to act as the board of directors, a committee of the board or an individual director solely because of the effect such action might have on an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control of the corporation or the consideration that might be offered or paid to members in such an acquisition.

(d) Presumption.--In assessing whether the standard set forth in section 5712 or 5728 (relating to interested directors or officers; quorum) has been satisfied, there shall not be any greater obligation to justify, or higher burden of proof with respect to, any act as the board of directors, any committee of the board or any individual director relating to or affecting an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control of the corporation than is applied to any other act as a board of directors, any committee of the board or any individual director. Notwithstanding section 5712(d) and the preceding provision of this subsection, any act as the board of directors, a committee of the board or an individual director relating to or affecting an acquisition or potential or proposed acquisition of control to which a majority of the disinterested directors shall have assented shall be presumed to satisfy the standard set forth in section 5712 or 5728, unless it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the disinterested directors did not assent to such act in good faith after reasonable investigation.

(e) Definition.--The term "disinterested director" as used in subsection (d) and for no other purpose means:

(1) A director of the corporation other than:

(i) A director who has a direct or indirect financial or other interest in the person acquiring or seeking to acquire control of the corporation or who is an affiliate or associate of, or was nominated or designated as a director by, a person acquiring or seeking to acquire control of the corporation.

(ii) Depending on the specific facts surrounding the director and the act under consideration, an officer or employee or former officer or employee of the corporation.

(ii) The receipt as a member of or holder of shares of any class of any distribution made to all members of or holders of shares of that class.

(iii) The receipt by the director of director's fees or other consideration as a director.

The consideration of those factors shall not constitute a violation of section 5712 (relating to standard of care, justifiable reliance and business judgment rule).

(b) Presumption.--(Deleted by amendment).

§ 5717. Limitation on standing.

The duty of the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors under section 5712 (relating to standard of care, justifiable reliance and business judgment rule) is solely to the nonprofit corporation and not to any member or creditor or any other person or group, and may be enforced directly by the corporation or may be enforced by an action in the right of the corporation, and may not be enforced directly by a member or creditor or by any other person or group. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, sections 5715(a) and (b) (relating to exercise of powers generally) and 5716(a) (relating to alternative standard) do not impose upon the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors, any legal or equitable duties, obligations or liabilities or create any right or cause of action against, or basis for standing to sue, the board of directors, committees of the board and individual directors.

In case the board or a class of the board or any one or more directors are so removed, new directors may be elected at the same meeting.

(2) An individual director shall not be removed, unless the entire board or class of the board is removed, from the board of a corporation in which members are entitled to vote cumulatively for the board or a class of the board if sufficient votes are cast against the resolution for removal of the director which, if cumulatively voted at an annual or other regular election of directors, would be sufficient to elect one or more directors to the board or to the class.

(b) Removal by the board.--Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the members, the board of directors may declare vacant the office of a director who has been judicially declared of unsound mind or who has been convicted of an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, or for any other proper cause which the bylaws may specify, or if, within 60 days, or other time as the bylaws may specify, after notice of selection, a director does not accept the office either in writing or by attending a meeting of the board of directors and fulfill the other requirements of qualification as the bylaws may specify.

(c) Removal by the court.--Upon application of any member or director, the court may remove from office any director in case of fraudulent or dishonest acts, or gross abuse of authority or discretion with reference to the corporation, or for any other proper cause, and may bar from office any director so removed for a period prescribed by the court. (b) Action by consent.--Unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws, any action required or permitted to be approved at a meeting of the directors may be approved without a meeting if one or more consents to the action in record form. Except as provided in subsection (c), the consents must be signed, before, on or after the effective time of the action by all of the directors in office at the effective time. The consent or consents must be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

(c) Effectiveness of consent.--A consent may provide, or a person signing a consent, whether or not then a director, may instruct in record form, that the consent will be effective at a future time, including a time determined upon the happening of an event. In the case of a consent signed by a person not a director at the time of signing, the consent is effective at the stated effective time if the person who signed the consent is a director at the effective time and did not revoke the consent in record form prior to the effective time. A consent is effective at the stated effective time even if one or more signers are no longer directors at the effective time unless the consent has been revoked by a signer who is a director at the effective time. A signer of a consent may revoke the signer's consent in record form until the consent becomes effective.

(2) (i) the director or officer does not participate personally and substantially in negotiating the transaction for either the corporation or the other association; and

The bylaws may prescribe special qualifications for the officers. The president and secretary shall be natural persons of full age. (2) Counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters that the officer reasonably believes to be within the professional or expert competence of such person.

(c) Effect of actual knowledge.--An officer is not considered to be acting in good faith under subsection (a) if the director has actual knowledge concerning the matter that causes the officer to believe reliance is unwarranted.

(d) Business judgment rule.--Except as otherwise restricted in the bylaws, an officer who makes a business judgment in good faith fulfills the duties of an officer if:

(1) the subject of the business judgment does not involve self-dealing by the officer or an associate or affiliate of the officer;

(2) the officer is informed with respect to the subject of the business judgment to the extent the officer reasonably believes to be appropriate under the circumstances; and

(3) the officer rationally believes that the business judgment is in the best interests of the corporation.

(e) Burden of proof.--A person challenging the conduct of an officer under this section has the burden of proving a breach of the duty of care, including the provisions of subsections (c) and (d), and, in a damage action, the burden of proving that the breach was the legal cause of damage suffered by the corporation.

(2) the liability of an officer for the payment of taxes pursuant to Federal, State or local law.

(d) Cross reference.--See 42 Pa.C.S. § 8332.5 (relating to corporate representatives).

§ 5741. Third-party actions.

Unless otherwise restricted in its bylaws, a nonprofit corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he is or was a representative of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Unless otherwise restricted in its bylaws, a nonprofit corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a representative of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a representative of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation. Indemnification shall not be made under this section in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court of common pleas of the judicial district embracing the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located or the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses that the court of common pleas or other court shall deem proper.

§ 5744. Procedure for effecting indemnification.

Unless ordered by a court, any indemnification under section 5741 (relating to third-party actions) or 5742 (relating to derivative and corporate actions) shall be made by the nonprofit corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the representative is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in those sections. The determination shall be made:

(1) by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action or proceeding;

(2) if such a quorum is not obtainable or if obtainable and a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion;

§ 5745. Advancing expenses.

Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending any action or proceeding referred to in this subchapter may be paid by a nonprofit corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the representative to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this subchapter or otherwise. Except as otherwise provided in the bylaws, advancement of expenses shall be authorized by the board of directors. Section 5728 (relating to interested members, directors or officers; quorum) shall not be applicable to the advancement of expenses under this section.

§ 5746. Supplementary coverage.

(a) General rule.--The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to the other sections of this subchapter shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding that office. Section 5728 (relating to interested directors or officers; quorum) shall be applicable to any bylaw, contract or transaction authorized by the directors under this section. A corporation may create a fund of any nature, which may, but need not, be under the control of a trustee, or otherwise secure or insure in any manner its indemnification obligations, whether arising under or pursuant to this section or otherwise.

(b) When indemnification is not to be made.--Indemnification pursuant to subsection (a) shall not be made in any case where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness.

(c) Grounds.--Indemnification pursuant to subsection (a) under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or directors or otherwise may be granted for any action taken or any failure to take any action and may be made whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person under any other provision of law except as provided in this section and whether or not the indemnified liability arises or arose from any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation. Such indemnification is declared to be consistent with the public policy of this Commonwealth.

(d) Trust property.--This subchapter shall not affect the liability of a representative with respect to the administration of assets held by the corporation pursuant to section 5547 (relating to authority to take and hold trust property). (Dec. 21, 1988, P.L.1444, No.177, eff. Oct. 1, 1989; Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.; July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

Such insurance is declared to be consistent with the public policy of this Commonwealth.

(Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.)

1990 Amendment. Act 198 reenacted and amended the entire section.

§ 5748. Application to surviving or new corporations.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided in subsection (b), for the purposes of this subchapter, references to "the corporation" include all constituent corporations absorbed in a consolidation, merger or division, as well as the surviving or new corporations surviving or resulting therefrom, so that any person who is or was a representative of the constituent, surviving or new corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the constituent, surviving or new corporation as a representative of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this subchapter with respect to the surviving or new corporation as he would if he had served the surviving or new corporation in the same capacity.

(b) Divisions.--Notwithstanding subsection (a), the obligations of a dividing corporation to indemnify and advance expenses of its representatives, whether arising under this subchapter or otherwise, may be allocated in a division in the same manner and with the same effect as any other liability of the dividing corporation.

(Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.; June 22, 2001, P.L.418, No.34, eff. 60 days)

§ 5749. Application to employee benefit plans.

For the purposes of this subchapter:

(1) References to "other enterprises" shall include employee benefit plans and references to "serving at the request of the corporation" shall include any service as a representative of the nonprofit corporation that imposes duties on or involves services by the representative with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries.

(2) Excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan pursuant to applicable law shall be deemed "fines."

(3) Action with respect to an employee benefit plan taken or omitted in good faith by a representative of the corporation in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan shall be deemed to be action in a manner that is not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

(Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.)

§ 5750. Duration and extent of coverage.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this subchapter shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a representative of the corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representative of that person. A right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses arising under a provision of the articles or bylaws may not be eliminated or impaired by an amendment to or repeal of the provision after the occurrence of an act that is the subject of the threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, for which indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought, unless the provision in effect at the time of the act explicitly authorizes the elimination or impairment after an act has occurred.

§ 5755. Time of holding meetings of members.

(a) Regular meetings.--The bylaws of a nonprofit corporation may provide for the number and the time of meetings of members. Except as otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the members, at least one meeting of the members that are entitled to vote for the election of directors shall be held in each calendar year for the election of directors at the time provided in or fixed pursuant to authority granted by the bylaws. Failure to hold the annual or other regular meeting at the designated time shall not work a dissolution of the corporation or affect otherwise valid corporate acts. If the annual or other regular meeting is not called and held within six months after the designated time, any member may call the meeting at any time thereafter.

(b) Special meetings.--Special meetings of the members may be called at any time by:

- (1) the board of directors;

If the secretary neglects or refuses to fix the time of the meeting, the person or persons calling the meeting may do so.

(d) Postponement or cancellation.--The board of directors may postpone, or delegate to an officer the authority to postpone, the annual or other regular meeting of members, subject to the provision of subsection (a) providing for a meeting each calendar year. Unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws or otherwise provided by statute, the holding of a special meeting of members may be postponed for not more than 15 days or may be canceled by the person or group that called the special meeting. In the case of a postponed or canceled meeting, prompt notice in record form of the postponement or cancellation must be given to the members entitled to vote at the meeting.

(i) the presence of members entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all members are entitled to cast on the matter; and

(ii) if any members are entitled to vote as a class on the matter, the presence of members entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast in the class vote.

(2) The members present at a duly organized meeting can continue to do business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum.

(3) If a meeting cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, those present may, except as otherwise provided in this subpart, adjourn the meeting to a time and place they may determine.

(b) Exceptions.--Notwithstanding any contrary provision in the articles or bylaws, those members entitled to vote who attend a meeting of members:

(1) At which directors are to be elected that has been previously adjourned for lack of a quorum, although less than a quorum as fixed in this section or in the bylaws, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing directors.

(2) That has been previously adjourned for one or more periods aggregating at least 15 days because of an absence of a quorum, although less than a quorum as fixed in this section or in the bylaws, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of acting upon any matter set forth in the notice of the meeting if the notice states that those members who attend the adjourned meeting shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of acting upon the matter.

(a) General rule.--Except as otherwise provided in this title or in a bylaw adopted by the members, whenever any corporate action is to be taken by vote of the members of a nonprofit corporation, it shall be authorized upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the members entitled to vote thereon and, if any members are entitled to vote thereon as a class, upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the members entitled to vote as a class.

(b) Changes in required vote.--Whenever a provision of this title requires a specified number or percentage of votes of members or of a class of members for the taking of any action, a nonprofit corporation may prescribe in a bylaw adopted by the members that a higher number or percentage of votes shall be required for the action. The number or percentage of members necessary to call a special meeting of members or to petition for the proposal of an amendment of articles under this subpart may not be increased under this subsection. See sections 5504(d) (relating to adoption, amendment and contents of bylaws) and 5914(d) (relating to adoption of amendments).

§ 5758. Voting rights of members.

(a) General rule.--Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the members, every member of a nonprofit corporation shall be entitled to one vote.

(b) Procedures.--The following apply to voting by the members:

(1) The manner of voting on any matter, including changes in the articles or bylaws, may be by ballot, mail or any reasonable means provided in a bylaw adopted by the members.

(2) If a bylaw adopted by the members provides a fair and reasonable procedure for the nomination of candidates for any office, only candidates who have been duly nominated in accordance therewith shall be eligible for election.

(3) Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the members, in elections for directors at a meeting of members held at a geographic location, voting shall be by ballot. The members do not have the right to vote by ballot at a meeting that is not held at a geographic location pursuant to section 5708(c) (relating to use of conference telephone or other electronic technology).

(4) The candidates for election as directors receiving the highest number of votes from each class or group of classes, if any, of members entitled to elect directors separately up to the number of directors to be elected by such class or group of classes shall be elected. If at any meeting of members directors of more than one class are to be elected, each class of directors shall be elected in a separate election.

(c) Cumulative voting.--If a bylaw adopted by the members so provides, in each election of directors of a nonprofit corporation every member entitled to vote shall have the right to multiply the number of votes to which he may be entitled by the total number of directors to be elected in the same election by the members or the class of members to which he belongs, and he may cast the whole number of his votes for one candidate or he may distribute them among any two or more candidates.

(d) Sale of votes.--No member shall sell his vote or issue a proxy for money or anything of value.

(e) Voting lists.--Upon request of a member, the membership register shall be produced at any regular or special meeting of the corporation. If at any meeting the right of a person to vote is challenged, the presiding officer shall require the membership register to be produced as evidence of the right of the person challenged to vote, and all persons who appear by the membership register to be members entitled to vote may vote. See section 6145 (relating to applicability of certain safeguards to foreign corporations).

§ 5759. Voting and other action by proxy.

(a) General rule.--Voting by members of a nonprofit corporation shall be only in person unless a bylaw adopted by the members provides for voting by proxy. Unless otherwise restricted by a bylaw adopted by the members:

(1) The presence of, or vote or other action at a meeting of members, or the expression of consent or dissent to corporate action, by a proxy of a member pursuant to a bylaw shall constitute the presence of, or vote or action by, or consent or dissent of the member for the purposes of this subpart.

(2) Where two or more proxies of a member are present, the corporation shall, unless otherwise expressly provided in the proxy, accept as the vote or other action of all the members or shares represented thereby the vote cast or other action taken by a majority of them, and, if a majority of the proxies cannot agree whether the memberships or shares represented shall be voted or upon the manner of voting the memberships or shares or taking the other action, the voting of the memberships or shares or right to take other action shall be divided equally among those persons.

(b) Execution and filing.--Every proxy shall be executed or authenticated by the member or by the member's duly authorized attorney-in-fact and filed with or transmitted to the secretary of the corporation or its designated agent. A member or the member's duly authorized attorney-in-fact may execute or authenticate a writing or transmit an electronic message authorizing another person to act for the member by proxy. A telegram, telex, cablegram, datagram, e-mail, Internet communication or other means of electronic transmission from a member or attorney-in-fact, or a photographic, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing executed by a member or attorney-in-fact:

(1) may be treated as properly executed or authenticated for purposes of this subsection; and

(2) shall be so treated if it sets forth or utilizes a confidential and unique identification number or other mark furnished by the corporation to the member for the purposes of a particular meeting or transaction.

(c) Revocation.--A proxy shall be revocable at will, notwithstanding any other agreement or any provision in the proxy to the contrary, but the revocation of a proxy shall not be effective until notice thereof has been given to the secretary of the corporation or its designated agent in writing or by electronic transmission. An unrevoked proxy shall not be valid after 11 months from the date of its execution, authentication or transmission unless a longer time is expressly provided therein. A proxy shall not be revoked by the death or incapacity of the maker unless, before the vote is counted or the authority is exercised, notice of the death or incapacity is given to the secretary of the corporation or its designated agent. § 5762. Voting by corporations.

(a) Voting in nonprofit corporation matters.--Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw of a nonprofit corporation adopted by the members, any other domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit that is a member of the nonprofit corporation may vote by any of its officers or agents, or by proxy appointed by any officer or agent, unless some other person, by resolution of the board of directors of the other corporation or a provision of its articles or bylaws, a copy of which resolution or provision certified to be correct by one of its officers has been filed with the secretary of the nonprofit corporation, is appointed its general or special proxy in which case that person shall be entitled to vote as the proxy.

(b) Voting by nonprofit corporations.--Shares of or memberships in a domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit other than a nonprofit corporation, standing in the name of a shareholder or member that is a nonprofit corporation, may be voted by the persons and in the manner provided for in the case of nonprofit corporations by subsection (a) unless the laws of the jurisdiction in which the issuer of the shares or memberships is incorporated require the shares or memberships to be voted by some other person or persons or in some other manner in which case, to the extent that those laws are inconsistent with this subsection, this subsection shall not apply.

§ 5763. Determination of members of record.

(a) Fixing record date.--Unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws, the board of directors of a nonprofit corporation may fix a time prior to the date of any meeting of members as a record date for the determination of the members entitled to notice of, or to vote at, the meeting, which time, except in the case of an adjourned meeting, shall not be more than 90 days prior to the date of the meeting of members. Only members of record on the date fixed shall be so entitled notwithstanding any increase or other change in membership on the books of the corporation after any record date fixed as provided in this subsection. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the board of directors may similarly fix a record date for the determination of members of record for any other purpose. A record date may not precede the date on which the board acts to fix that record date. The members of record shall be determined as of the close of business on the record date unless the board fixes a different time of day for that determination. When a determination of members of record has been made as provided in this section for purposes of a meeting, the determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws or unless the board fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

(b) Determination when no record date fixed.--Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, if a record date is not fixed:

(1) The close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which the meeting is held shall be the record date for determining members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of members.

(2) The close of business on the day on which the first consent or dissent, request or petition is filed in record form with the secretary of the corporation shall be the record date for determining members entitled to:

(i) express consent or dissent to corporate action without a meeting, when prior action by the board of directors or other body is not necessary;

(ii) call a special meeting of the members; or

(iii) propose an amendment of the articles.

(3) The record date for determining members for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the board of directors or other body adopts the resolution relating thereto.

§ 5765. Judges of election.

(a) General rule.--Unless otherwise provided in a bylaw adopted by the members:

(1) In advance of any meeting of members of a nonprofit corporation, the board of directors or other body may appoint judges of election, who need not be members, to act at the meeting or any adjournment thereof. If judges of election are not so appointed, the presiding officer of the meeting may, and on the request of any member shall, appoint judges of election at the meeting. The number of judges shall be one or three. A person who is a candidate for office to be filled at the meeting shall not act as a judge.

(2) In case any person appointed as judge fails to appear or fails or refuses to act, the vacancy may be filled by appointment made by the board of directors or other body in advance of the convening of the meeting, or at the meeting by the presiding officer thereof.

(3) The judges of election shall determine the number of members of record and the voting power of each, the members present at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, the authenticity, validity and effect of proxies, if voting by proxy is permitted under the bylaws, receive votes or ballots, hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, determine the result and perform the acts as may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all members. The judges of election shall perform their duties impartially, in good faith, to the best of their ability and as expeditiously as is practical. If there are three judges of election, the decision, act or certificate of a majority shall be effective in all respects as the decision, act or certificate of all.

(4) On request of the presiding officer of the meeting, or of any member, the judges shall make a report in writing of any challenge or question or matter determined by them, and execute a certificate of any fact found by them. Any report or certificate made by them shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

§ 5766. Consent of members in lieu of meeting.

(a) Unanimous consent.--Unless otherwise restricted in the bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members or of a class of members of a nonprofit corporation may be taken without a meeting if a consent or consents to the action in record form are signed, before, on or after the effective time of the action by all of the members who would be entitled to vote at a meeting for that purpose. The consent or consents must be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the members.

(b) Partial consent.--If the bylaws so provide, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members or of a class of members may be taken without a meeting upon the signed consent of members who would have been entitled to cast the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize the action at a meeting at which all members entitled to vote thereon were present and voting. The consents must be filed in record form with the minutes of the proceedings of the members.

(c) Notice of action by partial consent.--Unless the bylaws require notice before an action pursuant to subsection (b) takes effect, prompt notice that an action has been taken shall be given to each member entitled to vote on the action that has not consented.

(d) Escrowing of consents.--A consent may provide, or a person signing a consent, whether or not then a member, may instruct in record form that the consent will be effective at a future time, including a time determined upon the happening of an event. In the case of a consent signed by a person not a member at the time of signing, the consent is effective at the stated effective time if the person who signed the consent is a member at the effective time and did not revoke the consent in record form prior to the effective time. A consent is effective at the stated effective time, even if one or more signers are no longer members at the effective time if consents by members entitled to cast the required number of votes have not been revoked before the effective time.

(e) Revocation of consent.--Unless otherwise provided in a consent, a signer of the consent may revoke the signer's consent in record form until it becomes effective.

(1) at any meeting for the election of directors or members of an other body, the members are so divided that they have failed to elect successors to those whose terms have expired or would have expired upon the qualification of their successors; or

(2) any of the conditions specified in section 5981 (relating to proceedings upon application of member or director), other than that it is beneficial to the interest of the members that the corporation be wound up and dissolved, exist with respect to the corporation.

(b) Power and title of custodian.--A custodian appointed under this section shall have all the power and title of a receiver appointed under Subchapter G of Chapter 59 (relating to involuntary liquidation and dissolution), but the authority of the custodian shall be to continue the business of the corporation and not to liquidate its affairs and distribute its assets except when the court shall otherwise order.

(b) Expulsion.--

(1) A member shall not be expelled from any nonprofit corporation without notice, trial and conviction, the form of which shall be prescribed by the bylaws.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to termination of membership pursuant to section 5544 (relating to dues and assessments).

(d) Transfer of membership.--Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, a member may not transfer his membership or any right arising therefrom. (B) the board does not notify the party that made the demand within 60 days after the demand was made that the board has appointed a special litigation committee or has made a determination described under either clause (A)(I) or (II); or

(ii) if a special litigation committee is appointed under section 5783, a determination is made:

(3) the action is maintained for the limited purpose of seeking court review under section 5783(f); or

(4) the court has allowed the action to continue under the control of the plaintiff under section 5783(f)(3)(ii).

(b) Prior demand excused.--

(1) A demand under subsection (a)(1) is excused only if the plaintiff makes a specific showing that immediate and irreparable harm to the nonprofit corporation would otherwise result.

(2) If demand is excused under paragraph (1), demand shall be made promptly after commencement of the action.

(c) Contents of demand.--A demand under this section must be in record form and give notice with reasonable specificity of:

(1) the material facts relied upon to support each of the claims made in the demand against each proposed defendant; and

(2) in the case of a derivative action commenced by a member, the basis on which the person making the demand has standing under section 5782.

(d) Additional claims.--If a derivative action is commenced after a demand has been made under this section and includes a claim that was not fairly subsumed under the demand, a new demand must be made with respect to that claim. The new demand shall not relate back to the date of the original demand for purposes of subsection (e).

§ 5782. Eligible member plaintiffs and security for costs.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided in subsection (b), in any action or proceeding brought by one or more members of a nonprofit corporation to enforce rights that the plaintiff claims could be, but have not been, asserted by the corporation, each plaintiff has standing to commence and maintain the derivative action if the plaintiff:

(1) was a member of the corporation at the time of the transaction or conduct of which the plaintiff complains; and

(2) continues to be a member until the time of judgment, unless the failure to do so is the result of corporate action that:

(i) was done merely to eliminate derivative claims;

or

(ii) has the effect of a reorganization that does not affect the plaintiff's ownership of the enterprise.

(b) Exception.--Any member who, except for the provisions of subsection (a), would be entitled to maintain the action or proceeding and who does not meet such requirements may, nevertheless in the discretion of the court, be allowed to maintain the action or proceeding on preliminary showing to the court, by application and upon such verified statements and depositions as may be required by the court, that there is a strong prima facie case in favor of the claim asserted on behalf of the corporation and that without the action serious injustice will result.

(c) Security for costs.--In any action or proceeding instituted or maintained by less than the smaller of 50 members of any class or 5% of the members of any class of the corporation, the corporation in whose right the action or proceeding is brought shall be entitled at any stage of the proceedings to require the plaintiffs to give security for the reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, that may be incurred by the corporation in connection therewith or for which it may become liable pursuant to section 5743 (relating to mandatory indemnification), but only insofar as relates to actions by or in the right of the corporation, to which security the corporation shall have recourse in such amount as the court determines upon the termination of the action or proceeding. The amount of security may from time to time be increased or decreased in the discretion of the court upon showing that the security provided has or is likely to become inadequate or excessive. The security may be denied or limited by the court if the court finds after an evidentiary hearing that undue hardship on plaintiffs and serious injustice would result.

(d) Failure to maintain ownership.--If a plaintiff loses the right to maintain a derivative action under subsection (a)(2), the court may entertain a motion to substitute the corporation as the named plaintiff.

(e) Cross reference.--See section 6146 (relating to provisions applicable to all foreign corporations).

§ 5783. Special litigation committee.

(a) General rule.--If a nonprofit corporation or the board of directors receives a demand to bring an action to enforce a right of the corporation, or if a derivative action is commenced before demand has been made on the corporation or the board, the board may appoint a special litigation committee to investigate the claims asserted in the demand or action and to determine on behalf of the corporation or recommend to the board whether pursuing any of the claims asserted is in the best interests of the corporation. The corporation must deliver a notice in record form to the person making the demand, or to the plaintiff if a derivative action has been commenced, promptly after the appointment of a committee under this section notifying the person making the demand or the plaintiff that a committee has been appointed and identifying by name the members of the committee.

(b) Discovery stay.--If the board of directors appoints a special litigation committee and an action is commenced before a determination has been made under subsection (e):

(1) On motion by the nonprofit corporation, or the committee made in the name of the corporation, the court shall stay discovery for the time reasonably necessary to permit the committee to complete its investigation, except for good cause shown.

(2) The time for the defendants to plead shall be tolled until the process provided for under subsection (f) has been completed.

(c) Composition of committee.--A special litigation committee shall be composed of two or more individuals who:

(1) are not interested in the claims asserted in the demand or action;

(2) are capable as a group of objective judgment in the circumstances; and

(3) may, but need not, be members, directors or members of an other body.

(c.1) Committee members who are not directors or members of an other body.--A member of a special litigation committee who is not a director or member of an other body, when acting as a member of the committee, is subject to the liabilities imposed, and entitled to the rights and immunities conferred by Subchapters B (relating to fiduciary duty) and D (relating to indemnification) and other provisions of law upon directors of a corporation.

(d) Appointment of committee.--A special litigation committee may be appointed:

(1) by a majority of the directors not named as actual or potential parties in the demand or action; or

(2) if all the directors are named as actual or potential parties in the demand or action, by a majority of:

- (i) the members of an other body not named as parties in the proceeding if the other body has the authority to appoint a special litigation committee; or
- (ii) the directors so named.

(e) Determination.--After appropriate investigation by a special litigation committee, the committee may determine, or the committee may recommend to the board of directors that the board determine that it is in the best interests of the nonprofit corporation that:

(1) an action based on some or all of the claims asserted in the demand not be brought by the corporation but that the corporation not object to an action being brought by the party that made the demand;

(2) an action based on some or all of the claims asserted in the demand be brought by the corporation;

(3) some or all of the claims asserted in the demand be settled on terms determined or recommended by the committee;

(4) an action not be brought based on any of the claims asserted in the demand;

(5) an action already commenced continue under the control of:

(i) the plaintiff;

(ii) the corporation; or

(iii) the committee;

(6) some or all the claims asserted in an action already commenced be settled on terms determined or recommended by the committee; or

(7) an action already commenced be dismissed.

(f) Court review and action.--If a special litigation committee is appointed and a derivative action is commenced before or after the committee makes a determination under subsection (e) or the board of directors determines under subsection (e) to accept the recommendation of the committee:

(1) The nonprofit corporation or the committee shall file with the court after a determination is made under subsection (e) a statement of the determination and a report of the committee supporting the determination. The corporation or the committee shall serve each party with a copy of the determination and report. If the corporation or the committee moves to file the report under seal, the report shall be served on the parties subject to an appropriate stipulation agreed to by the parties or a protective order issued by the court.

(2) The corporation or the committee shall file with the court a motion, pleading or notice consistent with the determination under subsection (e).

(3) If the determination is one described in subsection (e)(2), (3), (4), (5)(ii), (6) or (7), the court shall determine whether the members of the committee met the qualifications required under subsection (c)(1) and (2) and whether the committee conducted its investigation and made its determination or recommendation in good faith, independently and with reasonable care. The plaintiff has the burden of proving that the committee did not meet those qualifications or act in the required manner. If the court finds that the members of the committee met the qualifications required under subsection (c)(1) and (2) and that the committee acted in good faith, independently and with reasonable care, the court shall enforce the determination of the committee or the board. Otherwise, the court shall:

(i) dissolve any stay of discovery entered under subsection (b);

(ii) allow the action to continue under the control of the plaintiff; and

(iii) permit the defendants to file preliminary objections, other appropriate pleadings and motions.

(g) Attorney General.--Nothing in this section limits the rights, powers and duties of the Attorney General under other applicable law with respect to a nonprofit corporation.

(h) Interest of a defendant.--The fact that a person is named as a defendant does not make the person interested in the claims asserted in a demand or action for purposes of subsection (c) (1) if the claims against the person:

(1) are based only on an allegation that the person approved of or acquiesced in the transaction or conduct that is the subject of the claims; and

(2) do not otherwise allege with particularity facts that, if true, raise a significant prospect that the person would be adjudged liable.

§ 5784. Proceeds and expenses.

(1) any proceeds or other benefits of a derivative action, whether by judgment, compromise or settlement, belong to the nonprofit corporation and not to the plaintiff; and

(2) if the plaintiff or its counsel receives any proceeds, the proceeds shall be remitted immediately to the corporation.

(b) Expenses.--If a derivative action is successful in whole or in part, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and costs, from the recovery of the nonprofit corporation, but in no event shall the attorney fees awarded exceed a reasonable proportion of the value of the relief, including nonpecuniary relief, obtained by the plaintiff for the corporation.

(b) Adoption in absence of voting members.--If the corporation has no members entitled to vote thereon, or no members entitled to vote thereon other than persons who also constitute the board of directors or other body, the amendment shall be deemed adopted by the corporation when it has been adopted by the board of directors or other body pursuant to section 5912 (relating to proposal of amendments).

(c) Termination of proposal.--Prior to the time when an amendment becomes effective, the amendment may be terminated pursuant to provisions for amendment, if any, set forth in the resolution or petition. If articles of amendment have been filed in the department prior to the termination, a statement under section 5902 (relating to statement of termination) shall be filed in the department.

(d) Amendment of voting provisions.--Unless otherwise provided in the articles, whenever the articles require for the taking of any action by the members or a class of members a specific number or percentage of votes, the provision of the articles setting forth that requirement shall not be amended or repealed by any lesser number or percentage of votes of the members or of the class of members.

(2) Authorize the corporation or any facilities furnished by it to act for the member in any manner with respect to all or any specified part of products produced or to be produced either by the member or under the control of the member.

(3) Buy or procure from or through the corporation or any facilities furnished by it, all or any specified part of goods or services to be bought or procured by the member.

(4) Authorize the corporation or any facilities furnished by it to act for the member in any manner in the procurement of goods or the procurement or performance of services.

(b) Damages for breach.--A contract authorized by subsection (a) may fix and require liquidated damages to be paid by the member to the cooperative corporation in the event of breach of the contract by the member. Liquidated damages may be a percentage of the value or a specific amount per unit of the products, goods or services involved in or the subject of the breach, or a specific sum.

(c) Collective action.--Two or more cooperative corporations may contract and act in association, incorporate or otherwise, to perform collectively any of their powers, purposes or contracts.

(d) Definition.--A contract described in subsection (a) is referred to in this subchapter as a "cooperative contract," and, unless the context otherwise requires, the term means the original cooperative contract and any amendments.

Cross References. Section 7121 is referred to in section 7123 of this title.

§ 7122. Notice of cooperative contracts.

(a) General rule.--A cooperative corporation may file any cooperative contract in the manner provided in section 7123 (relating to filing procedures) for the purpose of providing notice of its existence and contents as provided in subsection (b). If the corporation has substantially uniform cooperative contracts with more than one member, it may, in lieu of filing the original contracts, file:

- (1) A true copy of the uniform contract; and
- (2) A list or lists of the names and addresses of members who have executed the contract and the effective date of the contract as to each such member.

(b) Effect of filing.--Filing pursuant to section 7123 shall operate as constructive notice to all persons of the existence and contents of the cooperative contract. Any right, title, interest or lien created as to the products covered by the contract subsequent to such filing while such filing is in effect is subject to the right, title or interest of the cooperative corporation under the contract. If the member creates any mortgage upon or other security interest in any such products subsequent to the filing of the contract and if the member and the mortgagee or secured party jointly notify the corporation in writing of the existence and amount of the mortgage or other security interest, all payments which after such notice become due from the corporation to that member by reason of the sale or other handling of those products by the corporation shall be paid by the corporation to the mortgagee or other secured interest until the amount of the mortgage or the sum due the secured party has been paid, and the balance thereafter shall be paid to the member.

§ 7123. Filing procedures.

(a) Place and method of filing.--The proper place to file a cooperative contract authorized by section 7121(a)(1) or (2) (relating to cooperative contracts generally) is in the Department of State. Subchapter B of Chapter 1 (relating to functions and powers of Department of State) shall not apply to a filing under this subchapter.

(b) Amendments.--A cooperative contract that has been filed under this section may be amended by filing a writing signed by both the cooperative corporation and the member. The filing of an amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of a filing of a cooperative contract.

(c) Sufficiency of name of member.--Where a member so changes his name or in the case of an association its name, identity or corporate structure that a filing of a cooperative contract becomes seriously misleading, the filing is not effective more than four months after the change, unless a new filing is made before the expiration of that time.

(d) Effect of minor errors.--A filing substantially complying with the requirements of this subchapter is effective even though it contains minor errors that are not seriously misleading.

(e) What constitutes filing.--Presentation for filing of a cooperative contract and tender of the filing fee to or acceptance of the contract by the department constitutes filing under this subchapter.

(f) Duration of effectiveness of filing in general.--The filing of a cooperative contract shall be effective for a period of five years from the date of filing or the duration of the contract, whichever is less. The effectiveness of a cooperative contract filing lapses on the expiration of such period unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse.

(g) Continuation statement.--A continuation statement may be filed by the cooperative corporation within six months prior to the expiration of the five-year period specified in subsection (f). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the corporation, identify the original cooperative contract filing by file number and state that the original contract is still effective. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original filing shall be continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it shall lapse in the same manner as provided in subsection (f) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original filing.

(h) Duties of department.--The department shall mark each cooperative contract with a file number and with the date and hour of filing and shall hold the contract or a microfilm or other photographic copy thereof for public inspection. In addition, the department shall index the contract according to the name of the cooperative corporation and the name or names of the members who are parties thereto and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the corporation and the address or addresses of the members.

(i) Termination.--When a cooperative contract filed under this subchapter has been terminated in any manner, the cooperative corporation shall give, upon demand, a termination statement to the member party to the contract, who may file the statement with the department. A cooperative corporation may file at any time a termination statement listing the names of all persons whose contracts have been terminated in any manner other than by expiration of their term. Upon presentation to the department of a termination statement, it shall be noted in the index. If the termination statement has been filed in duplicate, the department shall return one copy of the termination statement to the member or corporation stamped to show the date and time of receipt thereof.

(j) Marking copy of filings.--If the person filing any cooperative contract, continuation statement or termination statement furnishes the department a copy thereof, the department upon request shall note upon the copy the file number and date and hour of the filing of the original and deliver or send the copy to such person.

(k) Furnishing certificates and copies.--Upon request of any person, the department shall issue a certificate showing whether there is on file on the date and hour stated therein, any presently effective cooperative contract filing naming a particular member and, if there is, giving the date and hour of filing of each such contract, the file number thereof and the name and address of the cooperative corporation.

(l) Retention of microfilm or other copies in lieu of originals; admissibility of copies in evidence; duties of department.--In lieu of retaining the originals of any or all papers filed with it under this subchapter, the department may make microfilm, photographic, photostatic or other copies of them which accurately reproduce such originals and may thereafter dispose of the originals so copied, and any copy so made shall be admissible in evidence in any proceeding with the same effect as though it were an original.

(m) Illegible filings.--The duties of the department prescribed in this subchapter shall relate only to clearly legible papers filed with it or submitted to it for filing. The department shall promptly return to the person submitting the same any paper that is not clearly legible.

Cross References. Section 7123 is referred to in section 7122 of this title.

§ 7124. Relief against breach or threatened breach of contract; penalty for interference.

(a) Relief against member.--In the event of a breach or threatened breach of a cooperative contract, the cooperative corporation shall be entitled to an injunction to prevent the breach or any further breach thereof, and to a decree of specific performance thereof. Upon showing the breach or threatened breach and upon filing a sufficient bond, the corporation shall be entitled to a preliminary or special injunction.

(b) Relief against third parties.--Any person who, with knowledge that a cooperative contract exists, induces or attempts to induce any member to breach the contract, or who in any manner aids a breach of the contract, shall be liable to the cooperative corporation for damages caused by such interference. The corporation shall also be entitled to an injunction to prevent any interference or further interference with the contract.

Cross References. Section 7124 is referred to in section 7125 of this title.

§ 7125. Action for civil penalty for inducing breach or spreading false reports.

In addition to the remedies provided in section 7124(b) (relating to relief against third parties), any person who knowingly and maliciously induces or attempts to induce any member of a cooperative corporation to breach a cooperative contract or who knowingly and maliciously spreads any false report about the finances or management of a cooperative corporation shall be liable, in a civil action, to the corporation aggrieved, in the amount of $500 for each offense.

The special meeting shall not be held sooner than 30 days after the giving of such notice to the members.

(4) After a plan of asset transfer has been authorized by the members, the board of directors, in its discretion, may abandon the sale, lease, lease-sale, exchange or other disposition, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto, without further action or approval by the members.

(e) Examination and correction of maps.--Each retail electric supplier shall have the right to examine the maps of other retail electric suppliers filed with the commission pursuant to this subchapter, and, if any errors are observed, any retail electric supplier may informally petition the commission for a conference of the affected parties to resolve the alleged error. The petitioner shall serve a copy of the petition by certified mail on the retail electric supplier whose map is alleged to contain the error. The commission shall arrange a conference as promptly as practicable after receipt of the petition and shall give notice thereof to all retail electric suppliers affected by the alleged error. If the alleged error is not corrected to the satisfaction of any affected retail electric supplier, the supplier may petition the commission for a hearing, and the hearing shall be granted by the commission as promptly as practicable. Upon completion by the commission of a map or maps showing the boundaries of the certified territory of a retail electric supplier as established under subsection (a), other retail electric suppliers shall have the right to examine the map or maps and, if any errors exist in location of boundary lines, any retail electric supplier aggrieved thereby may informally petition the commission for a conference to resolve the issue of the alleged incorrect location of boundary. The procedure shall be as specified in this section for resolution of alleged errors in the maps supplied by any retail electric supplier.

(f) Adjustment of certified territories.--After the initial establishment of the certified territory of each retail electric supplier, two or more retail electric suppliers may, from time to time, jointly apply to the commission for adjustment of their adjoining certified territories, and, if the commission finds that the adjustment is consistent with the purposes of this subchapter and its standards, the commission shall approve the adjustment and, to the extent required, shall prepare or cause to be prepared revised maps in accordance with subsection (c) to reflect the adjustment.

Cross References. Section 7354 is referred to in sections 7352, 7355, 7359 of this title.

§ 7355. Obligations and rights within certified territory; new electric-consuming facilities.

(a) Service within certified territory.--Except as otherwise provided in this section, each retail electric supplier shall be obligated (upon receipt of an application in accordance with its tariffs, rules, regulations or bylaws) and shall have the exclusive right to furnish retail electric service to all electric-consuming facilities located within its certified territory and shall not furnish, make available, render or extend its retail electric service to a consumer for use in electric-consuming facilities located within the certified territory of another retail electric supplier. Any retail electric supplier may extend its facilities through the certified territory of another retail electric supplier if the extension is necessary for the supplier to connect any of its facilities or to serve its consumers within its own certified territory, but any such extension shall not be deemed to be an existing distribution line.

(b) Service to new electric-consuming facilities.--Except as provided in subsections (c) and (e), any new electric-consuming facility located in an unincorporated area which has not as yet been included in a map issued by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission pursuant to section 7354(c) (relating to maps of certified territories) or certified pursuant to section 7354(d) (relating to commission certification of service territories) shall be furnished retail electric service by the retail electric supplier which has an existing distribution line in closer proximity to the electric-consuming facility than is the nearest existing distribution line of any other retail electric supplier. Any disputes under this subsection shall be resolved by the commission.

(c) Correction of inadequate service.--If the commission, after hearing, determines that the retail electric service being furnished or proposed to be furnished by a retail electric supplier to an electric-consuming facility is inadequate and is not likely to be made adequate, the commission may authorize another retail electric supplier to furnish retail electric service to that facility.

(d) Electric-consuming facilities served by another retail electric supplier.--Except as provided in subsection (c), no retail electric supplier shall furnish, make available, render or extend retail electric service to any electric-consuming facility to which the service is being lawfully furnished by another retail electric supplier on July 30, 1975, or to which retail electric service is lawfully commenced thereafter in accordance with this section by another retail electric supplier.

(e) Extension of service.--The provisions of this subchapter shall not preclude any retail electric supplier from extending its service after July 30, 1975, to its own property and facilities, but any facilities involved in the extension shall not be deemed an existing distribution line.

§ 7356. Borderline service.

Notwithstanding the establishment of certified territories pursuant to this subchapter and the obligations and rights to furnish service within the territory, a retail electric supplier may request another retail electric supplier to render service to one or more electric-consuming facilities where, in the judgment of the requesting retail electric supplier, it would be more economical or otherwise in the public interest for the other retail electric supplier to do so and to enter into a contract for that purpose with the other retail electric supplier.

§ 7357. Effect of incorporation, annexation or consolidation.

After July 30, 1975, the inclusion by incorporation, consolidation or annexation of any part of the certified territory of a retail electric supplier within the boundaries of any city or borough shall not in any respect impair or affect the rights of the retail electric supplier to continue and extend electric service at retail throughout any part of its certified territory.

§ 7358. Enforcement of compliance by commission.

Upon proceedings brought by an interested person or by action of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, the commission shall have the jurisdiction to enforce compliance with this subchapter and shall have jurisdiction to prohibit the furnishing of retail electric service by any retail electric supplier except in its certified territory or territories or where lawfully serving and, in connection with the enforcement and prohibition, to exercise all powers granted by this subchapter or otherwise to the commission.

§ 7359. Expenses.

(a) General rule.--The expenses of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission in administering this subchapter shall be assessed by the commission against the affected retail electric suppliers on the following basis:

(1) Expenses which relate to the preparation or review of maps to establish the certified territory of a single retail electric supplier in any county or other area where there is no other retail electric supplier shall be assessed solely to such single retail electric supplier.

(2) Expenses which relate to the preparation or review of maps to establish the certified territories of two or more retail electric suppliers in any county or other area where there are two or more retail electric suppliers shall be assessed in equal shares among such retail electric suppliers.

(3) Expenses which relate to the consideration and disposition of alleged errors pursuant to section 7354(e) (relating to examination and correction of maps) and the consideration and disposition of proposed adjustments pursuant to section 7354(f) (relating to adjustment of certified territories) shall be assessed in equal shares among the retail electric suppliers affected thereby.

(4) Expenses which relate to the enforcement by the commission of compliance with this subchapter shall be assessed in equal shares against the retail electric supplier or suppliers to which an order of enforcement is directed. If the enforcement proceedings were initiated by a retail electric supplier or suppliers and if no order of enforcement is issued by the commission, the expenses shall be assessed in equal shares against the retail electric supplier or suppliers initiating the proceedings.

(5) Any other expenses of the commission shall be assessed by the commission in equal shares among the retail electric suppliers that are subject to this subchapter.

(b) Estimated expenses.--The commission may, if it deems such action appropriate, assess expenses on the basis of estimates made by it with appropriate adjustment or credit after final determination of the expenses.

§ 7521. Special powers and limitations.

(a) General rule.--Each association shall have power (in addition to or limitation of the powers conferred by section 1502 (relating to general powers) or 5502 (relating to general powers)):

(b) Enumeration unnecessary.--It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of the association the powers enumerated in this chapter.

§ 7522. Records of salary or other payments.

Every association shall keep a record of all salaries, per diem payments or other remuneration paid to each officer and director by the association in addition to remuneration received for agricultural commodities marketed through the association.

§ 7523. Members.

An association shall admit to membership only persons who are engaging in agriculture, including both tenants and landlords receiving a share of the crop, and cooperative agricultural associations of such producers who agree to patronize the association in accordance with the uniform terms prescribed by it, and only such persons shall be regarded as eligible members of an association. The bylaws may prescribe additional qualifications for membership but shall not enlarge the class eligible for membership specified in this section.

§ 7524. Issuance of shares.

(a) General rule.--Every association without capital stock shall issue a certificate of membership to each member. Every association with capital stock shall issue a certificate of common shares to each member certifying the number of shares of stock held by him. An association shall issue common shares or a membership certificate only to persons eligible for membership upon such terms and conditions as shall be provided in the bylaws. Fractional shares may be issued.

(b) Voting rights.--Each eligible member shall be entitled to only one vote on each question that may be presented at any meeting of the members regardless of the number of shares or amount of membership capital owned by him.

(e) Evidence of equity in assets.--The association may, from time to time, issue to any patron a certificate or other evidence of the equity of the patron in any fund, capital investment or other asset of the association. The certificate or other evidence of equity may bear interest at a rate not in excess of two points under the average treasury bill rate for the 12 months preceding the date on which the payment is made and may be transferred only to the association or to such other person as may be approved by the association.

(f) Dividends.--Dividends may be paid on any shares and dividends on preferred shares may be cumulative if so provided in the articles. An association shall have a lien on all of its issued shares and dividends declared or accrued thereon for all indebtedness of the holders thereof to the association if provision therefor is stated on the face of the share certificate.

§ 7525. Sale, transfer or redemption of shares.

(a) General rule.--The common shares of an association may be transferred only with the consent of the association and on the books of the association and then only to persons eligible to own shares in the association. No purported assignment or transfer of the shares shall pass to any ineligible person any right or privilege on account of the shares or any vote or voice in the management or affairs of the association.

(b) Redemption or conversion.--In the event a holder of common shares has done no business with an association for a period of 12 months or in the event the board of directors of an association finds that any of the common shares has come into the hands of any person who is not eligible for membership or that the holder thereof has ceased to be an eligible member, the holder shall have no rights or privileges on account of the shares or vote or voice in the management or the affairs of the association (other than the right to participate in accordance with law in case of dissolution and to receive the book or par value of the shares, whichever is less, in the event of its sale or transfer as provided in this subsection), and the association shall have the right at its option:

(1) to redeem the shares at their book or par value, whichever is less;

(2) to require the transfer of any such shares at such book or par value, whichever is less, to any person eligible to hold the shares; or

(3) to require the holder of any such shares to convert the shares into preferred shares of equal value.

In exercising its right to redeem or to require the transfer or conversion of shares, if the holder fails to deliver the certificate evidencing the shares for cancellation or transfer, an association may cancel the certificate on its books and issue a new certificate for common or preferred shares, as the case may be, to the party entitled thereto.

(c) Preferred shares.--The preferred shares of an association may be transferred only on the books of the association, and the bylaws may provide that the association shall have the option, at any time, to redeem the preferred shares at par value, plus declared or accrued dividends.

(d) Notice on certificates.--Any restriction or option which an association places upon the transfer or sale of any of its outstanding shares and any association option retained thereon shall be printed on each share certificate.

(e) Force majeure.--A member shall not lose his membership in the association under this section by his failure to do business with it if the failure is due to an act of God unless the period of time involved is at least 24 months.

§ 7526. Termination of membership.

(a) General rule.--Under the terms and conditions prescribed in the bylaws, a member of an association without capital stock shall lose his membership and his right to vote if he ceases to belong to the class eligible for membership or has done no business with an association for a period of 12 months.

(b) Valuation of and payment for membership.--After a member has notified an association without capital stock of his withdrawal or after the adoption of a resolution by the board terminating his membership, the board shall appraise the value in money of his membership interest in the association and shall determine and fix the manner in which the association shall pay him the value of his interest unless the member, with the consent of the association, transfers his certificate of membership. Certificates of membership in an association without capital stock shall not be transferred without the consent of the association.

(c) Force majeure.--A member shall not lose his membership in the association under this section by his failure to do business with it if the failure is due to an act of God unless the period of time involved is at least 24 months.

§ 7527. Voting by proxy or mail.

(a) General rule.--Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, no member may vote by proxy or by mail. No unrevoked proxy shall be valid more than 11 months from the date of its execution. If voting by mail is permitted, absent members may, under rules prescribed by the bylaws, be permitted to vote on specific questions by written ballot prepared by the association and sent by mail to or deposited with the secretary or other designated officer of the association.

(b) Action on marketing programs.--Except for day-to-day operating decisions relating to existing programs, no association shall vote for its members on any new programs or substantially modified proposals other than those regulated by Federal or State agencies affecting existing marketing or marketing development programs or amendments thereto unless it has either first obtained approval of the delegates or conducted a mail poll of its membership, and in such later event apprised the members of their rights to cast a vote and method of voting under the program and notified its membership of the results and its intentions at least five days prior to casting its vote. If proxy voting is allowed by the bylaws of the association, the proxy shall be valid only for the particular date and the specific issue for which the vote is called.

§ 7528. Meetings.

There shall be at least one meeting of members or delegates each year. Annual and special membership or delegate meetings shall be governed by the bylaws.

§ 7529. Fundamental changes.

(a) General rule.--An association, by action of its members or delegates, may amend its articles of incorporation in the manner provided by the applicable provisions of this part except that:

(1) No amendment shall be adopted without the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members or delegates voting thereon.

(2) No amendment affecting the priority or preferential rights of any outstanding stock shall be adopted without the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the holders of the outstanding stock affected.

(3) Any association not having capital stock may convert into an association with capital stock by amending its articles to set forth a description of the shares of each class which are to be issued and a statement of the voting rights, preferences, limitations and relative rights granted to or imposed upon the shares of each class but only if the conversion is proposed by three-fourths of the board of directors.

(b) Procedure.--Written notice shall, not less than 15 days before the meeting of members or delegates called for the purpose of considering the proposed amendment or any other fundamental change, be given to each member or shareholder of record. A notice of an amendment under subsection (a)(3) shall set forth, in addition to the information otherwise required by the appropriate provisions of this part, a complete description of the shares proposed to be issued upon the conversion and the manner of carrying the conversion into effect.

(c) Post-approval report.--Whenever an amendment of the articles of an association is approved, the association shall notify each member within 30 days after the filing of articles of amendment by sending to each member a copy of the filed amendment and, in the case of a conversion, a complete description of the shares issued by the association.

Cross References. Section 7529 is referred to in section 7524 of this title.

§ 7530. Bylaws.

(a) General rule.--The bylaws may provide for the following matters:

(1) The time, place and manner of calling and conducting meetings of the members or delegates and the number of members or delegates (which may be less than a majority) that shall constitute a quorum.

(2) The manner of voting and the conditions upon which members or delegates may vote at general and special meetings.

(3) Subject to any provision thereon in the articles of association and in this chapter, the number, qualifications, eligibility requirements, manner of nomination, duties and terms of office of directors and officers, the time of their election and mode and manner of giving notice thereof.

(4) The time, place and manner for calling and holding meetings of the directors and any executive committee and the number that shall constitute a quorum.

(5) Rules consistent with law and the articles of association for the management of the association, the establishment of any election districts, the making of contracts, the issuance, redemption and transfer of shares, the relative rights, duties, interests and preferences of members and shareholders and the mode, manner and effect of expulsion of a member.

(6) Any other provisions deemed necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of the association.

(7) Penalties for violations of the bylaws.

(b) Procedure.--Bylaws authorized to be made by the board of directors may be amended or repealed and new bylaws may be adopted by the members or delegates. Delegates may prescribe that any bylaw made by them shall not be amended or repealed by the directors, and members may provide that any bylaw made by them shall not be amended or repealed by either the directors or the delegates. The association shall notify each member of a proposed change in the bylaws by sending to each member, at least 15 days prior to any vote on the proposed change, a copy of the proposed bylaw along with the time, date, place and manner of voting for the proposed changes. Members may amend or repeal bylaws adopted by the directors or the delegates by filing with the secretary of the association a petition signed by 25% of the voting membership and setting forth the text of the proposed change. The secretary shall call a special meeting or special vote of the association within 30 days of the receipt of the petition. When a special meeting is called, at least 10% of the voting membership shall be present to change the bylaws. Whenever a proposed bylaw change is approved, the association shall mail each member a copy of the approved bylaw within 30 days of the approval.

§ 7531. Directors.

(a) General rule.--The business and affairs of the association shall be managed under the direction of a board of not less than five directors who shall be natural persons of full age. All directors shall be members. The first directors shall serve until the first annual meeting of the association at which time their successors shall be elected by the members of the association. Thereafter, a director shall hold office for a term of not less than one year nor more than three years and until his successor has been elected and qualified. Every election for a director shall be by secret ballot. A director may succeed himself.

(b) Election by districts.--The bylaws may provide that the territory in which the association has members shall be divided into districts and that the directors shall be elected according to such districts, either directly or by district delegates elected by the members in that district. In such case, the bylaws shall specify or the board of directors shall determine the number of directors to be elected by each district and the manner and method of dividing the directors and of districting and redistricting of the territory in which the association has members. The board of directors may use such standards as are reasonable for assigning directors and districting and redistricting the territory in which the association has members. The bylaws or the board of directors may provide for dividing districts into locals and for the election of district delegates at local meetings of members. The bylaws shall prescribe the procedures by which districts shall elect directors. The board of directors shall hear and decide any controversy arising out of a district election and its decisions shall be incontestable except for fraud. In any case in which the election of directors is by districts, the board shall fill a vacancy with a person who resides in or is a member of a local in the district in which the vacancy exists.

(c) Classified board.--If the bylaws so provide, the directors of an association may be classified in respect to the time for which they severally hold office. In such case, each class shall be as nearly equal in number as possible, the term of office of at least one class shall expire in each year, and the members of a class shall not be elected for a shorter period than one year or for a longer period than three years. If, at any meeting, directors of more than one class are to be elected, each class of directors to be elected shall be elected in a separate election.

(d) Educational program.--The Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the College of Agriculture of The Pennsylvania State University, shall develop and implement an educational program relating to the powers, duties, functions and responsibilities of directors of associations. The Secretary of Agriculture shall appoint an advisory council consisting of nine individuals, including members and directors of associations, two association managers and other interested individuals, who shall advise the department on the development of the educational program. Two members of the advisory council shall be managers of associations. In addition, the department shall furnish to each association director, free of charge, when first elected as a director, an updated copy of this chapter and annually thereafter any amendments or replacements thereof.

§ 7532. Removal of directors.

A director may be removed from office by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members present and voting at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose or, where the bylaws provide for the election of directors by districts, by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members or delegates residing in or representing the district from which he was elected. The bylaws shall provide for the filing of charges, the giving of notice thereof, an opportunity to be heard and the procedures under which a director may be removed.

§ 7533. Officers.

The board shall elect a president, a secretary and a treasurer and may elect one or more vice presidents and any other officers as may be authorized in the bylaws. The president and at least one of the vice presidents must be members. Any two of the offices of vice president, secretary and treasurer may be combined in one person.

§ 7534. Marketing arrangements.

(a) General rule.--An association and its members may make and execute contracts requiring the members to obtain all or any part of specific services from the association or to sell or deliver all or any part of their specified agricultural products to or through the association or any facilities to be created by the association. The contract may provide that the association may sell or resell the products sold or delivered by its members, with or without taking title thereto, and pay over to its members the resale price, after deducting all necessary overhead costs, expenses, valuation reserves, interest, dividends on common and preferred shares and such deductions for capital and other purposes as may be specified in the contract or bylaws of an association. Each marketing or service contract shall contain a provision which shall specify a reasonable period in each year during which any contracting member of an association, upon giving notice as prescribed in the contract, may terminate the contract.

(b) Enforcement.--The bylaws or the marketing or service contract may provide:

(1) For applying patronage refunds or savings allocated to any member or other patron toward the payment for liquidated damages specified in the contract to be paid to an association by the member or other patron upon the breach by him of any provision of the marketing or service contract.

(2) That the member will pay all costs, premiums for bonds, expenses and fees in case any action is brought upon the contract by the association. Any such provision shall be valid and enforceable in the courts of this Commonwealth.

(3) That the association shall have the option to redeem the voting shares at book value or par value, whichever is lower, plus declared dividends, or the membership certificate, whenever any contract between the association and a member has been canceled in accordance with the terms or conditions of the contract or by reason of breach of the contract by the member.

(c) Injunction.--In the event of any such breach or threatened breach of the marketing contract by a member, the association shall be entitled to an injunction to prevent further breach of the contract and to specific performance thereof. Pending the adjudication of the action, and upon filing a verified complaint showing the breach or threatened breach and upon filing a sufficient bond, the association shall be entitled to a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction against the member. The right to an injunction shall be in addition to the remedy provided in subsection (b).

(d) Inducing breach; spreading false reports.--Any person who knowingly induces any member of an association to breach his marketing contract with the association shall be liable to the association for the full amount of damages sustained by it by reason of the breach, and any person who maliciously and knowingly spreads false reports about the finances or management of the association shall be liable to the association in an action for the actual damage which it may sustain by reason of the false reports and punitive damages. The association shall be entitled to an injunction against any such person to prevent further injury to the association. In any action brought by an association pursuant to this subsection, the association shall be entitled to, in addition to any other recovery or remedy, reasonable attorney fees involved in such matter.

§ 7535. Patronage distributions.

(a) General rule.--The net proceeds or savings of an association shall be apportioned, distributed and paid periodically on the basis of patronage to those persons entitled to receive them, at such times and in such manner as the bylaws shall provide. The bylaws may provide that the net proceeds or savings may be restricted to members or may be made at the same or a different rate for member and nonmember patrons. The bylaws may contain any reasonable provisions for the apportionment and charging of net losses except that no member shall thereby become liable for the debts of the association beyond any money or other property delivered by the member to the association. The bylaws may provide that any distribution to a nonmember eligible for membership may be credited to the nonmember until the amount thereof equals the value of a membership certificate or a common share of an association.

(b) Method of disbursement.--The apportionment, distribution and payment of net proceeds or savings required by subsection (a) may be in cash, credits, capital shares, certificates of indebtedness, revolving fund certificates, letters of advice or other securities or certificates issued by an association or by any affiliated domestic or foreign association. Apportionment and distribution of its net proceeds or savings or losses may be separately determined for, and be based upon the patronage of, single or multiple pools or particular departments of an association, or as to particular commodities, supplies or services, or such apportionment and distribution may be based upon classification of patronage according to the type thereof.

(c) Minimum participation.--An association may provide in its bylaws the minimum amount of any single annual patronage transaction which shall be taken into account for the purpose of participation in allocation and distribution of net proceeds or savings or net losses under this section.

(d) Method of accounting.--For the purposes of this section, net proceeds or savings or net losses shall be computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to cooperative associations, and after deducting from gross proceeds or savings all costs and expenses of operation and any dividends paid upon capital stock and interest paid upon certificates or other evidence of equity in any fund, capital investment or other assets of an association.

§ 7536. Audit of operations.

(a) General rule.--At the close of each fiscal year, a complete certified audit of the operations of the association shall be made by a qualified certified public accountant or by a qualified public accountant, employed by the board of directors, the written report of whom shall include the balance sheet, operating statement, commissions, salaries and other remunerations of managers and officers and other proper information and shall be submitted to the members at the next regular meeting. Within six months after the expiration of the fiscal year for which made, the secretary of the association shall file a copy of the certified audit in the Department of Agriculture upon a form prescribed by the department. The secretary of the association shall also include in the yearly audit report to the department a list of the current officers and directors and their addresses.

(b) Exceptions.--The annual audit of an association with annual gross sales of $100,000 or less may be performed by an audit committee of three or more members of the association appointed by the board, at least one of whom shall be a member of the board of directors. The members of the committee need not be certified public accountants or public accountants.

(c) Enforcement.--Any association which fails, within 120 days from the close of the fiscal year, to file with the department the certified audit required by subsection (a) shall be notified by certified mail by the department that the certified audit must be filed within 60 days from the date of mailing of the notice and that, upon failure to file the certified audit within the time so limited, the department will file in the Department of State a statement of dissolution under this subsection. If the certified audit is not filed in the department within such 60-day period, the department shall file in the Department of State, with respect to each such defaulting association, a statement of dissolution which shall identify the association. Upon the filing of the statement, the articles of the association shall be deemed forfeited for failure to comply with the provisions of this section. However, the forfeiture shall not prejudice the rights of creditors and members in and to any property or assets of or belonging to the association. The department shall annually, on or before April 1 of each year, furnish each existing association and make public a listing of the status of existing associations. Any association which has so automatically forfeited its articles shall be reinstated as an association under this chapter if the unfiled certified audit is submitted to the department within 90 days after such automatic forfeiture or within any extension thereof granted by the department, which shall thereupon file in the Department of State with respect to the association a notice of withdrawal of statement of dissolution stating that the association has complied with the provisions of this subsection. In such event, no statement of revival or new articles of incorporation need be filed in the Department of State, and the association shall resume its status as a subsisting corporation. The department shall review such yearly certified audits and issue such reports and recommendations to each member of the board of directors of the association as the department deems necessary.

(d) Confidentiality.--No person shall, without the consent or authorization of the association, except for official purposes or in obedience to judicial process, make or permit any disclosure whereby any information contained in a certified audit may be identified as having been furnished by the association. No person shall knowingly exercise or attempt to exercise any powers, privileges or franchises for an association, given by this chapter, while the articles of the association are forfeit unless that person is, and discloses that he is, acting to reinstate the good standing of the association under this chapter or is acting to wind up the affairs of the association. A person violating the prohibitions set forth in this subsection commits a misdemeanor of the third degree.

(e) Withdrawal.--A certified audit shall not be withdrawn without the approval of the board of directors.

§ 7537. Contract assignments to association.

If any contract authorized by a cooperative contains an assignment to the association of any part or all of funds due or to become due the member during the life of the contract for any product produced or to be produced by him or for any services performed or to be performed in producing any product, any person who accepts or receives the product from the member is bound by the assignment after receiving written notice from the association and the member of the amount and duration of the assignment. However, as to any seasonal crop, if no funds are paid or become payable by any person under such an assignment for a period of two consecutive years during the life of the contract, thereafter the assignment shall not be binding upon any person who receives or accepts the product from the member until the assignment is reaffirmed by the member in writing and written notice thereof is given by the association or the member. Any such reaffirmation shall continue to be effective during the life of the contract until another lapse of two consecutive years occurs.

§ 7538. Exemption from tax on capital stock and indebtedness.

No State or local tax shall be levied or placed upon the capital stock of an association or upon any scrip, bonds, certificates or other evidences of indebtedness issued by such association. The association shall not be required to file in the Department of Revenue, or with any other State or local official of this Commonwealth, the reports relative to such taxes as are or may be required of corporations not exempt from the payment of such taxes.

membership shares only to those individuals who fulfill all requirements for member status upon terms and conditions provided in the articles of incorporation. Each member may own only one membership share, and only members may own membership shares. A member is entitled to one vote per membership share on each question that may be presented at any meeting of the members, regardless of the number of shares of stock or membership capital owned by the member. Membership shares shall be issued for a fee determined by the board of directors. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a membership share entitles a member to the rights and obligations of a stockholder of a corporation organized under this title. Upon voluntary or involuntary termination of a member's work in the corporation, the membership share shall be transferred back to the corporation at the time of the termination. The redemption price of a membership share shall be determined solely by reference to the member's internal capital account under section 7706 (relating to internal capital accounts and net worth).

(b) Voting power.--No capital stock other than membership shares shall be granted voting power in a corporation except as provided in section 7720 (relating to amendments of articles) and the articles of incorporation.

(d) Payment for stock.--No corporation may issue a membership share, and no certificate of stock may be issued until fully paid for, except that promissory notes may be accepted by the corporation as full or partial payment if the promissory note requires payment by regular payroll deductions commencing on the date of the member's acceptance for membership in the corporation. The corporation shall hold the membership share or stock as security for the payment of the note, but retention as security shall not affect the member's right to vote and hold office.

(e) Fractional shares and scrip.--Fractional shares of and scrip for common and preferred stock may not be issued by the corporation.

(f) Form of certificates.--Certificates representing shares, membership shares and evidences of a person's equity in a fund, capital investment or other asset of the corporation shall be signed by the president, vice president, treasurer or assistant treasurer and the secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation. Facsimiles of signatures are acceptable. These certificates may be sealed with the seal of the corporation or a facsimile.

(g) Dividend and lien.--Dividends may be paid on preferred stock and may be cumulative if the articles of incorporation so provide. A corporation shall have a lien on all of its outstanding preferred stock and dividends declared or accrued for all indebtedness of the holders to the corporation if provision for a lien is stated on the face of the certificate of stock.

(h) Status of membership.--A membership is not a security as defined in section 102 of the act of December 5, 1972 (P.L.1280, No.284), known as the Pennsylvania Securities Act of 1972. Sale, redemption and other transactions with respect to membership shares are not governed by the Pennsylvania Securities Act of 1972, except that Part IV of that act, relating to fraudulent and prohibited practices, applies.

(i) Sale, transfer and redemption of stock.--The sale, transfer and redemption of stock in the corporation other than membership shares is subject to the Pennsylvania Securities Act of 1972.

(j) Issuance without other first offer.--Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a corporation may issue shares without first offering them to shareholders of any class.

§ 7706. Internal capital accounts and net worth.

(b) Types of accounts.--Internal capital accounts shall be of two types: individual internal capital accounts, one for each member, and a nonindividuated, collective internal capital account, which shall be called the collective reserve account.

(c) Net worth.--The net worth of the corporation shall be reflected in:

(1) The internal capital accounts.

(2) The sum of the par value of all outstanding stock with par value, other than membership shares.

(3) The stated value of evidences of equity in a fund, capital investment or other asset of the corporation.

(d) Procedure.--A corporation shall credit the paid-in membership fee and additional paid-in capital of a member to the member's individual internal capital account and shall also record the apportionment of retained net earnings or net losses to the member's account in accordance with patronage, by appropriately crediting or debiting the member's account. The collective reserve account shall reflect paid-in capital, retained net earnings and net losses not allocated to the capital accounts or members or not attributable to funds under subsection (c) (1) and (3).

(e) Adjustment of balance.--The balances in all of the individual internal capital accounts and the collective reserve account, if any, shall be adjusted at the end of each accounting period so that the sum of these balances and of the amounts under subsection (c) (2) and (3) is equal to the net worth of the corporation.

(f) Use of funds.--Moneys allocated to the internal capital accounts may be used for corporate purposes as determined by the board of directors.

Cross References. Section 7706 is referred to in section 7705 of this title.

§ 7707. Voting.

No stockholder or member may vote by proxy or by mail.

§ 7708. Acceptance and termination of membership.

The articles of incorporation shall establish qualifications and the method of acceptance and termination of members. No person may be accepted as a member unless employed by the corporation on a full-time or part-time basis.

§ 7709. Power to buy, sell or trade.

A corporation may buy from, sell to and trade or deal with its members or other persons.

§ 7710. Individual liability of members.

Neither members of a corporation nor the estates of members shall be individually liable for the debts of the corporation.

§ 7711. Corporate powers.

Each corporation has the following powers:

(1) To exist for the period of time set forth in its articles of incorporation unless sooner dissolved by operation of law or under this chapter.

(2) To maintain and defend judicial proceedings by the name specified in the articles of incorporation.

(3) To adopt and use a common seal and alter the same.

(4) To hold, purchase, lease and transfer real and personal property as necessary or proper to effect the purposes of the corporation.

(5) To elect a board of directors, which has the power to appoint officers, agents and employees as necessary; to prescribe their duties; to require bonds of them; and to dismiss them in accordance with the bylaws.

(6) To make bylaws.

(7) To make contracts and to assist or join with persons to effect the activities authorized by its articles of incorporation and conducive to or expedient for the interest or benefit of the corporation and to exercise powers necessary or proper for the accomplishment of the purposes of the corporation.

(8) To borrow money necessary to the conduct of its operations; to issue notes, bonds and other evidence of indebtedness; and to give security in the form of mortgage or otherwise.

(9) In furtherance of corporation purposes, to make loans or advances to its members and patrons or to subsidiary and affiliated persons or their members and to purchase or acquire, endorse, discount or sell evidence of debt, obligation or security.

(10) To establish and accumulate a collective reserve account, surplus of capital and other funds authorized by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

(11) To foster membership in the corporation and to solicit patrons by advertising or by educational or other means.

(12) To issue and to sell common and preferred stock.

(13) To own shares of the capital stock of, to hold membership in and to hold bonds or other obligations of other workers' corporations and to exercise all the rights of ownership, including the right to vote.

(14) To pay pensions and to establish pension plans, pension trusts and other incentive plans for its directors, officers and employees.

(15) To indemnify, under section 7718 (relating to indemnity), a director or officer or former director or officer of the corporation or a person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation in which it holds membership or owns shares of capital stock or of which it is a creditor.

(16) To make contributions and donations for the public welfare or for religious, charitable, scientific or educational purposes.

(17) To merge or consolidate with other workers' cooperative corporations.

(18) To dissolve and wind up.

(19) To exercise incidental powers as necessary or proper in the conduct of its operations.

§ 7712. Investment of capital stock in other corporations.

If the articles permit, a corporation may, by a majority vote of its members at a meeting specially convened, authorize the directors to invest, in the name of the corporation, an amount of its internal capital accounts, including both individual capital accounts and the collective reserve accounts, in the capital stock of any other domestic, foreign or alien workers' cooperative corporations. The corporation may, by a majority vote of its members at a meeting specially convened, permit an investment in the nonvoting preferred stock of the corporation by any other domestic, foreign or alien workers' cooperative corporation.

§ 7713. Meetings.

After the organization of a corporation, the incorporators shall hold an organizational meeting at a time and place fixed by the board of directors and shall adopt a set of bylaws. Not less than ten days' written notice of the meeting shall be given to each incorporator. Thereafter, there shall be at least one meeting of members each year. Annual and special membership meetings shall be governed by the corporation's bylaws. The bylaws shall provide for the giving of notice to members of each meeting of the corporation. For all meetings of the corporation, notice as provided in this section need not be given to members or other stockholders to whom the notice may be required by this chapter if a written waiver of the notice is executed before or after the meeting by each individual and is filed with the records of the meeting.

§ 7714. Records.

(a) Records requirement.--A corporation shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business a record of the proceedings of the members and of the directors and the original or a copy of its bylaws, including amendments to date, certified by the secretary of the corporation, and shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar a share register giving the names of the members, their respective addresses and the number and classes of shares held by each. A corporation shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business appropriate, complete and accurate books or records of account, including a record of all salaries, per diem payments and other remunerations paid to each officer and director by the corporation and remuneration received for the corporation's business transactions.

(b) Examination and copies.--A member, upon written demand, has a right to examine during the usual hours for business, for any proper purpose, the share register, books or records of account and records of the proceedings of the members and directors and to make copies or extracts. A proper purpose is a purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a stockholder. If an attorney or other agent is the person who seeks the right of inspection, the demand shall be accompanied by a power of attorney or other writing which authorizes the attorney or other agent to act on behalf of the member. The demand shall be directed to the corporation at its registered office in this Commonwealth or at its principal place of business.

(c) Remedy to compel inspection.--

(1) If the corporation refuses to permit an inspection sought by a member under subsection (b) or does not reply to the demand within five business days after the demand has been made, the member may apply to the court of common pleas of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located for an order to compel inspection. The court of common pleas has exclusive original jurisdiction to determine whether or not the person seeking inspection is entitled to the inspection sought. The court may summarily order the corporation to permit the member to inspect the material and to make copies or extracts. The court may order the corporation to furnish to the member a list of its members as of a specific date on condition that the member first pay to the corporation the reasonable cost of obtaining and furnishing the list and on other conditions as the court deems appropriate.

(2) If the member seeks to inspect the books and records of the corporation, other than its register or list of members, the member must first establish both of the following:

(i) That the member has complied with the provisions of this section respecting the form and manner of making demand for inspection of the document.

(ii) That the inspection sought is for a proper purpose.

(3) If the member seeks to inspect the share register or list of members of the corporation and the member has complied with the provisions of this subsection respecting the form and manner of making demand for inspection of the documents, the burden of proof is on the corporation to establish that the inspection the member seeks is for an improper purpose. The court may, at its discretion, prescribe limitations or conditions with reference to the inspection or award other relief as the court deems just and proper. The court may order books, documents and records, pertinent extracts or authenticated copies to be brought within this Commonwealth and kept in this Commonwealth upon terms and conditions as it prescribes.

§ 7715. Audit.

(a) Procedure.--At the close of each fiscal year, a complete certified audit of the operations of the corporation shall be made by a qualified certified public accountant employed by the board of directors, a written report of which shall include the balance sheet, operating statement, commissions, salaries and other remunerations of directors, officers and employees and other proper information. The audit shall be submitted to the members at the next regular meeting. The annual audit of a corporation with annual gross sales of $100,000 or less may be performed by an audit committee of three or more members of the corporation appointed by the board of directors; however, one of the three members must be a member of the board of directors. The members of the committee need not be certified public accountants or public accountants.

(b) Withdrawal of audit and improper audits.--A certified audit may not be withdrawn without approval of the board of directors. The board of directors may seek legal recourse if the audit is conducted improperly.

§ 7716. Directors and officers.

(a) Directors.--

(1) The business of the corporation shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors, who shall be natural persons. At least a majority of the board must be members. The first directors shall serve until the first annual meeting of the corporation, at which time their successors shall be elected by the members of the corporation. Thereafter, a director shall hold office for a term of not less than one year nor more than three years and until a successor is elected and qualified. In an election for directors, a member has the right to cast the number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected; and the member may cast the whole number of votes for one director or may distribute them among several candidates.

An election for a director shall be by secret ballot. A director may be elected to successive terms.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in the bylaws:

(i) A director shall be elected for a term of at least one year, except that the first directors shall serve only until the first annual meeting.

(ii) Vacancies in the board of directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors, shall be filled by a majority of the remaining members of the board, though less than a quorum. A person so elected shall be a director until a successor is elected by the members, who shall make such an election at the next annual meeting of the members or at a special meeting for that purpose.

(iii) The meetings of the board of directors may be held at a place determined by a majority of the directors.

(iv) A quorum for the transaction of business consists of a majority of the directors in office; and, of those present, at least a majority must be members of the corporation. The acts of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present are the acts of the board of directors.

(v) The board of directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the board, appoint two or more directors as an executive committee, which, to the extent provided in the resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the board of directors.

(vi) An action taken at a meeting of the directors or members of the executive committee may be taken without a meeting, if consent in writing setting forth the action taken is signed by all of the directors or all of the members of the executive committee, as the case may be. The consent shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

(vii) Each director shall be provided with an updated copy of the articles of the corporation along with proposed amendments.

(3) If the bylaws so provide, the directors of a corporation may be classified in respect to the time for which they shall hold office. In this case each class shall be as nearly equal in number as possible; the term of office of at least one class shall expire in each year; and the members of a class shall not be elected for a shorter period than one year or for a longer period than three years. If, at a meeting, directors of more than one class are to be elected, each class of directors shall be elected in a separate election.

(4) A director may be removed from office by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members present and voting at a regular meeting or a special meeting called for that purpose. A director may be removed from office for cause by a vote of not less than a majority of the directors then in office, but this removal may be reversed by a vote by a majority of the members present and voting at a special meeting called for that purpose. The bylaws shall provide for the filing of charges of cause, the giving of notice of the charges, an opportunity to be heard and the procedures under which a director may be removed.

(b) Officers.--

(1) The board shall elect a president, a secretary and a treasurer, and may elect one or more vice presidents, and other officers as authorized in the bylaws. Officers must be members. Any two of the offices of vice president, secretary and treasurer may be held by one person.

(2) An officer may be removed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors if, in their judgment, the best interest of the corporation will be served by removal.

§ 7717. Patronage distributions.

(a) Procedure.--Net earnings of a corporation may be apportioned, distributed and paid periodically on the basis of patronage to those persons entitled to receive them, at a time and in a manner as the bylaws provide. The distributions shall be designated as patronage allocations.

(b) Method of payment.--The apportionment, distribution and payment of net earnings under subsection (a) may be in cash or written notices of allocation issued by the corporation.

(c) Minimum transaction amount.--A corporation may provide in its bylaws the minimum amount of a single patronage transaction, which shall be taken into account for the purpose of participation in allocation and distribution of net earnings under this section.

(d) Periodic redemption.--The bylaws of a workers' cooperative corporation shall provide for periodic redemption of written notices of allocation.

(e) Interest.--The bylaws may provide for the corporation to pay or credit interest on the balance of each member's internal capital account.

(f) Termination redemption.--The articles of incorporation shall provide for the recall and redemption of the membership share upon the voluntary or involuntary termination of membership in the corporation. The price of the redemption shall be equal to the sum of the membership fee and any other capital paid in by the member, adjusted by the amount of interest accrued and by distributions of net earnings as provided in the bylaws. No redemption may be made which would render the corporation insolvent.

(g) Net earnings.--For purposes of this section, net earnings shall be computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

§ 7718. Indemnity.

(a) Mandatory.--A corporation shall indemnify a person acting as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or acting at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another person against legal expenses, including attorney fees, reasonably incurred in a civil or criminal action in which the person to be indemnified is successful.

(b) Discretionary.--A corporation may indemnify a person acting as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or acting at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another person against liability and legal expenses, including attorney fees, judgments, fines and settlements, reasonably incurred in a civil or criminal action if the person to be indemnified was unsuccessful but acted in good faith and in a manner that the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, in a criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. The adverse determination of an action does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person to be indemnified did not act in good faith, did not act in a manner that the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation or had reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

(c) Interest of corporation.--This section applies even if the action is on behalf of or inures to the benefit of the corporation unless the liability for which indemnification is sought is based on negligence in the performance of a duty owed to the corporation.

Cross References. Section 7718 is referred to in section 7711 of this title.

§ 7719. Unlawful dividends.

(a) Insolvency.--For shares of the corporation other than membership shares, the board of directors may declare and the corporation may pay dividends on its outstanding shares except when the corporation is insolvent or the payment would render the corporation insolvent. If a dividend is paid, the directors under whose administration the payment was made, except those who have caused their dissent to be entered on the minutes of the meeting at which the action was authorized and those who, being absent at the time, have promptly filed their written objection with the secretary of the corporation upon learning of the action, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation in an amount equal to the amount of the unlawful dividend.

(b) Reliance on financial statements.--A director is not liable under this section if the director relied and acted in good faith upon financial statements of the corporation represented to be correct by the president of the corporation or by the officer having charge of the corporation's books of account or upon written reports, issued by an independent public or certified public accountant, which fairly purports to reflect the financial condition of the corporation.

(c) Liability to corporation.--If an unlawful dividend is paid, each stockholder is liable to the corporation in an amount equal to the amount of the unlawful dividend to the stockholder. An action to enforce this liability must be brought within two years from the date of the receipt of the dividend.

§ 7720. Amendments of articles.

(a) Purpose and voting.--A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation for any purpose authorized by this chapter, including an increase in the amount of its authorized capital stock, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of its members voting at a general meeting or at the special meeting called for that purpose. No amendment affecting the priority or preferential rights of outstanding stock may be adopted until the consent of the holders of that stock is obtained by a vote at a special meeting called for that purpose. In such a vote each stockholder whose rights are affected shall have only one vote per share, and the margin necessary for the adoption of the amendment is a majority of the outstanding shares in that class of stock unless a greater vote is required by the articles of incorporation. If an amendment affects the right of more than one class of stock, then the consent of each class of stockholder affected shall be obtained by voting in the manner described in this subsection.

(b) Delivery and filing.--Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be filed in the department. Upon the filing of amendments to the articles, they shall become effective. See section 134 (relating to docketing statement).

(c) Notice of vote.--Each member and, if required by subsection (a), each stockholder shall be notified by the corporation at least 15 days before a vote is taken to amend the articles of incorporation under subsection (a). Notification for proposed amendments to the articles of incorporation shall include a copy of the proposed amendment; a statement of its purpose and effect; and the time, date, place and manner in which the vote will be taken on the proposed amendment. Notice for all meetings provided for in this subsection need not be given to members or other stockholders under subsection (a) if a written waiver of the notice is executed before or after the meeting by each individual entitled to notice and is filed with the records of the meeting.

(d) Notice of approval.--If an amendment to the articles of incorporation is approved, the corporation shall notify each member within 30 days of the approval by sending a copy of the approved amendment to the articles.

(e) Advertisement.--Before or after an amendment has been adopted by the shareholders, the corporation shall advertise its intention to file or the filing of amendments to the articles with the department in a manner similar to that prescribed in section 7703 (relating to articles of incorporation). Advertisements may appear prior to or after the day upon which the articles of amendment are presented to the department and shall set forth briefly:

(1) The name and location of the registered office of the corporation.

(2) A statement that the amendments to the articles are to be or were filed under this chapter.

(3) The nature and character of the amendments.

(4) The time when the amendments to the articles are to be or were filed under this chapter.

(Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.)

1990 Amendment. Act 198 amended subsec. (b), retroactive to June 19, 1989.

References in Text. Section 7703, referred to in this section, was renumbered to section 7704 by Act 198 of 1990.

Cross References. Section 7720 is referred to in section 7705 of this title.

§ 7721. Bylaws.

(a) Adoption, amendment and repeal.--The corporation, before commencing business, shall adopt bylaws not inconsistent with law or its articles of incorporation. The bylaws may be amended in the manner provided by law, the articles of incorporation and the bylaws. The power to amend or repeal the bylaws of a corporation is in the members only, except to the extent that the articles of incorporation require that both the members and the board of directors approve a change. The corporation shall notify each member of a proposed change in the bylaws by sending to each member, at least 15 days prior to a vote on the proposed change, a copy of the proposed change along with the time, date, place and manner of voting for the proposed changes. If a proposed bylaw change is approved, the corporation shall mail each member a copy of the approved change within 30 days of the approval.

(b) Content.--The bylaws may provide for the following matters:

(1) The time, place and manner of calling and conducting meetings of the members and the number of members that constitute a quorum.

(2) The manner of voting and the conditions upon which members may vote at general or special meetings.

(3) Subject to provision in the articles of incorporation and in this chapter, the number, qualifications, eligibility requirements, manner of nomination, duties and terms of office of directors and officers; the time of their election; and mode and manner of giving notice of election.

(4) The time, place and manner for calling and holding meetings of the directors and executive committees and the number that constitutes a quorum.

(5) Rules consistent with law and the articles of incorporation for the management of the corporation; the making of contracts; the issuance, redemption and transfer of stock; the relative rights, duties, interests and preferences of members and stockholders; and the mode, manner and effect of termination of a member.

(6) Any other provisions deemed necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of the corporation.

(7) Penalties for violations of the bylaws.
(Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.)

1990 Amendment. Act 198 amended subsec. (b), retroactive to June 19, 1989.

§ 7722. Benefits bestowed on associations by compliance with this chapter.

A cooperative association, whether incorporated or unincorporated, shall be entitled to all the benefits of this chapter by complying with its provisions; may, by a vote of the majority of the members of the cooperative association taken according to its existing articles of association or bylaws, determine to avail itself of the provisions of this chapter and to assume a corporate name and the powers under a corporate name; and may, by a like vote, transfer to the corporation formed under this chapter all its property. Upon transfer of the property, the corporation to which the property is transferred shall take it in the same manner, to the same extent and with the same effect as the property was previously owned and held by the corporation transferring the property and may, in its corporate name, sue for and collect debts, subscriptions and other benefits belonging to the original association. A corporation taking property under this section shall take it subject to liens and trusts, legal and equitable, to which the property was subject before transfer and shall be liable for all obligations of the previous association to the extent of the value of the property at the time of taking.

§ 7723. Dissolution.

(a) General rule.--A corporation may dissolve and wind up; may merge with other corporations; and may sell to, lease to or exchange with other corporations all or substantially all of its property and assets. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, these actions are governed by Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions) and Subchapter C of Chapter 19 (relating to merger liabilities and sale of assets). A workers' cooperative corporation which has not revoked its election to be governed by this chapter may not merge with one or more corporations organized under any law other than this chapter. If a member objects to a corporation's merger, the member may terminate membership in the corporation. The price of redemption of the member's interest shall be the amount in the member's individual capital account on terms and conditions as the law, the articles of incorporation and the bylaws provide.

(b) Distribution of assets.--Upon dissolution, the assets of a corporation shall be distributed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws. The recipients of the distributed assets shall be limited to the following:

(1) Each individual who is or was a member of the corporation or the individual's estate on the basis of the ratio of the member's patronage to the total patronage of all members during the existence of the corporation.

(2) Holders of shares of stock in the corporation other than membership shares.

(3) Other corporations which are incorporated under this chapter or which meet the requirements of incorporation under this chapter.

(4) Charitable institutions in support of the cooperative movement.

(c) Security interests and indebtedness.--A mortgage, pledge or creation of a security interest is not a sale within the meaning of this section. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, a corporation may create or increase its indebtedness in the manner, to the extent, for the purpose, upon terms and conditions and upon security as authorized by resolution adopted by its board of directors. In this case no authorization or consent of the members is required.

(Oct. 22, 2014, P.L.2640, No.172, eff. July 1, 2015)

2014 Amendment. Act 172 amended subsec. (a).

§ 7724. Conversion to a corporation governed by the Business Corporation Law.

(a) Amendment of articles.--A corporation may revoke its election to be governed by this chapter by filing an adopted amendment to its articles of incorporation with the department.

(b) Conversion of shares and accounts.--When a corporation revokes its election under subsection (a), the amendment to the articles of incorporation shall provide for the conversion of membership shares and internal capital accounts to securities or other property in a manner consistent with this title.

§ 7725. Savings provisions.

(a) General rule.--In relation to a corporation existing on the effective date of this chapter, the provisions of this chapter do not impair or affect an act done; offense committed; right accruing or accrued; or liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred prior to the effective date of this chapter.

(b) Contracts.--This chapter does not impair or affect a contract entered into by a corporation prior to the effective date of this chapter.

§ 7726. Applicability.

(a) General rule.--This chapter shall apply to domestic corporations incorporated under this chapter.

(b) Existing corporations.--This chapter shall apply to existing domestic corporations incorporated under or subject to any prior law of the Commonwealth concerning incorporation and regulation of corporations, whether cooperative or noncooperative, by the filing with the department of a certificate executed under the seal of the corporation, signed by two authorized officers of the corporation and setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The statute by or under which it was created or formed.

(3) A statement that the members or stockholders of the corporation have elected, by a majority vote of the members or stockholders present at a meeting called for such purpose at which a quorum is present, to accept the provisions of this chapter for the government and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

§ 8201. Scope.

(a) Application of subchapter.--This subchapter applies to a general or limited partnership whose internal affairs are governed by or that is formed under the laws of this Commonwealth and that registers under this section. Any partnership that desires to register under this subchapter or to amend or terminate its registration shall deliver to the Department of State for filing a statement of registration, amendment or termination, as the case may be, which shall be signed by a general partner and shall set forth:

- (1) The name of the partnership.
- (2) Either:
  - (i) the address of the principal place of business of the partnership, in the case of a general partnership; or

The effectiveness, amendment or termination of the registration of a partnership under this subchapter shall not be deemed to cause a dissolution of the partnership.

(c) Effect of registration.--As long as the registration under this subchapter is in effect, the partnership shall be governed by the provisions of this subchapter and, to the extent not inconsistent with this subchapter, Chapter 84 (relating to general partnerships) or 86 (relating to limited partnerships). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a domestic or foreign limited liability partnership or limited liability limited partnership shall be treated the same as if it were not registered under this subchapter for purposes of:

- (1) determining whether it is a permissible form of entity in which to conduct the practice of a profession; or

(2) the imposition by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision of any tax or license fee on or with respect to any income, property, privilege, transaction, subject or occupation.

(d) Continuation of registration.--If a limited liability partnership or limited liability limited partnership is dissolved and its business is continued without liquidation of the partnership affairs, the registration under this subchapter of the dissolved partnership shall continue to be applicable to the partnership continuing the business, and it shall not be necessary to make a new filing under this section until such time, if any, as the registration is to be amended or terminated.

(e) Prohibited termination.--A registration under this subchapter may not be terminated while the partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy. See section 8221(f) (relating to annual registration).

(f) Alternative procedure.--In lieu of filing a statement of registration as provided in subsection (a), a limited partnership may register as a limited liability limited partnership by including in its certificate of limited partnership, either originally or by amendment, the statements required by subsection (a)(3) and (4). To terminate its registration, a limited partnership that uses the procedure authorized by this subsection shall amend its certificate of limited partnership to delete the statements required by this subsection.

(g) Constructive notice.--Registration under this section shall constitute constructive notice that the partnership is a limited liability partnership or limited liability limited partnership and that the partners are entitled to the protections from liability provided by this subchapter.

(h) Approval of termination.--In addition to any required approvals under the partnership agreement, the termination of a statement of registration must be approved by the affirmative vote or consent of all the general partners.

(i) Cross references.--See sections 134 (relating to docketing statement) and 135 (relating to requirements to be met by filed documents).

SUBCHAPTER B
FOREIGN REGISTERED
LIMITED LIABILITY PARTNERSHIPS
(Repealed)

2016 Repeal. Subchapter B (§ 8211) was added December 7, 1994, P.L.703, No.106, and repealed November 21, 2016, P.L.1328, No.170, effective in 90 days.

SUBCHAPTER C
ANNUAL REGISTRATION

Sec.

8221. Annual registration.

§ 8221. Annual registration.

(a) General rule.--Every domestic limited liability partnership or limited liability limited partnership in existence on December 31 of any year and every foreign limited liability partnership or limited liability limited partnership that is registered to do business in this Commonwealth on December 31 of any year shall deliver to the Department of State for filing with respect to that year, and on or before April 15 of the following year, a certificate of annual registration on a form provided by the department, signed by a general partner and accompanied by the annual registration fee prescribed by subsection (b). The department shall not charge a fee other than the annual registration fee for filing the certificate of annual registration.

(b) Annual registration fee.--

(1) The annual registration fee to be paid when filing a certificate of annual registration shall be equal to a base fee of $200 times the number of persons who were general partners of the partnership on December 31 of the year with respect to which the certificate of annual registration is being filed and who:

(i) in the case of a natural person, had his principal residence on that date in this Commonwealth;
or

(ii) in the case of any other person, was incorporated or otherwise organized or existing on that date under the laws of this Commonwealth.

(2) The base fee of $200 shall be increased on December 31, 1997, and December 31 of every third year thereafter by the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for Urban Workers during the most recent three calendar years for which that index is available on the date of adjustment. Each adjustment under this paragraph shall be rounded up to the nearest $10.

(c) Notice of annual registration.--Not later than February 1 of each year, the department shall give notice to every partnership required to file a certificate of annual registration with respect to the preceding year of the requirement to file the certificate. The notice shall state the amount of the base fee payable under subsection (b)(1), as adjusted pursuant to subsection (b)(2), if applicable, and shall be accompanied by the form of certificate of annual registration to be filed. Failure by the department to give notice to any party, or failure by any party to receive notice, of the annual registration requirement shall not relieve the party of the obligation to file the certificate of annual registration.

(d) Credit to Corporation Bureau Restricted Account.--The annual registration fee shall not be deemed to be an amount received by the department under Subchapter C of Chapter 1 for purposes of section 155 (relating to disposition of funds), except that $25 of the fee shall be credited to the Corporation Bureau Restricted Account.

(e) Failure to file or pay annual fee.--

(1) Failure to file the certificate of annual registration required by this section for five consecutive years shall result in the automatic termination of:

(i) the status of the limited liability partnership or limited liability limited partnership as such, if it is a domestic partnership; or

(ii) the registration of the limited liability partnership or limited liability limited partnership, if it is a foreign partnership.

(1.1) Any annual registration fee that is not paid when due shall be a lien in the manner provided in this subsection from the time the annual registration fee is due and payable. If a certificate of annual registration is not filed within 30 days after the date on which it is due, the department shall assess a penalty of $500 against the partnership, which shall also be a lien in the manner provided in this subsection. The imposition of that penalty shall not be construed to relieve the partnership from liability for any other penalty or interest provided for under other applicable law.

(2) If the annual registration fee paid by a partnership is subsequently determined to be less than should have been paid because it was based on an incorrect number of general partners or was otherwise incorrectly computed, that fact shall not affect the existence, status or foreign registration of the partnership, but the amount of the additional annual registration fee that should have been paid shall be a lien in the manner provided in this subsection from the time the incorrect payment is discovered by the department.

(3) The annual registration fee shall bear simple interest from the date that it becomes due and payable until paid. The interest rate shall be that provided for in section 806 of the act of April 9, 1929 (P.L.343, No.176), known as The Fiscal Code, with respect to unpaid taxes. The penalty provided for in paragraph (1) shall not bear interest. The payment of interest shall not relieve the partnership from liability for any other penalty or interest provided for under other applicable law.

(4) The lien created by this subsection shall attach to all of the property and proceeds thereof of the partnership in which a security interest can be perfected in whole or in part by filing in the department under 13 Pa.C.S. Div. 9 (relating to secured transactions; sales of accounts, contract rights and chattel paper), whether the property and proceeds are owned by the partnership at the time the annual registration fee or any penalty or interest becomes due and payable or whether the property and proceeds are acquired thereafter. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the lien created by this subsection shall have priority over all other liens, security interests or other charges, except liens for taxes or other charges due the Commonwealth. The lien created by this subsection shall be entered on the records of the department and indexed in the same manner as a financing statement filed under 13 Pa.C.S. Div. 9. At the time an annual registration fee, penalty or interest that has resulted in the creation of a lien under this subsection is paid, the department shall terminate the lien with respect to that annual registration fee, penalty or interest without requiring a separate filing by the partnership for that purpose.

(5) If the annual registration fee paid by a partnership is subsequently determined to be more than should have been paid for any reason, no refund of the additional fee shall be made.

(6) Termination of the status or foreign registration of a partnership under this section, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, shall not release it from the obligation to pay any accrued fees, penalties and interest and shall not release the lien created by this subsection.

(f) Exception for bankrupt partnerships.--A partnership that would otherwise be required to pay the annual registration fee set forth in subsection (b) shall not be required to pay that fee with respect to any year during any part of which the partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy. The partnership shall, instead, indicate on its certificate of annual registration for that year that it is exempt from payment of the annual registration fee pursuant to this subsection. If the partnership fails to file timely a certificate of annual registration, a lien shall be entered on the records of the department pursuant to subsection (e) which shall not be removed until the partnership files a certificate of annual registration indicating its entitlement to an exemption from payment of the annual registration fee as provided in this subsection. See section 8201(e) (relating to scope).

SUBCHAPTER D DISTRIBUTIONS

Enactment. Subchapter D was added November 21, 2016, P.L.1328, No.170, effective in 90 days.

Sec.

8231. Limitations on distributions by limited liability partnership.

8232. Liability for improper distributions by limited liability partnership.

§ 8231. Limitations on distributions by limited liability partnership.

(a) General rule.--A domestic limited liability partnership may not make a distribution, including a distribution under section 8486 (relating to disposition of assets in winding up and required contributions), if after the distribution:

(1) the partnership would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the partnership's business; or

(2) the partnership's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the partnership were to be dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution and winding up of partners and transferees whose preferential rights are superior to the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

(b) Valuation.--A domestic limited liability partnership may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (a)(2) on:

(1) the book values of the assets and liabilities of the partnership, as reflected on its books and records;

(2) a valuation that takes into consideration unrealized appreciation and depreciation or other changes in value of the assets and liabilities of the partnership;

(3) the current value of the assets and liabilities of the partnership, either valued separately or valued in segments or as an entirety as a going concern; or

(4) any other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(c) Excluded liabilities.--In determining whether a distribution is prohibited under subsection (a)(2), the partnership need not consider obligations and liabilities unless they are required to be reflected on a balance sheet, not including the notes to the balance sheet, prepared on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles, or other such accounting practices and principles as are used generally by the partnership in the maintenance of its books and records and as are reasonable in the circumstances.

(d) Measuring date of distribution.--Except as provided in subsection (e), the effect of a distribution under subsection (a) is measured:

(1) as of the date specified by the partnership when it authorizes the distribution if the distribution occurs within 125 days of the earlier of the date so specified or the date of authorization; or

(2) as of the date of distribution in all other cases.

(e) Date of redemption.--In the case of a distribution as described in paragraph (1) of the definition of "distribution" in section 8202 (relating to definitions), the distribution is deemed to occur as of the earlier of the date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the partnership, or the date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or right being acquired by the partnership in return for the distribution.

(f) Status of distribution debt.--The indebtedness of a domestic limited liability partnership to a partner or transferee incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section shall be at least on a parity with the partnership's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(g) Certain subordinated debt.--The indebtedness of a domestic limited liability partnership, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of subsection (a) if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to the extent that a payment of a distribution could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

(h) Distributions in winding up.--In measuring the effect of a distribution under section 8486, the liabilities of a dissolved domestic limited liability partnership do not include any claim that has been barred under section 8241 (relating to known claims against dissolved limited liability partnership) or 8242 (relating to other claims against dissolved limited liability partnership) or for which security has been provided under section 8243 (relating to court proceedings).

(i) Cross references.--See sections 8415(d)(1) (relating to contents of partnership agreement) and 8447 (relating to standards of conduct for partners).

Cross References. Section 8231 is referred to in sections 8232, 8415 of this title.

§ 8232. Liability for improper distributions by limited liability partnership.

(a) General rule.--If a partner of a limited liability partnership consents to a distribution made in violation of section 8231 (relating to limitations on distributions by limited liability partnership) and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with section 8447 (relating to standards of conduct for partners), the partner is personally liable to the partnership for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of section 8231.

(b) Recipients.--A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violated section 8231 is personally liable to the limited liability partnership, but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under section 8231.

(c) Contribution.--A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable under subsection (a) may:

(1) join any other person that is liable under subsection (a) and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person; and

(2) join any person that received a distribution in violation of subsection (b) and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person received in violation of subsection (b).

Cross References. Section 8232 is referred to in section 8441 of this title.

(2) state that a claim must be in writing and provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent;

(c) Claims barred.--A claim against a dissolved limited liability partnership is barred if the requirements of subsection (b) are met and:

(1) the claim is not received by the specified deadline;

or

(2) if the claim is timely received but rejected by the partnership:

(i) the partnership causes the claimant to receive a notice in record form stating that the claim is rejected and will be barred unless the claimant commences an action against the partnership to enforce the claim within 90 days after the claimant receives the notice; and

(ii) the claimant does not commence the required action within 90 days after the claimant receives the notice.

(2) describe the information required to be contained in a claim, state that the claim must be in writing and provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent;

(3) state that a claim against the partnership is barred unless an action to enforce the claim is commenced within two years after publication of the notice; and

(4) unless the partnership has been throughout its existence a limited liability partnership, state that the barring of a claim against the partnership will also bar any corresponding claim against any partner or person dissociated as a partner which is based on section 8436 (relating to partner's liability).

(c) Claims barred.--If a dissolved limited liability partnership publishes a notice in accordance with subsection (b), the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant commences an action to enforce the claim against the partnership within two years after the publication date of the notice:

(1) a claimant that did not receive notice in record form under section 8241 (relating to known claims against dissolved limited liability partnership);

(2) a claimant whose claim was timely sent to the partnership but not acted on; and

(3) a claimant whose claim is contingent at, or based on an event occurring after, the date of dissolution.

(d) Claims not barred.--A claim not barred under this section or section 8241 may be enforced:

(1) at the time of the application:

(i) are contingent; or

(ii) have not been made known to the partnership;

or

(2) are based on an event occurring after the date of dissolution.

(b) When security not required.--Security is not required for any claim that is or is reasonably anticipated to be barred under section 8241 (relating to known claims against dissolved limited liability partnership).

The claims may not be enforced against a partner or transferee on account of assets received in liquidation.

Cross References. Section 8243 is referred to in sections 8231, 8242 of this title.

(ii) the jurisdiction in which the partnership has its principal office if there is no choice of law under subparagraph (i).

(b) Enforceability of chosen law.--A choice of law under subsection (a)(2)(i) is enforceable even though:

(1) The chosen jurisdiction has no substantial relationship to the partners or the partnership and there is no other reasonable basis for the parties' choice.

(9) Unreasonably restrict the duties and rights under section 8446 (relating to rights to information), except as provided in subsection (d).

(d) Permitted terms.--Subject to subsection (c)(13), the following rules apply:

(1) The partnership agreement may:

(i) specify the method by which a specific act or transaction that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty may be authorized or ratified by one or more disinterested and independent persons after full disclosure of all material facts;

(ii) alter the prohibition in section 8231(a)(2) (relating to limitations on distributions by limited liability partnership) so that the prohibition requires only that the partnership's total assets not be less than the sum of its total liabilities; and

(iii) impose reasonable restrictions on the availability and use of information obtained under section 8446 and may define appropriate remedies, including liquidated damages, for a breach of any reasonable restriction on use.

(2) To the extent the partnership agreement expressly relieves a partner of a responsibility that the partner would otherwise have under this title and imposes the responsibility on one or more other partners, the agreement also may eliminate or limit any fiduciary duty of the partner relieved of the responsibility which would have pertained to the responsibility.

(3) If not manifestly unreasonable, the partnership agreement may:

(i) alter the aspects of the duty of loyalty stated in section 8447(b)(1)(i) or (ii) or (2);

(ii) prescribe the standards by which the performance of the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under section 8447(d) is to be measured;

(iii) identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty;

(iv) alter the duty of care; and

(v) alter or eliminate any other fiduciary duty.

(e) Determination of manifest unreasonableness.--The court shall decide as a matter of law whether a term of a partnership agreement is manifestly unreasonable under subsection (d)(3). The court:

(1) shall make its determination as of the time the challenged term became part of the partnership agreement and by considering only circumstances existing at that time; and

(2) may invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes and business of the partnership, it is readily apparent that:

(i) the objective of the term is unreasonable; or

(ii) the term is an unreasonable means to achieve the term's objective.

§ 8417. Amendment and effect of partnership agreement.

(a) Approval of amendments.--A partnership agreement may specify that its amendment requires the approval of a person that is not a party to the agreement or the satisfaction of a condition. An amendment is ineffective if its adoption does not include the required approval or satisfy the specified condition. See section 8441(j) (relating to partner's rights and duties).

(b) Obligations to nonpartners.--The obligations of a partnership and its partners to a person in the person's capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a partner are governed by the partnership agreement. Except as provided in section 8445(d) (relating to sharing of and right to distribution before dissolution) or in a court order issued under section 8454(b)(2) (relating to charging order) to effectuate a charging order, an amendment to the partnership agreement made after a person becomes a transferee or is dissociated as a partner:

(1) is effective with regard to any debt, obligation or other liability of the partnership or its partners to the person in the person's capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a partner; and

(2) is not effective to the extent the amendment:

(i) imposes a new debt, obligation or other liability on the transferee or person dissociated as a partner; or

(ii) prejudices the rights under section 8471 (relating to purchase of interest of person dissociated as partner) of a person that dissociated as a partner before the amendment was made.

(c) Provisions in filed documents.--If a document delivered by a partnership to the department for filing becomes effective and contains a provision that would be ineffective under section 8415(c) or (d)(3) (relating to contents of partnership agreement) if contained in the partnership agreement, the provision is ineffective in the document.

(d) Conflicts with partnership agreement.--Subject to subsection (c), if a document delivered by a partnership to the department for filing becomes effective and conflicts with a provision of the partnership agreement:

(1) the agreement prevails as to partners, persons dissociated as partners and transferees; and

(2) the document prevails as to other persons to the extent they reasonably rely on the document.

(e) Prohibition of oral amendments.--If a provision of a partnership agreement in record form provides that the partnership agreement cannot be amended, modified or rescinded except in record form, an oral agreement, amendment, modification or rescission shall not be enforceable.

Cross References. Section 8417 is referred to in section 8415 of this title.

(1) Except as provided under paragraphs (2) and (3), a document signed on behalf of a partnership must be signed by a person authorized by the partnership.

(2) A document filed on behalf of a dissolved partnership that has no partner must be signed by the person winding up the partnership's business under section 8482(c) (relating to winding up and filing of certificates) or a person appointed under section 8482(d) to wind up the business.

(3) A certificate of denial by a person under section 8434 (relating to certificate of denial) must be signed by that person.

(4) Any other document delivered on behalf of a person to the department for filing must be signed by that person.

(b) Cross reference.--See section 142 (relating to effect of signing filings).

§ 8419. Liability of general partner or other person for false or missing information in filed document.

(a) General rule.--If a document delivered to the department for filing under this title and filed by the department contains a materially false statement or fails to state a material fact required to be stated, a person that suffers loss by reasonable reliance on the statement or failure to state a material fact may recover damages for the loss from:

(1) a person that signed the document or caused another to sign it on the person's behalf and knew there was false or missing information in the document at the time it was signed; and

(2) subject to subsection (b), a partner if:

(i) the document was delivered for filing on behalf of the partnership; and

(ii) the partner knew or had notice there was false or missing information for a reasonably sufficient time before the document was relied upon so that, before the reliance, the partner reasonably could have:

(A) filed a petition under section 144 (relating to signing and filing pursuant to judicial order); or

(B) delivered to the department for filing a statement of correction under section 138 (relating to statement of correction) or a statement of abandonment under section 141 (relating to abandonment of filing before effectiveness).

(b) Partner relieved of responsibility.--To the extent the partnership agreement expressly relieves a partner of responsibility for maintaining the accuracy of information contained in records delivered on behalf of the partnership to the department for filing under this title and imposes that responsibility on one or more other partners, the liability stated in subsection (a) (2) applies to those other partners and not to the partner that the partnership agreement relieves of the responsibility.

(b) Excluded associations.--An association formed under a statute other than this chapter, a predecessor statute or a comparable statute of another jurisdiction is not a partnership under this chapter.

(c) Rules for determining formation of partnership.--In determining whether a partnership is formed, the following rules apply:

(1) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entirety, joint property, common property or part ownership does not by itself establish a partnership, even if the co-owners share profits made by the use of the property.

(2) The sharing of gross returns does not by itself establish a partnership, even if the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in property from which the returns are derived.

(3) A person who receives a share of the profits of a business is presumed to be a partner in the business, unless the profits were received in payment:

(i) of a debt by installments or otherwise;

(ii) for services as an independent contractor or of wages or other compensation to an employee;

(iii) of rent;

(iv) of an annuity or other retirement or health benefit to a deceased or retired partner or a beneficiary, representative or designee of a deceased or retired partner;

(1) the partnership by a transfer to:

(i) the partnership in its name; or

(ii) one or more partners in their capacity as partners in the partnership, if the name of the partnership is indicated in the instrument transferring title to the property; or

(2) one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership but without an indication of the name of the partnership.

(b) Property purchased with partnership assets.--Property is presumed to be partnership property if purchased with partnership assets, even if not acquired in the name of the partnership or of one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership.

(c) Property acquired in name of partner.--Property acquired in the name of one or more of the partners is presumed to be separate property owned by the individual partner or partners, even if used for partnership purposes, if the property is acquired without:

SUBCHAPTER C

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO PERSONS DEALING WITH PARTNERSHIP

Sec.

8431. Partner agent of partnership.

8432. Transfer of partnership property.

8433. Certificate of partnership authority.

8434. Certificate of denial.

8435. Partnership liable for partner's actionable conduct.

8436. Partner's liability.

8437. Actions by and against partnership and partners.

8438. Liability of purported partner.

§ 8431. Partner agent of partnership.

Subject to the effect of a certificate of partnership authority under section 8433 (relating to certificate of partnership authority), the following rules apply:

(1) Each partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business. An act of a partner, including the signing of an instrument in the partnership name, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the partnership business or business of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership, unless the partner did not have authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter and the person with which the partner was dealing knew or had notice that the partner lacked authority.

(2) An act of a partner which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course the partnership's business or business of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership only if the partner had actual authority to take the action.

Cross References. Section 8431 is referred to in sections 8432, 8472, 8484 of this title.

§ 8432. Transfer of partnership property.

(a) General rule.--Partnership property may be transferred as follows:

(1) Subject to the effect of a certificate of partnership authority under section 8433 (relating to certificate of partnership authority), partnership property held in the name of the partnership may be transferred by an instrument of transfer signed by a partner in the partnership name.

(2) Partnership property held in the name of one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring the property to them of their capacity as partners or of the existence of a partnership, but without an indication of the name of the partnership, may be transferred by an instrument of transfer signed by the persons in whose name the property is held.

(3) Partnership property held in the name of one or more persons other than the partnership, without an indication in the instrument transferring the property to them of their capacity as partners or of the existence of a partnership, may be transferred by an instrument of transfer signed by the persons in whose name the property is held.

(b) Recovery of property by partnership.--A partnership may recover partnership property from a transferee only if it proves that the signing of the instrument of initial transfer did not bind the partnership under section 8431 (relating to partner agent of partnership) and:

(1) as to a subsequent transferee who gave value for property transferred under subsection (a)(1) or (2), proves that the subsequent transferee knew or had notice that the person who signed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the partnership; or

(2) as to a transferee who gave value for property transferred under subsection (a)(3), proves that the transferee knew or had notice that the property was partnership property and that the person who signed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the partnership.

(c) Subsequent transferees.--A partnership may not recover partnership property from a subsequent transferee if the partnership would not have been entitled to recover the property under subsection (b) from any earlier transferee of the property.

(d) Sole partner.--If one person holds all the interests in a partnership, all the partnership property vests in that person. The person may sign a document in the name of the partnership to evidence vesting of the property in that person and may file or record the document.

§ 8433. Certificate of partnership authority.

(a) General rule.--A partnership may deliver to the department for filing a certificate of partnership authority. The certificate:

(1) must include the name of the partnership and:

(i) if the partnership is not a registered foreign limited liability partnership, the street and mailing addresses of its principal office; or

(ii) if the partnership is a registered foreign limited liability partnership, subject to section 109 (relating to name of commercial registered office provider in lieu of registered address), the address, including street and number, if any, of its registered office;

(2) with respect to any position that exists in or with respect to the partnership, may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of all persons holding the position to:

- (i) sign an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the partnership; or
- (ii) enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the partnership; and
- (3) may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of a specific person to:

- (i) sign an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the partnership; or
- (ii) enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the partnership.

(b) Amendment or cancellation.--To amend or cancel a certificate of authority filed by the department, a partnership must deliver to the department for filing an amendment or cancellation stating:

- (1) the name of the partnership;
- (2) if the partnership is not a registered foreign limited liability partnership, the street and mailing addresses of the partnership's principal office;
- (3) if the partnership is a registered foreign limited liability partnership, subject to section 109, the address, including street and number, if any, of its registered office;
- (4) the date the certificate being affected became effective; and
- (5) the contents of the amendment or a statement that the certificate is canceled.

(c) Effect of certificate.--A certificate of authority:

- (1) affects only the power of a person to bind a partnership to persons that are not partners; and
- (2) is not binding on the department for purposes of the administration of this title or any other provision of law.

(d) Effect of limitation on authority.--Subject to subsection (c) and section 8413(d)(1) (relating to knowledge and notice), and except as provided in subsections (f), (g) and (h), a limitation on the authority of a person or a position contained in an effective certificate of authority is not by itself evidence of any person's knowledge or notice of the limitation.

(e) Authority not relating to real property.--A grant of authority not pertaining to transfers of real property and contained in an effective certificate of authority is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant, unless when the person gives value:

- (1) the person has knowledge to the contrary;
- (2) the certificate has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection (b); or
- (3) a limitation on the grant is contained in another certificate of authority that became effective after the certificate containing the grant became effective.

(f) Authority relating to real property.--An effective certificate of authority that grants authority to transfer real property held in the name of the partnership, a certified copy of which certificate is recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which the real property is located, is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the contrary, except to the extent that when the person gives value:

- (1) the certificate has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection (b), and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment has been recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which the real property is located; or

(2) a limitation on the grant is contained in another certificate of authority that became effective after the certificate containing the grant became effective and a certified copy of the later-effective certificate is recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which the real property is located.

(g) Constructive knowledge of limitation.--Subject to subsection (c), if a certified copy of an effective certificate containing a limitation on the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a partnership is recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which real property is located, all persons are deemed to know of the limitation.

(h) Effect of certificate of dissolution.--Subject to subsection (i), an effective certificate of dissolution is a cancellation of any filed certificate of authority for the purposes of subsection (f) and is a limitation on authority for purposes of subsection (g).

(i) Post-dissolution certificate of authority.--After a certificate of dissolution becomes effective, a partnership may deliver to the department for filing and, if appropriate, may record a certificate of authority that is designated as a post-dissolution certificate of authority. The certificate operates as provided in subsections (f) and (g).

(j) Cancellation by operation of law.--Unless canceled earlier, an effective certificate of authority is canceled by operation of law five years after the date on which the certificate, or its most recent amendment, becomes effective. The cancellation is effective without recording under subsection (f) or (g).

(k) Effect of certificate of denial.--An effective certificate of denial under section 8434 (relating to certificate of denial):

(1) operates as a restrictive amendment under this section and a certified copy may be recorded as provided in subsection (f)(1) by the partnership or the person that delivered the certificate of denial to the department for filing; and

(2) affects only the authority of a person to bind a partnership with respect to persons that are not partners.

(l) Foreign partnerships.--A foreign partnership, regardless of whether it is registered to do business in this Commonwealth, may deliver a certificate of authority to the department for filing and may record a copy as provided in this section in the same manner and with the same effect as if it were a domestic partnership.

(m) Cross references.--See:

(1) provides the name of the partnership and:

(i) if the partnership is not a registered foreign limited liability partnership, the street and mailing addresses of its principal office; or

(ii) if the partnership is a registered foreign limited liability partnership, subject to section 109 (relating to name of commercial registered office provider in lieu of registered address), the address, including street and number, if any, of its registered office;

(2) states the caption of the certificate of authority to which the certificate of denial pertains; and

(3) denies the grant of authority.

§ 8435. Partnership liable for partner's actionable conduct.

(a) General rule.--A partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or other actionable conduct, of a partner acting in the ordinary course of business of the partnership or with the actual or apparent authority of the partnership.

(b) Misapplication of property.--If, in the course of the partnership's business or while acting with actual or apparent authority of the partnership, a partner receives or causes the partnership to receive money or property of a person not a partner and the money or property is misapplied by a partner, the partnership is liable for the loss.

§ 8436. Partner's liability.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided in subsection (b) or section 8204 (relating to limitation on liability of partners), all partners are jointly and severally liable for all debts, obligations and other liabilities of the partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law.

(b) Preexisting liabilities.--A person that becomes a partner is not personally liable for a debt, obligation or other liability of the partnership incurred before the person became a partner.

Cross References. Section 8436 is referred to in sections 8241, 8242, 8244, 8437 of this title.

§ 8437. Actions by and against partnership and partners.

(a) Partnership as party.--A partnership may sue and be sued in the name of the partnership.

(b) Partner as party.--To the extent not inconsistent with section 8436 (relating to partner's liability), a partner may be joined in an action against the partnership or named in a separate action.

(c) Judgment against partnership only.--A judgment against a partnership:

(1) is not by itself a judgment against a partner; and

(2) except as provided in subsection (d), may not be satisfied from a partner's assets.

(d) Judgment against partnership and partner.--If there is a judgment against a partnership and a partner on the same claim, the judgment creditor may levy execution against the assets of the partner if both of the following apply:

(1) The partner is personally liable for the claim under section 8436.

(2) One of the following subparagraphs applies:

(i) A writ of execution on the judgment against the partnership has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part.

(ii) The partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy.

(iii) The partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust partnership assets.

(iv) A court grants permission to levy execution based on a finding that:

(A) partnership assets subject to execution are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment;

(B) exhaustion of partnership assets is excessively burdensome; or

(C) the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's equitable powers.

(v) Liability is imposed on the partner by law or contract independent of the existence of the partnership.

(e) Liability for representations.--This section also applies to any debt, liability or other obligation of a partnership which results from a representation by a partner or purported partner under section 8438 (relating to liability of purported partner).

(f) Cross reference.--See section 8415(c)(8) (relating to contents of partnership agreement).

§ 8438. Liability of purported partner.

(a) General rule.--If a person, by words or conduct, purports to be a partner, or consents to being represented by another as a partner, in a partnership or with one or more persons not partners, the purported partner is liable to a person to whom the representation is made, if that person, relying on the representation, enters into a transaction with the actual or purported partnership. If the representation, either by the purported partner or by a person with the purported partner's consent, is made in a public manner, the purported partner is liable to a person who relies upon the purported partnership even if the purported partner is not aware of being held out as a partner to the claimant. If partnership liability results, the purported partner is liable with respect to that liability as if the purported partner were a partner. If no partnership liability results, the purported partner is jointly and severally liable, with any other person consenting to the representation, with respect to that liability.

(b) Authority of purported partner.--If a person is represented in the manner described in subsection (a) to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not partners, the purported partner is an agent of persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as if the purported partner were a partner with respect to persons who enter into transactions in reliance upon the representation. If all the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results. If fewer than all the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, the person acting and the partners consenting to the representation are jointly and severally liable.

(c) Effect of certificate of partnership authority.--A person is not liable as a partner merely because the person is named by another as a partner in a certificate of partnership authority.

(d) No effect of failure to disclaim authority.--A person does not continue to be liable as a partner merely because of a failure to file a certificate of dissociation or to amend a certificate of partnership authority to indicate the person's dissociation as a partner.

(e) Nonliability of persons not partners.--Except as provided in subsections (a) and (b), persons who are not partners as to each other are not liable as partners to other persons.

(2) An advance to the partnership beyond the amount of capital the partner agreed to contribute.

(c) Indemnification.--A partnership shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation or other liability incurred by the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as partner, if the claim, demand, debt, obligation or other liability does not arise from the person's breach of this section or section 8232 (relating to liability for improper distributions by limited liability partnership) or 8447.

(d) Advances.--In the ordinary course of its business, a partnership may advance expenses, including attorney fees and costs, incurred by a person in connection with a claim or demand against the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a partner, if the person promises to repay the partnership if the person ultimately is determined not to be entitled to be indemnified under subsection (c).

(e) Insurance.--A partnership may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a partner against liability asserted against or incurred by the partner in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under subsection (m), the partnership agreement could not eliminate or limit the person's liability to the partnership for the conduct giving rise to the liability.

(f) Loan to partnership.--A payment or advance made by a partner which gives rise to a partnership obligation under subsection (b) constitutes a loan to the partnership which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(h) Rights to property.--A partner may use or possess partnership property only on behalf of the partnership.

(j) Required approvals by partners.--A difference arising as to a matter in the ordinary course of business of a partnership may be decided by a majority of the partners. An act outside the ordinary course of business of a partnership and an amendment to the partnership agreement may be undertaken only with the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners.

(k) Nonexclusivity.--The rights provided by subsections (b), (c), (d) and (e) shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking reimbursement, indemnification, advancement of expenses or insurance may be entitled under the partnership agreement, vote of partners, contract or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding that position. Section 8447(f) shall be applicable to a vote, contract or other action under this subsection. A partnership may create a fund of any nature, which may, but need not be, under the control of a trustee, or otherwise secure or insure in any manner its indemnification obligations, whether arising under this section or otherwise.

(l) Grounds.--Indemnification under subsection (k) may be granted for any action taken and may be made whether or not the partnership would have the power to indemnify the person under any other provision of law except as provided in this section and whether or not the indemnified liability arises or arose from any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the partnership. Indemnification under subsection (k) is declared to be consistent with the public policy of this Commonwealth.

(m) Limitation.--Indemnification under this section shall not be made in any case where the act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to constitute recklessness, willful misconduct or a knowing violation of law. (Nov. 3, 2022, P.L.1791, No.122, eff. 60 days)

Cross References. Section 8443 is referred to in section 8412 of this title.

§ 8444. Liability for contribution.

(a) Obligation not excused.--A person's obligation to make a contribution to a partnership is not excused by the person's death, disability, termination or other inability to perform personally.

(b) Substitute payment.--If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person is obligated, at the option of the partnership, to contribute money equal to the value, as stated in the records of the partnership, of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

(c) Compromise of obligation.--The obligation of a person to make a contribution may be compromised only by the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners. If a creditor of a limited liability partnership extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described under subsection (a) without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

§ 8445. Sharing of and right to distribution before dissolution.

(a) Distributions before dissolution.--Any distribution made by a partnership before its dissolution and winding up shall be in equal shares among partners and persons dissociated as partners whose interests in the partnership have not been purchased under section 8471 (relating to purchase of interest of person dissociated as partner), except as provided in section 8453(b) (relating to transfer of transferable interest) or to the extent necessary to comply with a charging order in effect under section 8454 (relating to charging order).

(b) No right to distribution.--Subject to section 8471, a person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a partnership only if the partnership decides to make an interim distribution.

(c) Form of distribution.--A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a partnership in any form other than money. Except as provided in section 8486 (relating to disposition of assets in winding up and required contributions), a partnership may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

(d) Status as creditor.--If a partner or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the partner or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the partnership with respect to the distribution. The partnership's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the partnership by the partner or a person dissociated as partner on whose account the distribution is made.

Cross References. Section 8445 is referred to in sections 8417, 8441 of this title.

§ 8446. Rights to information.

(a) Location of records.--A partnership shall keep its books and records, if any, at its principal office.

(b) Right to inspection.--On reasonable notice, a partner may inspect and copy during regular business hours, at a reasonable location specified by the partnership, any record maintained by the partnership regarding the partnership's business, financial condition and other circumstances.

(c) Material information.--The partnership shall furnish to each partner, without demand, any information concerning the partnership's business, financial condition and other circumstances which the partnership knows and is material to the proper exercise of the partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this title, except to the extent the partnership can establish that it reasonably believes the member already knows the information.

(d) Duty of partners.--The duty to furnish information under subsection (c) also applies to each partner to the extent the partner knows any of the information described in subsection (c).

(e) Rights after dissociation.--Subject to subsection (j), within 10 days after receipt by a partnership of a demand made in record form, a person dissociated as a partner may have access to information to which the person was entitled while a partner if:

- (1) the information pertains to the period during which the person was a partner;
- (2) the person seeks the information in good faith; and
- (3) the information is material to the person's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this title.

(f) Partnership response to demand.--Within 10 days after receiving a demand under subsection (e), the partnership shall, in record form, inform the person that made the demand of:

(g) Costs of copying.--A partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying.

(h) Exercise of rights.--A partner or person dissociated as a partner may exercise the rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an incapacitated person, a guardian. Any restriction or condition imposed by the partnership agreement or under subsection (j) applies both to the agent or guardian and to the partner or person dissociated as a partner.

(i) No rights of transferee.--Subject to section 8455 (relating to power of personal representative of deceased partner), the rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.

(j) Reasonable restrictions permitted.--In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its partnership agreement, a partnership, as a matter within the ordinary course of its business, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

(k) Enforcement of right to information.--If the partnership, or a partner or agent thereof, refuses to permit an inspection sought by a partner or person dissociated as a partner or attorney or other agent acting for the partner or person dissociated as a partner pursuant to subsection (b) or (e), or does not reply to the demand made under either of those subsections within 10 days after the demand has been received, the partner or person dissociated as a partner may file an action in the court for an order to compel the inspection. The court is vested with exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether or not the person seeking inspection is entitled to the inspection sought. The court may summarily order the partnership to permit the partner or person dissociated as a partner to inspect the information and to make copies or extracts therefrom.

(b) Duty of loyalty.--The fiduciary duty of loyalty of a partner includes the duties:

(1) to account to the partnership and hold as trustee for it any property, profit or benefit derived by the partner:

(i) in the conduct or winding up of the partnership's business;

(ii) from a use by the partner of the partnership's property; or

(iii) from the appropriation of a partnership opportunity;

(2) to refrain from dealing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership business as or on behalf of a person having an interest adverse to the partnership; and

(3) to refrain from competing with the partnership in the conduct of the partnership's business before the dissolution of the partnership.

(c) Duty of care.--The duty of care of a partner in the conduct or winding up of the partnership business is to refrain from engaging in gross negligence, recklessness, willful misconduct or a knowing violation of law.

(d) Good faith and fair dealing.--A partner shall discharge the duties and obligations under this title or under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights consistent with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(e) Self-serving conduct.--A partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this title or under the partnership agreement solely because the partner's conduct furthers the partner's own interest.

(f) Authorization or ratification.--All the partners may authorize or ratify, after disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty of a partner.

(g) Fairness as a defense.--It is a defense to a claim under subsection (b)(2) and any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the partnership at the time it was authorized or ratified under subsection (f).

(h) Rights and obligations in approved transaction.--If a partner enters into a transaction with the partnership which otherwise would be prohibited under subsection (b)(2), but the transaction is authorized or ratified as provided under subsection (f) or the partnership agreement, the partner's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a partner.

(i) Exoneration.--The partnership agreement may provide that a partner shall not be personally liable for monetary damages to the partnership or the other partners for a breach of subsection (c), except that a partner may not be exonerated for an act that constitutes recklessness, willful misconduct or a knowing violation of law.

(j) Cross reference.--See section 8415 (relating to contents of partnership agreement).

Cross References. Section 8447 is referred to in sections 8231, 8232, 8415, 8441, 8461, 8463 of this title.

- (1) a breach of the partnership agreement; or
- (2) the violation of a duty to the partnership.

(b) Action by partner.--A partner may maintain an action against the partnership or another partner, with or without an accounting as to partnership business, to enforce the partner's rights and protect the partner's interests, including rights and interests under the partnership agreement or this title or arising independently of the partnership relationship.

(b) Presumed agreement to continue partnership.--If the partners, or those partners who habitually acted in the business during the term or undertaking, continue the business without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership, they are presumed to have agreed that the partnership will continue.

OF TRANSFEREES AND CREDITORS

Sec.

8451. Partner not co-owner of partnership property.

8452. Nature of transferable interest.

8453. Transfer of transferable interest.

8454. Charging order.

8455. Power of personal representative of deceased partner.

§ 8451. Partner not co-owner of partnership property.

A partner is not a co-owner of partnership property and has no interest in partnership property which can be transferred, either voluntarily or involuntarily.

§ 8452. Nature of transferable interest.

(a) Personal property.--A transferable interest is personal property.

(b) Only right that may be transferred.--A person may not transfer to a person not a partner any rights in a partnership other than a transferable interest.

§ 8453. Transfer of transferable interest.

(a) General rule.--A transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:

(1) is permissible;

(2) does not by itself cause the dissociation of the transferor as a partner or a dissolution and winding up of the partnership's business; and

(3) subject to section 8455 (relating to power of personal representative of deceased partner), does not entitle the transferee to:

(i) participate in the management or conduct of the partnership's business; or

(ii) except as provided in subsection (c), have access to records or other information concerning the partnership's business.

(b) Rights of transferee.--A transferee has the right to:

(1) receive, in accordance with the terms of the transfer:

(i) distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled; and

(ii) allocations of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit or similar item which would otherwise be made to the transferor; and

(2) seek under section 8481(a)(5) (relating to events causing dissolution) a judicial determination that it is equitable to wind up the partnership business.

(c) Right to account on dissolution.--In a dissolution and winding up of a partnership, a transferee is entitled to an account of the partnership's transactions only from the date of dissolution.

(d) Recognition of transferee's rights.--A partnership need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until the partnership knows or has notice of the transfer.

(e) Transfer restrictions.--A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the partnership agreement is ineffective if the intended transferee has knowledge or notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

(f) Rights retained by transferor.--Except as provided in section 8461(4)(ii) (relating to events causing dissociation), if a partner transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a partner other than the transferable interest transferred and retains all the duties and obligations of a partner.

Cross References. Section 8453 is referred to in sections 8445, 8454, 8455 of this title.

§ 8454. Charging order.

(a) General rule.--On application by a judgment creditor of a partner or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A charging order constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor's transferable interest and requires the partnership to pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that otherwise would be paid to the judgment debtor.

(b) Available relief.--To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a charging order in effect under subsection (a), the court may:

(1) appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made; and

(2) make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

(c) Foreclosure.--Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the transferable interest. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the transferable interest, does not thereby become a partner and is subject to section 8453 (relating to transfer of transferable interest).

(d) Satisfaction of judgment.--At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c), the partner or transferee whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection (a) may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

(e) Purchase of rights.--At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c), a partnership or one or more partners whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

(f) Exemption laws preserved.--This chapter shall not deprive any partner or transferee of the benefit of any exemption law applicable to the transferable interest of the partner or transferee.

(g) Exclusive remedy.--This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a person seeking, in the capacity of a judgment creditor, to enforce a judgment against a partner or transferee may satisfy the judgment from the judgment debtor's transferable interest.

Cross References. Section 8454 is referred to in sections 8417, 8445, 8461, 8486 of this title.

§ 8455. Power of personal representative of deceased partner.

- (1) the rights of a transferee provided in section 8453(c) (relating to transfer of transferable interest); and
- (2) for purposes of settling the estate, the rights the deceased partner had under section 8446 (relating to rights to information).

§ 8461. Events causing dissociation.

A person is dissociated as a partner when any of the following occurs:

(1) The partnership knows or has notice of the person's express will to withdraw as a partner, except that, if the person has specified a withdrawal date later than the date the partnership knew or had notice, on that later date.

(2) An event stated in the partnership agreement as causing the person's dissociation occurs.

(3) The person is expelled as a partner pursuant to the partnership agreement.

(4) The person is expelled as a partner by the affirmative vote or consent of all the other partners if:

(i) it is unlawful to carry on the partnership business with the person as a partner;

(b) Wrongful dissociation.--A person's dissociation as a partner is wrongful only if the dissociation:

- (1) is in breach of an express provision of the partnership agreement; or
- (2) in the case of a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking, occurs before the expiration of the term or the completion of the undertaking and:

- (i) the person withdraws as a partner by express will, unless the withdrawal follows within 90 days after another person's dissociation by death or otherwise under section 8461(6), (7), (8), (9) or (10) or wrongful dissociation under this subsection;

(b) Effects on person dissociated as partner.--If a person is dissociated as a partner:

SUBCHAPTER G

DISSOCIATION AS PARTNER IF BUSINESS NOT WOUND UP

Sec.

8471. Purchase of interest of person dissociated as partner.

8472. Power to bind and liability of person dissociated as partner.

8473. Liability of person dissociated as partner to other persons.

8474. Certificate of dissociation.

8475. Continued use of partnership name.

Cross References. Subchapter G is referred to in section 8463 of this title.

§ 8471. Purchase of interest of person dissociated as partner.

(a) Right to buyout.--If a person is dissociated as a partner without the dissociation resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business under section 8481 (relating to events causing dissolution), the partnership shall cause the person's interest in the partnership to be purchased for a buyout price determined under subsection (b).

(b) Buyout price.--The buyout price of the interest of a person dissociated as a partner is the amount that would have been distributable to the person under section 8486(b) (relating to disposition of assets in winding up and required contributions) if, on the date of dissociation, the assets of the partnership were sold and the partnership was wound up, with the sale price equal to the greater of:

(1) the liquidation value; or

(2) the value based on a sale of the entire business as a going concern without the person.

(c) Interest and offsets.--Interest accrues on the buyout price from the date of dissociation to the date of payment, except that damages for wrongful dissociation under section 8462(b) (relating to power to dissociate as partner and wrongful dissociation) and all other amounts owing, whether or not presently due, from the person dissociated as a partner to the partnership must be offset against the buyout price.

(d) Indemnification.--A partnership shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless a person dissociated as a partner whose interest is being purchased against all partnership liabilities, whether incurred before or after the dissociation, except liabilities incurred by an act of the person under section 8472 (relating to power to bind and liability of person dissociated as partner).

(e) Payment of partnership's estimate.--If an agreement for the purchase of the interest of a person dissociated as a partner is not reached within 120 days after a demand in record form for payment, the partnership shall pay, or cause to be paid, in money to the person the amount the partnership estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest, reduced by any offsets and accrued interest under subsection (c).

(f) Buyout of deferred payment.--If a deferred payment is authorized under subsection (h), the partnership may tender an offer in record form to pay the amount it estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest, reduced by any offsets under subsection (c), stating the time of payment, the amount and type of security for payment and the other terms and conditions of the obligation.

(g) Information accompanying payment.--The payment or tender required by subsection (e) or (f) must be accompanied by the following:

- (1) a statement of partnership assets and liabilities as of the date of dissociation;
- (2) the latest available partnership balance sheet and income statement, if any;
- (3) an explanation of how the estimated amount of the payment was calculated; and
- (4) notice in record form that the payment is in full satisfaction of the obligation to purchase unless, within 120 days after the notice, the person dissociated as a partner commences an action to determine the buyout price, any offsets under subsection (c) or other terms of the obligation to purchase.

(h) Deferred payment on wrongful dissociation.--A person that wrongfully dissociates as a partner before the expiration of a definite term or the completion of a particular undertaking is not entitled to payment of any part of the buyout price until the expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking, unless the person establishes to the satisfaction of the court that earlier payment will not cause undue hardship to the business of the partnership. A deferred payment must be adequately secured and bear interest.

(i) Right to bring action.--A person dissociated as a partner may maintain an action against the partnership, under section 8448(b) (relating to actions by partnership and partners), to determine the buyout price of that person's interest, any offsets under subsection (c) or other terms of the obligation to purchase. The action must be commenced within 120 days after the partnership has tendered payment or an offer to pay or within one year after demand in record form for payment if no payment or offer to pay is tendered. The court shall determine the buyout price of the person's interest, any offset due under subsection (c), and accrued interest, and enter judgment for any additional payment or refund. If deferred payment is authorized under subsection (h), the court shall also determine the security for payment and other terms of the obligation to purchase. The court may assess reasonable attorney fees and the fees and expenses of appraisers or other experts for a party to the action, in amounts the court finds equitable, against a party that the court finds acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith. The finding may be based on the partnership's failure to tender payment or an offer to pay or to comply with subsection (g).

Cross References. Section 8471 is referred to in sections 8417, 8445 of this title.

§ 8472. Power to bind and liability of person dissociated as partner.

(a) When partnership bound.--After a person is dissociated as a partner without the dissociation resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business and before the partnership is merged or divided out of existence, converted or domesticated under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions), or dissolved, the partnership is bound by an act of the person only if:

(1) the act would have bound the partnership under section 8431 (relating to partner agent of partnership) before dissociation; and

(2) at the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) less than two years have passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) the other party does not know or have notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a partner.

(b) Liability of person dissociated as partner.--If a partnership is bound under subsection (a), the person dissociated as a partner which caused the partnership to be bound is liable:

(1) to the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership arising from the obligation incurred under subsection (a); and

(2) if a partner or another person dissociated as a partner is liable for the obligation, to the partner or other person for any damage caused to the partner or other person arising from the liability.

Cross References. Section 8472 is referred to in section 8471 of this title.

§ 8473. Liability of person dissociated as partner to other persons.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided in subsection (b), a person dissociated as a partner is not liable for a partnership obligation incurred after dissociation.

(b) Exception.--A person that is dissociated as a partner is liable on a transaction entered into by the partnership after the dissociation only if:

(1) a partner would be liable on the transaction; and

(2) at the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) less than two years have passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) the other party does not have knowledge or notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a partner.

(c) Constructive release by creditor.--A person dissociated as a partner is released from liability for a debt, obligation or other liability of the partnership if the partnership's creditor, with knowledge or notice of the person's dissociation but without the person's consent, agrees to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the debt, obligation or other liability. The release from liability under this subsection applies whether the liability arises directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, but only if the liability arises solely by reason of having been a partner.

Cross References. Section 8473 is referred to in sections 8242, 8244, 8486 of this title.

§ 8474. Certificate of dissociation.

(a) Right to file certificate.--A person dissociated as a partner or the partnership may deliver to the department for filing a certificate of dissociation stating:

- (1) the name of the partnership;
- (2) if the partnership is a limited liability partnership, subject to section 109 (relating to name of commercial registered office provider in lieu of registered address), the address, including street and number, if any, of its registered office; and
- (3) the name of the person and that the person has dissociated from the partnership.

(b) Effect of certificate.--A certificate of dissociation is a limitation on the authority of a person dissociated as a partner for the purposes of section 8433 (relating to certificate of partnership authority).

§ 8475. Continued use of partnership name.

Continued use of a partnership name, or the name of a person dissociated as a partner as part of the partnership name, by partners continuing the business does not of itself make the person dissociated as a partner liable for an obligation of the partners or the partnership continuing the business.

DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

Sec.

8481. Events causing dissolution.

8482. Winding up and filing of certificates.

§ 8481. Events causing dissolution.

(a) General rule.--A partnership is dissolved, and its business shall be wound up, upon the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) In a partnership at will, the partnership knows or has notice of a person's express will to withdraw as a partner, other than a partner that has dissociated under section 8461(2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9) or (10) (relating to events causing dissociation), except that, if the person has specified a withdrawal date later than the date the partnership knew or had notice, on the later date.

(2) In a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking:

(i) within 90 days after a person's dissociation by death or otherwise under section 8461(6), (7), (8), (9) or (10) or wrongful dissociation under section 8462(b) (relating to power to dissociate as partner and wrongful dissociation), the affirmative vote or consent of at least half of the remaining partners to wind up the partnership business, for which purpose a person's rightful dissociation under section 8462(b)(2)(i) constitutes that partner's consent to wind up the partnership business;

(ii) the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners to wind up the partnership business; or

(iii) the expiration of the term or the completion of the undertaking.

(3) An event or circumstance that the partnership agreement states causes dissolution.

(4) On application by a partner, the entry by the court of an order dissolving the partnership on the grounds that:

(i) the conduct of all or substantially all the partnership's business is unlawful;

(ii) the economic purpose of the partnership is likely to be unreasonably frustrated;

(iii) another partner has engaged in conduct relating to the partnership business which makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in partnership with that partner; or

(iv) it is otherwise not reasonably practicable to carry on the partnership business in conformity with the partnership agreement.

(5) On application by a transferee, the entry by the court of an order dissolving the partnership on the grounds that it is equitable to wind up the partnership business:

(i) after the expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking, if the partnership was for a definite term or particular undertaking at the time of the transfer or entry of the charging order that gave rise to the transfer; or

(ii) at any time, if the partnership was a partnership at will at the time of the transfer or entry of the charging order that gave rise to the transfer.

(6) The passage of 90 consecutive days during which the partnership does not have at least two partners.

(b) Cross reference.--See section 8415(c)(15) (relating to contents of partnership agreement).

Cross References. Section 8481 is referred to in sections 8415, 8453, 8471 of this title.

§ 8482. Winding up and filing of certificates.

(a) General rule.--A dissolved partnership shall wind up its business and the partnership continues after dissolution only for the purpose of winding up.

(b) Conduct of winding up.--In winding up its business, the partnership:

(1) shall discharge the partnership's debts, obligations and other liabilities, settle and close the partnership's business, and marshal and distribute the assets of the partnership; and

(2) may:

(i) deliver to the department for filing a certificate of dissolution stating:

(A) the name of the partnership;

(B) if the partnership is a limited liability partnership, subject to section 109 (relating to name of commercial registered office provider in lieu of registered address), the address, including street and number, if any, of its registered office; and

(C) that the partnership is terminated; and

(vii) perform other acts necessary or appropriate to the winding up.

(c) Participation after dissociation.--A person whose dissociation as a partner resulted in dissolution may participate in winding up as if still a partner, unless the dissociation was wrongful.

(d) Conduct of winding up when no partner.--If a dissolved partnership does not have a partner and no person has the right to participate in winding up under subsection (c), the personal representative or guardian of the last person to have been a partner may wind up the partnership's business. If the personal representative or guardian does not exercise that right, a person to wind up the partnership's business may be appointed by the affirmative vote or consent of transferees owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions at the time the consent is to be effective. A person appointed under this subsection has the powers of a partner under section 8484 (relating to power to bind partnership after dissolution) but is not liable for the debts, obligations and other liabilities of the partnership solely by reason of having or exercising those powers or otherwise acting to wind up the partnership's business.

(e) Judicial supervision.--On the application of any partner or person entitled under subsection (c) to participate in winding up, a court may order judicial supervision of the winding up of a dissolved partnership, including the appointment of a person to wind up the partnership's business, if:

(a) Power of partner.--A partnership is bound by a partner's act after dissolution which:

(1) is appropriate for winding up the partnership business; or

(2) would have bound the partnership under section 8431 (relating to partner agent of partnership) before dissolution if, at the time the other party enters into the transaction, the other party does not know or have notice of the dissolution.

(b) Power of person dissociated as partner.--A person dissociated as a partner binds a partnership through an act occurring after dissolution if:

(1) at the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) less than two years have passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) the other party does not know or have notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a partner; and

(a) Liability of partner.--If a partner having knowledge of the dissolution causes a partnership to incur an obligation under section 8484(a)(2) (relating to power to bind partnership after dissolution) by an act that is not appropriate for winding up the partnership business, the partner is liable:

(1) to the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership arising from the obligation; and

(2) if another partner or person dissociated as a partner is liable for the obligation, to that other partner or person for any damage caused to that other partner or person arising from the liability.

(b) Liability of person dissociated as partner.--Except as provided under subsection (c), if a person dissociated as a partner causes a partnership to incur an obligation under section 8484(b), the person is liable:

- (1) to the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership arising from the obligation; and
- (2) if a partner or another person dissociated as a partner is liable for the obligation, to the partner or other person for any damage caused to the partner or other person arising from the obligation.

§ 8486. Disposition of assets in winding up and required contributions.

(a) Creditors.--In winding up its business, a partnership shall apply its assets, including the contributions required by this section, to discharge the partnership's obligations to creditors, including partners that are creditors.

(b) Surplus.--After a partnership complies with subsection (a), any surplus shall be distributed in the following order, subject to any charging order in effect under section 8454 (relating to charging order):

- (1) to each owner of a transferable interest that reflects contributions made and not previously returned, an amount equal to the value of the unreturned contributions; and
- (2) among owners of transferable interests in proportion to their respective rights to share in distributions immediately before the dissolution of the partnership.

(c) Insufficient assets.--If a partnership's assets are insufficient to satisfy all its obligations under subsection (a), with respect to each unsatisfied obligation incurred when the partnership was not a limited liability partnership, the following rules apply:

(1) Each person that was a partner when the obligation was incurred and that has not been released from the obligation under section 8473(c) (relating to liability of person dissociated as partner to other persons) shall contribute to the partnership for the purpose of enabling the partnership to satisfy the obligation. The contribution due from each of those persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions when the obligation was incurred.

(2) If a person does not contribute the full amount required under paragraph (1) with respect to an unsatisfied obligation of the partnership, the other persons required to contribute under paragraph (1) on account of the obligation shall contribute the additional amount necessary to discharge the obligation. The additional contribution due from each of those other persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions when the obligation was incurred.

(3) If a person does not make the additional contribution required under paragraph (2), further additional contributions are determined and due in the same manner as provided in that paragraph.

(d) Recovery of additional contributions.--A person that makes an additional contribution under subsection (c)(2) or (3) may recover from any person whose failure to contribute under subsection (c)(1) or (2) necessitated the additional contribution. A person may not recover under this subsection more than the amount additionally contributed. A person's liability under this subsection shall not exceed the amount the person failed to contribute.

(e) Distributions when surplus insufficient.--If a partnership does not have sufficient surplus to comply with subsection (b)(1), the following shall apply:

(1) If the partnership has been a limited liability partnership at any time during its existence, any surplus must be distributed among the owners of transferable interests in proportion to the value of the respective unreturned contributions.

(2) If the partnership has never been a limited liability partnership, the partners and any person whose dissociation resulted in dissolution shall contribute to the partnership funds sufficient to cause the insufficiency under subsection (b)(1) to be allocated consistently with section 8441(a) (relating to partner's rights and duties).

(1) is effective with regard to any debt, obligation or other liability of the partnership or its partners to the person in the person's capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a partner; and

(2) is not effective to the extent the amendment imposes a new debt, obligation or other liability on the transferee or person dissociated as a partner.

(2) If a document other than its certificate of limited partnership that has been delivered by a limited partnership to the department for filing becomes effective and conflicts with a provision of the partnership agreement:

(i) the agreement prevails as to partners, persons dissociated as partners and transferees; and

(ii) the document prevails as to other persons to the extent they reasonably rely on the document.

(e) Prohibition of oral amendments.--If a provision of a partnership agreement in record form provides that the partnership agreement cannot be amended, modified or rescinded except in record form, an oral agreement, amendment, modification or rescission shall not be enforceable.

(7) A copy of any record made by the partnership during the past three years of any consent given by or vote taken of any partner under this title or the partnership agreement.

(8) Unless contained in a provision of the partnership agreement in record form, a record stating:

(i) a description and statement of the agreed value of contributions other than money made and agreed to be made by each partner;

(ii) the times at which, or events on the happening of which, any additional contributions agreed to be made by each partner are to be made;

(iii) for any person that is both a general partner and a limited partner, a specification of what transferable interest the person owns in each capacity; and

Cross References. Section 8618 is referred to in sections 8612, 8615 of this title.

§ 8619. Dual capacity.

A person may be both a general partner and a limited partner. A person that is both a general and limited partner has the rights, powers, duties and obligations provided by this title and the partnership agreement in each of those capacities. When the person acts as a general partner, the person is subject to the obligations, duties and restrictions under this title and the partnership agreement for general partners. When the person acts as a limited partner, the person is subject to the obligations, duties and restrictions under this title and the partnership agreement for limited partners.

§ 8620. Characteristics of limited partnership.

(b) Purpose.--A limited partnership may have any lawful purpose, other than acting as a banking institution, credit union or insurer, regardless of whether the purpose is for profit. See section 8102 (relating to interchangeability of partnership, limited liability company and corporate forms of organization).

(c) Duration.--A limited partnership has perpetual duration.

(d) Powers.--A limited partnership has the capacity to sue and be sued in its own name and the power to do all things necessary or convenient to carry on its activities and affairs.

(e) Restrictions on nonprofit limited partnerships.--If a limited partnership has a purpose that is not for profit:

(1) Its purpose must be stated in the certificate of limited partnership.

(2) The partnership shall not distribute any part of its income or profits to its partners, but it may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to those persons for services rendered.

(3) The partnership may confer benefits on partners or nonpartners in conformity with its purposes, may repay capital contributions and may redeem evidences of indebtedness, except when the partnership is currently insolvent or would thereby be made insolvent or rendered unable to carry on its purposes, or when the fair value of the assets of the partnership remaining after the conferring of benefits, payment or redemption would be insufficient to meet its liabilities. The partnership may make distributions of money or property to partners upon dissolution or final liquidation as permitted by this chapter.

(4) If the partnership is organized for a charitable purpose, it may take, receive and hold real and personal property as may be given, devised to, or otherwise vested in the partnership, in trust, for the purpose or purposes set forth in its certificate of limited partnership. The general partners shall, as trustees of the property, be held to the same degree of responsibility and accountability as other trustees, unless:

(i) a lesser degree or a particular degree of responsibility and accountability is prescribed in the trust instrument; or

(ii) the general partners are under the control of the limited partners or third persons who retain the right to direct, and do direct, the actions of the general partners as to the use of the trust property from time to time.

(5) Property of the partnership committed to charitable purposes shall not, by any proceeding under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions) or otherwise, be diverted from the objects to which it was donated, granted or devised, unless and until the partnership obtains from the court an order under 20 Pa.C.S. Ch. 77 (relating to trusts) specifying the disposition of the property.

(f) Cross references.--See sections 8611(d) (relating to short title and application of chapter) and 8615 (relating to contents of partnership agreement).

(B) the person has previously delivered to the department for filing a certificate of dissociation.

SUBCHAPTER C
LIMITED PARTNERS

Sec.

8631. Becoming a limited partner.
8632. No agency power of limited partner as limited partner.
8633. No liability as limited partner for limited partnership obligations.
8634. Limited partner rights to information.
8635. Limited duties of limited partners.
8636. Person erroneously believing self to be limited partner.

§ 8631. Becoming a limited partner.

(a) Upon formation.--Upon formation of a limited partnership, a person becomes a limited partner as agreed among the persons that are to be the initial partners.

(b) After formation.--After formation, a person becomes a limited partner:

- (1) as provided in the partnership agreement;
- (2) as the result of a transaction effective under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions);
- (3) with the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners; or
- (4) as provided in section 8681(a)(4) or (5) (relating to events causing dissolution).

(c) Noneconomic limited partners.--A person may become a limited partner without:

- (1) acquiring a transferable interest; or
- (2) making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited partnership.

(d) Nature of interest.--The interest of a limited partner in a limited partnership is personal property.

Cross References. Section 8631 is referred to in section 8612 of this title.

§ 8632. No agency power of limited partner as limited partner.

(a) General rule.--A limited partner is not an agent of a limited partnership solely by reason of being a limited partner.

(b) Creation of partnership liability.--A person's status as a limited partner does not prevent or restrict law other than this chapter from imposing liability on a limited partnership because of the person's conduct.

§ 8633. No liability as limited partner for limited partnership obligations.

A debt, obligation or other liability of a limited partnership is not the debt, obligation or other liability of a limited partner. A limited partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation or other liability of the partnership solely by reason of being or acting as a limited partner, even if the limited partner participates in the management and control of the partnership. This subsection applies regardless of the dissolution, winding up or termination of the partnership.

§ 8634. Limited partner rights to information.

(a) Right to required information.--Within 10 days after receipt by a limited partnership of a demand made in record form, a limited partner may inspect and copy required information during regular business hours in the partnership's principal office. The limited partner need not have any particular purpose for seeking the information.

(b) Right to other information.--During regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the limited partnership, a limited partner may inspect and copy information, other than the required information, regarding the activities, affairs, financial condition and other circumstances of the partnership if:

(1) the limited partner seeks the information for a purpose reasonably related to the partner's interest as a limited partner;

(2) the limited partner makes a demand in record form received by the partnership, describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and the purpose for seeking the information; and

(3) the information sought is directly connected to the limited partner's purpose.

(c) Rights of person dissociated as limited partner.--Subject to subsection (h), on demand made in record form received by a limited partnership, a person dissociated as a limited partner may have access to information to which the person was entitled while a limited partner if:

(1) the information pertains to the period during which the person was a limited partner;

(2) in seeking the information the person complies with section 8635(a) (relating to limited duties of limited partners) as if still a limited partner; and

(3) the person satisfies the requirements imposed on a limited partner by subsection (b).

(d) Required response to demand.--Within 10 days after receiving a demand under subsection (b) or (c), the limited partnership shall inform in record form the person that made the demand of:

(1) what information the partnership will provide in response to the demand and when and where the partnership will provide the information; and

(2) the partnership's reasons for declining, if the partnership declines to provide any demanded information.

(e) Copying costs.--A limited partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying.

(f) Rights of agent or guardian.--A limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner may exercise the rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a guardian. Any restriction or condition imposed by the partnership agreement or under subsection (h) applies both to the agent or guardian and to the limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner.

(g) No rights of transferee.--Subject to section 8674 (relating to power of personal representative of deceased partner), the rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.

(h) Limitations on access.--In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its partnership agreement, a limited partnership, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

(i) Enforcement of right to information.--If the limited partnership, or a general partner or agent thereof, refuses to permit an inspection sought by a limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner or attorney or other agent acting for the limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner pursuant to subsection (a), (b) or (c), or does not reply to the demand made under any of those subsections within 10 days after the demand has been received, the limited partner may file an action in the court for an order to compel the inspection. The court is vested with exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether or not the person seeking inspection is entitled to the inspection sought. The court may summarily order the limited partnership to permit the limited partner to inspect the information and to make copies or extracts therefrom.

(j) Cross reference.--See section 8615 (relating to contents of partnership agreement).

Cross References. Section 8634 is referred to in sections 8615, 8662, 8674 of this title.

§ 8635. Limited duties of limited partners.

(a) Good faith and fair dealing.--A limited partner shall discharge any duties to the limited partnership and the other partners under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights under this title or the partnership agreement consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(b) No other duties.--Except as provided under subsection (a), a limited partner does not have any duty to the limited partnership or to any other partner solely by reason of acting as a limited partner.

(c) Transactions with limited partnership.--If a limited partner enters into a transaction with a limited partnership, the limited partner's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a partner.

(d) Cross reference.--See section 8615(c)(11) (relating to contents of partnership agreement).

Cross References. Section 8635 is referred to in sections 8615, 8634, 8661, 8662 of this title.

§ 8636. Person erroneously believing self to be limited partner.

(a) Right to correct.--Except as provided in subsection (b), a person that makes an investment in a business enterprise and erroneously but in good faith believes that the person has become a limited partner in the enterprise is not liable for the enterprise's obligations by reason of making the investment, receiving distributions from the enterprise or exercising any rights of or appropriate to a limited partner, if, on ascertaining the mistake, the person:

(1) causes an appropriate certificate of limited partnership, amendment or statement of correction to be signed and delivered to the department for filing;

(2) if a certificate of limited partnership is on file in the department, withdraws from future participation as an owner in the enterprise by delivering to the department for filing a certificate of negation under this section stating:

(i) the name of the limited partnership;

(ii) subject to section 109 (relating to name of commercial registered office provider in lieu of registered address), the address, including street and number, if any, of the partnership's registered office;

(iii) the name of the person delivering the certificate to the department for filing; and

(iv) that the person is not a general partner; or

(3) files a certificate of denial under section 8434 (relating to certificate of denial) as if the enterprise were a general partnership.

(b) Liability before correction.--A person that makes an investment described in subsection (a) is liable to the same extent as a general partner to any third party that enters into a transaction with the enterprise, believing in good faith that the person is a general partner, before the department files a certificate of negation, certificate of limited partnership, amendment or statement of correction to show that the person is not a general partner.

(c) Right to withdraw.--If a person makes a diligent effort in good faith to comply with subsection (a)(1) and is unable to cause the appropriate certificate of limited partnership, amendment or statement of correction to be signed and delivered to the department for filing, the person has the right to withdraw from the enterprise under subsection (a)(2) even if the withdrawal would otherwise breach an agreement with others that are or have agreed to become co-owners of the enterprise.

Cross References. Section 8641 is referred to in section 8612 of this title.

§ 8642. General partner agent of limited partnership.

(a) General rule.--Each general partner is an agent of the limited partnership for the purposes of its activities and affairs. An act of a general partner, including the signing of a document in record form in the partnership's name, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the partnership's activities and affairs, or activities and affairs of the kind carried on by the partnership, binds the partnership, unless the general partner did not have authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter and the person with which the general partner was dealing knew or had notice that the general partner lacked authority.

(b) Act outside of ordinary course.--An act of a general partner which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course the limited partnership's activities and affairs, or activities and affairs of the kind carried on by the partnership, binds the partnership only if the partner had actual authority to take the action.

(b) Misapplication of property.--If, in the course of a limited partnership's activities and affairs or while acting with actual or apparent authority of the partnership, a general partner receives or causes the partnership to receive money or property of a person not a partner, and the money or property is misapplied by a general partner, the partnership is liable for the loss.

§ 8644. General partner's liability.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided under subsection (b) or section 8204 (relating to limitation on liability of partners), all general partners are liable jointly and severally for all debts, obligations and other liabilities of the limited partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law.

(b) Judgment against partnership only.--A judgment against a partnership:

(1) is not by itself a judgment against a partner; and

(2) except as set forth in subsection (c), may not be satisfied from a partner's assets.

(c) Judgment against partnership and partner.--If there is a judgment against a partnership and a partner on the same claim, the judgment creditor may levy execution against the assets of the partner if both of the following paragraphs apply:

(1) The partner is personally liable for the claim under section 8644.

(2) One of the following subparagraphs applies:

(i) A writ of execution on the judgment against the partnership has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part.

(ii) The partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy.

(iii) The partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust partnership assets.

(iv) A court grants permission to levy execution based on a finding that:

(A) partnership assets subject to execution are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment;

(B) exhaustion of partnership assets is excessively burdensome; or

(C) the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's equitable powers.

(v) Liability is imposed on the partner by law or contract independent of the existence of the partnership.

§ 8646. Management rights.

(a) General rule.--Each general partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the limited partnership's activities and affairs. Except as provided in this title, any matter relating to the activities and affairs of the partnership is decided exclusively by the general partner or, if there is more than one general partner, by a majority of the general partners.

(b) Actions requiring unanimous approval.--The affirmative vote or consent of all the partners is required to:

(1) amend the partnership agreement; and

(2) amend the certificate of limited partnership to delete a statement that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership.

(c) Reimbursement of advance.--A limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for an advance to the partnership beyond the amount of capital the general partner agreed to contribute.

(d) Status of advance.--A payment or advance made by a general partner which gives rise to an obligation of the limited partnership under subsection (c) or section 8648(a) (relating to reimbursement, indemnification, advancement and insurance) constitutes a loan to the partnership which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(e) No right to remuneration.--A general partner is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for the limited partnership.

(f) Sale of assets.--A sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a limited partnership that is not made in the usual and regular course of the activities and affairs of the partnership must be approved by:

(b) Right to other information.--On reasonable notice, a general partner may inspect and copy during regular business hours, at a reasonable location specified by the limited partnership, any other records maintained by the partnership in addition to the required information regarding the partnership's activities, affairs, financial condition and other circumstances.

(c) Obligation of limited partnership.--A limited partnership shall furnish to each general partner, without demand, any information concerning the partnership's activities, affairs, financial condition and other circumstances which the partnership knows and is material to the proper exercise of the general partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this title, except to the extent the partnership can establish that it reasonably believes the general partner already knows the information.

(d) Obligation of general partner.--The duty to furnish information under subsection (c) also applies to each general partner to the extent the general partner knows any of the information described in subsection (b).

(e) Rights of person dissociated as general partner.--Subject to subsection (j), within 10 days after receipt by a limited partnership of a demand made in record form, a person dissociated as a general partner may have access to the information and records described under subsections (a) and (b) at the locations specified under subsections (a) and (b) if:

- (1) the information or record pertains to the period during which the person was a general partner;
- (2) in seeking the information or record, the person complies with section 8649(d) (relating to standards of conduct for general partners) as if still a general partner; and
- (3) all of the following apply:
  - (i) the person seeks the information for a purpose reasonably related to the partner's interest as a former general partner;
  - (ii) the person makes a demand in record form received by the partnership, describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and the purpose for seeking the information; and
  - (iii) the information sought is directly connected to the person's purpose.

(f) Required response to demand.--Within 10 days after receiving a demand under subsection (e), the limited partnership shall, in record form, inform the person that made the demand of:

(1) what information the partnership will provide in response to the demand and when and where the partnership will provide the information; and

(2) the partnership's reasons for declining, if the partnership declines to provide any demanded information.

(g) Copying costs.--A limited partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying.

(h) Rights of agent or guardian.--A general partner or person dissociated as a general partner may exercise the rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a guardian. Any restriction or condition imposed by the partnership agreement or under subsection (j) applies both to the agent or guardian and to the general partner or person dissociated as a general partner.

(i) No rights of transferee.--The rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee, except that if:

(1) a general partner dies, section 8674 (relating to power of personal representative of deceased partner) applies; and

(2) an individual dissociates as a general partner under section 8663(a)(7)(ii) or (iii) (relating to dissociation as general partner), the personal representative of the individual may exercise the rights under subsection (d) of a person dissociated as a general partner.

(j) Limitations on access.--In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its partnership agreement, a limited partnership, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

(k) Enforcement of right to information.--If the limited partnership, or a general partner or agent thereof, refuses to permit an inspection sought by a general partner or person dissociated as a general partner or attorney or other agent acting for the general partner or person dissociated as a general partner pursuant to subsection (a), (b) or (e), or does not reply to the demand made under any of those subsections within 10 days after the demand has been received, the general partner may file an action in the court for an order to compel the inspection. The court is vested with exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether or not the person seeking inspection is entitled to the inspection sought. The court may summarily order the limited partnership to permit the general partner to inspect the information and to make copies or extracts therefrom.

(b) Indemnification.--A limited partnership shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation or other liability incurred by the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a general partner, if the claim, demand, debt, obligation or other liability does not arise from the person's breach of section 8646, 8649 or 8654.

(c) Advancement.--In the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, a limited partnership may advance expenses, including attorney fees and costs, incurred by a person in connection with a claim or demand against the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a general partner, if the person promises to repay the partnership if the person ultimately is determined not to be entitled to be indemnified.

(d) Insurance.--A limited partnership may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a general partner against liability asserted against or incurred by the general partner in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under subsection (g), the partnership agreement could not eliminate or limit the person's liability to the partnership for the conduct giving rise to the liability.

(e) Nonexclusivity.--The rights provided under subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking reimbursement, indemnification, advancement of expenses or insurance may be entitled under the partnership agreement, vote of partners, contract or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding that position. Section 8649(f) shall be applicable to a vote, contract or other action under this subsection. A limited partnership may create a fund of any nature, which may, but need not be, under the control of a trustee, or otherwise secure or insure in any manner its indemnification obligations, whether arising under this section or otherwise.

(f) Grounds.--Indemnification under subsection (e) may be granted for any action taken and may be made whether or not the limited partnership would have the power to indemnify the person under any other provision of law except as provided in this section and whether or not the indemnified liability arises or arose from any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the partnership. Indemnification under subsection (e) is declared to be consistent with the public policy of the Commonwealth.

(g) Limitation.--Indemnification under this section shall not be made in any case where the act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to constitute recklessness, willful misconduct or a knowing violation of law.

(b) Duty of loyalty.--The fiduciary duty of loyalty of a general partner includes the duties:

(1) to account to the limited partnership and hold as trustee for it any property, profit or benefit derived by the general partner:

(i) in the conduct or winding up of the partnership's activities and affairs;

(ii) from a use by the general partner of the partnership's property; or

(iii) from the appropriation of a partnership opportunity;

(2) to refrain from dealing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership's activities and affairs as or on behalf of a person having an interest adverse to the partnership; and

(3) to refrain from competing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership's activities and affairs.

(c) Duty of care.--The duty of care of a general partner in the conduct or winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs is to refrain from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, willful or intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law.

(d) Good faith and fair dealing.--A general partner shall discharge the duties and obligations under this title or under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights consistent with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(e) Self-serving conduct.--A general partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this title or under the partnership agreement solely because the general partner's conduct furthers the general partner's own interest.

(f) Authorization or ratification.--All the partners of a limited partnership may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty of a general partner.

(g) Fairness as a defense.--It is a defense to a claim under subsection (b) (2) and any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the limited partnership at the time it is authorized or ratified under subsection (f).

(h) Rights and obligations in approved transactions.--If a general partner enters into a transaction with the limited partnership which otherwise would be prohibited by subsection (b) (2) and the transaction is authorized or ratified as provided in subsection (f) or the partnership agreement, the general partner's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a general partner.

(i) Exoneration.--The partnership agreement may provide that a general partner shall not be personally liable for monetary damages to the partnership or the other partner for a breach of subsection (c), except that a general partner may not be exonerated for an act that constitutes recklessness, willful misconduct or a knowing violation of law.

(j) Cross reference.--See section 8615 (relating to contents of partnership agreement).

CONTRIBUTIONS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

Sec.

- 8651. Form of contribution.
- 8652. Liability for contribution.
- 8653. Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.
- 8654. Limitations on distributions.
- 8655. Liability for improper distributions.

§ 8651. Form of contribution.

A contribution may consist of:

- (1) property transferred to, services performed for or another benefit provided to the limited partnership;
- (2) an agreement to transfer property to, perform services for or provide another benefit to the partnership; or
- (3) any combination of items listed in paragraphs (1) and (2).

§ 8652. Liability for contribution.

(a) Obligation not excused.--A person's obligation to make a contribution to a limited partnership is not excused by the person's death, disability, termination or other inability to perform personally.

(b) Substitute payment.--If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person is obligated at the option of the limited partnership to contribute money equal to the value, as stated in the required information, of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

(c) Compromise of obligation.--The obligation of a person to make a contribution may be compromised only by the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners. If a creditor of a limited partnership extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection (a) without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

§ 8653. Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.

(a) General rule.--Any distribution made by a limited partnership before its dissolution and winding up must be shared among the partners and persons dissociated as partners on the basis of the value, as stated in the required information when the limited partnership decides to make the distribution, of the contributions the limited partnership has received from each partner, except as provided in section 8672(b) (relating to transfer of transferable interest) or to the extent necessary to comply with a charging order in effect under section 8673 (relating to charging order).

(b) No entitlement to distribution.--A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited partnership only if the partnership decides to make an interim distribution. A person's dissociation does not entitle the person to a distribution.

(c) Distribution in kind.--A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited partnership in any form other than money. Except as provided under section 8690(f) (relating to disposition of assets in winding up and required contributions), a partnership may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

(d) Status as creditor.--If a partner or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the partner or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited partnership with respect to the distribution, except that the partnership's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the partnership by the partner or a person dissociated as a partner on whose account the distribution is made.

Cross References. Section 8653 is referred to in section 8617 of this title.

§ 8654. Limitations on distributions.

(a) General rule.--A limited partnership may not make a distribution, including a distribution under section 8690 (relating to disposition of assets in winding up and required contributions), if after the distribution:

(1) the partnership would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the partnership's activities and affairs; or

(2) the partnership's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the partnership were to be dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution and winding up of partners and transferees whose preferential rights are superior to the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

(b) Valuation.--A limited partnership may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (a) (2) on:

(1) the book values of the assets and liabilities of the partnership, as reflected on its books and records;

(2) a valuation that takes into consideration unrealized appreciation and depreciation or other changes in value of the assets and liabilities of the partnership;

(3) the current value of the assets and liabilities of the partnership, either valued separately or valued in segments or as an entirety as a going concern; or

(4) any other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(c) Excluded liabilities.--In determining whether a distribution is prohibited by subsection (a) (2), the limited partnership need not consider obligations and liabilities unless they are required to be reflected on a balance sheet, not including the notes to the balance sheet, prepared on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles or other such accounting practices and principles as are used generally by the partnership in the maintenance of its books and records and as are reasonable in the circumstances.

(d) Measuring date of distribution.--Except as provided in subsection (e), the effect of a distribution under subsection (a) is measured:

(1) as of the date specified by the limited partnership when it authorizes the distribution if the distribution occurs within 125 days of the earlier of the date so specified or the date of authorization; or

(2) as of the date of distribution in all other cases.

(e) Date of redemption.--In the case of a distribution described in paragraph (1) of the definition of "distribution" in section 8612 (relating to definitions), the distribution is deemed to occur as of the earlier of the date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the limited partnership or the date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or right being acquired by the partnership in return for the distribution.

(f) Status of distribution debt.--The indebtedness of a limited partnership to a partner or transferee incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section shall be at least on a parity with the partnership's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(g) Certain subordinated debt.--The indebtedness of a limited partnership, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of subsection (a) if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

(h) Distributions in winding up.--In measuring the effect of a distribution under section 8690, the liabilities of a dissolved limited partnership do not include any claim that has been barred under section 8686 (relating to known claims against dissolved limited partnership) or 8687 (relating to other claims against dissolved limited partnership), or for which security has been provided under section 8688 (relating to court proceedings).

(i) Cross references.--See sections 8615(d)(1)(ii) (relating to contents of partnership agreement) and 8649 (relating to standards of conduct for general partners).

Cross References. Section 8654 is referred to in sections 8615, 8648, 8655 of this title.

§ 8655. Liability for improper distributions.

(a) General rule.--If a general partner consents to a distribution made in violation of section 8654 (relating to limitations on distributions) and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with section 8649 (relating to standards of conduct for general partners), the general partner is personally liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of section 8654.

(b) Recipients.--A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violated section 8654 is personally liable to the limited partnership but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under section 8654.

(c) Contribution.--A general partner against which an action is commenced because the general partner is liable under subsection (a) may:

(1) join any other person that is liable under subsection (a) or otherwise seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person; and

(2) join any person that received a distribution in violation of subsection (b) or otherwise seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person received in violation of subsection (b).

(d) Statute of repose.--An action under this section is barred unless commenced within two years after the distribution.

(a) Power to bind.--After a person is dissociated as a general partner and before the limited partnership is merged or divided out of existence, converted or domesticated under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions) or dissolved, the partnership is bound by an act of the person only if:

(1) the act would have bound the partnership under section 8642 (relating to general partner agent of limited partnership) before the dissociation; and

(2) at the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) less than two years have passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) the other party does not know or have notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a general partner.

(b) Liability.--If a limited partnership is bound under subsection (a), the person dissociated as a general partner which caused the partnership to be bound is liable:

(1) to the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership arising from the obligation incurred under subsection (a); and

(2) if a general partner or another person dissociated as a general partner is liable for the obligation, to the general partner or other person for any damage caused to the general partner or other person arising from the liability.

§ 8667. Liability of person dissociated as general partner to other persons.

(a) General rule.--A person's dissociation as a general partner does not of itself discharge the person's liability as a general partner for a debt, obligation or other liability of the limited partnership incurred before dissociation. Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c), the person is not liable for a partnership obligation incurred after dissociation.

(b) Obligations incurred after dissolution.--A person whose dissociation as a general partner results in a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs is liable on an obligation incurred by the partnership under section 8685 (relating to general partner liability after dissolution) to the same extent as a general partner under section 8644 (relating to general partner's liability).

(c) When partnership not dissolved.--A person that is dissociated as a general partner without the dissociation resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs is liable on a transaction entered into by the partnership after the dissociation only if a general partner would be liable on the transaction, but at the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(1) less than two years have passed since the dissociation; and

(2) the other party does not have knowledge or notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a general partner.

(d) Constructive release by creditor.--A person dissociated as a general partner is released from liability for a debt, obligation or other liability of the limited partnership if the partnership's creditor, with knowledge or notice of the person's dissociation as a general partner and without the person's consent, agrees to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the debt, obligation or other liability. The release from liability under this subsection applies whether the liability arises directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, but only if the liability arises solely by reason of having been a general partner.

8672. Transfer of transferable interest.

8673. Charging order.

8674. Power of personal representative of deceased partner.

§ 8671. Nature of transferable interest.

(a) Personal property.--A transferable interest is personal property.

(b) Only right that may be transferred.--A person may not transfer to a person not a partner any rights in a limited partnership other than a transferable interest.

§ 8672. Transfer of transferable interest.

(a) General rule.--A transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:

(1) is permissible;

(2) does not by itself cause the dissociation of the transferor as a partner or a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs; and

(3) subject to section 8674 (relating to power of personal representative of deceased partner), does not entitle the transferee to:

(i) participate in the management or conduct of the partnership's activities and affairs; or

(ii) except as provided under subsection (c), have access to required information, records or other information concerning the partnership's activities and affairs.

(b) Right to distributions.--A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.

(c) Right to account on dissolution.--In a dissolution and winding up of a limited partnership, a transferee is entitled to an account of the partnership's transactions only from the date of dissolution.

(d) Certificate of interest.--A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by a limited partnership in record form, and, subject to this section, the interest represented by the certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.

(e) Recognition of transferee's rights.--A limited partnership need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until the partnership knows or has notice of the transfer.

(f) Transfer restrictions.--A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the partnership agreement is ineffective if the intended transferee has knowledge or notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

(g) Rights retained by transferor.--Except as provided under sections 8661(b)(4)(ii) (relating to dissociation as limited partner) and 8663(a)(4)(ii) (relating to dissociation as general partner), if a general or limited partner transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a general or limited partner other than the transferable interest transferred and retains all the duties and obligations of a general or limited partner.

Cross References. Section 8672 is referred to in sections 8653, 8673, 8674 of this title.

§ 8673. Charging order.

(a) General rule.--On application by a judgment creditor of a partner or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A charging order constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor's transferable interest and requires the limited partnership to pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that otherwise would be paid to the judgment debtor.

(b) Available relief.--To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a charging order in effect under subsection (a), the court may:

(1) appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made; and

(2) make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

(c) Foreclosure.--Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the transferable interest. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the transferable interest, does not thereby become a partner and is subject to section 8672 (relating to transfer of transferable interest).

(d) Satisfaction of judgment.--At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c), the partner or transferee whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection (a) may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

(c) Contents of demand.--A demand under this section must be in record form and give notice with reasonable specificity of:

(i) was done merely to eliminate derivative claims;

or

(ii) has the effect of a reorganization that does not affect the plaintiff's ownership of the business enterprise.

(b) Exception.--Any partner that, except for the provisions of subsection (a), would be entitled to maintain the action or proceeding and that does not meet such requirements may,

(d) Failure to maintain ownership.--If a plaintiff loses the right to maintain a derivative action under subsection (a)(2), the court may entertain a motion by the limited partnership to substitute the partnership as the named plaintiff.

- (2) are capable as a group of objective judgment in the circumstances; and
- (3) may, but need not, be general or limited partners.

(c.1) Committee members who are not general partners.--A member of a special litigation committee who is not a general partner, when acting as a member of the committee, is subject to the liabilities imposed, and entitled to the rights and immunities conferred, by sections 8648 (relating to reimbursement, indemnification, advancement and insurance) and 8649 (relating to standards of conduct for general partners).

(d) Appointment of committee.--A special litigation committee may be appointed:

- (1) by a majority of the general partners not named as actual or potential parties in the demand or action; or
- (2) if all general partners are named as actual or potential parties in the demand or action, by a majority of the general partners so named.

(e) Determination.--After appropriate investigation by a special litigation committee, the committee may determine, or the committee may recommend to the general partners that the general partners determine, that it is in the best interests of the limited partnership that:

- (1) an action based on some or all of the claims asserted in the demand not be brought by the partnership but that the partnership not object to an action being brought by the party that made the demand;
- (2) an action based on some or all of the claims asserted in the demand be brought by the partnership;
- (3) some or all of the claims asserted in the demand be settled on terms determined or recommended by the committee;
- (4) an action not be brought based on any of the claims asserted in the demand;
- (5) an action already commenced continue under the control of:
  - (i) the plaintiff;

(f) Court review and action.--If a special litigation committee is appointed and a derivative action is commenced before or after either the committee makes a determination under subsection (e) or the general partners determine under that subsection to accept the recommendation of the committee:

- (1) The limited partnership or the committee shall file with the court after a determination is made under subsection (e) a statement of the determination and a report of the committee supporting the determination. The partnership or the committee shall serve each party with a copy of the determination and report. If the partnership or the committee moves to file the report under seal, the report shall be served on the parties subject to an appropriate stipulation agreed to by the parties or a protective order issued by the court.

(2) The partnership or the committee shall file with the court a motion, pleading or notice consistent with the determination under subsection (e).

(3) If the determination is one described in subsection (e)(2), (3), (4), (5)(ii), (6) or (7), the court shall determine whether the members of the committee met the qualifications required under subsection (c)(1) and (2) and whether the committee conducted its investigation and made its determination or recommendation in good faith, independently and with reasonable care. The plaintiff has the burden of proving that the committee did not meet those qualifications or act in the required manner. If the court finds that the members of the committee met the qualifications required under subsection (c)(1) and (2) and that the committee acted in good faith, independently and with reasonable care, the court shall enforce the determination of the committee or the general partners. Otherwise, the court shall:

(i) dissolve any stay of discovery entered under subsection (b);

(g) Attorney General.--Nothing in this section shall limit the rights, powers and duties of the Attorney General under other applicable law with respect to a limited partnership organized for a charitable purpose.

(h) Interest of a defendant.--The fact that a person is named as a defendant does not make the person interested in the claims asserted in a demand or action for purposes of subsection (c)(1) if the claims against the person:

(1) are based only on an allegation that the person approved of or acquiesced in the transaction or conduct that is the subject of the claims; and the attorney fees awarded exceed a reasonable proportion of the value of the relief, including nonpecuniary relief, obtained by the plaintiff for the limited partnership.

(2) do not otherwise allege with particularity facts that, if true, raise a significant prospect that the person would be adjudged liable.

§ 8701. Scope and definition.

(a) Application of chapter.--This chapter applies to a general or limited partnership formed under the laws of this Commonwealth that elects to be governed by this chapter. Any partnership that desires to elect to be governed by this chapter, or to amend or terminate the election, shall deliver to the Department of State for filing a statement of election, amendment or termination, as the case may be, which shall be signed by a general partner and shall set forth:

- (1) The name of the partnership.
- (2) The location of the principal place of business.
- (3) The name of each general partner of the partnership as of the date of the statement.

(a.1) Effective date and time.--Subject to section 136(c) (relating to processing of documents by Department of State), upon the filing of the statement of election, amendment or termination in the department, the election to be governed by this chapter shall be effective, amended or terminated, as the case may be.

(b) Effect of election.--As long as an election under subsection (a) is in effect, the partnership shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter and, to the extent not inconsistent with this chapter, Chapter 84 (relating to general partnerships) or, if a limited partnership, Chapter 86 (relating to limited partnerships).

Cross References. Section 8701 is referred to in sections 102, 8703 of this title.

§ 8702. Centralized management.

The business and affairs of every electing partnership shall be managed by one-third or less, but not less than one, of the partners selected for that purpose in the manner provided by any agreement between the partners, and no other partner shall have a right to participate in the management of the partnership. A partner of an electing partnership shall be an agent of the partnership only to the extent that an employee of the partnership would be under like circumstances. In making such a determination, the court may consider among other things whether a person dealing with the partnership has knowledge, as defined in section 8413(a) (relating to knowledge and notice), that this section is applicable to the partnership.
(Nov. 21, 2016, P.L.1328, No.170, eff. 90 days)

§ 8703. Continuity of life.

An electing partnership shall not be dissolved by the death, dissolution, insanity, retirement, resignation or expulsion of a partner or by the bankruptcy of a partner or the partnership. Changes in the composition of the partnership shall be evidenced by the prompt filing of a statement of amendment under section 8701(a) (relating to application of chapter). If fewer than two partners who are not bankrupt or insane remain, the court shall appoint a custodian of the partnership property for the purpose of continuing its business or, upon cause shown, winding up its affairs.

§ 8704. Free transferability of interests.

The agreement between the partners of an electing partnership may provide that the property rights of a partner in the partnership shall be evidenced by shares of one or more classes or series. In that event, the transfer of all of the shares by a partner shall operate to terminate his membership in the partnership, and the transfer of any share by a partner shall operate to make the transferee a member of the partnership without the consent of any other partner. The transfer of certificates and the shares represented thereby may be regulated by the agreement between the partners if the agreement is not inconsistent with 13 Pa.C.S. Div. 8 (relating to investment securities).

§ 8705. Limited liability in certain cases.

(a) General rule.--The liability of a partner of an electing partnership for the debts and obligations of the partnership shall be satisfied out of partnership assets alone if the debt or obligation arises from a transaction or occurrence in which the person dealing with the partnership has notice, as defined in section 8413(b) (relating to knowledge and notice), that this section is applicable to the partnership.

(b) Exceptions.--Subsection (a) does not apply:

(1) Unless otherwise agreed by the obligee, to a debt or obligation arising prior to the time a partnership becomes an electing partnership.

(2) To a transaction or occurrence involving the furnishing or sale of any goods or services by the partnership.

(c) Professional relationship unaffected.--Subsection (a) shall not afford the partners of an electing partnership providing professional services with greater immunity than is available to the officers, shareholders, employees or agents of a professional corporation. See section 2925 (relating to professional relationship retained). (Dec. 7, 1994, P.L.703, No.106, eff. 60 days; Nov. 21, 2016, P.L.1328, No.170, eff. 90 days)

§ 8707. Modification by agreement.

(a) General rule.--The provisions of this chapter are intended to permit an electing partnership to qualify for taxation as an association under the United States Internal Revenue Code and to permit partners of an electing partnership to be employed by, and compensated as employees of, the association. The agreement between the partners of an electing partnership may effect any change in the form of organization of the partnership in addition to or in contravention of the changes authorized by this chapter that may be necessary to accomplish those purposes but only to the extent necessary to accomplish those purposes.

(b) Exception.--A provision adopted under subsection (a) shall not modify section 8705 (relating to limited liability in certain cases).

§ 8708. Taxation of electing partnerships.

For the purposes of the imposition by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision of any tax or license fee on or with respect to any property, privilege, transaction, subject or occupation, a partnership as to which an election under this chapter is in effect shall be deemed to be a corporation organized and existing under Subpart B of Part II (relating to business corporations).

(b) Obligations to nonmembers.--The obligations of a limited liability company and its members to a person in the person's capacity as a transferee or a person dissociated as a member are governed by the operating agreement. Except as provided in section 8844(d) (relating to sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution) or in a court order issued under section 8853(b)(2) (relating to charging order) to effectuate a charging order, an amendment to the operating agreement made after a person becomes a transferee or is dissociated as a member:

(1) is effective with regard to any debt, obligation or other liability of the limited liability company or its members to the person in the person's capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a member; and

(2) is not effective to the extent the amendment imposes a new debt, obligation or other liability on the transferee or person dissociated as a member.

(c) Provisions in filed documents.--If a document delivered by a limited liability company to the department for filing contains a provision that would be ineffective under section 8815(c) or (d)(3) (relating to contents of operating agreement) if contained in the operating agreement, the provision is ineffective in the document.

(d) Conflicts with operating agreement.--Subject to subsection (c):

(1) If a provision of the certificate of organization conflicts with a provision of the operating agreement, the provision of the certificate prevails.

(2) If a document other than its certificate of organization has been delivered by the company to the department for filing and conflicts with a provision of the operating agreement:

(i) the operating agreement prevails as to members, dissociated members, transferees and managers; and

(ii) the document prevails as to other persons to the extent they reasonably rely on the document.

(e) Prohibition of oral amendments.--If a provision of an operating agreement in record form provides that the operating agreement cannot be amended, modified or rescinded except in record form, an oral agreement, amendment, modification or rescission shall not be enforceable.

See section 8102 (relating to interchangeability of partnership, limited liability company and corporate forms of organization).

(c) Duration.--A limited liability company has perpetual duration.

(d) Restrictions on nonprofit companies.--If a limited liability company has a purpose that is not for profit:

(3) The company may confer benefits on members or nonmembers in conformity with its purposes, may repay capital contributions and may redeem evidences of indebtedness, except when the company is currently insolvent or would thereby be made insolvent or rendered unable to carry on its purposes, or when the fair value of the assets of the company remaining after the conferring of benefits, payment or redemption would be insufficient to meet its liabilities. The company may make distributions of money or property to members upon dissolution or final liquidation as permitted by this chapter.

(4) If the company is organized for a charitable purpose, it may take, receive and hold real and personal property as may be given, devised to or otherwise vested in the company, in trust, for the purpose or purposes set forth in its certificate of organization. The members, if it is member managed, or the managers, if it is manager managed, shall, as trustees of the property, be held to the same degree of responsibility and accountability as other trustees, unless:

(i) a lesser degree or a particular degree of responsibility and accountability is prescribed in the trust instrument;

(ii) if the company is member managed, the members remain under the control of third persons who retain the right to direct, and do direct, the actions of the members as to the use of the trust property from time to time; or

(iii) if the company is manager managed, the managers remain under the control of the members or third persons who retain the right to direct, and do direct, the actions of the managers as to the use of the trust property from time to time.

(5) Property of the company committed to charitable purposes shall not, by any proceeding under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions) or otherwise, be diverted from the objects to which it was donated, granted or devised, unless and until the company obtains from the court an order under 20 Pa.C.S. Ch. 77 (relating to trusts) specifying the disposition of the property.

(1) a person that signed the document or caused another to sign it on the person's behalf and knew there was false or missing information in the document at the time it was signed; and

(2) subject to subsection (b), a member of a member-managed limited liability company or a manager of a manager-managed limited liability company if:

(i) the document was delivered for filing on behalf of the company; and

(ii) the member or manager knew or had notice there was false or missing information for a reasonably sufficient time before the document was relied upon so that, before the reliance, the member or manager reasonably could have:

SUBCHAPTER C

RELATIONS OF MEMBERS AND MANAGERS TO PERSONS DEALING WITH LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

Sec.

8831. Status of member or manager as agent.

8832. Certificate of authority.

8833. Certificate of denial.

8834. Liability of members and managers.

8835. Taxation of limited liability companies.

§ 8831. Status of member or manager as agent.

(a) No agency power of member as member.--A member is not an agent of a limited liability company solely by reason of being a member.

(b) Agency power of manager.--If the certificate of organization states that the company is manager managed, the act of a manager for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of the company binds the company unless the manager so acting has in fact no authority to act for the company in the particular matter and the person with whom the manager is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the manager does not have that authority.

(c) Liability of company under other law.--A person's status as a member or manager does not prevent or restrict law other than this chapter from imposing liability on a limited liability company because of the person's conduct.

§ 8832. Certificate of authority.

(a) General rule.--A limited liability company may deliver to the department for filing a certificate of authority signed by the company. The certificate:

(1) must include the name of the company and, subject to section 109 (relating to name of commercial registered office provider in lieu of registered address), the address, including street and number, if any, of its registered office;

(2) with respect to any position that exists in or with respect to the company, may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of all persons holding the position to:

(i) transfer real property held in the name of the company, including signing an instrument of transfer;
or

(ii) enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the company; and

(3) may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of a specific person to:

(i) transfer real property held in the name of the company, including signing an instrument of transfer;
or

(ii) enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the company.

(b) Amendment or cancellation.--To amend or cancel a certificate of authority filed by the department, a limited liability company must deliver to the department for filing an amendment or cancellation that states:

(1) the name of the company;

(2) subject to section 109, the address, including street and number, if any, of the company's registered office;

(3) the date the certificate being affected became effective; and

(4) the contents of the amendment or a statement that the certificate is canceled.

(c) Effect.--A certificate of authority:

(1) supersedes any inconsistent provision of the certificate of organization in effect at the time the certificate of authority becomes effective;

(2) affects only the power of a person to bind a limited liability company with respect to persons that are not members; and

(3) is not binding on the department for purposes of the administration of this title or any other provision of law.

(d) Certificate not evidence of knowledge or notice.--Except as provided in subsections (e), (f), (g) and (h), a limitation on the authority of a person or a position contained in an effective certificate of authority is not by itself evidence of knowledge or notice of the limitation by any person.

(e) Authority not pertaining to real property.--A grant of authority not pertaining to transfers of real property and contained in an effective certificate of authority is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that when the person gives value:

(1) the person has knowledge to the contrary;

(2) the certificate has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection (b); or

(3) a limitation on the grant is contained in another certificate of authority that became effective after the certificate containing the grant became effective.

(f) Authority to transfer real property.--An effective certificate of authority or certificate of organization that grants authority to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability company, a certified copy of which certificate is recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which the property is located, is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the contrary, except to the extent that when the person gives value:

(1) the certificate has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection (b), and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment has been recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds; or

(2) a limitation on the grant is contained in another certificate of authority that became effective after the certificate containing the grant became effective, and a certified copy of the later-effective certificate is recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds.

(g) Effect of recorded certificate.--If a certified copy of an effective certificate containing a limitation on the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability company is recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which the real property is located, all persons are deemed to know of the limitation.

(h) Effect of dissolution or termination of company.--An effective certificate of dissolution does not cancel a filed certificate of authority for the purposes of subsection (f) and is a limitation on authority for the purposes of subsection (g). An effective certificate of termination cancels a filed certificate of authority.

(i) Automatic cancellation.--Unless earlier canceled, an effective certificate of authority that names an individual as having authority is canceled by operation of law five years after the date on which the certificate, or its most recent amendment, becomes effective. The cancellation operates without need for any recording under subsection (f) or (g).

(1) operates as a restrictive amendment under this section, and a certified copy may be recorded as provided in subsection (f)(1) by the limited liability company or the person that delivered the certificate of denial to the department for filing;

(2) affects only the authority of a person to bind the company with respect to persons that are not members; and

(3) supersedes any inconsistent provision of the certificate of organization in effect at the time the certificate of denial becomes effective.

(k) Foreign companies.--A foreign limited liability company may deliver a certificate of authority to the department for filing and may record a copy as provided in this section in the same manner and with the same effect as if it were a domestic company and regardless of whether the foreign company is registered to do business in this Commonwealth under Chapter 4 (relating to foreign associations).

Section 134 (relating to docketing statement).

Section 135 (relating to requirements to be met by filed documents).

Cross References. Section 8832 is referred to in sections 8813, 8821, 8833 of this title.

§ 8833. Certificate of denial.

(a) General rule.--A person named in a filed certificate of authority granting that person authority may deliver to the department for filing a certificate of denial that:

(1) states:

(i) the name of the limited liability company;

(ii) subject to section 109 (relating to name of commercial registered office provider in lieu of registered address), the address, including street and number, if any, of the registered office of the company; and

(iii) the date the certificate of authority to which the certificate of denial pertains was filed; and

(2) denies the grant of authority.

(b) Cross references.--See:

Section 134 (relating to docketing statement).

Section 136(c) (relating to processing of documents by Department of State).

Section 8823 (relating to signing of filed documents).

Section 8832(j) (relating to certificate of authority).

Cross References. Section 8833 is referred to in section 8823 of this title.

§ 8834. Liability of members and managers.

(a) General rule.--A debt, obligation or other liability of a limited liability company is solely the debt, obligation or other liability of the company. A member or manager is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation or other liability of the company solely by reason of being or acting as a member or manager. This subsection applies regardless of:

(1) whether the company has a single member or multiple members; and

(2) the dissolution, winding up or termination of the company.

(b) Professional relationship unaffected.--Subsection (a) shall not afford members of a professional company with greater immunity than is available to the officers, shareholders, employees or agents of a professional corporation. See section 2925 (relating to professional relationship retained).

(c) Disciplinary jurisdiction unaffected.--A professional company shall be subject to the applicable rules and regulations adopted by, and all the disciplinary powers of, the court, department, board, commission or other government unit regulating the profession in which the company is engaged. The court, department, board or other government unit may require that a company include in its certificate of organization or operating agreement provisions that conform to any rule or regulation promulgated before, on or after the effective date of this section for the purpose of enforcing the ethics of a profession. This chapter shall not affect or impair the disciplinary powers of the court, department, board, commission or other government unit over licensed persons or any law, rule or regulation pertaining to the standards for professional conduct of licensed persons or to the professional relationship between any licensed person rendering professional services and the person receiving professional services.

(1) Except as provided by a statute, rule or regulation applicable to a particular profession, a professional company may lawfully render professional services only through licensed persons. The company may employ persons not so licensed except that those persons shall not render any professional services rendered or to be rendered by it.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be interpreted to preclude the use of clerks, secretaries, nurses, administrators, bookkeepers, technicians and other assistants or paraprofessionals who are not usually and ordinarily considered by law, custom and practice to be rendering the professional service or services for which the professional company was organized nor to preclude the use of any other person who performs all of the person's employment under the direct supervision and control of a licensed person. A person shall not under the guise of employment render professional services unless duly licensed or admitted to practice as required by law.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a professional company may charge for the professional services rendered by it, may collect those charges and may compensate those who render the professional services.

(e) Medical professional liability.--A professional company shall be deemed to be a partnership for purposes of section 744 of the act of March 20, 2002 (P.L.154, No.13), known as the Medical Care Availability and Reduction of Error (Mcare) Act.

(f) Cross reference.--See section 8105 (relating to ownership of certain professional partnerships and limited liability companies).

Cross References. Section 8834 is referred to in section 8872 of this title.

§ 8835. Taxation of limited liability companies.

(a) General rule.--For the purposes of the imposition by the Commonwealth of any tax or license fee on or with respect to any income, property, privilege, transaction, subject or occupation, other than the corporate net income tax, capital stock and foreign franchise tax and personal income tax, a domestic or foreign limited liability company shall be deemed to be a corporation organized and existing under Part II (relating to corporations), and a member of the company, as such, shall be deemed to be a shareholder of a corporation.

(b) Financial institutions.--For purposes of the bank shares tax and the mutual thrift institutions tax, a bank, bank and trust company, trust company, savings bank, building and loan association, savings and loan association or savings institution that is a domestic or foreign limited liability company shall be considered an "institution" as defined by Article VII or Article XV of the act of March 4, 1971 (P.L.6, No.2), known as the Tax Reform Code of 1971.

(c) Political subdivisions.--Nothing in this section shall impair or preempt the ability of a political subdivision to levy, assess or collect any applicable taxes or license fees authorized under the act of December 31, 1965 (P.L.1257, No.511), known as The Local Tax Enabling Act, on any limited liability company.

That person and the organizer may be, but need not be, different persons. If the initial member and the organizer are different persons, the organizer acts on behalf of the initial member.

(b) Multiple initial members.--If a limited liability company is initially to have more than one member, those persons become members as agreed by those persons and the organizer before the formation of the company. The organizer acts on behalf of the persons in forming the company and may be, but need not be, one of the persons.

(c) Powers and authority of organizer.--Until a limited liability company has its first member, the organizer is deemed to be a manager of the company.

(d) Admission after formation.--After formation of a limited liability company, a person becomes a member:

- (1) by action of the organizer if the company does not have any members;
- (2) as provided in the operating agreement;

(a) Obligation not excused.--A person's obligation to make a contribution to a limited liability company is not excused by the person's death, disability, termination or other inability to perform personally.

(b) Substitute payment.--If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person is obligated at the option of the limited liability company to contribute money equal to the value, as stated in the records of the company, of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

(c) Compromise of obligation.--The obligation of a person to make a contribution may be compromised only by the affirmative vote or consent of all the members. If a creditor of a limited liability company extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described under subsection (a) without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

§ 8844. Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.

(a) General rule.--Any distribution made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding up shall be in equal shares among members and persons dissociated as members, except as provided in section 8852(b) (relating to transfer of transferable interest) or to the extent necessary to comply with a charging order in effect under section 8853 (relating to charging order).

(b) No entitlement to distribution.--Except as provided under subsection (e), a person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company only if the company decides to make an interim distribution.

(c) Distribution in kind.--A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than money. Except as provided in section 8877(d) (relating to disposition of assets in winding up), a limited liability company may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

(d) Status as creditor.--If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution, except that the company's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the company by the member or transferee on whose account the distribution is made.

(e) Distribution upon event of dissociation.--Upon the effectiveness of a transaction under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions) or an amendment of the certificate of organization or operating agreement that results in either case in an event of dissociation but does not result in the dissolution of the limited liability company, the dissociating member may elect in record form to receive in lieu of the property that the person would be entitled to receive pursuant to the terms of the transaction or amendment:

(1) any distribution to which the member is entitled under the operating agreement on the terms provided in the operating agreement; and

(2) within a reasonable time after dissociation, the fair value of the interest of the member in the company as of the date of dissociation based upon the right of the member to share in distributions from the company.

Cross References. Section 8844 is referred to in sections 8817, 8863 of this title.

§ 8845. Limitations on distributions.

(a) General rule.--A limited liability company may not make a distribution, including a distribution under section 8877 (relating to disposition of assets in winding up), if after the distribution:

(1) the company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the company's activities and affairs; or

(2) the company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution and winding up of members and transferees whose preferential rights are superior to the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

(b) Valuation.--A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (a) (2) on:

(1) the book values of the assets and liabilities of the company, as reflected on its books and records;

(2) a valuation that takes into consideration unrealized appreciation and depreciation or other changes in value of the assets and liabilities of the company;

(3) the current value of the assets and liabilities of the company, either valued separately or valued in segments or as an entirety as a going concern; or

(4) any other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(c) Excluded liabilities.--In determining whether a distribution is prohibited under subsection (a) (2), the company need not consider obligations and liabilities unless they are required to be reflected on a balance sheet, not including the notes to the balance sheet, prepared on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles, or such other accounting practices and principles as are used generally by the company in the maintenance of its books and records and as are reasonable in the circumstances.

(d) Measuring date of distribution.--Except as provided in subsection (e), the effect of a distribution under subsection (a) is measured:

(1) as of the date specified by the company when it authorizes the distribution if the distribution occurs within 125 days of the earlier of the date so specified or the date of authorization; or

(2) as of the date of distribution in all other cases.

(e) Date of redemption.--In the case of a distribution described under paragraph (1) of the definition of "distribution" in section 8812 (relating to definitions), the distribution is deemed to occur as of the earlier of the date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the company or the date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or right being acquired by the company in return for the distribution.

(f) Status of distribution debt.--The indebtedness of a limited liability company to a member or transferee incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section shall be at least on a parity with the company's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(g) Certain subordinated debt.--The indebtedness of a limited liability company, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of subsection (a) if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

(h) Distributions in winding up.--In measuring the effect of a distribution under section 8877, the liabilities of a dissolved limited liability company do not include any claim that has been barred under section 8874 (relating to known claims against dissolved limited liability company) or 8875 (relating to other claims against dissolved limited liability company), or for which security has been provided under section 8876 (relating to court proceedings).

(i) Cross references.--See:

Section 8815(d)(1)(ii) (relating to contents of operating agreement).

Section 8849.1 (relating to standards of conduct for members).

Section 8849.2 (relating to standards of conduct for managers).

Cross References. Section 8845 is referred to in sections 8815, 8846, 8848 of this title.

§ 8846. Liability for improper distributions.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided in subsection (b), if a member of a member-managed limited liability company or manager of a manager-managed limited liability company consents to a distribution made in violation of section 8845 (relating to limitations on distributions) and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with section 8849.1 (relating to standards of conduct for members) or 8849.2 (relating to standards of conduct for managers), the member or manager is personally liable to the company for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of section 8845.

(b) Members without authority.--To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company relieves a member of the authority and responsibility to consent to distributions and imposes that authority and responsibility on one or more other members, the liability stated in subsection (a) applies to the other members and not the member that the operating agreement relieves of authority and responsibility.

(c) Recipients.--A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violated section 8845 is personally liable to the limited liability company but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under section 8845.

(d) Contribution.--A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable under subsection (a) may:

- (1) join any other person that is liable under subsection (a) or otherwise seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person; and
- (2) join any person that is liable under subsection (c) or otherwise seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person is liable for under subsection (c).

(e) Statute of repose.--An action under this section is barred unless commenced within two years after the distribution.
§ 8847. Management of limited liability company.

(a) Determination of management of company.--A limited liability company is a member-managed limited liability company unless the operating agreement:

- (1) expressly provides that:
  - (i) the company is or will be manager managed;
  - (ii) the company is or will be managed by managers;or
  - (iii) management of the company is or will be vested in managers; or
- (2) includes words of similar import.

(b) Member-managed company.--In a member-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:

- (1) Except as expressly provided in this title, the management and conduct of the company are vested in the members.
- (2) Each member has equal rights in the management and conduct of the company's activities and affairs.
- (3) A difference arising among members as to a matter in the ordinary course of the activities and affairs of the company may be decided by a majority of the members.
- (4) Except as provided under section 325 (relating to approval by limited liability company) with respect to a transaction under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions), an act outside the ordinary course of the activities and affairs of the company may be undertaken only with the affirmative vote or consent of all members.
- (5) Except as provided under section 8822(d) (relating to amendment or restatement of certificate of organization), the certificate of organization may be amended only with the affirmative vote or consent of all members.
- (6) The operating agreement may be amended only with the affirmative vote or consent of all members.

(c) Manager-managed company.--In a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:

- (1) Except as expressly provided in this title, any matter relating to the activities and affairs of the company is decided exclusively by the manager, or, if there is more than one manager, by a majority of the managers.
- (2) Each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of the company's activities and affairs.
- (3) The affirmative vote or consent of all members is required:
  - (i) except as provided under section 325 with respect to a transaction under Chapter 3, to undertake any act outside the ordinary course of the company's activities and affairs;

(ii) except as provided under section 8822(d), to amend the certificate of organization; or

(iii) to amend the operating agreement.

(4) A manager may be chosen at any time by the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the members and remains a manager until a successor has been chosen, unless the manager at an earlier time resigns, is removed or dies, or, in the case of a manager that is not an individual, terminates. A manager may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the members without notice or cause.

(5) A person need not be a member to be a manager, except that the dissociation of a member that is also a manager removes the person as a manager. If a person that is both a manager and a member ceases to be a manager, that cessation does not by itself dissociate the person as a member.

(6) A person's ceasing to be a manager does not discharge any debt, obligation or other liability to the limited liability company or members which the person incurred while a manager.

(d) Action by consent or proxy.--An action requiring the vote or consent of members under this title may be taken without a meeting, and a member may appoint a proxy or other agent to vote, consent or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointing document in record form, personally or by the member's agent.

(e) Effect of dissolution.--The dissolution of a limited liability company does not affect the applicability of this section, except that a person that wrongfully causes dissolution of the company loses the right to participate in management as a member and a manager.

(f) Reimbursement of advances.--A limited liability company shall reimburse a member for an advance to the company beyond the amount of capital the member agreed to contribute.

(g) Interest on advance.--A payment or advance made by a member which gives rise to an obligation of the limited liability company under subsection (f) or section 8848(a) (relating to reimbursement, indemnification, advancement and insurance) constitutes a loan to the company which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(h) No remuneration for services.--A member is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for a member-managed limited liability company, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the activities of the company.

(i) Increased vote requirements.--Whenever the certificate of organization or operating agreement requires for the taking of any action by the members or a class of members a specific number or percentage of votes or consents, the provision of the certificate or agreement setting forth that requirement shall not be amended or repealed by any lesser number or percentage of votes or consents of the members or the class of members. This subsection does not apply to a provision setting forth the right of members to act by unanimous consent in lieu of a meeting.

(j) Exception.--None of the following shall be considered an amendment of the certificate of organization for purposes of the voting rules in subsections (b)(6) and (c)(3)(iii):

(1) a restatement of all the operative provisions of the certificate of organization without change;

(2) a change in the name or registered office of the limited liability company; or

(3) any combination of the foregoing purposes.

(k) Approval of minor amendments.--Unless otherwise provided in record form in the operating agreement, an amendment described in subsection (j) may be made by the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the managers or, in the case of a member-managed limited liability company, of a majority of the members.

Cross References. Section 8847 is referred to in sections 8812, 8817, 8848, 8872 of this title.

§ 8848. Reimbursement, indemnification, advancement and insurance.

(a) Reimbursement.--A limited liability company shall reimburse a member of a member-managed company or manager of a manager-managed company for any payment made by the member or in the course of the member's or manager's activities on behalf of the company, if the member or manager complied with the applicable provisions of sections 8847 (relating to management of limited liability company), 8849.1 (relating to standards of conduct for members) and 8849.2 (relating to standards of conduct for managers) in making the payment.

(b) Indemnification.--A limited liability company shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation or other liability incurred by the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a member or manager, if the claim, demand, debt, obligation or other liability does not arise from the person's breach of section 8845 (relating to limitations on distributions), 8847, 8849.1 or 8849.2.

(c) Advancement.--In the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, a limited liability company may advance expenses, including attorney fees and costs, incurred by a person in connection with a claim or demand against the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a member or manager, if the person promises to repay the company if the person ultimately is determined not to be entitled to be indemnified.

(d) Insurance.--A limited liability company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a member or manager of the company against liability asserted against or incurred by the member or manager in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under subsection (g), the operating agreement could not provide indemnification against the liability or eliminate or limit the person's liability to the company for the conduct giving rise to the liability.

(e) Nonexclusivity.--The rights provided by subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking reimbursement, indemnification, advancement of expenses or insurance may be entitled under the operating agreement, vote of members or disinterested managers, contract or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding that position. Sections 8849.1(f) and 8849.2(e) shall be applicable to a vote, contract or other action under this subsection. A limited liability company may create a fund of any nature, which may, but need not be, under the control of a trustee, or otherwise secure or insure in any manner its indemnification obligations, whether arising under this section or otherwise.

(f) Grounds.--Indemnification under subsection (e) may be granted for any action taken and may be made whether or not the limited liability company would have the power to indemnify the person under any other provision of law except as provided in this section and whether or not the indemnified liability arises or arose from any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the company. Indemnification under subsection (e) is declared to be consistent with the public policy of the Commonwealth.

(g) Limitation.--Indemnification under this section shall not be made in any case where the act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to constitute recklessness, willful misconduct or a knowing violation of law.

Cross References. Section 8848 is referred to in sections 8815, 8847, 8883, 8884 of this title.

§ 8849. (Reserved).

(e) Self-serving conduct.--A member does not violate a duty or obligation under this title or under the operating agreement solely because the member's conduct furthers the member's own interest.

(f) Authorization or ratification.--All the members of a member-managed limited liability company may authorize or ratify, after disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty of a member.

(g) Fairness as a defense.--It is a defense to a claim under subsection (b)(2) and any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the limited liability company at the time it is authorized or ratified under subsection (f).

(h) Rights and obligations in approved transaction.--If a member enters into a transaction with the limited liability company which otherwise would be prohibited under subsection (b)(2), and the transaction is authorized or ratified as provided under subsection (f) or the operating agreement, the member's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a member.

(1) to account to the company and to hold as trustee for it any property, profit or benefit derived by the manager:

(i) in the conduct or winding up of the company's activities and affairs;

(ii) from a use by the manager of the company's property; or

(iii) from the appropriation of a company opportunity;

(2) to refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or winding up of the company's activities and affairs as or on behalf of a person having an interest adverse to the company; and

(d) Good faith and fair dealing.--A manager of a manager-managed limited liability company shall discharge the duties and obligations under this title or under the operating agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(e) Ratification of breach of duty of loyalty.--All the members, or a majority of disinterested managers, of a manager-managed limited liability company may authorize or ratify, after disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction by a manager that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty.

(g) Manager's rights in approved transaction.--If a manager enters into a transaction with the limited liability company which otherwise would be prohibited by subsection (b)(2), and the transaction is approved or ratified as provided by subsection (e) or the operating agreement, the manager's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a manager.

(h) Exoneration.--The operating agreement may provide that a manager in a manager-managed limited liability company shall not be personally liable for monetary damages to the company or the members for a breach of subsection (c), except that a manager may not be exonerated for an act that constitutes recklessness, willful misconduct or a knowing violation of law.

§ 8850. Rights to information.

(a) In member-managed company.--In a member-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:

(1) On reasonable notice, a member may inspect and copy during regular business hours, at a reasonable location specified by the company, any record maintained by the company regarding the company's activities, affairs, financial condition and other circumstances.

(2) The company shall furnish to each member, without demand, any information concerning the company's activities, affairs, financial condition and other circumstances which the company knows and is material to the proper exercise of the member's rights and duties under the operating agreement or this title, except to the extent the company can establish that it reasonably believes the member already knows the information.

(3) The duty to furnish information under paragraph (2) also applies to each member to the extent the member knows any of the information described in paragraph (2).

(1) The informational rights stated in subsection (a) and the duty stated in subsection (a)(3) apply to the managers and not the members.

(2) During regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the company, a member may inspect and copy full information regarding the activities, affairs, financial condition and other circumstances of the company as is just and reasonable if:

(i) the member seeks the information for a purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a member;

(ii) the member makes a demand in record form received by the company describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and the purpose for seeking the information; and

(iii) the information sought is directly connected to the member's purpose.

(3) Within 10 days after receiving a demand under paragraph (2)(ii), the company shall, in record form, inform the member that made the demand of:

(i) the information that the company will provide in response to the demand and when and where the company will provide the information; and

(ii) the company's reasons for declining, if the company declines to provide any demanded information.

(c) Rights of person dissociated as member.--Subject to subsection (h), within 10 days after receipt by a limited liability company of a demand made in record form, a person dissociated as a member may have access to information to which the person was entitled while a member if:

(1) the information pertains to the period during which the person was a member;

(2) the person seeks the information in good faith; and

(3) the person satisfies the requirements imposed on a member under subsection (b)(2).

(d) Response of company.--A limited liability company shall respond to a demand made under subsection (c) in the manner provided in subsection (b)(3).

(e) Copying costs.--A limited liability company may charge a person that makes a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying.

(f) Rights of agent or guardian.--A member or person dissociated as a member may exercise rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a guardian. Any restriction or condition imposed by the operating agreement or under subsection (h) applies both to the agent or guardian and the member or person dissociated as a member.

(g) No rights of transferee.--Subject to section 8854 (relating to power of personal representative of deceased member), the rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.

(h) Limitations on access.--In addition to any restriction or condition stated in the operating agreement, a limited liability company, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the company has the burden of proving reasonableness.

(i) Enforcement of right to information.--If a limited liability company, or a manager, member or agent thereof, refuses to permit an inspection sought by a person or attorney or other agent acting for the person pursuant to this section, or does not reply to the demand made under this section within 10 days after the demand has been received, the person seeking inspection may file an action in the court for an order to compel the inspection. The court is vested with exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether or not the person seeking inspection is entitled to the inspection sought. The court may summarily order the company to permit the person to inspect the information and to make copies or extracts therefrom.

SUBCHAPTER E

Sec.

8851. Nature of transferable interest.

8852. Transfer of transferable interest.

8853. Charging order.

8854. Power of personal representative of deceased member.

§ 8851. Nature of transferable interest.

(a) Personal property.--A transferable interest is personal property.

(b) Only right that may be transferred.--A person may not transfer to a person not a member any rights in a limited liability company other than a transferable interest.

§ 8852. Transfer of transferable interest.

(a) General rule.--Subject to section 8853(f) (relating to charging order), a transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:

(1) is permissible;

(2) does not by itself cause the dissociation of the transferor as a member or a dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company's activities and affairs; and

(3) subject to section 8854 (relating to power of personal representative of deceased member), does not entitle the transferee to:

(i) participate in the management or conduct of the company's activities and affairs; or

(ii) except as provided in subsection (c), have access to records or other information concerning the company's activities and affairs.

(b) Right to distributions.--A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.

(c) Right to account on dissolution.--In a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company, a transferee is entitled to an account of the company's transactions only from the date of dissolution.

(d) Certificate of interest.--A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by the limited liability company in record form and, subject to this section, the interest represented by the certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.

(e) Recognition of transferee's rights.--A limited liability company need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until the company knows or has notice of the transfer.

(f) Transfer restrictions.--A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the operating agreement is ineffective if the intended transferee has knowledge or notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

(g) Rights retained by transferor.--Except as provided in section 8861(5)(ii) (relating to events causing dissociation), if a member transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a member other than the transferable interest transferred and retains all the duties and obligations of a member.

Cross References. Section 8852 is referred to in sections 8844, 8853, 8854 of this title.

§ 8853. Charging order.

(a) General rule.--On application by a judgment creditor of a member or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. Except as provided in subsection (f), a charging order constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor's transferable interest and requires the limited liability company to pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that otherwise would be paid to the judgment debtor.

(b) Available relief.--To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a charging order in effect under subsection (a), the court may:

(1) appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made; and

(2) make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

(c) Foreclosure.--Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the transferable interest. Except as provided in subsection (f), the purchaser at the foreclosure sale only obtains the transferable interest, does not thereby become a member, and is subject to section 8852 (relating to transfer of transferable interest).

(d) Satisfaction of judgment.--At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c), the member or transferee whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection (a) may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

(e) Purchase of rights.--At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c), a limited liability company or one or more members whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

(f) Foreclosure against sole member.--If a court orders foreclosure of a charging order lien against the sole member of a limited liability company:

(1) the court shall confirm the sale;

(2) the purchaser at the sale obtains the member's entire interest, not only the member's transferable interest;

(3) the purchaser thereby becomes a member; and

(4) the person whose interest was subject to the foreclosed charging order is dissociated as a member.

(g) Exemption laws preserved.--This chapter shall not deprive any member or transferee of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to the transferable interest of the member or transferee.

(h) Exclusive remedy.--This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a person seeking to enforce a judgment against a member or transferee may, in the capacity of judgment creditor, satisfy the judgment from the judgment debtor's transferable interest.

generally.--Except as provided in section 8997 (relating to taxation of restricted professional companies), the existence of a provision of this subchapter shall not of itself create any implication that a contrary or different rule of law is or would be applicable to a limited liability company that is not a restricted professional company. This subchapter shall not affect any statute or rule of law that is or would be applicable to a limited liability company that is not a restricted professional company.

(c) Laws applicable to restricted professional companies.--Except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, Chapter 88 (relating to limited liability companies) shall be generally applicable to all restricted professional companies. The specific provisions of this subchapter shall control over the general provisions of Chapter 88.

(d) Election of restricted professional company status.--At the time an existing limited liability company that has previously conducted a business not involving the rendering of a restricted professional service begins to render one or more restricted professional services, the company shall amend its certificate of organization to include a statement that it is a restricted professional company. For purposes of sections 8835 (relating to taxation of limited liability companies) and 8997, the company shall be deemed to have become a restricted professional company on the first day of the taxable year of the company following the taxable year in which the amendment of its certificate of organization required by this subsection is filed.

(e) Termination of restricted professional company

status.--Except as provided in this subsection, the status of a restricted professional company as such shall terminate, and the company shall cease to be subject to this subchapter, at such time as it ceases to render any restricted professional services. Upon ceasing to render any restricted professional services, the company shall amend its certificate of organization to delete the statement required by subsection (d). For purposes of sections 8835 and 8997, the company shall be deemed to have ceased being a restricted professional company on the first day of the taxable year of the company following the taxable year in which it ceased to render any restricted professional services.

(f) Indication of status.--The certificate of organization of a domestic restricted professional company or the foreign registration statement of a foreign restricted professional company shall contain a statement that the entity is a restricted professional company and include a brief description of the restricted professional service or services to be rendered by the company.

(g) Definition.--For purposes of this subchapter, the following term has the meaning indicated:

"Restricted professional company." A domestic or foreign limited liability company that renders one or more restricted professional services in this Commonwealth.

2016 Amendment. Act 170 amended subsecs. (c), (d) and (e).

§ 8996. Restrictions.

(a) Purposes of restricted professional companies.--A restricted professional company shall not engage in any business other than conducting the practice of the restricted professional service or services for which it was specifically organized, except that a restricted professional company may:

(1) Own real and personal property necessary for or appropriate or desirable in the fulfillment or rendering of its specific restricted professional service or services and it may invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds or any other type of investment.

(2) Be a partner, shareholder, member or other owner of a partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other association engaged in the business of rendering the restricted professional service or services for which the restricted professional company was organized.

(b) Ownership and governance of restricted professional companies.--Except as otherwise provided by a statute, rule or regulation applicable to a particular profession, all of the ultimate beneficial owners of membership interests in and all of the managers, if any, of a restricted professional company shall be licensed persons.

(c) Rendering restricted professional services.--

(1) A restricted professional company may lawfully render restricted professional services only through licensed persons. The company may employ persons not so licensed but those persons shall not render any restricted professional services rendered or to be rendered by it.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be interpreted to preclude the use of clerks, secretaries, nurses, administrators, bookkeepers, technicians and other assistants or paraprofessionals who are not usually and ordinarily considered by law, custom and practice to be rendering the restricted professional service or services for which the restricted professional company was organized nor to preclude the use of any other person who performs all his employment under the direct supervision and control of a licensed person. A person shall not under the guise of employment render restricted professional services unless duly licensed or admitted to practice as required by law.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a restricted professional company may charge for the restricted professional services rendered by it, may collect those charges and may compensate those who render the restricted professional services.

(d) Application.--For purposes of applying subsection (a):

(1) The practice of the restricted professional service of public accounting shall be deemed to include:

(i) the provision of one or more kinds of services involving the use of accounting or auditing skills, including, without limitation, the issuance of reports on financial statements;

(v) A kidney treatment center or a hemodialysis center.

Cross References. Section 8996 is referred to in sections 8911, 8941, 8997, 8998 of this title.

(a) General rule.--Except as provided in subsection (b), for the purposes of the imposition by the Commonwealth or any political subdivision of any tax or license fee on or with respect to any income, property, privilege, transaction, subject or occupation other than the corporate net income tax, capital stock and foreign franchise tax and personal income tax, a domestic or registered foreign restricted professional company shall be deemed to be a limited partnership organized and existing under Chapter 86 (relating to limited partnerships), and a member of such a company, as such, shall be deemed a limited partner of a limited partnership.

(b) Exception.--A domestic or qualified foreign restricted professional company shall be subject to section 8835(a) (relating to taxation of limited liability companies), instead of subsection (a), for the whole of any taxable year of the company during any part of which the company has:

(1) engaged in any business not permitted by section 8996(a) (relating to purposes of restricted professional companies);

(2) (Repealed);

(3) been a member of a limited liability company.
(July 6, 2006, P.L.319, No.67, eff. imd.; Nov. 21, 2016, P.L.1328, No.170, eff. 90 days)

1997 Partial Repeal. Section 35.1(b) of Act 7 of 1997 provided that section 8997 is repealed insofar as it is inconsistent with Act 7.

Cross References. Section 8997 is referred to in sections 8925, 8995 of this title.

§ 8998. Annual registration.

(a) General rule.--Every domestic restricted professional company in existence on December 31 of any year and every qualified foreign restricted professional company that is registered to do business in this Commonwealth on December 31 of any year shall file in the Department of State with respect to that year, and on or before April 15 of the following year, a certificate of annual registration on a form provided by the department, executed by the company and accompanied by the annual registration fee prescribed by subsection (b). The department shall not charge a fee other than the annual registration fee for filing the certificate of annual registration. The certificate of annual registration shall include a statement by the company as to whether or not it engaged in any business not permitted by section 8996(a) (relating to purposes of restricted professional companies) during the year with respect to which the certificate is being filed.

(b) Annual registration fee.--

(1) The annual registration fee to be paid when filing a certificate of annual registration shall be equal to a base fee of $300 times the number of persons who:

(i) were members of the company on December 31 of the year with respect to which the certificate of annual registration is being filed;

(ii) were licensed persons; and

(iii) had their principal residence at the time in this Commonwealth.

(2) The base fee of $300 shall be increased on December 31, 1997, and December 31 of every third year thereafter by the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for Urban Workers during the most recent three calendar years for which that index is available on the date of adjustment. Each adjustment under this paragraph shall be rounded up to the nearest $10.

(c) Notice of annual registration.--Not later than February 1 of each year, the department shall give notice to every restricted professional company required to file a certificate of annual registration with respect to the preceding year of the requirement to file the certificate. The notice shall state the amount of the base fee payable under subsection (b)(1), as adjusted pursuant to subsection (b)(2), if applicable, and shall be accompanied by the form of certificate to be filed. Failure by the department to give notice to any party or failure by any party to receive notice of the annual registration requirement shall not relieve the party of the obligation to file the certificate.

(d) Credit to Corporation Bureau Restricted Account.--The annual registration fee shall not be deemed to be an amount received by the department under Subchapter C of Chapter 1 (relating to Corporation Bureau and UCC fees) for purposes of section 155 (relating to disposition of funds), except that $25 of the fee shall be credited to the Corporation Bureau Restricted Account.

(e) Functions of Department of State.--The department shall send to the Department of Revenue a copy of any certificate that discloses the conduct of any business not permitted by section 8996(a).

(f) Annual fee to be lien.--

(1) Failure to file the certificate of annual registration required by this section shall not affect the existence or status of the restricted professional company as such, but the annual registration fee that would have been payable shall be a lien in the manner provided in this subsection from the time the annual registration fee is due and payable. If a certificate of annual registration is not filed within 30 days after the date on which it is due, the department shall assess a penalty of $500 against the company, which shall also be a lien in the manner provided in this subsection. The imposition of that penalty shall not be construed to relieve the company from liability for any other penalty or interest provided for under other applicable law.

(2) If the annual registration fee paid by a restricted professional company is subsequently determined to be less than should have been paid because it was based on an incorrect number of members or was otherwise incorrectly computed, that fact shall not affect the existence or status of the restricted professional company as such, but the amount of the additional annual registration fee that should have been paid shall be a lien in the manner provided in this subsection from the time the incorrect payment is discovered by the department.

(3) The annual registration fee shall bear simple interest from the date that it becomes due and payable until paid. The interest rate shall be that provided for in section 806 of the act of April 9, 1929 (P.L.343, No.176), known as The Fiscal Code, with respect to unpaid taxes. The penalty provided for in paragraph (1) shall not bear interest. The payment of interest shall not relieve the restricted professional company from liability for any other penalty or interest provided for under other applicable law.

(4) The lien created by this subsection shall attach to all of the property and proceeds thereof of the restricted professional company in which a security interest can be perfected, in whole or in part, by filing in the department under 13 Pa.C.S. Div. 9 (relating to secured transactions; sales of accounts, contract rights and chattel paper), whether the property and proceeds are owned by the company at the time the annual registration fee or any penalty or interest becomes due and payable or whether the property and proceeds are acquired thereafter. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the lien created by this subsection shall have priority over all other liens, security interests or other charges, except liens for taxes or other charges due the Commonwealth. The lien created by this subsection shall be entered on the records of the department and indexed in the same manner as a financing statement filed under 13 Pa.C.S. Div. 9. At the time an annual registration fee, penalty or interest that has resulted in the creation of a lien under this subsection is paid, the department shall terminate the lien with respect to that annual registration fee, penalty or interest without requiring a separate filing by the company for that purpose.

(5) If the annual registration fee paid by a restricted professional company is subsequently determined to be more than should have been paid for any reason, no refund of the additional fee shall be made.

§ 9111. Short title and application of chapter.

(a) Short title.--This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Pennsylvania Uniform Unincorporated Nonprofit Association Law.

(b) Transitional provisions concerning property.--

(1) If, before September 9, 2013, an interest in property was by the terms of a transfer purportedly transferred to a nonprofit association but under the law of this Commonwealth the interest did not vest in the nonprofit association, or in one or more persons on behalf of the nonprofit association under paragraph (2), on September 9, 2013, the interest vests in the nonprofit association, unless the parties to the transfer have treated the transfer as ineffective.

(2) If, before September 9, 2013, an interest in property was by the terms of a transfer purportedly transferred to a nonprofit association but the interest was vested in one or more persons to hold the interest for the nonprofit association, its members or both, on or after September 9, 2013, the persons or their successors in interest may transfer the interest to the nonprofit association in its name, or the nonprofit association may require that the interest be transferred to it in its name.

(c) Savings provisions.--

(1) This chapter supplements the law of this Commonwealth that applies to nonprofit associations operating in this Commonwealth, but, if a conflict exists between this chapter and another statute, the other statute applies.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to repeal or supersede any provision in section 7 of the act of April 26, 1855 (P.L.328, No.347), entitled "An act relating to Corporations and to Estates held for Corporate, Religious and Charitable uses."

- (4) a right or interest in property.

(b) Internal affairs.--Unless the governing principles specify a different jurisdiction, the law of the jurisdiction in which a nonprofit association has its main place of activities governs the internal affairs of the nonprofit association.

(d) Profits.--A nonprofit association may engage in profit-making activities, but profits from any activities must be used or set aside for the nonprofit purposes of the nonprofit association.

(b) Testamentary and fiduciary dispositions.--A nonprofit association may be a beneficiary of a trust or contract, a legatee or a devisee.

(c) Authority to take and hold trust property.--Every nonprofit association organized for a charitable purpose or purposes may take, receive and hold real and personal property as may be given, devised to or otherwise vested in the nonprofit association, in trust, for the purpose or purposes set forth in its governing principles. The managers of the nonprofit association shall, as trustees of the property, be held to the same degree of responsibility and accountability as other trustees, unless a lesser degree or a particular degree of responsibility and accountability is prescribed in the trust instrument, or unless the managers remain under the control of the members of the nonprofit association or third persons who retain the right to direct, and do direct, the actions of the managers as to the use of the trust property from time to time.

(d) Nondiversion of certain property.--Property of a nonprofit association committed to charitable purposes shall not, by any proceeding under Chapter 3 (relating to entity transactions) or otherwise, be diverted from the objects to which it was donated, granted or devised, unless and until the nonprofit association obtains from the court an order under 20 Pa.C.S. Ch. 77 (relating to trusts) specifying the disposition of the property.

(July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days; Nov. 21, 2016, P.L.1328, No.170, eff. 90 days)

(a) General rule.--An interest in real property held in the name of a nonprofit association may be transferred by a person authorized to do so in a statement of authority recorded by the nonprofit association in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which a transfer of the property would be recorded.

(b) Contents of statement.--The statement of authority must set forth:

- (1) the name of the nonprofit association;
  - (2) the address in this Commonwealth, including the street and number, if any, of the nonprofit association or, if the nonprofit association does not have an address in this Commonwealth, its address outside of this Commonwealth;

(d) Recording fee.--The recorder of deeds may collect a fee for recording a statement of authority in the amount authorized for recording a transfer of real property, but the mere recording of a statement of authority does not constitute a transfer of an interest in the real property for the purpose of the taxation of real property transfers.

(e) Changes.--A document amending, revoking or canceling a statement of authority or stating that the statement is unauthorized or erroneous must meet the requirements for executing and recording an original statement.

(f) Cancellation by operation of law.--Unless canceled earlier, a recorded statement of authority and its most recent amendment expire five years after the date of the most recent recording.

(g) Effect of filing.--If the record title to real property is in the name of a nonprofit association and a statement of authority is recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds for the county in which a transfer of the property would be recorded, the authority of the person named in the statement to transfer is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value without notice that the person lacks authority.

(July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

2013 Amendment. Act 67 added section 9116.

§ 9117. Liability.

(a) Scope.--

(1) A debt, obligation or other liability of a nonprofit association, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, is solely the debt, obligation or other liability of the nonprofit association.

(2) A member or manager is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation or other liability of the nonprofit association solely by reason of being or acting as a member or manager.

(3) This subsection applies regardless of the dissolution of the nonprofit association.

(b) Liability for conduct.--A person's status as a member or manager does not prevent or restrict law other than this chapter from imposing liability on the person or the nonprofit association because of the person's conduct.

(c) Agents.--A person that makes a contract or incurs an obligation on behalf of a nonprofit association after September 9, 2013, is not liable for performance or breach of the contract or other obligation if the fact that the person was acting for the nonprofit association was disclosed to, was known by or reasonably should have been known by the other party to the contract or to the party owed performance.

(d) Observation of formalities.--The failure of a nonprofit association to observe formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or the management of its activities and affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on a member or manager of the nonprofit association for a debt, obligation or other liability of the nonprofit association.

(July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

2013 Amendment. Act 67 added section 9117.

§ 9118. Assertion and defense of claims.

(a) General rule.--A nonprofit association may sue or be sued in its own name.

(b) Permissible claims.--A member or manager may assert a claim the member or manager has against the nonprofit association. A nonprofit association may assert a claim it has against a member or manager.

(c) Representational status.--A nonprofit association may assert a claim in its name on behalf of its members if one or more members of the nonprofit association have standing to assert a claim in their own right, the interests the nonprofit association seeks to protect are germane to its purposes and neither the claim asserted nor the relief requested requires the participation of a member.

(July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

2013 Amendment. Act 67 added section 9118.

§ 9119. Effect of judgment or order.

A judgment or order against a nonprofit association is not by itself a judgment or order against a member or manager.

(July 9, 2013, P.L.476, No.67, eff. 60 days)

2013 Amendment. Act 67 added section 9119.

§ 9120. Appointment of agent to receive service of process.

(a) Statement.--A nonprofit association may deliver to the department for filing a statement appointing an agent to receive service of process.

(b) Contents.--A statement appointing an agent to receive service of process must state:

- (1) the name of the nonprofit association;
- (2) the address, if any, in this Commonwealth; and
- (3) the name of the person in this Commonwealth authorized to receive service of process and the person's address, including street and number, in this Commonwealth.

(c) Signature and effect.--

(1) A statement appointing an agent to receive service of process must be signed by:

- (i) a person authorized to manage the affairs of the nonprofit association; and
- (ii) the person appointed as the agent.

(2) The signing of the statement is an affirmation:

(i) by the person authorized to manage the affairs of the nonprofit association that the person has that authority; and

(ii) by the person appointed as agent that the person consents to act as agent.

(d) Amendment or cancellation.--An amendment to or cancellation of a statement appointing an agent to receive service of process must meet the requirements for signature of an original statement. An agent may resign by delivering a resignation to the department for filing and giving notice to the nonprofit association.

(e) Rejection of statement.--A statement appointing an agent to receive service of process may not be rejected for filing because the name of the nonprofit association signing the statement is not distinguishable on the records of the department from the name of another association appearing in those records. The filing of such a statement does not make the name of the nonprofit association signing the statement unavailable for use by another association.

(f) Effectiveness.--A statement appointing an agent to receive service of process:

(1) takes effect on filing by the department; and

(2) is effective for five years after the date of filing unless canceled or terminated earlier.

(g) Duty of agent.--The only duty under this chapter of an agent to receive service of process is to forward to the nonprofit association at the address most recently supplied to the agent by the nonprofit association any process, notice or demand pertaining to the nonprofit association which is served or received by the agent.

(c) Effect on taxation.--This chapter is enacted to codify and clarify certain common law principles applicable to business trusts and is not intended to affect the liability of any business trust to any tax. A trust that is subject to this chapter shall not be deemed to be organized or created by or under this or any other statute or to have the benefit of any state franchise for the purpose of existing law relating to taxation.

(d) Multistate application.--It is the intent of the General Assembly in enacting this chapter that the legal existence of business trusts organized in this Commonwealth be recognized outside the boundaries of this Commonwealth and that, subject to any reasonable requirement of registration, a domestic business trust transacting business outside this Commonwealth be granted protection of full faith and credit under the Constitution of the United States.

(c) Amendment.--The instrument may be amended in the manner and to the extent provided therein or by the trustee or a majority of the trustees, if not otherwise provided therein. The amendment shall be evidenced by a written instrument subscribed by one or more authorized persons on behalf of the business trust. § 9505. Trustees.

(a) Succession of trustees.--An instrument may provide for the succession of title to any trust property not titled in the name of the trust to a successor trustee, in case of the death, resignation, removal or incapacity of any trustee. In the case of any such succession, the title to such trust property shall at once vest in the succeeding trustee.

(b) Nature of service.--Service as the trustee of a business trust by an association that is not a banking institution shall not be deemed to constitute acting as a fiduciary for purposes of the act of November 30, 1965 (P.L.847, No.356), known as the Banking Code of 1965.

(Dec. 19, 1990, P.L.834, No.198, eff. imd.; June 22, 2001, P.L.418, No.34, eff. 60 days)

§ 9506. Liability of trustees and beneficiaries.

(a) General rule.--

(1) Except as otherwise provided in the instrument, the beneficiaries of a business trust shall be entitled to the same limitation of personal liability as is extended to shareholders in a domestic business corporation.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in the instrument, the trustees of a trust, as such, shall not be personally liable to any person for any act or obligation of the trust or any other trustee.

(c) Certain specifically authorized debt terms.--A business trust shall be subject to section 1510 (relating to certain specifically authorized debt terms) to the same extent as if it were a business corporation.

(d) Professional relationship unaffected.--Subsection (a) shall not afford trustees or beneficiaries of a business trust providing professional services with greater immunity than is available to the officers, shareholders, employees or agents of a professional corporation. See section 2925 (relating to professional relationship retained).

(e) Disciplinary jurisdiction unaffected.--A business trust providing professional services shall be subject to the applicable rules and regulations adopted by, and all the disciplinary powers of, the court, department, board, commission or other government unit regulating the profession in which the business trust is engaged. The court, department, board or other government unit may require that a business trust include in its instrument provisions that conform to any rule or regulation heretofore or hereafter promulgated for the purpose of enforcing the ethics of a profession. This chapter shall not affect or impair the disciplinary powers of the court, department, board, commission or other government unit over licensed persons or any law, rule or regulation pertaining to the standards for professional conduct of licensed persons or to the professional relationship between any licensed person rendering professional services and the person receiving professional services.

(f) Permissible beneficiaries.--Except as otherwise provided by a statute, rule or regulation applicable to a particular profession, all of the ultimate beneficial owners of interests in a business trust that renders one or more restricted professional services shall be licensed persons in the profession the trust practices if the trust renders any of the following professional services: chiropractic, dentistry, law, medicine and surgery, optometry, osteopathic medicine and surgery, podiatric medicine, public accounting, psychology or veterinary medicine.

(g) Conflict of laws.--The personal liability of a trustee or beneficiary of a business trust to any person or in any action or proceeding for the debts, obligations or liabilities of the trust or for the acts or omissions of other trustees, beneficiaries, employees or agents of the trust shall be governed solely and exclusively by this chapter and the laws of this Commonwealth. Whenever a conflict arises between the laws of this Commonwealth and the laws of any other state with respect to the liability of trustees or beneficiaries of a trust organized and existing under this chapter for the debts, obligations and liabilities of the trust or for the acts or omissions of the other trustees, beneficiaries, employees or agents of the trust, the laws of this Commonwealth shall govern in determining such liability.

(i) Failure to observe formalities.--The failure of a business trust to observe formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its activities and affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on a beneficiary or trustee of the trust for a debt, obligation or other liability of the trust.
